THE Mayor reports all quiet and no arrests.

WOOD still commands an extravagant price.

JUDGE HENRY, of the 11th Judicial District, is registered at the National.

WE understand that the hop at Tucker Hall last night was a splendid affair.

COL. BUNTING will soon erect a brick building on the corner of Wilmington and Hargett Streets.

A SEVERE rain set in last night about 7 o'clock and lasted an hour or two. Look out for high water!

IF the weather should continue as favorable as it has been for the past day or two, our gardeners will soon be at work.

TO-DAY, according to announcement, Judge Watts will pass sentence of death upon Simpson Mordecai and Thomas Griffith.

THE SENTINEL is now furnished to city subscribers at the rate of 15 cents per week. Every member of the Legislature should have a copy while in the city. Orders left with our Reporters at the Capitol will be promptly filled.

INVITED IN.—Erwin, of the Visdicator thus invites in the editors of a new paper:

Messrs Clendenin and Carpenter will issue the first number of the "West Carolina Record" next week at this place. Misery loves company and we welcome them into our ranks, with the hope that they may get a fair start and be successful in getting more of our people to reading.

We clip the following from the Chronicle, a prominent New York Insurance journal, every word of which we heartily endorse:

"Mr. Wm. H. Finch, late of the North Carolina Insurance Department, has been appointed by the Brooklyn Life, its Supervising agent for the Southern States. Mr. Finch is an experienced solicitor, and a gentleman whose ability will make him almost invaluable to the Company."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS:

A fine assortment of Wagon and Buggy Harness, &c. By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that this is the advertisement of N. S. Harp, Coach Maker. Mr. Harp is a large Coach Manufacturer and keeps on hand everything in that line. Patronize home institutions.

WYNNE, YANCEY & Co.'s Livery Sale and Exchange Stables.—These gentlemen announce that they have on hand some 30 mules and 14 fast horses.

LITTLETON ITEMS.—The trade of this little village is flourishing. There are now six stores, and two others are to be built. Col. W. A. Johnston and Messrs. Shaw & Browning do the largest business. The "Battleswood Nursery" owned by Col. Johnston, and under the skilful superintendence of S. G. Hilton, is an important addition to the county. Last season the best early fruit shipped to New York was from this flourishing village.

We note that at Ridgeway there is a Brewery owned by C. Peters, an Englishman, that is said to manufacture superior XXX Ale.

VOL. VIII. RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, JANUARY 17, 1873. NO. 110.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

A large quantity of business was transacted in the Senate yesterday.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, presented a memorial, from the Good Templars of Greensboro', accompanied by a bill, in favor of general prohibitory laws in relation to the sale of spirituous liquors.

Mr. Respess, a memorial from the citizens of Pamlico county praying for amendments to the act creating that county.

A message was received from the Governor, transmitting a communication from Alex. McIver, Superintendent of Public Instruction, charging Hiram E. Stilley, Senator elect from the second Senatorial District, with improperly obtaining money from the Peabody Educational Fund.

A message was received from the Governor, accompanied by a memorial, proposing a Branch Insane Asylum at Morganton, in Burke county.

Bills, &c., were introduced as follows:

By Mr. Hemphrey, to protect the tax payers of the State and to save the public works.

By Mr. Respess, to amend the act requiring Superior Court Clerks to keep their offices open every Monday for probate business.

By Mr. Nicholson, to define the powers and duties of county surveyors.

By Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, to provide for returns of money paid out of the educational fund under the present school laws.

Amongst the bills passed were the following:

The bill in relation to taking depositions by justices courts passed its second reading.

The bill providing for a general law to enable Sheriffs and tax collectors to collect arrears of taxes was re-committed.

The bill to cure the defects in the registration of deeds in Buncombe county passed its second reading.

The bill to repeal the act of 1871-'2, in relation to roads, passed its second reading.

The bill to exclude from the operation of the act for the protection of deer the counties of Ashe, Watauga, Jackson and Surry, passed its second reading.

The bill to prevent the felling of trees below high water mark in Haw River and certain of its tributaries also passed its second reading.

See Senate report.

Carthage, Thursday, January 23d, 7 p. m.

Lillington, Tuesday, January 28th, 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

Haywood, Thursday, January 30th, 7 p. m.

ENFIELD ITEMS.—This is a lively little place. It has the best built Stores to be found in any village of its size in the State. Trade is very satisfactory and the people are prosperous. It is a model town for sobriety. As an evidence of prosperity, we may mention, that it has a new paper, the Enfield Times, under the editorship of Daniel Bond, Esq, that is possibly the neatest weekly paper in North Carolina. We were glad to see that the people were awake to the importance of having a local paper, and were exerting themselves to secure for it a handsome support. We enjoyed an excellent sermon by Rev. Mr. Norwood, of the Episcopal Church. It was par excellence the most thoroughly evangelical discourse we have ever heard from a minister of that denomination. A large amount of cotton is shipped from this point. There are but two Churches here, and they are both Methodist, one Protestant and the other Episcopal. Rev. Mr. Whitfield, a prominent minister of the Protestant Methodists, resides here. He has recently been quite sick, but is now able to be upon the streets.

