CITY ALMANAC—January 4th, 1873. Sun rises 7:11; Sets 5:00.

HOME AFFAIRS.

HOTEL ARRIVALS. YARBROOK HOUSE, Jan 3d, 1873. Dr. G. W. Blackall, Proprietor: Chas. A. Babb, R. A. A. L. R. R.; H. H. Webb, New York; Miss Martin, Asheville; W. G. Cain, R. & A. L. Railroad; J. W. Price, Baltimore; W. E. Wilborne; W. D. Cooke, city; J. H. Walker, Norfolk, Va.; W. A. Parter, Baltimore; E. J. Holt, Smithfield; H. E. Cullom, Smithfield; Nat. M. Jones, Chatham, N. C.; N. H. Chavasse, Henderson; G. T. Whitty, city; J. R. Throver.

COXON MARKET.—Reported by Lynn Adams, Grocer and Commission Merchant, South Market Street.

MARKETS, Jan. 3. Price of cotton in our market to-day, 13 m. 18 1-4 cts. 4 P. M. Sales, 60 bales. Receipts, 80 "

Tone of the Market, quiet.

Five shares of North Carolina Railroad stock for sale. Call on W. H. Jones.

We are glad to see that the pump near the National Hotel, on Salisbury street is being completed.

The Treasurer paid on Thursday to W. E. Anderson, Treasurer Insane Asylum, $23,000 to meet the current expenses of that institution.

ECLIPSE THIS YEAR.—There will be four eclipses this year—two of the sun and two of the moon. The only one of the people of this country are interested in will be a total eclipse of the moon, visible at Raleigh for a few moments only, and which is predicted to come off on the 13th of May, at 4:15 A. M.

The Treasurer on yesterday paid to Wm. Wilson, of Robeson county, the man who killed Andrew Strong, $5,000, the reward offered by the State.

The premises of a Mr. Lee, Hargett Street, were entered last night and the chicken coop robbed of its inmates, consisting of fourteen hens and an old gentleman.

We call attention to the advertisement of the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. This school and its name are dear to the people of the South and should be encouraged accordingly. See the advertisement.

ANNUAL SUPPER.—The first Annual Supper of the Raleigh Club took place at the Club Rooms, Hargett street, last evening. About fifty persons partook of the good things provided by that prince of caterers, Wm. R. Pepper. We understand a very pleasant evening marked the occasion.

PERSONAL.—Yesterday we had the pleasure of seeing in our office Mr. James Uzzell, of Newark, N. J. Mr. Uzzell, is a brother to Wm. Uzzell, Esq., of the Daily News. He is a practical printer of considerable experience, and will, we learn, take immediate control of the Mechanical department of the News.

DISOLUTION.—The partnership heretofore existing between Messrs. Kingsland & Miller, Land Agents, &c., of this city, is dissolved, Mr. Kingsland having withdrawn from the firm to devote his attention to farming purposes in the western part of Wake. Mr. Miller will probably continue the Agency business.

MR. A. D. JENKINS, one of the clerks in the treasury department, who was announced yesterday as receiving $1,000 salary, is paid by the Treasurer himself. The law passed by the Legislature only allows the Treasurer two clerks.

INTERESTING POSTAL DECISION.—The Acting Postmaster General has decided, in response to a letter from Postmaster Eastman of Chicago, that several printed circulars, although they refer to the same thing, and are, as it were, a part, can not be sent through the mails prepaid by a one cent stamp only, but must bear a one cent stamp each.

THIS IS IMPORTANT to merchants and others who are now preparing circulars to distribute to effect the spring trade.

HOOK & LADDER COMPANY, No. 1.—At the regular meeting of Hook and Ladder Company, No. 1, held yesterday evening at Freeman's Hall, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

P. LANSO, Foreman; Charles Lang, Assistant Foreman; P. L. Love, Secretary; J. A. Hobbie, Treasurer; A. J. Jones, Financial Secretary.

SIX new members were received in the Company.

