

MORNING EDITION.

LATEST TELEGRAPHIC
NEWS ON 4th PAGE.

CITY ALMANAC.—January 19th, 1873.

Sun rises 7:09; Sets 5:14.

Monday, January 20, Sun. rises 7:05;

Sets 5:15.

WEATHER REPORT.—Washington, Jan.
18th.—For the Middle States, light and frosty northwesterly and westerly winds, low temperature and partly cloudy weather, except over the northern harbor, where areas of light snow will probably prevail.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.

NATIONAL HOTEL, Jan. 18.—W. H.
Boyle & Co., Proprietors: G. H. Wallach, City; P. W. Dowd, Wake Co.; E.
C. Woodson, City; C. W. Grandy, E-City; Aug. M. Moore, Edenton; D. E. Syme, N. Y.; Aug. Seymour, Newbern; Geo.
Goss, Newbern; A. G. Hubbard, New-bern; Mr. J. Davis, Lenoir, Co.YANKEE HOUSE, Jan. 18th.—Dr. G.
W. Blackwell, Proprietor: J. M. Roams, Oxford; Mrs. L. Henderson, Warrenton; J. P. O'Neil, Salisbury; J. M. W. S., Wilsonville; Senator Horton and Jones; of Caldwell; R. E. Rosen, Baltimore; Alex.
Justice, John H. Haughton, Newbern; Wm.
G. Morgan, Zanesville, Ohio; Wm. G.
Mouell, New York; E. H. Woodward, New-York; J. A. Holvin.

HOME AFFAIRS.

COTTON MARKET.—Reported by Lynn Banks, Grouse and Commission Merchant, South Market Street:

RALEIGH, January 17th, 1873.

Price of cotton in our market to day:

At 12 m.	17.18
At 3 p. m.	17.00
Sales	63 bales,
Decimals	63 lbs. 92
Tons of market quiet.

Dr. PRITCHARD will preach a sermon to-night on Sunday Schools.We regret to learn of the death of C.
F. Johns, a farmer residing at Auburn.
We could not learn the particulars.The alarm of fire in the capital Friday night, caused quite a stir. A foul chimeney was burned out—that's all."OLD HARRY," a crazy man, kicked up in the capitol building on Saturday and had to be forcibly removed.Hon. J. J. Hickman is in the city and the guest of Dr. Pritchard. He is here in the interest of the Order of Good Templars.HORNSHES are being frequently committed in our city. A medal for the policeman who will first catch one of the scoundrels.Rev. A. W. MANGUM.—We are glad to learn that Mr. Mangum is improving, though not yet able to take his place in the pulpit. Rev. J. B. Bobbitt will fill his place this (Sunday) morning.LIGHT is much needed on our streets.
May well soon be here, and we want our people, without regard to party, to turn out any man who will not go for lighting the streets.HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Ed. Dudley, col. was assaulted, knocked down and robbed on Hilliard street, on Friday night, by four men dressed in military uniform. No clue to the perpetrators.SUNDAY SCHOOL MARTINS.—There will be a mass meeting of the Sunday Schools of our city, at 8 o'clock this afternoon, in the Baptist church. At the same church at 7 p. m., a general meeting of parents and friends of the young.Rev. John McCallough, of Kentucky, Secretary of the Southern Department of the "American S. S. Union," and Rev. G.
B. Jones, of N. C., who, for the past five years, has labored as a S. S. missionary in our State, will address the meetings.

All are most cordially invited to attend.

Another TEARER's paper is on our table, with the motto, "Come out of her, my People." We are always glad to see the Primitive. It embodies wholesome doctrine both church and State. We have never known a member in good standing of Rev. Temple's Church to take the bankrupt set, refuse to pay his debts or vote the radical ticket. May the old man long live to disseminate his gospel and political truths.HUMAN DEEDS TEMPLE.—There will be a meeting of Human Deeds Temple I. O. G. T. on Monday evening, January 20th, 1873, at the Lodge Room, J. J.
Hickman, R. W. G. C. will be present and exply the work.Members of the subordinate lodge who have not taken the degrees will have an opportunity of doing so.

V. HALLARD, D. T.

MASON'S CONVENT, Jan. 18-19.—Holy Edgar, with eyes straining with rage, sued out a writ against his husband.Jacob, Jacob appeared, and after an investigation, the evidence proved that Holy quarreled with her husband, and said very ugly things to him. Poor husband never took down under the implications of his wife half, and Jacob slapped her down. Jacob layed over in bed of $100 to her, good man and a little brother.The Mayor, a Magistrate, was occupied the remainder of the day in civil suits.

The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. VIII.

RALEIGH, N. C., SUNDAY, JANUARY 19, 1873.

NO. 112.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.

