Five shares of North Carolina Railroad stock for sale. Call on W. H. Jones.

SUPREME COURT - The Supreme Court of this State will commence its Winter term on Monday next, 9th inst.

The locomotive Paul C. Cameron, on the N. C. R. R., "sapped in twain" her connecting rods yesterday while moving toward the city.

SWORN IN - John Riley, Esq., State Auditor, appeared in our city yesterday and took the oath of office - Mayor Whitaker, acting in his capacity as Justice of the peace, administered the oath.

RALEIGH HOOK AND LADDER COMPANY, No. 1 - This company held their annual meeting this evening at 7 o'clock at Firemen's Hall. Officers are to be elected for the ensuing year and a full and prompt attendance is requested.

THE BRIDGE OVER WALNUT - Our attention has been called to the bridge over Walnut Creek on the Fayetteville road. If our county fathers would attend to it they would most likely save themselves a law suit. It is in a horrible condition.

MAYOR'S COURT, Jan. 2, 1873 - Mon- ford W. Haywood and John Freeman, were before the Mayor for disorderly conduct on Hargett Street this morning. The evidence was conclusive that Haywood was the aggressor, and in consequence, he contributed five dollars to the city fund.

ANOTHER ROBBERY - On Wednesday night last the residence of Mrs. Harward, a widow lady, living north of the in- stitution for the Deaf, Dumb and the Blind, was entered and several articles of value stolen therefrom. Almost every day we hear of some residence being robbed. Let our police be on the lookout and see if they can't arrest these robbers. Who will be the first policeman to catch one of these thieves in the act?

CLERKS - We give below the names and salaries of the Clerks appointed yesterday for the different State Depart- ments:

Treasury Department - D. W. Bain, chief Clerk, $1000; A. D. Jenkins, assistant Clerk, $700; Joseph B. Martin, assistant Clerk, $700.

Office Secretary of State - S. M. Parish, Chief Clerk, $1000.

Auditor's Department - Wm. P. Wether- ington, Chief Clerk, $900.

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE CITIZEN - It is with deep regret that we announce the death of one of the best men of Wake county - Mr. T. R. Dedman, who resided some eight miles east of this city. He breathed his last at 4 p. m. on the 1st inst. His age was 67 years, though he still seemed in the prime of life. He died of pneumonia after but a short illness. "Dick Dedman" was one of nature's noble- men. Wake county had no better farmer. He leaves a wife and numerous children to mourn his loss. But they are not alone in their grief. Good men mourn the loss of the good.

DEPEND ON YOURSELF - Most young men consider it a misfortune to be born poor, or not to have capital enough to establish themselves at their outset in life in a good and comfortable business. This is a mistaken notion. So far from poverty being a misfortune to them, if they may judge from what we daily behold, it is really a blessing; the chances are more than ten to one against him who starts with a fortune. Most rich men's sons die in poverty, while many poor men's sons come to wealth and honor. It is a blessing instead of a curse to have to work out our own fortune.

J. N. - The citizens of Raleigh will re- member this individual who goes about from place to place "lifting the veil." He was arrested in Eufaula, Ala., not long since for being intoxicated on the streets. It would be pleasing now if he were to pass this way and "lift the veil" so we could get clear of the mud in our streets, which is nearly knee deep in the principal parts of our city, and also what "pre- sents" to cut off that we may be enabled to have the streets lighted with gas.

The Daily Sentinel

RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 3, 1873. NO. 97.

WILMINGTON JOURNAL - The Wilmington Journal appeared on the 1st inst., much enlarged and in a handsome new dress. It is now decidedly the largest daily in the State. It commences its twenty-third volume under the manage- ment of Maj. J. A. Engelhard and Col. Wm. L. Saunders, who have formed a co-partnership in the business under the style of Engelhard & Saunders. Maj. Engelhard has successfully conducted the Journal since the death of James Fain in 1850. He has for some time past con- tributed able articles to its editorial col- umns. They are both accomplished gen- tlemen and capable writers. The en- largement of the Journal to its present dimensions is no ordinary undertaking, and we trust the enterprise will prove a success. We are pleased to learn that the business of the Journal establishment is in a pros- perous condition.

