

The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. VIII. RALEIGH, N. C., WEDNESDAY MAY 7, 1878. NO. 203.

HOME AFFAIRS.

JOHN SPELMAN, City Editor.

Appointed. Gov. Caldwell has appointed George W. Thurlow, of Philadelphia, a commissioner of affidavits, deeds, &c. for the State.

Personal. We had the pleasure of a visit on Tuesday from Maj. J. Horse Lacy, a fine type of a Virginia gentleman—courteous, manly and cultured.

Friends of Temperance. The State Council of the Friends of Temperance meets to-day in Statesville. Quite a number of delegates passed up the road during the last few days.

Personal. We were glad to have two visits recently from Rev. E. A. Wilson, the energetic editor of the Kinston Gazette, a paper that is doing faithful service for the people of his section.

The Election. R. M. Sloan was elected mayor of Greensboro. In Newbern the Radicals elected four, Democrats two and Independents one. In Goldsboro, the Radicals elected their ticket.

Deaths in Raleigh. During the month of April but four interments of white persons took place in Raleigh—two in the old city cemetery and two in the new. We have not ascertained the number of colored people interred. This is a remarkable fact in a city of some 10,000 inhabitants.

Dangerous. On Monday there fell from a wagon on Hillsboro street, near St. Mary's Seminary, a huge rock intended for the Penitentiary. It lay there yesterday, to the peril of those driving splittled horses. Indeed several narrow escapes have already been made; and it is probable we shall be called upon to record a few first class accidents from this source, judging from the apathy of the Penitentiary men.

Oliver Logan. This body appears at Tucker Hall to-morrow night. The indications are she will have a crowded house. The first will be her great lecture on "Girls," which has been heard, it is said, with every manifestation of delight by more than 400,000 people. Her lecture on Friday night will attract the ladies especially, as she will discourse on "Nice Young Men." Secure your tickets.

The Board of Commissioners. This disjectible body will meet to organize and be sworn in this evening. The complaint has been, on the part of the public, that the proceedings of the Commissioners have not been treated fully. It is the purpose of this paper to remove that cause of complaint. The proceedings of Wednesday's meeting will be fully reported and the practice will be continued, as the meetings shall be held.

Death of Dr. McCutcheon. The papers bring us tidings of the death of Rev. William H. McCutcheon, D. D., LL. D., Professor of Moral Philosophy in the University of Va. He filed the chair of Philosophy for over thirty years, succeeding Prof. George Tucker. He was an able man and a devoted Christian. We heard his lecture once in Memphis, Tenn., in 1868, on the "Cultivation of the Senses," and it was absolutely charming in its simplicity, clearness and practicalness.

The Babcock Fire Extinguisher. We briefly noticed in our last an exhibition of the wonderful powers of this little machine in extinguishing fires. The experiment was made on Monday night in front of the Yarbrough House by Z. Horton Lacy, Esq., of Fredericksburg, Va., general agent of the company. Some eight or ten iron barrels, saturated with kerosene, were piled up and ignited. When the fire was at its fiercest, the stream was thrown upon it and in a few seconds nothing remained but a black mass. After the lapse of some ten minutes the barrels, by the aid of kerosene, were with difficulty again ignited and were again extinguished by means of the same charge in a second or two.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

THE TARBORO ENQUIRER says: We learn that Mr. Star, brother of Mr. R. A. Star, Grocer, was returning from Wilmington on Thursday night.

MEMORIAL DAYS.

PROGRAMME.

The following is the programme for the Memorial Celebration on Saturday, 10th inst.

The various organizations desiring to participate on the occasion will assemble at the South front of the Capitol at 4 o'clock, p. m., where the procession will be formed in the following order:

The Marshals. Citizens Cornet Band. Raleigh Hook and Ladder Co. No. 1. Rescue Steam Fire Company, No. 1. Chaplain and Orator. Officers and Members of the Society. Citizens with Floral Decorations. The procession will then move by the following ROUTE.

Along Morgan to Salisbury street, up Salisbury to Edenton street, down Edenton to Blount street, up Blount to Jones street, from Jones street to Linden Avenue, up the Avenue to North street, up North to the Cemetery.

Order of Exercises: Prayer. Singing. Oration.

Decorations of the Graves. HERBERT BRAGO, Chief Marshal. W. M. H. BLEDSON, Asst. Marshal. A. B. STONACH.

The Murderer Owens. Gov. Caldwell on yesterday received a notification from the sheriff of Marion county, S. C., that the murderer and escaped convict Jno. A. Owens, held to that county on some trivial charge, would be released on Thursday (tomorrow). The matter of the extradition of this criminal is in the hands of Attorney General Hargrove, but Mr. Neathery, the Governor's Private Secretary, has telegraphed the authorities in South Carolina to hold on to the prisoner pending the negotiations for him. The law of the United States requires that in such cases as this, the parties are to be detained six months and if not then demanded they are to be released.