In the Senate, on Saturday, Governor Caldwell received a well deserved slap in the face from Senator Merrimon, for which see the Senate report. The greater part of the session was consumed in an irregular debate upon motions to print, to postpone, &c., the bill to incorporate the "Middle & North Carolina Railway Company." This bill proposes to charter a company of English and other foreign and home capitalists to build a railway from Beaufort harbor to Memphis, Tenn.
The scheme is a gigantic one and will be noted by our Senate Reporter at some length when it comes up on its third reading the merits of the bill not having yet been discussed.A resolution was introduced urging upon our Senators and Representatives in Congress to use their efforts to secure the passage of the educational bill now pending in Congress.

See Senate report.

FREE SCHOOL MOVEMENT.—It is proposed to establish free schools in Wilmington. It was stated at a meeting in furtherance of this object, that there are in that city upwards of 1300 children the proposed schools would benefit; and it was intimated that it would require about $7,000 a year to meet the necessary expenses, or this, amount the Peabody Fund and the assistance to be received from the State would probably touch some $6,500. The subject is to be further pursued.

SUPREME COURT.

SATURDAY, Jan. 18.

Only business before the Supreme Court to-day was the arguing of the case of W.
H. Howerton, et al vs. S. M. Tate, et al., which was heard before Judge Cloud at chambers a short time ago, and which was decided against S. M. Tate, et al., upon which an appeal was taken by Judge Merrimon, to the present term of the Supreme Court. Argument commenced Tuesday, and is still unfinished.We are informed that cases from 3d Judicial District, will be called on Monday.

CRUCH DIRECTORY, January 19th, 1873.

Services will be held in the following churches to-day. We also publish the time of meeting of the Sabbath Schools:METHODIST CHURCH, (Edenton Street.) Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, officiating. Services at 11 A. M., and Rev. S. H. Trawick, at 7 P. M.Sabbath School—W. J. Young, Superintendent, 9 A. M.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Pritchard, officiating. Services at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.SABBATH SCHOOL—J. M. Beck, Superintendent, 9 A. M.

PRE-CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Atkinson, officiating. Services at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

ST. JOHN'S (CATHOLIC) CHURCH.

Rev. J. V. McNamara, officiating.
Service at 11 A. M.Sabbath School—Mr. Barbee, Superintendent, 9 A. M.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Mason, officiating. Services at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.Sabbath School—W. M. Anderson, Superintendent, 9 A. M.

SUPERIOR COURT

Judge Wails in sentencing Simpson Meredith and Thomas Griffin, both condemned, made the following remarks:"You have been convicted by a jury of your countrymen, selected by yourselves, one of the highest crimes known to our law."The Court, on account of your poverty, and in obedience to a general provision of the Constitution, assigned you counsel in the law, and faithfully have discharged their duty.—Every efforthas been made by them in this Court to avert the terrible doom that awaits you.

No reasonable complaints can therefore be made by you or your friends for want of able and learned counsel.

Neither can you complain at the verdict of the jury, who were forced to render a painful and unwilling verdict, from the overwhelming and convincing testimony you and we cannot suppose that any prejudice existed in the mind of the jury, which less than two-thirds of them were of your race.

Your own conduct has brought down upon you the terrible judgment of the law, and you must pay the penalty of your conduct.

The Court, on account of your poverty,

and in obedience to a general provision of

the Constitution, assigned you counsel

in the law, and faithfully have discharged their duty.—Every effort has been made by them in this Court to avert the terrible doom that awaits you.

No reasonable complaints can therefore

be made by you or your friends for want

of able and learned counsel.

Neither can

you complain at the verdict of the jury, which less than two-thirds of them were

of your race.

Your own conduct has brought down upon you the terrible judgment

of the law, and you must pay the

penalty of your conduct.

The Court, on account of your poverty,

and in obedience to a general provision of

the Constitution, assigned you counsel

in the law, and faithfully have

discharged their duty.—Every effort

has been made by them in this Court to

avert the terrible doom that awaits you.

No reasonable complaints can therefore

be made by you or your friends for want

of able and learned counsel.

Neither can

you complain at the verdict of the jury,

which less than two-thirds of them were

of your race.

Your own conduct has brought down upon you the terrible judgment

of the law, and you must pay the

penalty of your conduct.

The Court, on account of your poverty,

and in obedience to a general provision of

the Constitution, assigned you counsel

in the law, and faithfully have

discharged their duty.—Every effort

has been made by them in this Court to

avert the terrible doom that awaits you.

No reasonable complaints can therefore

be made by you or your friends for want

of able and learned counsel.

Neither can

you complain at the verdict of the jury,

which less than two-thirds of them were

of your race.

Your own conduct has brought down upon you the terrible judgment

of the law, and you must pay the

penalty of your conduct.

The Court, on account of your poverty,

and in obedience to a general provision of

the Constitution, assigned you counsel

in the law, and faithfully have

discharged their duty.—Every effort

has been made by them in this Court to

avert the terrible doom that awaits you.

No reasonable complaints can therefore

be made by you or your friends for want

of able and learned counsel.

Neither can

you complain at the verdict of the jury,