UNUSUAL.—There was a quorum in both branches of the General Assembly up to noon yesterday, an unusual occurrence on the day of adjournment, and a good day's work was done.

DEAD.—We regret to learn that the infant child of Dr. Watson, of this city, who, with its mother, was severely burnt on Friday night last, by the explosion of a kerosene lamp, is dead. The mother is in a critical condition.

INAUGURATION DAY.—To-day General Grant is to be inaugurated President for his second term. Washington is doubtless crowded—the crowd being largely made up of office-seekers, flunkeys, pickpockets and prostitutes of both sexes. It is good not to be there to-day.

TEMPERANCE.—We learn that Theo N. Ramsay organized a lodge of Good Templars in this city last night, among the colored people, with the following officers: C. N. Hunter, President; W. R. Davis, Secretary; D. Jones, Treasurer. The name given the lodge is "Queen of the South."

IMPORTANT.—In the House on Saturday night a resolution was read authorizing the Keeper of the Capitol to put in repair the sidewalks around the lots owned by the State. Jake Brown, rad., and self-styled constitutional lawyer, and leader of his side of the House, moved to indefinitely postpone. This motion called to his feet Ellison, col., of Wake, who made a short and effective speech, and handled Jake without gloves. His excoriation of Jacob was enjoyed on all sides of the House.

OUR NEW POSTOFFICE AND SAFE.—The report of the conference committee on the sundry appropriation bill was made to Congress yesterday and agreed to. The item of $100,000 additional appropriation for our new post office and Federal Court is retained. We now have a splendid site and $200,000 to begin with. The old wooden structure on Fayetteville street must quickly move out of the way, and before Christmas we shall likely see a handsome, substantial building take its place.

TO HEADS OF FAMILIES.—The attention of heads of families and others using oil for illuminating purposes is directed to the advertisement of Bragg's & Sons announcing the celebrated "Premium Safety Oil," also to that of Julius Lewis & Co., which includes the far famed "Astral Oil." The daily record of frightful accidents from the ordinary burning fluids and Kerosene are surely sufficient to banish them from every dwelling, particularly when oils perfectly safe can be purchased at about the same price.

GONE THROUGH.—The bill, introduced by Mr. McCauley, to repeal the act to exchange the stocks of the State for bonds with which such stocks were purchased, passed its several readings and is now a law. In getting this bill through Mr McCauley was ably seconded by Mr. Troy who closely watched it through the various stages of its progress. The passage of this bill is a victory over Tom Scott and the Ring. The future will show this to be a bill of more importance than any passed by the present legislature. It keeps the highways of the State, in some degree, under the control of the State.

ADJOURNED.—At half-past one o'clock on yesterday (Monday) the Legislature adjourned, to meet again on the third Monday of November, as provided by the constitution. No legislative body ever assembled in North Carolina which did so much. In the Senate, 740 bills and resolutions were introduced and only twenty of this large number remained on the calendar and they were mostly of a private charter. In the House a thousand bills and resolutions were offered and only one hundred remain unfinished upon the calendar. There were about 70 working days of the session; according to this the average work of the session per day was twenty five bills or resolutions. We have before noticed the constitutional amendmentments passed, which, added to the regular and ordinary business of the session, makes it, in the history of North Carolina, the most important Legislature ever assembled. The work to be done and which was actually done, was of more magnitude and importance to the people of the State than the work of any previous Legislature. We wish them, one and all, a safe return to their families, friends and constituents.

CORRECTION.—In our editorial on the Republic of Spain, our typos made us say Alphonso, the "Prince of Austria" instead of the "Prince of Asturias."

LACONIC.—A report is current in this city to the effect that Col. Young, Internal Revenue Collector, is to be removed and that Major Wills D. Jones, District Assessor, whose office is abolished by recent act of Congress, is to be his successor. The Major has been canvassing industriously and we understand he has secured quite a formidable list of names to his petition. The Colonel is a sharp worker and "watches his corks" well, and besides the Ex-Governor will put in a word in his favor; but, then, the Major also has a champion in the person of "Blow-Your-Horn-William." It will be "pull Dick, pull Devil," with chances decidedly in favor of the devil.

COL. PETER MALLET.—We are glad to see in the city the gentleman whose name heads this article. He is the General Freight Agent for Murray's Line of Steamers from New York to Morehead City and Newbern. Col. Mallett informs us that a third steamer will soon be put upon the line, and the proprietors intend to make it a cheap route for North and South Carolina merchants to receive and send off their goods.

Beaufort is a great harbor, for when the Yankees went to subjugate us, the largest men of war could ride safely in it. As soon as we are subjugated, the harbor goes out of use. We welcome the line of steamers, and hope our merchants will give the Murray Line of Steamers one trial at least. We hear of merchants in this city who have done so, and they are sufficiently pleased with their experiment to try it again.

