

The Daily Sentinel

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY MARCH 15, 1873.

NO. 158.

THE DAILY SENTINEL

Table with rates of subscription: Daily (1 year $3.00), Weekly (1 year $1.00), Single Copy (10 cents).

AMUSEMENTS

Tucker Hall. TWO NIGHTS ONLY: MONDAY AND TUESDAY, MARCH 17TH AND 18TH. THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY BERGER FAMILY

Swiss Bell Ringers. And their Entire Company of Talented Musical Artists. THE MOST ELEGANT AND POPULAR TROUPE TRAVELING!

SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE. By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Orange county, I will sell at public sale, at the court house door, in Hillsboro, N. C., TUESDAY, THE 19TH OF APRIL, 1873.

COTTON FACTORY. Also—One other tract, on the waters of Eno, about one mile and a half south of the mill dam on Fredrick's Williams, B. M. Jones and others, containing one hundred and fifty acres.

BRADLEY'S Super Phosphate. Sea Fowl Guano. NEW ARRIVAL. 1873. Moleskin Hats. SILK HATS. 1873. Fresh Garden Seeds.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS

WANTED: A Virginia lady of six years' experience, a situation as teacher in a private family. She is competent to teach the highest English branches, French and Music, and can furnish the best of references.

MOTHERS BE ADVISED. Always keep a bottle of Dr. Tatt's Celebrated Expecto-ran in the house. It is a certain and pleasant cure for coughs, colds, croup, etc. It is agreeable to the taste, and children take it readily. Go to your drugist and get it at once, it may save the life of your little one.

THE DEVIL, or some other warmait made his personal appearance, as announced at one of the cabins in our suburbs, last Tuesday night, and rattled his chains around to the great terror of some crowded females, one of whom was so badly frightened that she fainted several times and was taken to the hospital.

THE SHIELD OF HEALTH. Debility opens the door to disease. Nor is this all. When the door has been opened and the terrible intruder has entered, physical prostration renders its progress to the citadel of life comparatively easy. Therefore, keep the door, and if possible, keep it barred.

OBITUARY. At his residence, in Davidson county, on the 6th instant, ALBERT BETTS, in the 72nd year of his age.

From the 27th Annual Statement of the Connecticut Mutual Life Ins. Company. GEORGE ALLEN & CO'S LABOR SAVING Cotton, Corn and Potato CULTIVATOR, WILEY'S PATENT.

GENES OF BEAUTIFUL WRITING

A new compendium of penmanship, comprised in a complete series of copy-books, has just been published. The author, Prof. Gaskell, President of the Bryant & Stratton College, Manchester, N. H., has long been known as the "Prince of American Penmen," and since the death of Father Spencer there has been no one to dispute this title.

FRESH FOREIGN ITEMS. Recent statistics prove that Missionaries in foreign countries have quite as good chances for long life as the clergy who remain in the United States.

John King, the first Englishman who signed the total abstinence pledge, being old and in want, has just received a present of $1,500.

A British Magazine speaks of that "too common falling among Americans of what is mildly termed neglecting to buy for their paper. That charge is false, if it is made against honest Americans.

At his residence, in Davidson county, on the 6th instant, ALBERT BETTS, in the 72nd year of his age. Capt. BETTS will be well remembered as a former resident of Raleigh, whose uniform, courtesy, public spirit and kindness of heart made him a most useful and popular citizen.

At his late residence, in the Grange, is a picture of "Our Grandmothers"—which shows sundry face ornaments, such as moon, stars, etc.—painted on cheeks or forehead—now actually having a coach and four, and being presented above the eyes. Their head dresses were grand and peculiar. One had a ship and another a bird's nest, as the finish to the dressing of the hair.

At his residence, in Davidson county, on the 6th instant, ALBERT BETTS, in the 72nd year of his age. Capt. BETTS will be well remembered as a former resident of Raleigh, whose uniform, courtesy, public spirit and kindness of heart made him a most useful and popular citizen.

