1873 ARMED FORCES—January 26th, 1873—Vol. 7505—Sect. 321

WEATHER REPORT.—Washington, Jan. 23.—In the middle States, winds shifting probably northerly and southeasterly, with increasing cloudiness. Diminished pressure over Louisiana and eastern Texas and continuing moving easterly, precessed by fresh and brisk northeasterly to southeasterly winds and cloudy weather over the southern states east of the Mississippi, with rain extending and probably snow for Tennessee and Kentucky to date.

HOME AFFAIRS.

CAUCUS.—There will be a caucus of the Democratic party in the House of Representatives on this (Monday) night, at 7 o'clock.

PERSONAL.—Maj. P. F. Duffy, editor of the Greensboro "Patriot," is in the city, stopping at the Yarborough.

RAMSEY, the hero temperance man of North Carolina, is out again, and against Mr. Whitaker, the editor of the "Friend of Temperance."

The Fayetteville "Eagle" and the Tur-ro's "Southern" are quite as severe upon Gov. Vance as the Charlotte "Observer" has been upon Judge Merrimon. Harmony, gentlemen, Harmony.

HARRY—A negro named Jack Harry was committed for trial at Wadesboro, on Wednesday last for a rape upon a girl 17 years of age.

FAYETTEVILLE AND FLORENCE RAIL-ROAD.—Over thirty-four thousand dollars of the forty-five thousand required to be raised South of Rockfish, Cumberland county, has been subscribed to this road.
This leaves the subscription of $75,000 to be raised by the towns of Fayetteville, The road is regarded as a certainty.

CATHOLIC CHURCH TO-DAY.—The ceremonies at St. John's Church this morning will be of an unusually interesting character. We understand that a well known gentleman of our city will be received into the Catholic fold. His baptism will take place during divine service which now commences at 11 o'clock.

ON Wednesday evening last, Hon. J. J.
Dickson, at Oxford, organized "Pritchard" Lodge, I. O. O. F., with thirty members. A correspondent, writing to the "Spirit of the Age," alludes to Col.
Hickman in the following complimentary manner:

Col. Hickman, who besides being one of the ablest and most successful temperance orators we have ever heard, is one of the handsomest, and most pre-possessing men we have ever seen, and finds but little trouble in interesting an audience.

FRONT OF WILMINGTON STREET.—Saturday afternoon about 4 o'clock a fight took place on Wilmington street between J. M. Morris and D. B. Hamlett, in which the latter lost three front teeth and was otherwise severely damaged. Officer Peterson arrested the parties and took them before Justice Wicker, who, on hearing the testimony, fined Mr. F. $5 and costs, he having made the mistake.

PUBLIC LECTURE.—Hon. J. J. Dickson, the great temperance orator, of Kentucky, will deliver a few lectures on Monday night at Metropolitan Hall. The members of Hickman Lodge, Independent Order of Good Templars, will meet at their Lodge-room, and march to the Hall.
The simple announcement that the Dickson lecture will induce a crowded house.

PEOPLES' LEAGUE.—Hon. J. J. Dickson, the great temperance orator, of Kentucky, will deliver a few lectures on Monday night at Metropolitan Hall. The members of Hickman Lodge, Independent
their Lodge-room, and march to the Hall.

RALEIGH, N. C., SUNDAY, JANUARY 26, 1873.

NO. 119.

SUPREME COURT.

JAN. 23, 1873.

Court opened at 10 o'clock, a. m.
Present, all the Justices.

Consideration of appeals from 7th Judicial District was resumed; and cases disposed of as follows:

J. R. Woody vs. H. T. Jordan et al., from Person; called and argued. W. A. Grisham for the plaintiff, and Batchelor, Edwards & Batchelor and W. H. Bailey for the defendants.

We appeal to those few visitors, who have late forgotten the necessity of organization to reach to the line of duty and plant themselves firmly on the side of organization—old and new, without which the very name of a party is a mockery.

We especially appeal to the SENTINEL, so also as in the past, in the name of the party, which it has done so much to build up to cease publishing articles about Vance—Bancroft, combination, and upstarts, and the like, calculated to keep up strife, when there is no shadow of evidence that such a combination exists. Every member of the Legislature, who voted for Vance, knows better. If any corrupt combination exists or ever existed between them, let it be shown and we will join you in denouncing them or any other member of the party who may deserve to be denounced. But Vance and Ransom have formed no such combination. They will stand. Pure, upright, honest and patriotic, they deservedly possess the confidence, respect and love of the good people of North Carolina.

Elizbeth Clegg vs. W. D. Reynolds, administrator, from Guilford; called and argued. Ralph Gorrell for the plaintiff, and Dillard, Gilmer & Smith for the defendants.

All other appeals from the seventh district were set for hearing at the end of the docket.

Court adjourned until 10 o'clock, a. m. on the 27th.

INDIGNATION MEETING.—Yesterday
Prof. Mitchell and Mr. DeWittler, colored, expressed their indignation in public speeches on the court-house steps, at the treatment Prof. Mitchell had received from the colored members of the Legislature. They were specially indignant at Mr. Dudley, colored, from whom they expected better treatment. Mitchell and DeWittler are educated men. But being for Greeley, they are not respected by white Radicals or negroes. DeWittler complained, as do some white men, that the negroes "oysterized" him because he was for Greeley. Mitchell gave the negroes some salutary advice, but they were not so attentive to it as to a dog's bark between Mr. Lewis' new dog and the greyhound of a member from the mountains. De-Wittler called Dudley, colored, the moving spirit of the Legislature.

Gov. Vance has special cause to be thankful to us for our course towards him before, during and since the election. It is not true that the public printing was submitted to the "usual order." If they are not guilty of falsehood and deception, eleven out of twelve of the Democratic members of the Legislature are to day opposed to the Newspaper having the printing that is the question we shall discuss, not what they are going to do.

Mr. Humphrey, having the bill in charge, was willing to let it stand against granting banking powers. The company however, desired power to borrow money, to encourage immigration, and to provide, if necessary, houses for immigrants.

Mr. Morehead, of Rockingham, offered an amendment, as a substitute, excluding banking powers, and limiting the company to such powers as are necessary to transportation purposes.

Mr. Norwood favored the bill but wanted the charter confined to specified powers.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, thought the bill should be amended to its variance.

Mr. Troy's amendment was rejected.

By consent the bill was then referred to the committee on internal improvements.

AMNESTY AND PAROLE.

The bill for amnesty and pardon, was taken up, the question being upon its second reading. The committee on the judiciary to whom it had been referred, reported it back without amendment except to make surplus words, which were stricken out.

Mr. Seymour verbally reported the disposition of the minority of the committee to the report.

Hyman, col., offered an amendment which was rejected.

Mr. Seymour offered an amendment exempting from amnesty and parole those charged with the crimes of murder, arson, rape and burglary.

Mr. Allard said the ground taken by Mr.
Seymour, when the bill was last up, that the Union League had been guilty of no crime against the law was not tenable. He protested against the assumption of Mr. Seymour that every person in the city was involved in the societies or associations enumerated in the bill. There were others than democrats interested in the passage of the bill. He reminded Mr. Seymour of the Nethercutt murder, the slaughter of the Fugitive family and other outrages in Jones county, known to have been committed by negroes, members of the Union League. He could not say these crimes had been committed by members of the League. The bill under consideration did not affect the League.
