The smendment of the committee stril ing out the year 1860 was rejected. The other amendments proposed by the mmittee were adopted. The bill then passed its second reading.

On the third reading, Mr. Love moved to strike out 1869. Three several bil s had already been passed to authorize the collection of arrearages for 1969, and he objected to a fourth bill. The legislature should teach sheriffs and tax collectors that there was a limit be-yond which they should not go. The bill as proposed to be amended by the committee would restore the old law on the subject. The rule had been established that three years was sufficiently long for sheriffs, do., to collect arrearages.