WALTON AFFAIR - Spring water - April showers. Oregon farmers are plowing. Nature's most gifted son - Old Sol. "Yak laces" are now imported from Thibet. Alaska yields 10,000 mink and 6,000 marten skins every year. Quebec is about to start a new morning paper. Jenks says that a pawnbroker's office must be a loan-some place. Robinson's mother teaches music in Moscow. All Dresden is said to go to bed at 10 o'clock. She must be all un-Dresden. A Scotchman, it is stated, has just written a national anthem for Japan. Duluth brags of ice fourteen feet thick, and St. Paul tells about weather which froze a feather bed as stiff as a poker. The "Duplex" system of telegraphy is being tried on the English telegraph lines, under the auspices of the postoffice. A hole in the coat pocket of Mr. Weis- seger, of Augusta, is to be sewed up, be- cause he can't find the $3,000 that dropped through the aperture. Thursday night, December 19, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Foote, of Northford, Conn., celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage, or their golden wedding. An item of news from Nice is to the effect that the olive harvest is valued at two millions of francs - the largest that has ever been known in the department. An Italian sailor undertook to run a muck at Praxie Point, Eng., lately, and after stabbing about half a dozen persons was laid low by one blow of a sabre in the hands of a coast guard officer. A Danbury icelohar was whipped his wife Saturday morning, and went home drunk Saturday night. His wife, having no coals of fire to heat upon his head, poured his ear full of pepper sauce. He appeared to be just as well satisfied. An old lawyer says that the most troublesome clients he ever had, were a young woman who wanted to be married, a married woman who wanted to be un- married, and an old maid who didn't know what she wanted.

Here we have a good example of French wit: "A doctor, like everybody else at this season, went out for a day's sport and complained of having killed nothing. That's the consequence of having neglected your business," observed his wife.

THE SENTINEL - In closing a notice of our paper the Lomberton Robesonian says: "It is now published by an association of printers, and the public will be gratified to learn that Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., of the able, fearless, and uncompromising friend of justice, truth and right, will continue to preside over the editorial department. The SENTINEL now publishes the associated press dispatches, and as a news and political paper will be more interesting and valuable than ever."

RAID ON THE COLORED GENTRY - On Friday last Sheriff McMillan arrested and lodged in jail - in this town - five colored men indicted by the grand jury at the last term of our Superior Court for an assault upon two white men in this town, committed on the night after the election in August last. At the election Charles Ashley, a colored man, voted the conservative ticket. He was immediately set upon by a mob of his own color, who followed him about the streets threatening violence and playing him with taunts and insults. The excite- ment continued till after midnight, when the liquor shops had been opened, and under the inspiration drawn from them the mob became more turbulent and defiant. Meet- ing with two white men, William and James Davis, conservatives, who were sitting quietly in one of the bar rooms, the infuriated mob attacked them without the slightest provocation and beat them unmercifully. The names of the parties are, "Hans" Stephen Powell, Ed. Hill, Charles Pepper, Bob Love and one or two others. - Robe- sonian Jan. 1st.

Morgan has had a Batchelor's club, known as "Company Q," in operation for eight years. The girls shunned the club- members into a better state of morals.

The Robesonian gives a detailed account of the killing of Andrew String, which we will publish tomorrow.

GLEANINGS

In speaking of a local debating society, a country paper says: "Our village de- bating clubs are in full blast, and ques- tions that have engrossed the intellectual functions of ages ever since the flood are being decided at the rate of two a week."

The Charleston sympathizes somewhat with the excitement of the man who reading the large heading of a newspaper column, "Wife killed by her husband," exclaimed, "I'm so glad; I've been tired to death by these eternal husband poison- ings."

Some workmen in a Jersey City dock found a man's head the other day, and are now trying to find that lost it. No one has claimed it so far.

Arkansas is going to petition to the Legislature to change the names of the towns of "Snake Eye" and "Cut Throat" to "Shady Grove" and "Blossom City." Capitalists refuse to put their money into towns with such names.

A saloon-keeper having started business in a building where trunks had been made, asked a friend what he had better do with the old sign - "Trunk Factory." "Oh," said the friend, "just change the T to D, and it will suit you exactly."

"I wish you would pay a little atten- tion to what I am saying, sir," roared an irate lawyer at an exasperating witness. "Well I am paying as little as I can," was the calm reply.

