THE LOUISIANA TROUBLES.

Affairs in Louisiana are still in a sad condition. There will be probably other conflicts as Kellogg and his infamous gang are bent on bringing trouble upon the people. He has extemporized a sort of navy on a small scale and has sent out armed police to bring refractory whites to terms. It is thought that there will be trouble in Livingston Parish, and the probability is that by to night we may hear something unpleasant if not alarming from that section. The officers in that Parish have been commissioned by Gen. McEnary and refuse to heed Kellogg's demands. Kellogg has sent his armed police, and they will have to march forty-five miles. It is thought they will reach the parish to-day. The people will resist and we may expect to hear of conflict.

LATEST STATE NEWS.

Quite a heavy frost fell in this place yesterday morning, which, some say, totally ruined the beans. There was also a good deal of ice.—Charlotte Observer.

The revival at the Methodist Church in this place continues with unabated interest. Twenty-four persons connected themselves with the church yesterday, making fifty-one since the beginning of the revival.—Goldsboro' Messenger.

The Statesville American says: George Graham, convicted at the Fall Term of Wilkes court of the murder of Margaret Scanlon, in North Iredell, some time last summer, and for whom an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court, and judgment confirmed, was, by Judge Mitchell at Wilkesboro', last week, sentenced to be hanged on Friday, 23d of May, at that place.

THE ORPHAN BOY.—The notice in the Observer of yesterday morning, concerning the orphan boy, has brought forth several responses. We had applications yesterday from eight gentlemen who expressed a desire to take him in charge and give him a home, and a kind-hearted lady has generously sent in a contribution of money for him. He will be well provided for.—Charlotte Observer.

THE SALE OF THE CHARLOTTE ROAD.—No decree of Court confirmatory of the sale of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad has as yet been pronounced by Judge Russell, but we learn that is a mere form in this case and really unnecessary to insure the legality of the transaction. The sale, however, will doubtless be confirmed in due time.—Wil. Star.

The Enfield Times gives the shipments from that depot as follows: In 1872 '73, were shipped 4,709 bales of cotton, weight 1,886,807. In 1871-'72, were shipped 2,701 bales, weight 1,036,865. Increase 974 bales, weight 2,349,962. There were also shipped in 1872, 280 1-3 car loads of lumber and 120 car loads of staves. In June, July and August, there were shipped 656 packages of fruit and vegetables. Receipts of merchandise 1872, 5,356,979 pounds.

Important to Printers.

It affords us pleasure to publish the following. We trust the right sort of printer will be found, for the journalist referred to is vastly clever, both in the English and American sense of that term.

A No. 1 printer and pressman, who can furnish a good recommendation for a rich country home, and a good chance for a rich country boss, is at a six columns paper, the paper for which measures about 24x36 inches (the printed matter of both pages about 21 1-2 x16 inches) can hear of a cash partner, of considerable journalistic experience, for a newspaper enterprise in the most promising field in Eastern Carolina, by communicating with, or applying to, the Editor of the Friend of Temperance.

HOME AFFAIRS.

JOHN SPELMAN, City Editor.

Greensboro' Female College.

The trustees of this institution have elected Rev. T. M. Jones, D. D., President, and the school will open on August 27th

James Barron Hope.

Don't forget that the "Press and the Printers Devil" will be ventilated by this distinguished gentleman at Tucker Hall to-morrow (Thursday) night.

Bill Arp.

Our citizens will have the pleasure of hearing the distinguished Bill Arp about the middle of June. He has consented to deliver one or two of his talks about that time.

Quarterly Meeting.

The Quarterly Meeting for Raleigh station will be held at the Methodist Church on next Saturday and Sunday. It is expected to be an occasion of more than usual interest.

We are pleased to learn that our friend Bonitz, of the Goldsboro' Messenger is the recipient of many presents since his fortunate marriage. Well, he richly deserves it, for he is not only a capital good fellow, but he has given the people of Eastern Carolina an excellent paper.

Methodist School Celebration.

It has been descided that Kittrell Springs is to be the scene of the gay May festivities of the Sunday School children of Edenton Street Methodist Church on the 8th inst. Apart from the arrangements made at home, the location insures a glorious time for the little ones.

Books Closed.

The tax collectors, city, county and State, closed their books at Metropolitan Hall, at 6 P. M. yesterday. We understand that of the city tax-payers fully 400 have failed to list, and in regard to other taxes in the same proportion.

