THE SENTINEL

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., Editor.

SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 2, 1873.

RALEIGH, N. C.

The editor of the SENTINEL will be at Rockingham, Caswell and Person courts, on Tuesday of each court, to address the people on the state of the country, the condition of the party, and the power and corruption of the Rings.

WILD HUNT FOR OFFICE—TOADYISM.

The rush for office, always strong in these degenerate days, is especially brisk now, both in Washington and even in our own "erty" and State. In Raleigh, the decision of the Supreme Court having opened the doors to hungry applicants, even for the most insignificant places, the Governor is besieged and the whole circle of chronic office-seekers is in a buzz of excitement and anxiety for admission to the foot-stool of power. It is a sad spectacle, this wild hunt after office—and the toadyism which is, now-a-days practiced to get it. It is not only sad, but alarming and bodes evil to the public welfare. It is one of the many symptoms of national decay which we now unhappily find in the body politic. We see even respectable men, so-called, running and crawling, and cringing at the feet of official power, to pick up the crumbs that fall from the tables of the Treasury. No office goes begging, now a days, but is eagerly sought after, from the lowest to the highest—even from that of a constable or town commissioner to the chief gift in the hands of the Executive of the State or the nation. These chronic office seekers seem to think that the very salvation of the country depends on their having the control of its destinies, and are ready to desert party and principle and even their own self respect, for money and the spoils of office. Once in, they seem to forget the "dear people" who pay the taxes and and furnish the very bread and meat that these spoilsmen live upon. We warn the people against this wicked, this unpatriotic struggling and battling for office, so corrupting in all its tendencies and so portentous of evil to republican institutions and the liberty and welfare of the whole people.

WILL THE REPUBLIC SUCCEED IN SPAIN?

We fear not. It would be a most difficult task to establish a permanent republican government in any nation of Europe, under existing circumstances, against the moral, if not the actual force of the great powers of Russia, Germany, Austria and Italy, not to mention England. A republic would have the sympathy of France for the present, but how long no human wisdom can foresee. It is very probable that French policy has dictated the present republic in Spain. If she could be let alone and uninfluenced by the outside pressure of other European and antagonistic governments, Spain might succeed. In her separate provinces—once powerful States and kingdoms—and in her attachment to local self-government, always very strong, she has a good basis for a federal republic. But, then, during all this century, the normal political condition of Spain has been one of chaos, confusion and frequent and bloody civil wars. Even now it is the hot-bed of intrigue and revolution, and the nation is threatened with a fearful civil war, in a contest, long since begun and never abandoned, for the throne by the adherents of Don Carlos. Besides, the latest telegrams bring intelligence of a compromise and combination between the families of the Ex-Queen Isabella and the Duke of Montpensier, so long estranged. The latter is the son of Louis Phillipe and a statesman of great ability. His wife is the only sister of Isabella. It is proposed that Alphonso the young prince of Austria, the eldest son of Isabella, be proclaimed "King of Spain," with the Duke of Montpensier as "Regent" during his minority, and that Alphonso be betrothed in marriage to his cousin, the daughter of Montpensier. This is a powerful combination, with great influence in Spain, uniting both branches of the Bourbon family and certainly acceptable to the conquered heads of Don Carlos. It seems no good to the Republic of Spain, but much of evil. We fear for the result.

NEW POSTMASTER AT HIGH POINT.

There is a new postmaster at this "Post," name Rev. James—an D. D., however, to the name; though a candidate in his county did call him a miserable little whelp, lying puppy.

Rev. James went around with a petition among the negroes, mostly, and had himself recommended for postmaster, alleging that Eli Denny, the old postmaster, a worthy, quiet citizen, who took no part in politics, was a noisy Democrat, &c., &c.

The Rev. James may be a man of much grace, as Elder Ward would phrase it, but he has little learning and no tact for his business. One man reports that he is sure to get something when he calls. He called four times in one day and received mail matter at each call. That Mr. A's letter shall go to Mr. B. is no great mistake, but that they should go to W. or Z., provokes the whole neighborhood.

Mr. H. went in to register a letter. Rev. James said he did not know how it ought be done. Finally Mr. H. took his letter out of the postmaster's hands and went to Bailey Fork, three and a half miles, to have it registered.

Gov. Holden, who left for Washington last Friday, should have taken this new postmaster with him to mark postmaster-ing. The Governor will no doubt have a marking of the art himself before he returns.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

The Supreme Court has decided in favor of Prof. McIver in the case of "Battle and Caldwell against McIver." What has "come over the spirit" of the Supreme Court that it should thus disregard the appointment and wishes of his excellency, the Governor? Such action falls to comport with the high and lofty character (?) of the Supreme Court of North Carolina.—Tobacco Plant.

Do you not remember, brother Green, that we said when the suit was brought, that the court would have to go back on herself if she did not prolong by decision McIver's term of two years? This court was never known to go back upon herself, except on habeas corpus, and bench warrants for the arrest of Kirk and W. W. Holden.

