HOME AFFAIRS.

HIGH WATER.—We learn from the Roanoke News that the Roanoke river the first of the week was higher than it has been for several years, and fears were at one time entertained that the new embankment on the Petersburg road would be damaged. The waters have receded, however, and no material injury has been done to property of any kind.

HEAVY STORM.—Yesterday afternoon this city and vicinity was visited by the most terrific rain and hail storm we have ever seen, in the month of February. The rain came down in torrents, the wind blew frightfully, and the peals of thunder and vivid flashes of lightning were decidedly "hair-lifting."

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—We regret to announce the death of Capt. R. B. Albright, formerly of the Greensboro Patriot, but more recently of the Reidsville Record, which occurred on Tuesday last at his residence in Greensboro'. The press of the State loses one of its most useful members.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS:

Read the Court notice of J. N. Bunting.

We call special attention to the advertisement of A. C. Sanders & Co., No. 2, Martin Street. These gentlemen are doing a large business and their customers are increasing daily. Our farmers who are not so fortunate as to have the ready cash on hand can obtain of them Guano on time. Besides the above they have everything usually kept in a first class grocery store. Give them a call and examine their goods.

The advertisement of Julius Lewis & Co. can be found in another column. The price of cotton is advancing and in order to make a good crop this year, go to the store of Julius Lewis & Co., and purchase one of those celebrated Bolles' Cotton Hoes. Sold only in North Carolina by the above firm.

See the advertisement of Coward & Harris, Norfolk, Va., who announce their readiness to fill all orders for Fish Guano. This Guano stands high wherever used. Sold by W. C. Stronach, Raleigh.

Read the advertisement of DeRosset & Co., Wilmington, N. C., who announce a large lot of Salt for sale. All orders sent to these gentlemen will be promptly filled.

W. C. Stronach, Esq., has received a large supply of fresh groceries. Mr. S. is one of our largest merchants and always keeps his customers and friends posted by letting them know through the columns of the SENTINEL what he has on hand. Read his advertisement.

The advertisement of John R. Dorsey, Flour and Commission Merchant, Baltimore, Md., appears in to-day's paper. For references, &c., examine the advertisement.

John Armstrong, Book Binder and Blank Book Manufacturer. This is the only Bindery in City the, and to supply his numerous orders Mr. A. has to keep his hands employed day and night.

VOL. VIII. RALEIGH, N. C., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1873. NO. 132.

BAPTIST STATE EDUCATIONAL CONVENTION.

According to previous notice, a large number of the friends of Education in North Carolina, principally Ministers and members of the Baptist Church, assembled at the Baptist Church in Raleigh on Tuesday evening last, for the purpose of promoting the cause of Education.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Pritchard, of Raleigh, John W. Ellis, Esq., of Columbus, was appointed President, and W. H. Pace of Raleigh, and W. J. Yates of Mecklenburg, requested to act as Secretaries.

The President stated the object of the Convention in a few practical and appropriate remarks.

The Rev. Mr. Royal read an able and well written paper on the importance of a high grade of scholarship in our Colleges, and the Rev. Mr. Hiden, of Wilmington followed on the same subject.

The Convention adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 12, 10 A. M.

The Convention re assembled, and the minutes of previous session read and approved.

The Committee on permanent organization, through the Chairman, Rev. F. H. Ivey, reported the following for permanent officers:

President—Rev. Dr. Wm. Royal, of Louisburg.

Vice Presidents—B. Oliver, J. H. Picot, Dr. R. H. Lewis, and Capt. J. W. Ellis.

Secretaries—Rev. N. B. Cobb and W. H. Pace.

Mr. J. H. Picot, of Murfreesboro, addressed the Convention on the relations between the Academy and College.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Convention met persuant to adjournment, Rev. Dr. Royal in the Chair.

Prayer by Elder Fontain.

Prof. F. P. Hobgood, read a paper on the subject, Relative Merits of Curriculum and elective system in Colleges.

Elder T. F. Knapp read a paper prepared by Dr. McDowell, of Murfreesboro' on what should be the extent of curriculum in female schools.

Dr. Sears then addressed the Convention in favor of a very modified form of the elective system, and sustained Prof. Hobgood in the point made in his excellent paper.

On motion of W. H. Avera the Convention adjourned till 7:30 o'clock, p. m.

EVENING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 12.

Convention met pursuant to adjournment, Rev. Dr. Royall in the Chair.

Prayer by Elder N. A. Purefoy.

Elder N. B. Cobb read a very interesting paper on the present condition of education in North Carolina and what could be done by the Baptists to improve it.

J. H. Mills, editor of the Biblical Recorder, addressed the Convention a considerable length on the same subject. The speaker's quaint manner of expressing himself elicited frequent bursts of laughter, notwithstanding his assertions that there was nothing to laugh at, and that the instances which he had cited, showing how and why parents would not educate their children, was sad and lamentable in the extreme.

Dr. Sears followed in a lengthy and able argument in favor of educating the masses.

We regret that owing to the lateness of the hour we cannot give a more extended notice of the proceedings.

SUPREME COURT.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 12.

Bryant and Read, trustees et al., vs. Albert L. Scott, from Northampton, D. A. Barnes and Peebles & Peebles and W. N. H. Smith for plaintiff's, Geo. V. Strong, for defendant. Argued.

State vs. William H. White, from Granville, W. R. Cox, for plaintiff; Jones & Jones for defendant. Argued.

Titus T. Grandy vs. W. B. & Edwin Peebles, from Granville, M. V. Lanier for plaintiff; Attorney General Hargrove and Batchelor, Edwards & Batchelor for defendants. Argued.

MONEY LOST.—On Tuesday last Elder R. B. Overby, of Camden county, in attendance on the Baptist State Educational Convention, having occasion to use some money took from his pocket some sixty odd dollars and laid it in one of the windows of the Baptist Church where the Convention is holding its sessions. His attention being called away for the moment he forgot the money he had placed in the window and closing his purse he replaced it in his pocket. When he discovered his loss he made search for his money but it was nowhere to be found. It is thought that the money was picking up by some cuss for the purpose of taking care of it till the owner should call for it. Any person returning the money to Mr. Overby or to Dr. Pritchard will be suitably rewarded.