R. F. Jones & Co,

It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that this firm are the successors to A. G. Lee & Co., well known grocers of this city. The new firm is every way reliable and is worthy to wear the mantle of the retiring firm. We commend them to our subscribers.

New Rock Quarry.

From the appearance of Davie street, opposite the Cottage Hotel, it is the purpose of the Street Commissioners to open a new rock quarry there. There are holes in the street five feet below the level of the sidewalk, by actual measurement. And this is the street the hotel omnibuses do most frequent.

Returned.

Mr. Mills, of the Recorder, met two persons at Franklinton a few days ago, on their return from Florida to Granville. He says, "sad experience has taught them the absurdity of moving away from Granville." No wonder, for no where in the South, and we went to the end, is there a more desirable home, all things considered.

Malicious Mischief.

Ben Jones, col., was arrested yesterday and taken before Mayor Whitaker, charged with maliciously shooting a cow, the property of Mary Byrd, col., on the grounds of John Gatling, Esq., near the old rock quarry. Jones submitted and was bound in a sum of $300 for his appearance at the next term of the Superior Court.

Harnett Cotton for Vienna.

We saw yesterday in the hands of Prof. Kerr a sample of most beautiful cotton raised in Harnett county, a bale of which he proposes to send to the Vienna Exposition. In color it is all that could be desired, and in texture it compares favorably with the far-famed Sea Island. It has been raised and handled exclusively by white labor, and not a dark speck can be seen in it. We regret we did not learn the name of the grower or the owner.

"Raleigh Favorite."

Messrs. G. Ziegler & F. Gruendler, (successors to O. H. Millhom,) are now filling orders for the celebrated brands of cigars, "Raleigh Favorite" and "Pride of Oak City," at their manufactory, No. 32, Fayetteville street, first floor above Simpson's Drug Store. The reputation of these celebrated brands is well known. Sold wholesale at the factory, and retail by all dealers. Ask for the "Raleigh Favorite" or the "Pride of Oak City."

Correction.

We had a visit from Mr. Wm. Hicks, yesterday. He called to say it was wholly false that he had signed a petition to commute the punishment of Simpson Mordecai and Haywood Griffice. They had cut his throat and broke his skull in an attempt to murder him. He was so far from saving them pardoning that he felt he would have his throat cut again before he would sign any petition to pardon them. He had paid two hundred dollars to have them prosecuted and he would not for five hundred dollars have them fail of hanging. Such was the language of Mr. Hicks.

The Death Warrant

For the execution of Simpson Mordecai and Thomas Griffice, sentenced to be executed on the 30th of May, was issued yesterday. In reference to the petition in course of signature for the commutation of the death penalty to imprisonment for life, the statement that Hicks and his sons had signed it was from mere heresay. So also of the disposition of Judge Watts and Solicitor Cox. In regard to Mr. Hicks, he positively denies the rumor. See his statement elsewhere in these columns headed "Correction."

A Serious Stabbing Affair.

A negro named Henry Vass, formerly a slave of Maj. W. W. Vass, stabbed another negro by the name of Jack Pool in the left shoulder, inflicting a serious wound and bending the knife against the bone, on Tuesday night between 7 and 8 o'clock Vass is a fireman on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad. The stabbing occurred at Pool's house. A dispute arose between Vass and Pool's wife, the former indulging in some severe language, when Pool struck Vass and was stabbed in turn. Vass, at the time we write, is at large, but it is believed he will be captured before morning.

Olive Logan.

The eloquent and elegant Olive Logan will lecture at Tucker Hall on the 8th and 9th of May. The first lecture will be on "Nice Young Men," the second on "Nice Young Women." This lady has recently taken Richmond by storm. The Knoxville (Tenn.) Press says of her:

We do not wonder that critics have given us so many widely varying descriptions of Olive Logan. We had never conceived it possible that we should find so many different presentations of personal characteristics in one woman. She is truly a marvel, beautiful as she wills to be, and always happy in whatsoever delineation of sentiment, emotion or passion she undertakes.

The Excursion To-Morrow

We have before us the programme for the May-Day celebration of the Sunday School children of the Baptist Church, tomorrow, to Haywood. Five marshals and fourteen assistants have been appointed—the marshals, the chief of whom is Major A. M. Lewis, will have the general management, the assistants will, two to each, take charge of the seven cars of the train. The children are to meet at the church promptly at half-past six, a. m. and the procession, led by the Citizen's Band, will proceed to the depot in the following order:

1. Citizens' Cornet Band.
2. Ministers, Superintendent and officers of the Sunday School.
3. Queen and attendants.
4. Infant class, followed by school—smaller children in front.
5. Parents and friends.