HEP AT THE NATIONAL.—If there is one thing we like to see more than another it is a well conducted hop, and we understand the young gentlemen of our city will give such a one at the National Hotel on Wednesday evening next. The young folks of one little city are determined that they will not be behind other places in the State. The occasion will undoubtedly be one of pleasure, for, being behind the scenes, we know what the movers are in the matter, and feel confident that under their management it will be a grand success.

I. O. O. F.—There will be a meeting of Raleigh Lodge No. 65, on Monday evening next for installation of officers.

PUBLIC DOCUMENT.—Alexander McIver, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, will accept our thanks for a copy of his Report for the year 1872. We will try and find time to examine it.

RAMBLER.—Two men, yesterday, on Fayetteville street, attempted to stop a runaway horse by allowing him to run into them from behind, and failed. The men scattered and the horse proceeded on his course.

NEWSPAPER IN DARKNESS.—Radicals do not seem to love light. We thought the Radical-idden city of Raleigh the only city in the State having gas works and lamp-posts on its streets, wallowing in mud and darkness. Unfortunate Newbern is, however, in the same deplorable condition.

OXFORD NOTES.—Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of Raleigh will deliver his lectures here next week. One on temperance will be free, the other on infidelity will have an admission fee.

Rev. Mr. Gannon, lately in charge of what is known as Granville circuit in Methodist nomenclature, has left with his family for his new field, Newbern, and his successor, Rev. Mr. Griffith, late of Goldsboro, has arrived with his family.

Oxford will lose some dozen or more of its inhabitants soon, but will make some gains.

Mr. Barnes, a Yankee "school man" in the way of a school superintendent hereabouts, was recently married to Rev. Mr. Joyner, a Northern man.

The High School of Messrs. Horner and Graves will begin on the 2nd Monday in January. The Female Seminary under the charge of Mrs. Grant and Miss Mitchell, daughters of the late Professor Mitchell, of the now defunct University, will begin on the 15th inst. These are excellent schools, and richly merit an extensive patronage. We are not advised when the three or four other schools will begin.

Oxford is very dull—no parties, no marrying or giving in marriage—no topics of interest—no prospect of a railroad, but general stagnation and paralysis.

IMPORTANT IF TRUE.—The following which we take from a periodical is very important if true, and everybody should make a note of it:

POSTURE IN SLEEPING.—Sleeping-rooms should always be so arranged, if possible, to allow the head of the sleeper to be turned to the north. Frequently, in cases of sickness, a person will find it impossible to obtain rest if the head is in any other direction, and often a cure is retarded for a long time.

MEETING OF THE COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.—The County Commissioners held their regular monthly meeting yesterday in the office of the Register of Deeds. Owing to the lateness of the hour at which the meeting adjourned we are unable to lay before our readers a full report of the proceedings. We will state, however, that no business of special importance was transacted. James Q. Williams appeared and qualified as magistrate for Oury township. The probable closing up of the road leading to the Political cemetery was discussed. The greater portion of the session was consumed in considering and auditing accounts. The Board adjourned to meet again on Wednesday.

AN OLD LANDMARK.—Charlotte.—The Charlotte Observer states that the oldest building in that city, the Red House, situated near the Bank of Mocklenburg, a few feet back from Tryon street, is being torn down. Nothing but the ancient foundations and the dingy chimney now remains to mark the spot where the old house has stood for nearly a hundred years. This house was standing when the men of Mecklenburg put forth their declaration of Independence, and when the British troops under Lord Cornwallis marched up Tryon street. It has passed safely through all the dangers which have beset it since its erection, and has withstood, unimpaired, the storms and fires of nearly a century. The house was characteristic of its builders—the sturdy men who first settled this country. It was rude and homely in appearance, but strong and substantial, built of rough hewn logs, and weatherboarded. The timber of which this building was constructed is almost as sound to-day as when first put up. The property has passed through various hands. At one time it was owned by John Boyd, Esq., afterwards by Samuel McCanta, and is now in the possession of Colonel William Johnston.