HOME AFFAIRS

Sec'd Out-fits at Osborne's Grain and Feed Store. The increase in width of Wilmington street practically, has been commenced by the removal of fences and the substitution of others back.

State Fair. There was a meeting in Metropolitan Hall last night of those interested in agricultural affairs. The true propositions were presented why the Fair will be held here permanently.

Death of Joshua Brinn. We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Joshua Brinn, of Newbern. Mr. Brinn was a practical printer, a local preacher and an excellent man. Mr. B. had many warm friends in this city.

Phenomenon. Yesterday afternoon, about six o'clock, the colored population of this city were no little excited at the appearance, in the western horizon, of what they called a coffin. When appealed to, we queried their fears by informing them that there was no coffin in the sky, and that which they saw was, perhaps, nothing more than a cloud of smoke from the gas-house, too dense to be dispelled by the gentle breeze.

Eratum. A red-headed man came into the office yesterday, to correct the impression, in the SENTINEL, that Dictionary Webster was the United States Congressman from the District of Columbia. The name of the man was not given.

General Cox. This distinguished son of North Carolina sends the following note to T. F. Lee, Esq., chairman of the Committee of Arrangements for St. Patrick's celebration on next Monday night: CAPT. T. F. LEE, Chairman, &c. Sir:—I am in receipt of the kind invitation to be present and participate in the celebration of "St. Patrick's Day" on the 17th inst. I assure you it will afford me pleasure to do so.

Very respectfully yours, &c., W. H. COX, Near Raleigh, March 14, 1873. Prof. Stevens' Lecture, Last Evening. Prof. Stevens, A. M., of the Peace Institute, delivered a highly instructive and pleasing lecture, last evening, in the institution before the officers and pupils and a large number of visitors. His subject was "The Poet and the Philosopher," and in considering this theme he elucidated a few of the more characteristic differences between them; the subjects, in nature, and in human life, which they present to us, and the influence they exert upon literature, society and the progress of the race.

Post Office. The first mail received daily at 7:30 in the Eastern and Northern. Next, 9:30 via Raleigh & Argot Air Line. Third, 4 p. m. via Wilmington. Twelve hundred letters and newspapers, collectively, are received by the latter.

Peace Institute

The whole number of pupils (all young ladies) in this institution, at the present time, is sixty three, sixty of whom board there. When the improvements in progress are completed, the building will be capable of accommodating one hundred boarders. The school room can seat one hundred and twenty-six pupils. The Spring term commenced on the 10th of last month and will continue, without intermission, until the 25th of June next. It is the constant aim of the teachers to make the institute a cheerful Christian home for young ladies during the years allotted to their school life, and no pains are being spared and no means left unexplored to contribute to their religious, moral, intellectual, social and physical improvement. The government is that of a Christian home. Obedience to lawful regulations is required; proper authority is maintained, but appeals are made to the reason, the conscience, the affection, and the lady-like sense of propriety of the pupils. The boarders are considered members of the family, are treated as ladies, and expected and required to act as such. At the table, where all the teachers and pupils sit together, and where much pains is taken to make everything pleasant and home-like, their manners are particularly attended to and conversation encouraged. All eating at unreasonable hours, or in the sleeping rooms is strictly forbidden, and parents have been requested not to send boxes of eatables from home. The dress of the boarders receives particular attention, and while extravagance is discouraged, the pupils are required to cultivate habits of neatness and good taste. Besides the regular family worship, there are daily morning and evening devotional exercises in the Chapel. A Bible class has been organized for the special instruction of the boarders on Sabbath afternoons. Pupils are not allowed to receive calls or visits on the Sabbath. The boarders in the Institute are required to attend public worship on the Sabbath. When no particular preference is expressed, the pupils accompany the family of the Principal to the Presbyterian church. Parents who wish their children to attend a different place of worship, have to find some friend under whose care they can be placed.