The rear passenger car will be occupied by the infants, the next by the blind pupils of the school.

Disorderly persons will be expelled.

The train will leave promptly at half past seven,

Our Railroad Conductors.

A gentleman who travels considerably on the Raleigh and Gaston and Chatham Railroads requests the publication of the following note. We cheerfully comply, knowing the merits of the case, and we think the conductors on the North Carolina road are entitled to like credit, which is hereby extended to them:

EDITOR SENTINEL: The writer of this article has been a frequent traveller on the Raleigh and Gaston and Chatham Railroads, and has been very favorably impressed with the polite attentions and gentlemanly manners of the conductors. The writer has often noticed the polite attentions paid by these gentlemen to ladies who were travelling alone. A lady may travel unattended in the charge of one of these officers and be as much at ease as if she had a protector with her. Travelling is a very irksome and fatiguing occupation, and when relieved by the presence of gentlemanly officers who are willing to give you pleasant answers to questions, and such information as may be asked of them in a courteous manner, it materially relieves the monotony of the journey, and makes travelling more agreeable. It is no less than justice to these deserving men to encourage them by a public appreciation of their good behavior through the medium of the press.

AN OLD CITIZEN.

The following correspondence has been sent us for publication:

PATTERSON'S STORE, March 31, '73.

Dr. B. Craven,
President Trinity College:

DEAR SIR:—I am anxious to go through a regular preparatory course at one of the best Classical and Mathematical Schools in the State. I think of doing so at the Graham High School, Graham, N. C., of which Rev'ds W. S. & D. A. Long are Principals. I would like to know how pupils who have been prepared at the Graham High School stand at Trinity College. Please let me know, and you will greatly oblige,

Yours truly,
S. L. SPOON.

TRINITY COLLEGE, April 1st, 1873.

Mr. Spoon:

DEAR SIR:—In answer to yours of March 31st, I have pleasure in saying that the students who have come here from the school of Messrs. W. S. & D. A. Long, stand remarkably well. They have been carefully instructed, and have a good foundation on which to build thorough scholarship. The Graham High School, is, in my opinion, one of the best in the country, and I most heartily commend it to you and all others. Any student from that Institution would come to this College under favorable auspices.

Yours truly,
B. CRAVEN.

VARIETIES.

Gen. Dockery, we are pleased to learn, sustained no serious injuries from his recent accident.

Gov. Caldwell left for his home yesterday evening, where he will spend a few days on y.

Work was resumed yesterday on Nash Square. The ground is in course of preparation for grass seed.

We were pleased to meet yesterday on our streets, Wiley J. Palmer, Esq., who is on a short visit to his family and friends in this State. Mr. Palmer is looking remarkably well though we regret to learn that the Canadian climate does not agree with his good lady.

The pupils of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb are engaged in grading and gravelling the walks about the Institution. They enjoy the work and it affords them healthful exercise. They are permitted to engaged in this employment only when the weather is favorable and at stated periods.

State Agricultural Society.

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society was held yesterday morning at the Society's rooms, Fisher building, present: President T. M. Holt, T. F. Lee, W. G. Upchurch, Jordan Stone, W. J. Hicks, I. J. Young, Alex. Creech, W. C. Kerr, W. F. Askew, H. Mahler, Jno. G. Williams, P. A. Wiley, Treasurer, and R. F. Fulghum, Secretary.

The committee on the sale of the old Fair Grounds reported through its chairman, Jno. G. Williams, that thirty-eight building lots had been disposed of for the sum of $8,614, and a portion of the old buildings for $658.50, making a total of $9,472.50. Thirty lots are yet to be disposed of and the remainder of the buildings.

The Treasurer made an informal report showing a small balance due that officer.

The committee appointed to close the collections from citizens of Raleigh, reported that within a fraction of $10,000 had been raised.

The building committee reported in favor of the plans and specifications furnished by the architect, and it was resolved that the plans (as exhibited at the several public meetings) be carried out to the letter. The Society has undertaken the construction of the buildings itself, the building committee being empowered to appoint a competent superintendent, and to employ labor, contract for lumber, &c. The buildings are to be constructed of dressed boards and are to have two coats of paint, and will be built in the most substantial manner.