The Observer says that only nine other buildings now stand in Charlotte that were erected previous to the year 1825—no transitory are the things of life. Only eight families now live in the houses in which they dwell in the year 1849, and of the hundreds of white people who inhabited that town in that year, but thirty six are now living there. The rest have emigrated either to countries farther south or west, or to that "burial from which no traveler returns."

Raleigh Typographical Union No. 14, will hold its regular meeting, this evening at Metropolitan Hall. A full attendance is desired, as installation of officers and other important business will be transacted.

LECTURE.—As the question of more light or some light is now being agitated, we think it not amiss to refer to our columns the following paragraph which we find in Frank Leslie's Illustrated Almanac:

A New Light.—At a meeting of the Inventors' Institute, Mr. Carl Moebius, a native of Hamburg, exhibited lamps burning a new compound oil, to be used for lighting purposes, which was to afford a steady, even light, closely approximating in power, clearness, brilliancy, and intensity, to the electric light, at a cost somewhat less than that of coal oil. It resulted from experiments made with this oil burnt in a moderator lamp, that a light of 17 1/2 paraffin candles was obtained. This light is represented to be valuable for lighthouses, railway signals, railway carriages, and other purposes.

MISS ADELAIDE NELSON. Miss Nelson is a native of Saragossa in Spain, where she was born in 1829. Her father was Spanish, her mother English. When about the age of thirteen, she went to London. On visiting the theatre, she was attracted to the stage, and mingled dramatic studies with those of her school.

In the year 1853 at the age of 24, she made her first appearance in London, at the New-Buoy Theatre, as Juliet, having previously played only six times in the neighboring towns. Though having learned English in early days from her mother, she still speaks with a lingering foreign accent. Notwithstanding this drawback, and that of inexperience, she made a success, and engagements were subsequently procured for her in a number of legitimate theatres at several other London theatres during succeeding years.

She had married, before going on the stage, a Mr. Lee, the son of an Episcopal minister, who was rector of a parish near London.

Her husband was a man of means, and she did not therefore feel compelled to enter a stock company. She confined herself to the character of her studies, and played a number of engagements in the provinces. She became thoroughly introduced to the London public, last season, as heroine of the great spectacular play, "Belshazzar," which was produced with great impetuosity at Drury Lane, and ran a long time. Everybody saw it, and consequently everybody saw and admired Miss Nelson. Her acting was fine, and her beauty great. Her face, notwithstanding her Spanish birth, is of English type. Her liquid eyes are soft and winning, her hair is a dark brown, and her cheeks wear a rich glow of health. She is of good height, and classically symmetrical. The stage name used by her is that of her mother. It was thought preferable for an English actress, to the Spanish name of her father. Her slight foreign accent has been long since overcome.

Marble is frequently on the increase in Chicago. The other day the editor of the Evening Post wrote "Plumby Fellow"—why, we can't imagine, and the printer set it up "Johnny Jellow."

The Post now announces that the printer who did it is now sticking to it in another way. The cold-blooded number of that printer is the least of the crimes for which the editor of the Post ought to be hanged.

Col. Mobby is going to marry one of those plump shouldered, big limbed, thick-lipped women. Besides the inducements hinted at above, she brings him $20,000.

This is an ugly way of announcing the matter.—Ed. Sentinel.

RAIN ON THE ENLARGED GENTRY.—On Friday last Sheriff McMillan arrested and lodged in jail in this town five colored men indicted by the grand jury at the last term of our Superior court for an assault upon two white men in this town, committed on the night after the election in August last.

At the election Charles Ashley, a colored man, voted the conservative ticket. He was immediately set upon by a mob of his own color, who followed him about the streets threatening violence and paying him with insults and insults. The excited mob continued ill-treatment, when the liquor shops had been opened, and under the inspiration drawn from them the mob became more turbulent and defiant. Meeting with two white men, William and James Davis, conservatives, who were sitting quietly in one of the bar rooms, the infuriated mob attacked them without the slightest provocation and beat them unmercifully.