The history of John A. Owens' case is this: Some three or four years ago Owens committed a cold-blooded murder in Gaston county. His victim was named W. H. Owens and Withers were traveling together and quailed over dinner at a wayside house. They resumed their trip, Owens on horseback. Withers in a buggy. On the way, it appeared, no further case of difficulty occurred. Owens rode some distance in advance of Withers and turned and rode back and on reaching his victim, who was wholly unprepared for this new sudden outbreak, struck him from his seat with the butt end of his gun to the road. Withers died almost immediately.

Owens was arrested and tried for the murder at Gaston court. The murder was not denied, but a plea of insanity was set up in his defence. He was convicted and sentenced to death; but through the instrumentality of friends the sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life. He served two years in the penitentiary and made his escape about a year ago. Gov. Holden offered a reward of $200 for his apprehension, but he has evaded the law until recently when he was captured in Marion, South Carolina. He is probable will be returned to the State, where he will linger but a short time, he being, it is said, in the last stage of consumption.

BRUTAL. A negro boy, by dint of hard blows and a liberal supply of imprecations, reached the city yesterday with about two barrels of firewood on a cart in front of which was the skeleton of a small ox covered with a scant supply of hide. The poor brute roared Hargret street in front of his load, where he fell in a faint of exhaustion. Food was procured for him by the by-standers, but he had hardly strength enough to eat. We saw the starved creature three hours afterwards standing over food he had not the power to reach. Have we a Negro amongst us? This cruelty to animals should be put an end to.

A North Carolina Criticism. Our readers know that we like reader, even in criticism. Here is a specimen, which we quote from the Wilmington Journal's remarks on Miss Olive Logan's reading:

While we admire the merit of the lecture, and reward our appreciation of the brilliant talent of the lecturer, an strikingly evidenced in its delivery as well as in the views associated. We return highly, and appreciate gratefully, the well-merited compliment paid to "Southern girls," but deprecate the current of that advanced sphere of prominent activity to which the enthusiastic teachings of Miss Logan would lead them. We agree with the lady thoroughly as to the idea that women should be social, yet differ most materially as to the sphere of their activity.

We are fully of the opinion, however, that she is a noble-hearted woman, of rare power of mind and determination of character, a little too "strong-minded," perhaps, but yet possessing the charm of unassuming modesty. She will deliver her lecture here to-morrow, and we hope to see a large attendance.

University of Virginia.

Some one has sent us a copy of the catalogue of this foremost of American schools. We notice the following students from North Carolina, viz: S. W. Bath, Tarboro'; T. H. Brem, Jr., Charlotte; W. W. Dancy, Tarboro'; J. H. Durham, Rocky Point; A. H. Goelt, Goldsboro'; R. H. Graves, Jr., Oxford; E. P. Green, Warrington; C. R. Lee, Raleigh; H. W. Lee, Jr., Johnston county; E. B. Lutterloh, Fayetteville; F. J. Osborne, Charlotte; T. P. Pharr, Harrisburg; W. G. Quakenbush, Orange county; S. M. Smith, Greensboro'; W. H. Steele, Rockingham; T. W. Strange, Wilmington; S. W. Thompson, Wake county; T. E. Wilson, Warrington; J. G. Wood and Jas. Wood, Edenton—in all twenty. There are 342 students in all.

Among the "Proficients" are W. W. Dancy, Tarboro, R. H. Graves, Jr., Oxford, and F. McNeil, Laurel Hill, N. C.

The Orphan Asylum. Read, ye who are not orphans and have a sufficiency of creature comforts, the list of contributions to this noble institution that compends itself to every humane heart. Seven-eighths of the contributions there recorded are from the people of Granville.

And yet, it is the "Orphan Asylum" of the State, for there the dear little fatherless and motherless children from every section of Carolina may find a home. Will you not contribute something liberally to the sustenance of an institution that we verily believe the Lord Jesus would tenderly bless if upon earth, and upon which He looks in loving sympathy from His throne in Heaven. Read this passage from the pen of Mrs. Cornelia Spencer, in the last Recorder:

The main object is to rescue them from certain pauper, neglect or harsh treatment, from the degrading associations of vice and filth, to ensure them through the helpless years of childhood, a comfortable home and such kind, and judicious and christian instruction as may make them a gain and a blessing to their native State, instead of furnishing fresh candidates for the penitentiary, for brothels and for poorhouses. An orphan asylum is not an expensive institution as a penitentiary, and is an infinitely more pleasing and animating object of contemplation.

W. M. H. BLEDSON, Asst. Marshal. A. B. STONACH.

The Murderer Owens. Gov. Caldwell on yesterday received a notification from the sheriff of Marion county, S. C., that the murderer and escaped convict Jno. A. Owens, held to that county on some trivial charge, would be released on Thursday (tomorrow). The matter of the extradition of this criminal is in the hands of Attorney General Hargrove, but Mr. Neathery, the Governor's Private Secretary, has telegraphed the authorities in South Carolina to hold on to the prisoner pending the negotiations for him. The law of the United States requires that in such cases as this, the parties are to be detained six months and if not then demanded they are to be released.