The following are the names of the officers and instructors: Rev. H. Burwell, Principal; John B. Burwell, A. M., S. J. Stevens, A. M., Assistant Principal; Mrs. M. R. Loay, English Branches, and Superintendent of Social and Domestic Duties; Prof. A. Baumann, Vocal and Instrumental Music; Mrs. M. P. Baumann, and Mrs. S. J. Stevens, Assistants in Music Department; Miss Martha McGlathery, Drawing, Painting and Botany; Miss Mary Baite, English Branches and French; Mrs. Edith Scott, French and German; Mrs. John B. Burwell, Assistant Superintendent of Social and Domestic Department; Miss M. A. Morton, Head of Boarding Department. Leo Dunlap. Dunlap, the negro confined in the jail at this place, charged with the murder of a man in Charlotte, related his case to us yesterday as follows: "There was a colored man who went to arrest a white man, named Winchester, for fighting on Trade street, in Charlotte. I saw it—I was summoned as a witness to go down to the Mayor's court. Afterwards a man by the name of Gleason, in the Mayor's court, gave me the lie in regard to the evidence I had given against Mr. Winchester. He drew a pistol. I defended myself, and shot him."

Very respectfully yours, &c., W. H. COX, Near Raleigh, March 14, 1873. Prof. Stevens' Lecture, Last Evening. Prof. Stevens, A. M., of the Peace Institute, delivered a highly instructive and pleasing lecture, last evening, in the institution before the officers and pupils and a large number of visitors. His subject was "The Poet and the Philosopher," and in considering this theme he elucidated a few of the more characteristic differences between them; the subjects, in nature, and in human life, which they present to us, and the influence they exert upon literature, society and the progress of the race.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

Our sanctum was honored on Tuesday by a visit from Hon. Josiah Turner Jr., editor of the Sentinel. We regret exceedingly that we were not in. Mr. Turner spoke to a large crowd on Tuesday, and made one of those telling exposures of Radicals and Rings, of which he is so fully capable. Most heartily do we wish him and his paper success—Lovingly Yours, Charles F. Harris, Esq., who will shortly commence the publication of a newspaper at Concord, Cabarrus county. Mr. Harris will require a couple of good steady printers to assist in the enterprise.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

Our sanctum was honored on Tuesday by a visit from Hon. Josiah Turner Jr., editor of the Sentinel. We regret exceedingly that we were not in. Mr. Turner spoke to a large crowd on Tuesday, and made one of those telling exposures of Radicals and Rings, of which he is so fully capable. Most heartily do we wish him and his paper success—Lovingly Yours, Charles F. Harris, Esq., who will shortly commence the publication of a newspaper at Concord, Cabarrus county. Mr. Harris will require a couple of good steady printers to assist in the enterprise.

CITY ALMANAC

SATURDAY, March 14th, 1873. Sun rises 6 10. Sun sets 6 09. W. G. STRONACH, Proprietor.

CITY COTTON MARKET. Reported daily by W. G. Stronach, Broker and Commission Merchant, Fayetteville Street. RALEIGH, March 19, 1873. Price of cotton in our market to-day: At 10 a. m. 12 1/2. At 4 p. m. 13. Sales 100 bales. Receipts 30 bales. Tons of market dull.

HOTEL ARRIVALS. CITY HOTEL, March 14.—Mrs. Harriet Erving, N. C.; H. C. Richardson, W. T. Lane, F. V. McAllister, P. S. Penny, John Forest, Turner Lawrence. FERRIS HOTEL, Friday, March 14.—Mr. and Mrs. H. W. New York; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Raleigh, N. C.; Jno. W. Betts, Granite county; James Hutchinson, Halifax; Robt. Hutchinson, Halifax; Willard Austin, Halifax; N. C. Dickson, Mohamsway, N. C.; H. P. Goss, Cary; J. J. Peoples, Carthage.

