(MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.)

THE LATE BOSTON FIRE.

BOSTON, Jan. 7.

Nearly all the cities in Massachusetts yesterday inaugurated their municipal governments for 1873.

Major Peirce, of Boston, in his message, gives the following statistics of the great fire:

"Considering the small extent of territory covered—about sixty five acres and the short time that the fire had been burning, the amount thereby destroyed was unparalleled. The whole number of buildings destroyed, exclusive of those slightly damaged, was 776, of which 709 were of brick and stone and 67 of wood." He asserts that the value of these buildings amounts to $12,000,000, and it is estimated that to replace them it would cost at least $15,000,000. The value of personal property destroyed was about $60,000,000. Only fourteen persons are known to have lost their lives, and of this number seven were firemen.

The debt of Boston during the year has increased $4,000,000 and other cities show a considerable increase of indebtedness.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 7.

The Pinchback Legislature is in session for the purpose of counting the vote for Governor.

The people's Legislature is in session, the House having fifty-eight members and no quorum in the Senate.

THE PRESIDENT ON LOUISIANA AFFAIRS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.

In a conversation to-day the President declared his purpose in the recognition of the Pinchback government was only to enable the parties to make up a case for court. He did not regard it material which party he recognized. It was necessary only to recognize one or the other. The military was ordered to preserve the peace. Pinchback's proclamation, ordering the citizens not to assemble, the President regarded as an outrage on the constitution and puts Pinchback's party in the wrong. The President has now no fear of any violation of the peace and says the whole difficulty will soon be settled by the proper legal tribunal.