We will send other brief notes when we can get time to write them up.

IMPORTANT CORRESPONDENCE.

PROF. McIVER DECLINES TO VACATE THE OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

We published a day or two ago the correspondence between Gov. Caldwell and Hon. Kemp P. Battle, who was appointed by the Governor Superintendent of Public Instruction. Below we publish the correspondence between Mr. Battle and Prof. McIver. It will be seen that the latter refuses to surrender the office.

RALEIGH, Jan. 15, 1873.

Hon. Alex. McIver, Raleigh:

Dear Sir:—Having received from his Excellency, Governor Caldwell, a Commission appointing me Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of North Carolina, and taken the oath required by law, I respectfully notify you that I will be ready to take charge of the office on to-morrow.

Having derived great pleasure as well as profit from the perusal of your exceedingly able report to the present General Assembly, I hope, and from our friendly relations, believe, that you will continue to aid me with your valuable counsels.

Truly yours,
KEMP P. BATTLE,
Sup't Public Instruction.

OFFICE SUP'T PUB INSTRUCTION,
Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 16th, 1873.

HON. KEMP P. BATTLE:

Dear Sir: I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst., giving notice of your appointment by his Excellency Governor Caldwell.

Assured as I am, from an acquaintance with you of more than twenty years, of your eminent fitness for the duties of the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction, I would cheerfully surrender the office to you if I believed that my term of office had expired, or that the commission under which you claim is legal.

By the first section of Article III of the State Constitution, the term of office of all officers of the Executive Department shall commence on the first day of January next after their election, and continue until their successors are "elected and qualified." By section thirteen of the same article: If the office of any of the officers shall be vacated by death, resignation or otherwise, it shall be the duty of the Governor to appoint another until the disability be removed or his successor be "elected and qualified."

An officer is one who is invested with an office.

Mr. Reid had not been invested with the office, and, therefore, he was not an officer. The office of Superintendent of Public Instruction never became the office of Mr. Reid, and therefore was not vacated by his death or otherwise. The constitution continues the term of the present incumbent, and no vacancy has occured. It is reasonable that the constitution should designate the person, if it has a suitable person on hand, to continue in office in case the person dies or refuses to qualify; and the constitution of North Carolina does this very thing. It continues the term of the incumbent until his successor is "elected and qualified." No vacancy occurred, and His Excellency had no authority to grant the commission to which you refer; and for that reason the commission is null and void.

I, therefore, most respectfully decline to surrender to you the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Sincerely yours,
ALEXANDER McIVER.
Sup't Pub. Instruction.

HALIFAX ITEMS.—We lately spent a day at this historic village. It afforded us pleasure to see manifestations of improvements. The new hotel, nearly finished, is a handsome three story brick building, which will cost some $12,000. It is very much needed. We had the pleasure of meeting three prominent gentlemen connected with the bar, Edward Conigland Esq., Col. Walter Clark and Capt. William Day. We learned that the SENTINEL has not been received for ten days. Something is rotten in the Postal Service.

WELDON ITEMS.—There is only one hotel at this place. The number of stores has been reduced. Messrs. Gooch and Long, and Mr. White do a large trade, each selling some $80,000 worth annually. The Roanoke News, we are glad to know, is in a prosperous condition. The writer has been recently placed under obligations by the courteous editors, the Messrs. Manning, for favors granted. There has been but one case of small pox, and the patient is convalescent. We were glad to learn that the prospect of its disappearance was most flattering.

JACKSON ITEMS.—When we were at this pleasant village a few days ago, we found trade brisk, and every body in good spirits. The hotel by Robert Weaver, Esq., is the right place for a good dinner. We saw but one Church, the Episcopal, whose rector is Rev. Edward Gilliam, nephew of the late revered Judge Gilliam, of Oxford.

An American violinist is to wear the third class decoration of the order of St. Stanislaus, the gift of the Czar.

Dennis O'Shaunessy advertises as follows in the Columbus Republican: "I hereby give notice that my wife Bridget has left my bed and board, and that I will not pay her debts, as we are not married.

A man's head was recently discovered wedged in the framework of the trucks of one of the cars of an English express train, which had been carried there for 150 miles, no one on the train being aware that an accident had occurred.

Illustrated journalism is on the march in Chicago. The Evening Journal gives a graphic picture of the editor in chief and his baby, surrounded by gifts sent in "for subscribers."

CALENDAR.

A resolution concurring soldiers who served in the war of 1812. [Petitions our Senators and Representatives in Congress to urge upon that body the amending of the pension laws so that its provisions can apply to said soldiers.] Read and passed its several readings.