The following are the estimates of the several buildings:

| | |
|---|---|
| Grand Stand, | $13,000 |
| General Exhibition Hall, | 7,035 |
| Judge's Stand, | 325 |
| Main Entrance, | 700 |
| Keeper's House, | 1,000 |
| Music Stand, | 150 |
| Speaker's Stand, | 100 |
| Machinery Hall, | 1,500 |
| Stables, Sheds, &c., | 1,500 |
| Fence (finished,) | 2,900 |
| | $28,210 |

A resolution was adopted authorizing the President and Secretary to open correspondence with prominent gentlemen with a view to an order for the grand Fair.

A resolution was also adopted authorizing the President to appoint a chief marshal and also an assistant marshal from each congressional district, and that the chief marshal have power to select six additional marshals.

A resolution was adopted instructing the Secretary and Messrs. Mahler, Upchurch and Stone to prepare at once the premium list and report to a called meeting.

A special committee of three, consisting of Messrs. T. F. Lee, R. F. Hoke and W. F. Askew, was appointed to arrange the turf exercises and to designate the premiums.

Lieut. H. Adams was appointed a member of the Executive Committee, and subsequently a member of the building committee.

A plan of a race track was submitted and adopted and the building committee was instructed to proceed to lay it out. This plan was drawn under the direction of George Wilkes, Esq., editor of the New York Spirit of the Times (the great American authority.) The dimensions of the track are as follows:

Length half a mile,
Width forty feet,
Length from inside to inside 880 yards,
Length of curves 320 yards each,
Length of straight sides 880 yards each.

The beautifying and ornamentation of the grounds has been entrusted to the skilful Mr. Deneen.

The board adjourned subject to call.

Major Bingham's Lecture.

The last Charlotte Observer thus refers to the lecture of Maj. Robert Bingham delivered in that place on Monday night:

The subject of the lecture was the Anglo-Saxon Race, its Past, Present and Future. It was delivered in a simple, unostentatious and deeply impressive manner. Close attention with occasional bursts of applause attested the high appreciation of his hearers. The lecture was original in its conception, and surpassingly grand and instructive, replete with great truths clothed in simple language and fortified by a wonderful array of facts.

EXCITEMENT IN HIGH COLORED LIFE.

Novel Breach of Promise Case—Happy Denouement.

Gossipping circles in the high colored life of our quiet little city were considerably excited yesterday morning. For several days past it was known to the particular friends of one of the parties to the transaction we are about to relate that matters were culminating, and that a "wretch" would soon be brought to grief. The colored ladies spread the news in the most confidential manner, and chuckled as they pointed to the gleaming axe held by so slender a thread above the headman's block. Monday night the axe fell, and what a disappointment! Yesterday morning the aforesaid colored society was squarely divided—some denounced theone, some the other; the ladies said the sex was disgraced, the gentlemen did not know about that; and finally the general opinion was that no good would come of it, and that it served them right. But to our tale:

Laura A. Veeble, col., by John R. Caswell, col., her guardian ad litem, against Jona Davis, also col., defendant. That's what was the matter. Laura sued Jona for breach of promise. Her complaint alleged that she was an infant under twenty-one years; that John R. Caswell was her guardian for the purposes of this action that on or about the 1st of March, 1873, in consideration that the plaintiff who was then unmarried would, at the request of the defendant, marry him, on request the defendant promised to marry the plaintiff within a reasonable time; that the plaintiff confided in said promise, has always since remained, and was then ready and willing to marry the defendant; that on or about the last day of July, 1872, the defendant wrongfully continuing and intending to injure the plaintiff, wickedly, wilfully and maliciously, by means of said promise of marriage did succeed in seducing the plaintiff; that the defendant refused to marry the plaintiff, although she had often requested him so to do; wherefore the plaintiff demanded judgment for the sum of $2,500 and for costs of suit. All this in due form of law in such case made and provided.

This proceeding having reached the ears of Jona he promptly resolved on flight, it would seem; for Laura made oath and said so, and that his flight was intended for a point beyond the limits of the State; and she therefore prayed for the arrest of Jona so as to compel him to answer her said complaint.

