HOME AFFAIRS.

THE bill allowing accumulative suffrage for the City of Raleigh passed its second reading in the Senate last night by a vote of 22 to 12

Owing to the late sitting of this body, and rush of other matter, the proceedings were left over.

THE double-column advertisement of the Leach Brothers will be found in to-day's paper. Call on them for anything you may wish in the grocery line. These gentlemen are classed among our leading merchants, and can always be found at their post ready to accommodate their customers.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS:

Read the advertisement of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., who constantly keep on hand one of the largest stocks of goods to be found anywhere in the South.

See the advertisement of Jones & Ellis.

Rooms to rent by James Pinson.

See Omaha Lottery advertisement.

Messrs. R. B. Andrews & Co., announce a fresh arrival of clothing.

COL. WM. BRANCH.—We were glad to see in the city this gentleman, in good health, and a flow of spirits which younger men envy.

If such gentlemen, raised under the old constitution, would go oftener than they do from home, the young men would catch something of their spirit and feelings, by which both they and the country might profit.

SPLENDID DRAW BRIDGE.—Mr. W. H. Lindsay has constructed a splendid draw bridge over the Neuse river where the Atlantic road crosses that stream. It is said to be the best bridge of the kind in the Southern country, so well balanced and so admirably adjusted as to enable a small boy to turn it with ease. Mr. Lindsay is now engaged in constructing a bridge over the Yadkin, at Erwin. This bridge is to span the river without a pier in the centre and promised to be a splendid job. Honor to whom it is due.

CAPTURE OF A HIGHWAY.—LOVE, a notorious desperado, and highwayman, was captured a few days ago by Capt. J. J. Hocton and J. W. Farthing, on the Watauga River, near the Tennessee line. Two years ago, Love was indicted by the Watauga county Grand Jury and managed until now to elude the vigilance of our officers. His captors are brave excellent young men, and only by untiring vigilance and great hazard have they succeeded in making this arrest.

MURDER IN BERRY.—We learn from the Mount Airy Visitor that a negro man named Joe Doss murdered a colored girl some 18 years old, on Saturday night 8th inst., in the most inhuman manner. The victim was a motherless child and lived with Doss and his wife. The wife, on being implicated by the coroner's jury, protested her likeness and laid the entire crime upon her husband who, she said, was in the habit of ill-treating the girl and who finally killed her by swinging her by the feet and dashing her head against the hearth." Doss has fled the State and is probably in Virginia. Doss is pock sighted, very black, twenty-two years old and about five feet ten inches high.

FOR SALE.—A parlor suite of handsome Furniture. Also, a very fine Sideboard, Table, &c., for sale cheap for cash. Address P. O. Box 307, Raleigh, N. C.

Among all the members of the House there is not one who discharges his duty more zealously and faithfully than Mr. J. R. Maxwell, of the county of Sampson. Quiet and unobtrusive in his manners, he is ever on the alert, and guards carefully the interests of his people, and of the people of the State. Sampson county is well represented with Dr. Murphy in the Senate and Messrs Maxwell and Bryant in the House.

IN THEIR SEATS.—We are glad to see in their seats again Col David Settle of Rockingham, Col. R. T. Bennett of Anson and Col. J. E. Lindsay of Nash. These gentlemen have been detained at home for several days by severe indisposition. It is a subject of congratulation to their constituents and to the people of the State generally, again to have the services of these gentlemen in the House.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—At a special meeting of Scator Gales Lodge, I. O. O. F., held on Thursday evening, the 13th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, It hath pleased him whom we reverentially call the Grand Master of the Universe to remove from among us Bro. A. L. Adams, late a member of this Lodge; therefore,

Resolved, That we deeply lament the death of our brother—this shattering of a link in our chain of friendship. The open hand and heart, characteristic of the true Odd Fellow, and the soft memory of eminent degree, linger

"Like twilight hues when the bright sun has set"

with those who have so recently been called upon to give back to dust his remains.

Resolved, That we condole with the relatives of the deceased in this affliction.

Resolved, That we wear the prescribed badge of mourning for thirty days.

Dr. W. B. Council's (of West ogs,) Chester—22 months old, pigged 13 on the 6th inst., making 21 from the same sow in 13 months. The Dr. is not a farmer, but challenges any body to beat him raising pigs

Some "unknown" shot at Jones, a revenue officer, a few days ago while he was crossing Beech Mountain, Watauga county, the shot—a bullet—striking his saddlebags, penetrated the horse, causing a serious if not fatal wound. Jones didn't like the appearance of things and dashed off, leaving saddlebags, horse and all behind.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mr. John E. Smith, a highly respected and much esteemed gentleman, and a magistrate of Limestone township, in Duplin county, in this State, died from an injury received by the falling of his horse through a bridge near the Court House, while returning home from his official duties, on Monday, the 3d instant. He lived only five days after the accident, and died on the Saturday following. He left a wife, two children and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.—Journal.

SHOCKING MURDER.

A COLORED MAN NEAR BURGAW MURDERS HIS OWN WIFE—PARTICULARS OF THE BLOODY DEED.