Senate bill to amend General Incorporation act was re-committed to committee on corporations.

Senate bill for the relief of certain school teachers. [This bill provides for the payment of teachers of public schools to whom wages may be due for services rendered prior to the passage of the act transferring the public school money from the State Treasury to county treasuries.]

Mr. Dula offered the following amendment to the bill: That the teachers be paid out of the school fund belonging to the district wherein the school was taught.

The amendment was adopted. After a long debate upon the question of referring the bill to the committee on education,

Mr. Brown moved the re-consideration of the amendment offered by Mr. Dula which was carried.

On motion of Mr. Trivett, the word "district" in the amendment was stricken out, and the word township inserted. The amendment was lost.

Mr. Brown, of Hookinsberg, moved the call of the previous question, which was sustained, and the House refused to refer and the bill passed its third reading.

Several messages were received from the Senate and were read and appropriately referred.

The bill amending the general incorporation act was taken up and passed its second and third reading.

The Senate bill allowing the U. S. government to purchase lands in North Carolina for the purpose of erecting lighthouses, &c., was taken up, the rules suspended and the bill passed its several readings.

Senate resolution concerning perishable property remaining in the State arsenal authorizing the Adjutant General to advertise or sell such property now in the arsenal and placing the amount arising from such sale to the credit of the school fund, was read.

Mr. Johnson offered a substitute turning over said property in the arsenal to the President of the Board of Directors of the Penitentiary.

The substitute was adopted, and the bill, as amended, failed to pass its second reading.

On motion of Ellison, col., a resolution instructing the joint committee on penal institutions to report a bill for the better government of the jails and workhouses of the different counties, was taken up and adopted.

On motion of Mr. Houston, the vote whereby the bill to sell the perishable property now in the State arsenal failed to pass its second reading, was reconsidered, and the bill passed its second and third readings.

House bill repealing all laws donating to persons and corporations, lands belonging to the Educational Board was taken up, and on motion of Mr. Bennett was made special order for 12 m. on Saturday next.

Mr. Gorman, a resolution authorizing the committee on public buildings and grounds to inquire what cause has prevented the hoisting of the National flag on the capitol during the session of the General Assembly according to a resolution of the General Assembly.

On motion of Mr. Waugh, the resolution was referred to committee of propositions and grievances.

On motion of Mr. Waugh, the House adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock a. m.

SHAKEN CONSTITUTIONS.

General debility, and the despondency, by which it is invariably accompanied, are often regarded as the symptoms of incurable physical decay. Of persons thus afflicted it is often said that their constitutions are undermined; that they have nothing to fall back upon; that they are hopeless cases. This in at least eight instances out of ten, is a false conclusion. A constitution may be shaken without being undermined; and even if undermined may be propped and strengthened; and in many so-called hopeless cases there are reserves of vitality and talent vigor in the system that only require stimulating and developing to render them equal to the work of repair. The best and surest stimulant and invigorant that can be given as a remedy for decay of the vital powers, whether natural or casual, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. If the faltering physique can be roused into healthy activity by any human means, this regenerating vegetable cordial will accomplish that object. Its effects upon the appetite, the digestion, the nervous system, the secretive organs and the bowels is most salutary. It not only acts directly upon the solids and fluids of the body, but indirectly upon the constitution itself. Persons left by fever in such a deplorably helpless condition that it would seem as if they could never recover, may be completely built up—it might almost be said, rebuilt—by this mighty, this well nigh infallible, vegetable restorative. At this season of inclement winds and chilling damps the Bitters should be taken as a protective medicine.

AVOID CONSUMPTION.

No enemy to the human race is more to be dreaded and is more insidious in its approaches than the too fatal destroyer of health and happiness of myriads—"Consumption in its ghastly form." The duty of all is to guard against its first advances. This may be done by the timely use of Dr. Tutt's Expectorant.

DR. TUTT: BOSTON, Feb. 9, 1870.

Dear Sir—Will you please inform me at what druggist, in New York, I can get your Expectorant, as I can use some of it to advantage, having seen the effects of it on a friend of mine. I am fully satisfied that it has but to be tried to establish its merits. It works like magic. What is your wholesale price, delivered in New York? Let me know where it can be had for the present in New York, and I will communicate further with you at another time.

Very truly yours,

DEATH IN A LAMP.

FOUR PERSONS BURNED TO DEATH BY THE EXPLOSION OF A LAMP.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Jan. 9, 1873.

Last evening, near Morion's Station, in Delaware county, Pa., Mrs. Carr and three children were burned to death by the explosion of combination fluid. Mrs. Carr was filling a lamp which was not lighted, but the heat of the room raised a vapor from the fluid which was ignited by the stove, from which the lamp was two yards distant.—(New York Herald, Jan. 11th.
