HOME AFFAIRS.

JOHN SPELMAN, City Editor.

Reorganization. The Baptist Sunday Schools were reorganized on Sunday last, with the re-election of all the late efficient officers.

Brown's Variety Store. This important institution of our town is well worthy of a visit.

Editors. We have had the pleasure of meeting in our town within a day or two, Henry A. Foote, Esq., of the Warrenton Gazette, and R. M. Furman, Esq., of the Asheville Citizen.

Rev. W. H. Bobbitt delivered a most interesting and instructive address to the youth at Edenton Street Methodist Church, on Sunday morning.

North Carolina at Vienna. We are pleased to learn that it is probable Prof. Kerr will be present at the Vienna Exhibition and will do what he can to have the State represented in that world's congregation.

Wake Superior Court. The next term of Wake Superior Court begins on the 4th Monday in June, 23rd prox.

Wiley J. Palmer, Esq. Leaves this morning for his home at Belleville, Ontario county, Canada.

Personal. We are pleased to see that our old friend Dr. John P. Dillingham, of the late firm of Primrose, Dillingham & Co., of New Bern, is associated with the firm of Farrar, Pipkin & Co., dealers in general merchandise, wholesale and retail, Tarboro, N. C.

Prof. Kerr. Has secured the services of Prof. White, a distinguished photographer, to take views of our public buildings for exhibition at Vienna.

Rabcock Fire Extinguishers. J. H. Lacy, Esq., of Fredericksburg, Va., general agent for the Rabcock Fire Extinguishers, last evening gave a most successful exhibition of the wonderful powers of the little machine.

What is He? W. C. Thompson, col., has been arrested in Petersburg charged with swindling or theft and is held for information.

Presbyterian Church.

Rev. J. M. Atkinson preached to a large congregation on Sunday morning from Jeremiah 5: 25. His subject was—God's forgiving mercy and healing grace.

Assault. On Sunday morning, as the bells tolled for church, a most disgraceful assault or affray took place in the Eastern Ward, near the intersection of Jones and Blount streets.

On Sunday morning Frank Phillips, accompanied by some friends, called upon Wilson Pattecutt and demanded an apology, alleging that his sister had been called a dog, he said, and that was equivalent to calling him (Frank) a dog for that he and his sister were of the same flesh and blood.

The City Election.

The city election is over. The "Conservatives" met the Radicals and they are theirs. The result of the registration satisfied us. We said when that was known that all the Radical nominees would be elected, and so it has turned out.