We venture to say, if the Murray Line does well, Tom Scott will attempt to buy the harbor and the Atlantic road.

LATEST BY MAIL.

RECENT STORM ON OUR COAST.—The Newbern Journal of Commerce says much damage was done by the recent storm on our coast. The City Hall, at Morehead City, was blown down; the fences suffered much in different parts of Carteret, and trees were torn up by the roots.

On Saturday night, about 1 o'clock, a colored woman, residing on Market, between 10th and 11th streets, Wilmington, was accidentally burned to death. The accident happened through the ignition of the bed clothing.

INCENDIARY.—A two-story frame building, belonging to a colored man named Cader Bunting, on Marsteller street, Wilmington, was burned to the ground on Saturday night. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, as no fire had been in the building lately, and as the door which had been closed and fastened was found open when the fire was discovered. Loss about $500, on which there is insurance to the amount of $300.

ALLEGED HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—A white man giving the name of James Kennedy on Saturday last made his appearance before the authorities at the City Hall, Wilmington, and stated that while on his way, walking, to Goldsboro', when at the 11th mile post on the Wilmington and Weldon railroad, a negro man suddenly sprang upon him from a place of concealment and knocked him down, and stripped off most of his clothing and appropriated them and made off to the woods. Kennedy says he is from Rochester, N. Y., and may be telling the truth, though we suspect he is attempting to make a raise.

THE MODOC LAVA BED.—Jesse Applegate, writing to the Portland (Oregon) Bulletin, gives the following description of the lava bed in which the hostile Indians are now intrenched:

The stronghold of the Modoc Indians is a "pedregal" of the most extensive and elaborate description—an irregular volcanic surface of basalt, trachyte, &c., more or less broken into upheavals from below, and cracked and fissured in the process of cooling. It occupies, with but few intervals, nearly 100 square miles. If you can, imagine a smooth, sand, solid sheet of granite, ten miles square and 500 feet thick, covering resistless mines of gunpowder, scattered at irregular intervals under it; that these mines are exploded simultaneously, rending the whole field into rectangular masses, from the size of a match box to that of a church, heaping these masses high in some places, and leaving deep chasms in others. Following the explosion, the whole thing is placed in one of Vulcan's crucibles, and heated up to a point when the whole begins to fuse and run together, and then suffered to cool. The roughness of the upper surface remains as the explosion left it, while all below is honey combs, by the cracks and crevices caused by the cooling of the melted rock. An Indian can, from the top of one of these stone pyramids, shoot a man without exposing even so much as an inch square of himself. He can, without undue haste, load and shoot a common muzzle-loading rifle ten times before a man can scramble over the rocks and change between the slain and the slayer. If, at this terrible expense of life, a force dislodges him from his cover, he has only to drop into and follow some subterranean passage with which he is familiar to gain another ambush, from whence it will cost ten more lives to dislodge him.

Counterfeit $10 notes on the Farmers' and Manufacturers' Bank of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., are in circulation in several towns in this State. Look out for them.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE,

MONDAY, March 3.

The Senate met at 10 a. m., President Brogden in the chair and a quorum present.

Quite a number of engrossed bills, of a private character passed their second readings.

A message was received from the Governor, in response to a resolution of the Senate adopted some two or three weeks ago, asking for information in regard to the mortgage and sale of the Eastern Division of the Western N. C. Railroad, and also into the affairs of the Wilmington, Char. & Ruth. Railroad. In his message the Governor says he has been prevented by protracted indisposition from responding at an earlier day. He twits the Senate several time on either not having read his message or with having forgotten it. He reminds that body that the reports of the corporations referred to are to be made to the Superintendent of Public Works and not to the Executive. He declines to enter into a consideration of the "false assuptions" in the preamble to the resolutions, and concludes by saying he has no information of the character sought to furnish. Few saw the reading clerk and the Reporters heard this message, and consequently no notice whatever was taken of it.

Mr. Worth introduced a bill to provide for the printing and distribution of three thousand copies of the Revenue and Machinery bills in advance of the regular publication of the laws. Passed its several reading and transmitted to the House.

Mr. Dunham introduced a resolution to receive the order to adjourn at 12 m., and to substitute 1½ p. m., to complete the ratification of the acts passed and to allow time to the committee to complete the destruction of vouchers, &c., in the public offices. Agreed to.

Mr. Ellis, of Columbus, introduced a resolution returning the thanks of the Senate to the President and officers of that body for the zeal, fidelity and impartiality with which they had performed their duties. Unanimously adopted.

President Brogden gratefully acknowledged the complimentary resolution of the Senate, and thanked the members for their courtesy, and for their indulgence to the presiding officer. He wished them a safe return to their homes and their families and friends.