The Raleigh SENTINEL at different times has intimated that our worthy young representative, Kerr Craige, Esq., had declared his preference for the News in awarding the public printing, some time too, before the committee disposed of it. Well, there is nothing wrong about this. The fact that Mr. Craige preferred to see the printing given to the News, and so expressed himself, and then had the manliness to stand up to his declarations, in defiance of the solicitations of friends and the influences generally brought to bear in such matters, is to be commended. If the allegations of the SENTINEL are true and Mr. Craige was really for the News from the first, the facts only add to our high estimate of Mr. Craige's character. They show that he was not actuated by any spirit of revenge in the part he took in disposing of the public printing. He has done but his duty, and shown himself to be worthy of the renewed confidence of his constituents as a firm, high-toned, and incorruptible representative.—Carolina Watchman.

Good, Mr. Watchman, but the SENTINEL has never complained of Mr. Craige's vote for the News.

What becomes of Mr. Waring, who said at Charlotte Mr. Craige and the whole committee, except the republican portion of it were for the SENTINEL, until that paper failed to lash the bolters to the support of Vance?

Mr. Craige seeing such use made of his name by Mr. Waring should have corrected his statement. That is the only complaint we make of Mr. Craige. We never sought or solicited his vote, nor did we talk with any member of the committee on the subject.

The whole committee are not to blame for what the speaker called an outrage. Some of them we know to be entirely innocent, others, we will not say in the language of the Speaker, committed an "outrage," but played a trick.

LEAVING FLORIDA.

Men of property are leaving Florida to escape negro legislation and taxes imposed by our guondam ringmaster, Littlefield, and his carpet-bag and scalaway associates. Has the world ever seen such patience as the Southern people have shown since the war under the vilest oppression and plunder and accumulated wrong?

THE DEBT OF THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD COMPANY.—The capital stock of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at the time of the supplement doubling the same was passed was $75,000,000, consequently by the act just signed by the Governor the company is authorized to increase it to $150,000,000. The company has authority to create a debt in amount equal to its capital. Thus the capital and debt of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company may, without further legislation, be increased to three hundred millions! This is a large margin, and the Ledger thinks the limit will probably not be reached by that company for many years yet. Probably the latest data as to the other expansions of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company is that afforded by the Financier, which prints a tabular statement of the miles of road controlled by that company, either by lease, or, by ownership of a majority of the stock. The summary shows that the Pennsylvania controls sixty-three railroads, including the Union Pacific, the Texas Pacific and some others in course of construction, with a total length of 16,000 miles and a value of $670,000,000, together with 250 miles of canal and a line of steamships. There is thus nearly one-third of the railroads of the country under the dominion of this one corporation. When such a power is brought to bear upon legislation, there is no telling what may happen to public righ ts and interests.

THE FIRST BLOOD SHED IN THE WAR.—The Richmond Dispatch contends that Col. Ellsworth was not the first man killed in the civil war. It says:

Ellsworth was killed at Alexandria on the 24th day of May, 1861—the day after the vote was taken upon the ratification of the ordinance of secession. Two days before—to wit, on the night of the 22nd day of May, 1861—a Union man was killed at Fetterman, Taylor county, West Virginia, [then Virginia,] by a Confederate, or rather Virginia soldier, belonging to the volunteer company which had been marched thither the previous week from Fairmont, in Marion county. This company was a part of of the Thirty-first Virginia regiment of infantry throughout the war. The man who was killed was a violent Union man—as violent as he was ignorant—and resided in Grafton, a town three miles from Fetterman, both towns being on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. He went armed to Fetterman; marched up to the sentinel who killed him; and when challenged replied by a shot which went through the Virginia soldier's ear. Whereupon the soldier shot him dead upon the spot. The writer of this article saw the soldier at Philippi a few days afterwards, and was one of a number of persons who was curious to see, and did see, the hole in his ear.

FEDERAL INTERFERANCE WITH RAILROADS.—The majority of the Senate committee on commerce, in asking to be discharged from the further consideration of the inquiry as to congressional power over the railroads of the country, did so on the ground that they had not examined the constitutional branch of the subject, and further, deemed it inexpedient to take any action in the matter at this session. Senator Vickers presented an elaborate paper giving his views on the subject, comprising sixty pages of manuscript, in which an immense array of authorities to prove the impracticability, and the inexpediency of any interference by Congress with the railroads.—Wash. Cor. Balt. Sun.

A Galveston (Texas) crab was lately caught subjecting life in a coffee-pot, in which he had grown so he could not get out.

The Spectacles are manufactured from "Minute Crystal Pebbles" melted together, and are called Diamond on account of their hardness and brilliancy. It is well known that Spectacles cut from Brazilian or Scotch pebbles are very injurious to the eye, because of their polarizing light. Having been tested with the polariscope, the diamond lenses have been found to admit fifteen per cent. less heated rays than any other pebble. They are ground with great scientific accuracy, are free from chromatic aberrations, and produce a brightness and distinctness of vision not before attained in spectacles.