The arrest was promptly made by Deputy Sheriff Magnin on Monday evening, and Jona was brought to taw. He could not give the bond and pledged his honor he was not going to run away. He did not want to go to jail and promised to do anything that was fair. The bond or the coop was the alternative—no, there was one more—would he keep his word with Laura and marry her? The bond was out of the question, the jail he could not brook—yes, he would keep his word, and he did. An hour or so afterwards sheriff Magnin saw Laura and Jona made one, the bridegroom was released from custody and the happy couple went on their way rejoicing.

St. John's College Building.

The writer has had occasion to often write of this magnificent structure situated in the grandest of groves. In the last Biblical Recorder a lady whose pen adorns any subject it touches, Mrs. Cornelia Spencer, thus gives an account of the "surprise" that awaited her when she first saw it:

The day after arriving at Oxford, I walked up to the noble grove, where the college of St. John stands, lately donated by the Grand Lodge of North Carolina with a hundred acres of land attached, for the purpose of an Orphan Asylum, to which splendid gift they added the annual income of $500. At every step I turned, I looked around with something very like astonishment at the beauty of the situation and the surrounding scenery. One may live a long time, Mr. Editor, and yet know very little, even when every attempt has been made to impart information. I presume you know how it is yourself. For myself at any rate, I plead guilty. I did not know there was so handsome and inspiring a public building in North Carolina as this. I did not know anything of its value, nor of the beauty of its situation, and I could not be made to take in, and appreciate the fact, that the Free Masons of the State had given it, freely and beautifully to all the orphan children of the State, without other distinction than that of color; all classes and all creeds are represented there. The Masons have done this much, and now the appeal is to all christians to come over and help; come over and see, and understand what the undertaking is; come over and wonder and admire, and be noticed, and come over and help.

Strikes Down.

Rev. Jackson Jeffries, colored, pastor of the colored Christian Church, residing near the colored department of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, whilst standing near the corner of Market square, on Wilmington street, yesterday about 12 M., was suddenly stricken down by sickness, and had to be conveyed to his home in a very feeble condition. Later in the day we enquired into his condition and found him much relieved.

Gen. Henry A. Wise will deliver the annual oration before the literary society of Roanoke college on Tuesday evening, June 17th, the next day being commencement.

A Serious Accident.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Holland whilst returning from the country whither she had gone for her husband, was thrown from the buggy—the horse becoming frightened—as she was coming down the Asylum hill, and very seriously injured. At the time we write (12:30 Wednesday morning,) she is lying insensible. Accidents are very common on the dangerous hill referred to, and some steps should be taken to either improve or change the road.

An Important Decision.

Mr. Justice Swayne, of the Supreme Court of the United States, has delivered an important decision in regard to the Homestead law. In the case of Jno. McK. Gunn, Plaintiff in Error vs. Charles F. Barry, he decided that a "homestead" is no bar against pre-existing debts and obligations for which a party is bound prior to applying for its benefit. He said, in the conclusion of his opinion:

A state can not impair an existing contract by a constitutional provision, than by a legislative act; both are within the prohibition of the national Constitution.

The legal remedies for the enforcement of a contract, which belong to it at the time and place where it is made, are a part of its obligation. A state may change them, provided the change involve no impairment of a substantial right.

If the provision of the constitution, or the legislative act of a state, fall within the category last mentioned, they are to that extent utterly void. They are, for all the purposes of the contract which they impair, as if they had never existed.

The constitutional provision and statute here in question, are clearly within that category, and are, therefore, void.

The jurisdictional prohibition which they contain with respect to the courts of the state, can, therefore, form no impediment to the plaintiff in error in the enforcement of his rights touching this judgment, as those rights are recognized by this court.—White vs. Hart, 13 Wall, 646; Von Hoffman vs. The City of Quincy, 535.

The judgment of the Supreme Court of Georgia is reversed, and the cause will be remanded to that court with directions to enter a judgment of reversal, to reverse the judgment of the superior court of Randolph county, and thereafter to proceed in conformity to this opinion.

MARRIED.

In Mecklenburg county, on the 2nd inst., by Rev. W. M. Kerr, Mr. David L. Elliott and Miss Mary H. C. Douglass.

In Lincoln county, on the 16th inst., by Rev. W. R. Weimore, Mr. Jos. H. Southerow and Miss Fannie Litton.

In Cleaveland county, on the 8th inst., Mr. E. L. P. Rearemer, of Lincoln county, and Miss Jennie Warlick.

DIED.

In Harnett county, on the 21st instant, at his residence, A. H. Dewer, Esq., one of the oldest and most respected citizens of the county.