On motion of Mr. Norwood, at 11:45, the Senate resolved itself into executive session to consider any further nominations the Governor might have to make. After a short time spent in secret session, the Governor having declined to send in any further nominations, the Senate resumed its regular session, and at 1:30 adjourned till the third Monday of November next.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

EVENING SESSION.

SATURDAY, March 1.

House met at 7 o'clock.

Mr. Badger, from the select committee, to which was referred the reports of the Treasurer and Secretary of State concurring, the grants issued during the years 1868,-'69,-'70-'72, submitted that they had had the clerks of the Treasurer and Secretary of State diligently employed in making examination of the records of grants in their respective offices, and furnishing a transcript of the same. The committee had hoped to be able to make a full report before the adjournment of the Legislature, but the amount of work has been such, that consistent with the duties devolving upon them at this part of the session, the Treasurer and Secretary of State have not been able to furnish the abstracts necessary to a complete and exhaustive report. Enough has been discovered to satisfy them that the matter should be thoroughly investigated, and they therefore ask leave to be allowed to make further report to the next session of this body.

Mr. Brown, of Mecklenburg, introduced a bill to amend the act for the support of the Lunatic Asylum.

Bowe, (col.) a bill to amend an act to incorporate the young men's Intelligent and enterprising association.

Mr. Bennett, a resolution in favor of the principal clerks of the two Houses, and on his motion the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

By Mr. Richardson, a bill in reference to the collection of State Taxes in Wayne county for 1870, which was read and passed.

The bill to change the dividing line between Granville and Franklin counties passed its several readings.

The bill to prevent the sale of liquor to minors was read and passed.

The bill to revise the charter of the Hickory Nut Gap Turnpike was read and passed.

The bill concerning the right of way to public worship passed several readings.

On motion of Mr. Bennett, a resolution in favor of T. P. Lee, sheriff of Wake county, was put upon its several readings and passed.

On motion of Mr. Gidney the rules were suspended and the resolution in favor of D. C. Fowler, et al, was read and after some discussion tabled. [The objection of some members to voting for the resolution was that Fowler had made one statement to the Governor about Penitentiary matters and a totally different one to the committee appointed to investigate the same.]

The bill to amend the charter of the North Western N. C. Railroad company passed its several readings.

The bill to provide a central place for comparing the election returns of Brunswick county passed its several readings.

Bill to authorize two additional terms of the Superior Court of Granville county passed its several readings.

The resolution concerning sidewalks around State lots was read and tabled.

The bill concerning the conveying of convicts was read and tabled.

Bill to amend sec. 39, chapter 213, laws of 1871-72, was taken up and passed several readings.

Resolution in favor of J. H. Ennis passed several readings.

The bill to establish a public ferry over Yadkin river in Forsythe county passed its several readings.

Bill to incorporate a Baptist Church in Brunswick county passed its several readings.

Bill to incorporate the co-operative association passed its several readings.

Resolution in relation to the distribution of the laws of 1868 passed its several readings.

The bill to extend the time of registration of grants, &c., in Cumberland passed several readings.

Bill in reference to Pamlico county passed several readings.

Resolution in favor of W. H. Morrisette was taken up and passed.

House adjourned at 11:50 p. m.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, March 3, 1873.

The House was called to order by Speaker Robinson at 10 o'clock.

Mr. McNeil, a resolution that the Secretary of State be directed to furnish a copy of the act changing the time of holding the Fall terms of the Superior Courts in the counties of Robeson and Brunswick to the Robesonian, a newspaper published in the town of Lumberton, and said act shall be published once a week for three weeks, and the Auditor is directed to draw his warrant on the Treasurer for the amount of the publication.

Mr. Badger, (Mr. Johnston being in the chair,) introduced the following resolution which was unanimously adopted:

The House of Representatives do resolve, That for his impartiality and courtesy, by which kindly and friendly relations have been promoted between the members, and by his strict attention to the duties of his office, and his knowledge of parliamentary usages, by which the public business has been greatly forwarded, Mr. Speaker Robinson is entitled to the thanks of this body and of the people of North Carolina.

Mr. Badger said that in introducing this resolution, he had expressed his honest convictions and what he believed to be the unanimous sentiment of this House. In drafting it he had gone out of the ordinary "rut" of complimentary resolutions, and had sought to make it speak the exact truth. To Mr. Speaker Robinson the House were greatly indebted for the harmonious and friendly feelings that have characterised all our proceedings. Public business has been greatly forwarded thereby, and the true interests of the State, and not solely party ends, have been the result of our deliberations. He has been kind and courteous to all the members, but at the same time firm and inflexible in executing his trust. He has displayed a thorough acquaintance with parliamentary law, and a promptness in applying it, that has greatly facilitated the prosecution of our work and saved to the people much expense. The House and North Carolina owe him a debt of gratitude.

