RALMON BAPTIST FEMALE SEMINARY, -We call attention to the advertisement of this school in another column.

The building, as will be seen, will be one and conveniently arranged. The appliances for instruction are unusually line. The school is provided with a select Library of 1,000 volumes, a large collection of minerals to illustrate the sciences of mineralogy and geology, and a very fine Philosophical and Chemical Apparatus for the successful teaching of Natural Philosophy and Chemistry.

The Associate Principal, Rev. A. F. Redd, is one of the finest scholars in the State. He graduated at Virginia Military Institute, taught five years with Mr. Horner, of Oxford, then spent one year at the University of Virginia, studying Mathematics and Natural Sciences, the Department he will have charge of in the Baptint School. He afterwards taught one year at Vigginia Military Institute, and Witness then arrested Parrar and brought opened—they must expect to lose trade then went to Greenville Theological him before the Mayor.

DESERVED COMPLIMENTS. -One of the editors of the Wilmington Journal (Col. Saundors,) in his last letter from Raleigh pays the following richly merited compliment to certain members which it affords us pleasure to copy :

"Time and experience have shown to that many of the new members are good men and true and able. Colonel Bennett, of Anson, and Mr. McGehee, of Person, in the House of Representatives, are both new toembers, but they have taken a very high stand, which their ability and attain ments will doubtless enable them to main-tain.