EXCHANGE ITEMS. A negro named John O'Neel and another negro named Orphy Battle, severely in the side, at the Wilson depot a few nights since. J. W. Aycock, reported by the Wilson Plaindealer as being dead, last week is alive and kicking. Nothing has been the matter with him. The epizotic has broken out again among the horses in Rowan, but it appears to attack only those which have heretofore escaped.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

Our sanctum was honored on Tuesday by a visit from Hon. Josiah Turner Jr., editor of the Sentinel. We regret exceedingly that we were not in. Mr. Turner spoke to a large crowd on Tuesday, and made one of those telling exposures of Radicals and Rings, of which he is so fully capable. Most heartily do we wish him and his paper success—Lovingly Yours, Charles F. Harris, Esq., who will shortly commence the publication of a newspaper at Concord, Cabarrus county. Mr. Harris will require a couple of good steady printers to assist in the enterprise.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

Our sanctum was honored on Tuesday by a visit from Hon. Josiah Turner Jr., editor of the Sentinel. We regret exceedingly that we were not in. Mr. Turner spoke to a large crowd on Tuesday, and made one of those telling exposures of Radicals and Rings, of which he is so fully capable. Most heartily do we wish him and his paper success—Lovingly Yours, Charles F. Harris, Esq., who will shortly commence the publication of a newspaper at Concord, Cabarrus county. Mr. Harris will require a couple of good steady printers to assist in the enterprise.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

Our sanctum was honored on Tuesday by a visit from Hon. Josiah Turner Jr., editor of the Sentinel. We regret exceedingly that we were not in. Mr. Turner spoke to a large crowd on Tuesday, and made one of those telling exposures of Radicals and Rings, of which he is so fully capable. Most heartily do we wish him and his paper success—Lovingly Yours, Charles F. Harris, Esq., who will shortly commence the publication of a newspaper at Concord, Cabarrus county. Mr. Harris will require a couple of good steady printers to assist in the enterprise.

MORNING EDITION. LARGEST CIRCULATION OF ANY PAPER PUBLISHED IN THE CITY.

LATEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS ON 4th PAGE.

CITY ALMANAC. SATURDAY, March 14th, 1873. Sun rises 6 10. Sun sets 6 09.

CITY COTTON MARKET. Reported daily by W. G. Stronach, Broker and Commission Merchant, Fayetteville Street. RALEIGH, March 19, 1873.

EXCHANGE ITEMS. A negro named John O'Neel and another negro named Orphy Battle, severely in the side, at the Wilson depot a few nights since.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

Our sanctum was honored on Tuesday by a visit from Hon. Josiah Turner Jr., editor of the Sentinel. We regret exceedingly that we were not in. Mr. Turner spoke to a large crowd on Tuesday, and made one of those telling exposures of Radicals and Rings, of which he is so fully capable. Most heartily do we wish him and his paper success—Lovingly Yours, Charles F. Harris, Esq., who will shortly commence the publication of a newspaper at Concord, Cabarrus county. Mr. Harris will require a couple of good steady printers to assist in the enterprise.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

W. G. STRONACH, Proprietor.

CITY ALMANAC. SATURDAY, March 14th, 1873. Sun rises 6 10. Sun sets 6 09.

CITY COTTON MARKET. Reported daily by W. G. Stronach, Broker and Commission Merchant, Fayetteville Street. RALEIGH, March 19, 1873.

EXCHANGE ITEMS. A negro named John O'Neel and another negro named Orphy Battle, severely in the side, at the Wilson depot a few nights since.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.

Our sanctum was honored on Tuesday by a visit from Hon. Josiah Turner Jr., editor of the Sentinel. We regret exceedingly that we were not in. Mr. Turner spoke to a large crowd on Tuesday, and made one of those telling exposures of Radicals and Rings, of which he is so fully capable. Most heartily do we wish him and his paper success—Lovingly Yours, Charles F. Harris, Esq., who will shortly commence the publication of a newspaper at Concord, Cabarrus county. Mr. Harris will require a couple of good steady printers to assist in the enterprise.

On the Vermont Central Railroad Tuesday, near Bassett, Vermont, the breaking of a journal of a locomotive threw seven cars off the track under a covered bridge, demolishing the structure, smashing the cars and altogether causing a loss estimated at $25,000.