Mr. McGehee endorsed heartily all that Mr. Badger had said.

Senate bill to prohibit the sale of liquors at Endor, in Chatham county, passed its several readings.

Senate bill in relation to counter claims passed its several readings.

Senate bill to incorporate the Lockesville Locomotive and Car Company passed its several readings.

Senate bill to incorporate the Haw River Iron Company, passed its several readings.

Senate bill to repeal chapter 106 laws 1870-'71, passed its several readings.

Mr. Gidney introduced a resolution in favor of W. H. Morris, Pescud, Lee & Co. and J. H. Ennis, which passed.

Mr. Turner, of Iredell, introduced the following resolutions which were placed on the calendar. In introducing them he said:

MR. SPEAKER:—I wish to introduce a resolution, which it was the desire of some members to introduce or have introduced on Saturday last, but such a resolution I take the liberty of introducing to-day. It is very well known that it is charged in the public prints, that the Pennsylvania Central corporation which is now a mammoth power in the land, has corrupted editors, legislators and judges, and if this or other rings have been endeavoring to exercise such baneful influences here, either by running a paper, or otherwise, it becomes a proper matter for investigation so far as it has any bearing upon the legislation of the General Assembly.

In view of the many charges made and often repeated, I offer the following resolutions:

Whereas, It is publicly charged that the Pennsylvania and other Rings did, at the last session of the General Assembly, establish and pay for running a Democratic paper with a view to improperly influence legislation, especially on the subject of railroads, and whereas it is publicly charged by a leading paper in this city that the same or similar Rings are running papers to improperly influence the legislation of the State, therefore,

Resolved, That W. H. Jones, Esq., of this city, be appointed a commissioner to send for persons and papers to investigate the charges that Corporations and Rings are running newspapers for the purposes aforesaid, as charged by a city paper.

Resolved, That on failure of said W. H. Jones Esq., to act, Ed. Harris, Esq., of the city, shall act in his stead, and if he do decline, then John C. Palmer, Esq.

Resolved, That the Commissioner so and he is hereby required to report to the next session of the Legislature. Not acted on for want of time.

Mr. Speaker Robinson made the following remarks after which he declared the House adjourned until the 3rd Monday in November next.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives: In taking leave of you it is meet that I should express my appreciation of the kind and flattering manner you have expressed yourselves towards me in the resolution adopted this morning. It is gratifying to me, and should be to every North Carolinian, that the asperities and workings of party strife are rapidly disappearing from our halls of legislation and a proper spirit and patriotism taking its place. Your labors have been arduous, and I must say you have been faithful and attentive. Much has been done for the good of North Carolina, and the verdict of the people will be on your side, when the results are made known. I am indebted to you for your kind aid and co-operation in the dispatch of public business. To the officers and employees of this House I must return my thanks for the prompt performance of their duties. A kind providence has protected us. The angel of death has passed around us; trusting the same powerful arm may protect you and return you to your families and friends, I now declare this House adjourned to the third Monday in November next.

A spotting man from Richmond has taken a bear and a bull dog to Petersburg, with which he proposes to give an entertainment this week in that city.

TO SKEPTICS.

The almost daily receipts of voluntary testimonials from every part of the country, from Physicians, Clergymen, old and young, male and female, is still best to convince the most skeptical that DR. TUTT'S EXPECTORANT is the most valuable LUNG BALSAM of the age; many wonderful cures have been performed which as may be seen by hundreds of certificates in the hands of the proprietor. Try it and you will doubt no longer.

SAVANNAH, GA., Sept. 24, 1869.

MR. L. H. M. MCMYER:

Dear Friend—Enclosed please find P. O. order for $10 dollars, and I have to apologize for not writing to you before. I have been quite sick, and very busy when well therefore neglected it. You will please send me per Express two more bottles of Tutt's Expectorant. It is certainly a splendid thing for a cough; it has cured me effectually of my cough, and also several others to whom I gave it.

With a thousand thanks for the medicine you sent me, I remain your sincere friend,

A RARE COMBINATION

ECONOMY & LUXURY.

Healthfulness, Cleanliness, Adjustment, Flexibility, Ease, Comfort, Durability, Noiselessness.

THE ADJUSTABLE

SPRING BED BOTTOM!

With one of these if you have a Feather Bed, a Mattress is not required. If you have a mattress, feathers are not required. You can have a most Luxurious Bed, with either, without the other. Don't take our word for it, but take a Spring Bed on trial for a few days at our risk, to be taken away if it does not suit.

Samples may be seen at Julius Lewis & Co's, T. H. Briggs & Sons, W. H. Jones & Co's, W. H. Morris & Co's Furniture Store, or at the Yarbrough House, where they are in constant use and where Dr. Blacknall will take pleasure in giving any information about the Beds. Agents wanted in every county.