The names of the parties are, "Horn," Stephen Powell, Ed. Bell, Charles Pepper, Bob Love and one or two others.—Raleighian Jan. 1st.

TRICK ON A COLORED MILITARY COMPANY.—It has been known for sometime that there existed in Hargett Township, in this county, a sort of military organization, composed of a number of the colored people of that township. They were heard from during one of the late elections, when they marched up to the polls while the voting was going on and created quite a sensation among the "arrogants" there assembled. The company has never been supplied with arms, but has been drilling regularly without them. It seems that recently some of the residents of the townships found it expedient to complain against them, which resulted in a paper being issued by the Clerk of the Superior Court for the arrest of some of the ring leaders connected with the organization, on the ground that it was illegal and calculated to cause mischief.

The documents were placed in the hands of one Biggins, the colored Constable of that township, who, to save trouble, conceived the happy thought of enticing the parties to the city, where they could be seized and lodged in jail or bound over, as the case might be. With this object in view he proposed to the company to meet at his captain and march down to Wilmington, where they could pass Emancipation Day in a manner suited to the occasion. Deceived by the brilliant prospect held out before them, they consented to the arrangement without a moment's hesitation, and during the afternoon, yesterday, Constable Biggins drove the company up in front of the court-house, when he proceeded to read the papers, designating five of their number to be placed under arrest. They gave bail for their appearance at court, but the whole company were held and confined in the jail, the constable of the officer who had led them into the trap.—W. H. Star.

CORRECT THE STOMACH. It is a well ascertained physiological fact that the acidity of the most of the ill that afflict humanity is a deranged condition of the alimentary canal. The bowels become constipated and sluggish, and hence arises a train of painful and distressing maladies. As a preventive and cure, there is no remedy so safe and sure as Dr. Tait's Vegetable Liver Pills.

West Point, Ga. Sept. 8, 1871. W. H. Jones. Dear Sir: I have been a invalid for five years, and have with fortitude and patience nearly every violent medicine known to the people without any effect. I feel that I was cured by your pills. I am now able to take your Vegetable Pills, for which I am under obligations to you for suggesting it being a favorable one. I propose to state the effects which these pills have had on me, and my health is far better than it has been in five years. I certainly give you the credit to your pills, and as soon as there is an increase in the family, you may feel it is a merit that his name shall be told. Publish if you choose.

J. A. DONALDSON. Dr. Tait's Hair Dye acts like Magic.

"CHEER UP AND STAND BY." This advice, given by bluff Captain Cottle to the sailors Mr. Toole, is cordially endorsed to all who are laboring under that cloud of depression and gloom which usually accompanies chronic indigestion, biliousness, habitual constipation and nervous debility. "Cheer up!"—and be invincible. The course of your gloomy feelings, though they may be chronic and of long standing, are not incurable. A course of Foster's Stomach Bitters, the greatest and most genial of all vegetable stimulants and correctives, and especially adapted to cases like yours, will relieve you of your bodily ailments, and consequent mental misery, apathy, irritability, and without pain. The pills and damps of the present are unfavourable to dyspepsia, biliousness and nervous debility. They need a stimulant, as well as a tonic and alterative. This whooping vegetable preparation combines the three. While it increases the digestive capacity of the stomach, and changes and regulates the condition of the liver and the bowels, it gives an agreeable impetus to the mental faculties and stimulates the nerves. Unmistaken stimulants are never advisable, they are too exciting, and often do more harm than good. On the other hand, the stimulant which contains no digestive stimulant, and are so charged with toxic elements that, almost, taken in small doses, are dangerous. The system needs more vitality, and they provide it, entirely. Foster's Bitters has no alkali either, which is dangerous, or the salt which is so grossly depurative. It simply strengthens and regulates the body and cures the ailment. This is the only safe way of curing it. See Dr. Tait's Bitters.
