THE PLACE TO BUY. - There is a decided growing tendency on the part of North Carolina merchants to confine their purchases more and more to Baltimore, a chases more and more to Baltimore, a Southern city that is growing very rapidly. In fact Baltimore has many and very great advantages, and is destined at no distant taking possession of the city he day to do a trade that will surpass in magday to do a trade that will surpass in magday to do a trade that will surpass in magnitude that of every other city save New York. Its merchants are becoming more enterprising every way, and are offering every facility and inducement to attract and retain the best Southern trade. As an are train the best Southern trade. New York for very many articles, and in Dis. to Cin. Eng. nearly every branch of trade offers equal inducements to the buyer. One of the most notable and enterprising business establishments is that of Messra R. Walter & Co., 326, W.