From a gentleman who arrived here from Burgaw, in this county, yesterday afternoon, we have the particulars of the terrible tragedy that occurred near that place on Monday, in which a colored man by the name of Sam. Perry murdered his wife. Perry lived at a place called Lillington, a small settlement made up almost entirely of colored people, about one mile and a half from Burgaw. Some time in the early part of last week a man living in the settlement carried home two or three barrels of whiskey, and Sam. immediately commenced indulging in his favored pastime of getting drunk, indulging to such an extent that he was attacked with delerium tremens and became a terror to the whole neighborhood. He was finally taken in hand by Magistrate John Penny, who locked him up for three days, but released him on Monday on the promise of Perry, who was then perfectly sober, that he would behave himself and not drink any more whiskey. Immediately upon his release, however, he went to his house, seized a loaded rifle and shot his wife (who had accompanied him home) through the breast, killing her almost instantly. Mr. Penny and others heard the report of the weapon when it was discharged and hastened to Perry's house to see what was the matter, apprehensive that something terrible had happened. Upon arriving there they found the poor woman weltering in her blood, but the murderer had disappeared, and when our informant left Burgaw yesterday no trace of him had been discovered, though every effort was being made to find out some indication of his whereabouts.

Sam Perry is about 40 years of age, his wife having been some 5 years his senior. He is a native of South Carolina, having come to this county with Sherman's army, and is dark complexioned, of medium size and about five feet four inches high.

No inquest has as yet been held over the body of the unfortunate woman, but it is presumed that coroner Hewlett will go up for that purpose this morning.—Wil. Star.

BLOODY AFFRAY.—We copy the following from a Riddicksville correspondence of the Roanoke News dated 18th inst:

The little town of Murfreesboro' last Friday night was somewhat startled from its usual quiet by a desperate fight, ending in the immediate death of one of the combattants. It appears that Mr. George W. Thompson made a most violent assault upon a young man by name of Charles Adkins in the eating saloon of the latter. The assailant was repeatedly urged to go away, but as often refused. He then dared Adkins to come into the street, and as soon as the young man did so, he set down several times and inflicting terrible wounds upon his face and temples by using the deadly "brass knuckles." Two gentlemen present succeeded in parting them, whereupon young Adkins again walked into his saloon, and again and again requested Thompson to leave. Thompson went into the street, cursing and swearing, and again, by great abuse, succeeded in so irritating Adkins as to cause him once more to go forth. They clinched again, but this time the scuffle though dreadful, was short, for there in broad dark street with no human eyes to witness the scene, Thompson received his almost instantaneous death from horrible wounds inflicted by some deadly instrument. The wounded man succeeded in reaching his room about fifty yards distant where falling upon his bed, he instantly died. His clothes were deluged with blood, presenting a horrible and ghastly sight. The wound producing death was about the neck, severing the jugular vein, slanting down, and thought to reach the heart. A post mortem was held upon the body. The community was greatly horrified, but the sympathy of all was more for the living than the dead. There is scarcely any blame in the affair attached to young Adkins, who is known to be a quiet, and inoffensive young man.

MONTICELLO IN LITIGATION.—A Complicated Case.—The former home of Thos. Jefferson, located on the Monticello mountain, near Charlottsville, Albermarle county, Virginia, is in litigation at present before the Supreme Court of Virginia. It is well known that Mr. Jefferson expended a large fortune in a lavish hospitality and died poor. Monticello, his estate was sold, and purchased by Commodore Levy of the United States Navy. Commodore Levy devised the estate at his death to the United States, as a trustee, for the purpose of establishing an agricultural farm on which to educate to agricultural pursuits children of the warrant officers of the navy whose fathers were dead. In aid of this scheme he also devised $500,000 worth of property in New York. In the event of the United States not accepting the trust he provided that the State of Virginia should act as the trustee for the purpose named. And in the event of the State of Virginia not accepting the trust, he devised the property to the Portugese Hebrew Congregations of New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, for the benefit of the children of those scribes whose fathers were dead. His legal heirs brought suit in New York to set aside these provisions of the will. The court in New York declared the charity too indefinite, and that the United States could not take the property as a trustee. Virginia not being a party to that suit, instituted a suit for its recovery as secondary trustee. The case is at present being exhaustively argued in the Supreme Court of Virginia, now in session at Richmond. Among the executors of the will are Dr. Joshua Cohen and Jacob I. Cohen, of Baltimore.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—A freight train on the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad ran of the track near Pineington some time during Monday night, by which, we learn, several freight cars were more or less injured. We could obtain no further particulars of the disaster.—Wil. Star.

Henry Robinson, of Catawba county, sold last week two native steers, which weighed thirty-eight hundred pounds. Mr. R. says the steers, which are eight years old, received the same attention as his horses.

On motion of Mr. Richardson, section 23 was amended.

Amendments submitted by Mr. Bennett were adopted. The Revenue Bill then passed its third reading.

WHAT A FEW OTHERS WHO ARE USING THEM SAY OF THE

ADJUSTABLE

SPRING BED BOTTON!

RALEIGH, N. C., January 8, 1873.

The "Adjustable Spring Bed" left at my house last week gives the entire satisfaction; have never seen a spring bed that I was more pleased with and take pleasure in recommending it to all. Yours respectfully,

T. H. BRIGGS.

RALEIGH, N. C., January 28, 1873.

I have used for two weeks or more Bartlett's & Pomeroy's Adjustable Spring Beds. I find it exceedingly comfortable, and can recommend it to any one wanting a comfortable and at the same time cheap spring bed.

MRS. GEO. W. SWEPSON.
