GETTING ON again something new in Ladies Silk Shawls and Ties of which he has just received an endless variety.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.—We are advised by those who know that if the absent Senators who favor the amendments, will be in their seats on Monday next, all the amendments will pass the Senate by the constitutional majority.

PAINTER OCCURRED.—On yesterday morning, Mr. Alonso L. Adams, a very estimable young gentleman of this city, while laboring under temporary mental aberration, leaped from a second-story window, some twenty feet from the ground, and falling upon a stone pavement had his skull very dangerously fractured.

NINETY-TWO IN TWO NIGHTS.—The Good Templars were to be running ahead of the order known as the Friends of Temperance. Hickman and Rumsey inflated 92 in two nights last week in Fayetteville. Ramsey planted the first tree of the new order two months ago in that town, and the orchard now numbers 200 trees.

I. O. O. F.—There will be a called meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 84, at Odd Fellows' Hall, this (Saturday) evening, at 7 o'clock for the purpose of making the necessary arrangements for the interment, with the usual honors, of the remains of our departed brother, A. I. ADAMS.

MUSICAL EVENING.—Mr. James Pirmen and a few of our city's best amateurs, including Mr. Wm. Simpson, on the flute, and V. C. Reyster, on the piano, with the host on the double bass, entertained a select company last evening in a most delightful manner.

John Allen Ketchey, the "Jack Shepherd" of North Carolina, of whom we recently made mention in three columns, escaped from the Salisbury jail a few nights ago. His "diadem of honor" would not permit him to leave his brother prisoners in jail, and so he snatched the cells and released them all.

THE ORIGIN of the four-wheeled Virginia salt works is curious. The place was once a vast swamp, saline, filthy and dangerous. Deer, hogs and cattle would often be found dead there. Vapor continually arose from the sodden ground, so heavy was it that it got the reputation of being heated, and when William Crabtree, a hatter, settled upon it, and claimed it, he found no one to dispute his right.

SUPREME COURT. FRIDAY, Feb. 7. Thomas D. Carter vs. Western Division of Western North Carolina Railroad Company, for plaintiff, Battle & Sons for defendant. Argued.

PERSONS.—Representative Luckey has been detained from his seat for several days indisposed. He is now much better, and will shortly give his characteristic attention to public business.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Read the advertisement of Horse and Cows Food for Sale, at Osborn's, on Wilmington Street.

See the advertisement of Jonathan Havens, Commission Merchant, &c., New York, N. Y.

DR. COSTA.—The great Dr. Costa appears next Monday night at Tucker Hall. He is the man who can speak with his head cut off and in other wonderful feats. The truth is, his is one of the best entertainments ever given in our city. See advertisement.

CONTUMACIOUS WITNESSES.—J. R. Stewart the witness in the Credit Mobilier investigation, imprisoned by the House of Representatives, holds out and refuses to answer what he did with the lobby fund of the Union Pacific Railroad. Stewart lodged in a room in the Capitol known as the Bastille, which was fitted up as a prison in 1868 for C. W. Wooley, who was committed for contempt for refusing to testify about the use of money to defeat the impeachment of President Johnson.

BEAUTIFUL CHROMOS.—Thos. N. Renshaw is agent for Raleigh for the Christian Union, a religious weekly paper published in New York at $3 per annum. Each subscriber will receive with the paper two beautiful chromos, "Wide Awake" and "Fast Asleep," or a French Oleograph "Little Runaway and her Pets." Oleograph is a name given only to the highest and choicest class of French and Italian art-printing in oils. The perfection of oil chromo—the color, the finish, the delicacy of conception, the sweet attractiveness and the thorough artistic beauty of this thing make a rare picture.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY. Your attention is especially called to the two following portions of our State Constitution. One of the many evils with which we are now greatly burdened is the onerous and, in many cases, the illegal taxation which is levied by our counties, cities and towns, and especially the latter two, in which there is such a disposition to congregate, particularly on the part of those who pay no taxes and whose chief delight is to vote and impose them on people who can pay.

ART. 7, Sec. 7. "No county, city, town, or other municipal corporation shall contract any debt, pledge its faith or loan its credit, nor shall any tax be levied or collected by any officer of the same, except for the necessary expenses thereof, unless by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters therein."

ART. 8, Sec. 6. "It shall be the duty of the Legislature to provide for the organization of cities, towns and incorporated villages, and to restrict their power of taxation, borrowing money, contracting debts, and loaning their credit to or as a guarantee for any enterprise, and in contracting debts by such municipal corporations."

Mr. Editor.—The report of my remarks on the message of Governor Gold well which appear in the SENTINEL of to-day do me a slight, unintentional injustice. I said I hoped the Senate would not make any serious matter of the message, but let it pass as the emanation of a little spite and no more. I knew Gov. Caldwell intimately, better perhaps than he knew himself. I had lived with him during the three months session of the Legislature of 1872, and as familiar terms as if we had been brothers; in private life he was a gentleman of estimable qualities. His falling was a violent temper which, as a public character, he was free from a rock, honest and patriotic in his proposals—qualities which in our present condition of affairs put it in his power to be of great value to the State. Let us take his present message as a "fit for fat."

His "diadem of honor" would not permit him to leave his brother prisoners in jail, and so he snatched the cells and released them all. Among them was one man from Davidson county who was condemned to be hung. This fellow Ketchey has broken out of jail a half dozen times during the last few years, and was informed, says the best of his hand-locks with a wrench ever in a lady don her locks.

Legislature of North Carolina. SENATE. FRIDAY, Feb. 7th, 1873. The Senate was called to order at 10 a. m., by President Brogden.

Mr. Love presented the petition of citizens of Transylvania, asking the prohibition of the sale of spirituous liquors near Little River Church, in that county. Referred.

On motion of Mr. Allen, the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Central Railway was made the special order for Thursday next.

Reports of standing committees were presented by Messrs. Troy, Morehead, of Rockingham, Todd, of Guilford, Danahy and Cramer.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, with that understanding of the law, would support Mr. Merrimon's amendment. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 21 to 13.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, said the finding of the articles of impeachment deprived the person charged of his office and its emoluments, and if afterwards found not guilty, it would be the duty of the Assembly to vote him a full year's salary.

Mr. Morehead, of Rockingham, thought the Senate bound to receive and try the articles of impeachment when presented.

Mr. Merrimon moved as a substitute for Mr. Allen's motion that a message be sent asking the House if it would be the pleasure of that body to present articles of impeachment this session.

The bill to incorporate Seaton Gales Lodge, A. Y. M. of Warren, passed its second and third readings.

Mr. Merrimon moved as a substitute for Mr. Allen's motion that a message be sent asking the House if it would be the pleasure of that body to present articles of impeachment this session.

Mr. Aver's favored Mr. Merrimon's amendment. Mr. Dunham said the accused was entitled to a speedy trial.

Mr. Allen contended that the effect of Mr. Merrimon's amendment would be to postpone the matter indefinitely. The present session of the Assembly did not extend to the third Monday in November, and the unfinished business could not be taken up in the succeeding session.

Mr. Allen, as a point of law, contended that the suspension of Solicitor Henry did not take place till the presentation of the articles of impeachment to the Senate, and cited the case of the Holden impeachment.

Mr. Morehead, of Guilford, with that understanding of the law, would support Mr. Merrimon's amendment. The amendment was adopted by a vote of 21 to 13.