Leavenworth, Kansas, has a gate over which fourteen couples have swung and popped the question, and, strange to re- late, its hinges are sound, and it does not sag an inch from its level.

Wedding cards in Denver consist of the jack of diamonds and the queen of hearts, with the contracting parties' names there- on; if the bride's mother is living, the ten of clubs is enclosed.

Murders are so common in New York that when a gentleman went home and announced that Mr. Greeley was dead, his little three-year old, playing on the floor looked up and said, "Pa who shot him?"

This question agitates Lawrence, Kan- sas: "Should a young man leave his mu- sic lesson to split wood when his mother is at home and in perfect health?"

An Irish correspondent of the New York Evening Post says truly that "when a man does well he is called an English- man, (Mr. Lecky and Mr. Tyndall are called Englishmen, though really Irish,) the moment he gets into a scrape and acts wickedly, he is called Irish."

An Exchange says: General Hood, who tried to flank General Sherman on the march to the sea, now keeps a drug store in Georgia.

Dr. Hood does keep a drug store in Columbus, Ga., and can make a medicine that can move the ignorance out of the writer of that paragraph. - Savannah Ad- vertiser.

Pity the sorrows of George Lanham of Kentucky. His wife ran off with a chap named Taylor about six months ago, and he had to leave his crops right in the busy season and go and kill Taylor; and now, just after he had settled down with her after trial and acquittal, a Methodist minister has gobbled her up, and departed.

CORRECT THE STOMACH. It is a well ascertained physiological fact that the origin of the most of the ailments which afflict humanity is a deranged condition of the alimentary canal. The bowels become consti- pated and sluggish, and thence arises a train of painful and distressing maladies. As a pre- ventive and cure, there is no remedy so safe and sure as Dr. Tait's Vegetable Liver Pills.

West Point, Ga., Sept. 3, 1871. W. H. Tait's Hair Dye is the best I have used for five years, and have with fortitude and patience tried nearly every patent medicine known to the people without any effectual relief. It was suggested by one of my friends to take your Vegetable Pills, for which I am under obligations for said suggestion. It being a certain given all the credit to your Pills; and as soon as there is an increase in the family, you may rest if it is a male that his name shall be Tait. Publish if you choose. J. A. DONALDSON.

Dr. Tait's Hair Dye is the Magic.

"CHECK UP AND STAND BY!" This advice, given by H. G. Capitan Cattle to the former Mr. Toots, is cordially tendered to all who are laboring under that cloud of depression and melancholy which usually accompanies chronic indigestion, biliousness, habitual constipation, and nervous debility. "Cheer up!" we begone invalids. The course of your gloomy feelings, though they may be chronic and of long standing, are not incurable. A course of Dr. Foster's Stomach Bitters, the greatest and most general of all vegetable stimulants and correctives, and especially adapted to rouse the system, will relieve you of your bodily ailments and consequent mental misery, speedily, certainly, and without pain. The chills and damps of the present are unfor- tunable to dyspeptic, bilious and nervous sufferers. They need a stimulant, as well as a tonic and alterative. This wholesome vegetable preparation cleanses the system. While it increases the digestive capacity of the stomach, and changes and regulates the condition of the liver and the bowels, it gives an agreeable impulse to the mental faculties; it steadies the nerves. Unstimulated stimulants are never advisable; they are too exciting, and often react disastrously. On the other hand, the sham tonics which contain no dis- tinctive stimulant, and are charged with drastic ingredients that almost turn a man into a side cut, are dangerous. The system needs more vitality, and they produce it entirely. Foster's Bitters has no affinity either with the dangerous excitants or the still more dan- gerous depletives. It simply strengthens and regulates the body and clears the mind. This is the whole secret of its cure. See its doctored ad.

DEATH OF AN ESTIMABLE CITIZEN - It is with deep regret that we announce the death of one of the best men of Wake county - Mr. T. R. Dedman, who resided some eight miles east of this city. He breathed his last at 4 p. m. on the 1st inst. His age was 67 years, though he still seemed in the prime of life. He died of pneumonia after but a short illness. "Dick Dedman" was one of nature's noble- men. Wake county had no better farmer. He leaves a wife and numerous children to mourn his loss. But they are not alone in their grief. Good men mourn the loss of the good.
