FROM WASHINGTON

Washington, Jan. 14

The Senate committee on patents had before them this morning the bill, passed in May last, relating to the issue of new grants from all disclaimers from reissues or reviving the application of the administration of the estate of a deceased inventor or discoverer of a novel method of or a means for manufacturing iron, &c. Judge Bond, of Chicago, represented the Graham heirs, and Judge Lochrane, of Georgia, and Judge Barrett, of Washington, the National Fire Extinguisher Company of New York. At least a dozen other gentlemen, interested in the Fire Extinguisher, were present. The committee considered it as it had been so long since Graham made his application, namely 1837, the entertaining of the proposition for reviving said application would work injustice to those who have embarked their capital in the new Fire Extinguisher Companies; they therefore unanimously decided that the bill ought not to pass the Senate. Col. Carrington to-day made an argument before the Committee on Commerce in favor of the pending bill proposing that Congress shall, through the bureau of the United States Engineers, complete the James River and Kanawha Canal, and that the commissioners appointed by the Southwestern States and Virginia shall control the same. The bill appropriates $9,000,000 for the work, Virginia and West Virginia to tender their expenditure of $10,000,000 on condition of the completion, and when the National expenditure shall be fully returned to the United States, the canal is to be free from all tolls except those necessary to keep it in repair.