The history of John A. Owens' case is this: Some three or four years ago Owens committed a cold-blooded murder in Gaston county. His victim was named W. H. Owens and Withers were traveling together and quailed over dinner at a wayside house. They resumed their trip, Owens on horseback. Withers in a buggy. On the way, it appeared, no further case of difficulty occurred. Owens rode some distance in advance of Withers and turned and rode back and on reaching his victim, who was wholly unprepared for this new sudden outbreak, struck him from his seat with the butt end of his gun to the road. Withers died almost immediately.

Owens was arrested and tried for the murder at Gaston court. The murder was not denied, but a plea of insanity was set up in his defence. He was convicted and sentenced to death; but through the instrumentality of friends the sentence was commuted to imprisonment for life. He served two years in the penitentiary and made his escape about a year ago. Gov. Holden offered a reward of $200 for his apprehension, but he has evaded the law until recently when he was captured in Marion, South Carolina. He is probable will be returned to the State, where he will linger but a short time, he being, it is said, in the last stage of consumption.

BRUTAL. A negro boy, by dint of hard blows and a liberal supply of imprecations, reached the city yesterday with about two barrels of firewood on a cart in front of which was the skeleton of a small ox covered with a scant supply of hide. The poor brute roared Hargret street in front of his load, where he fell in a faint of exhaustion. Food was procured for him by the by-standers, but he had hardly strength enough to eat. We saw the starved creature three hours afterwards standing over food he had not the power to reach. Have we a Negro amongst us? This cruelty to animals should be put an end to.

A North Carolina Criticism. Our readers know that we like reader, even in criticism. Here is a specimen, which we quote from the Wilmington Journal's remarks on Miss Olive Logan's reading:

While we admire the merit of the lecture, and reward our appreciation of the brilliant talent of the lecturer, an strikingly evidenced in its delivery as well as in the views associated. We return highly, and appreciate gratefully, the well-merited compliment paid to "Southern girls," but deprecate the current of that advanced sphere of prominent activity to which the enthusiastic teachings of Miss Logan would lead them. We agree with the lady thoroughly as to the idea that women should be social, yet differ most materially as to the sphere of their activity.

We are fully of the opinion, however, that she is a noble-hearted woman, of rare power of mind and determination of character, a little too "strong-minded," perhaps, but yet possessing the charm of unassuming modesty. She will deliver her lecture here to-morrow, and we hope to see a large attendance.

FROM OUR EVENING MAIL.

Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher was in Wilmington on Sunday, says the Star.

The Wilmington Star says that at the recent election four Conservatives and six Radicals were elected.

Deaths in Fayetteville from May 1st, 1878, to May 1st, 1878, were 47 whites and 67 colored.—Knight.

The vote in Fayetteville resulted in the triumph of the Conservatives. Capt. W. T. Fritzel was elected Mayor.

A new Presbyterian church was dedicated in Wilmington on last Sunday. Rev. Mr. Marble, of Clinton, conducting the services. Says the Journal.

The Reidsville Record says: We learn from reliable authority that two or three of the young Sialys, who recently moved from Patrick county, Virginia, to Colorado, were killed in the late fight with the Modocs.

ATTEMPTED HOMICIDE IN DUBLIN.—FATAL ACCIDENT.—On Sunday night last, in Rockfish Township, Duplin county, while a colored man by the name of Tony Williams was sitting in his home eating his supper, another colored man by the name of Joe Matthis approached the house, poked his gun through the crack and discharged a load of buckshot into Williams' head, inflicting severe injuries. It is hoped, however, that they may not prove fatal. Matthis has been beating his wife and she had fled to Williams for protection, which was the cause of the difficulty.

In the same Township (Rockfish), on Thursday last, a colored man named Ben Herring was cleaning out a well, at Powell & Caldwell's steam mill, when it caved in and injured him so badly that he died yesterday.—W. L. Star, 6th.

LITERARY GOSSIP.

The "Pioneer Boy," a life of Abraham Lincoln, published by H. B. Fuller, has recently been translated into modern Greek.

The 29th edition of that clever satire, "Glox's Baby," has appeared in London.

The poems of Mary Queen of Scots, collected from original and obscure sources, is a literary curiosity announced in London.

The publication of Mr. Browning's new poem is delayed, in order to allow of its appearance in the United States on the same day on which the London edition is issued.

Mr. A. P. Graves' "Songs of Killarney," chiefly in the Irish dialect, and of a humorous and pathetic character, will shortly be published.

P. M. Hattery, of New York, promises us a literary curiosity in a book called "Easy Lessons in Irish," by the Very Rev. U. J. Bourke. It will be the first book in the Irish language printed in America.

COURIER-JOURNALISMS.

The wife of a private in an English regiment have buried three babies into existence at one fell swoop, the Queen sent her three pounds as a reward for her enterprise. It is well observed by Shakespeare that the charitable gifts of gods and queens are sometimes prodigious.

A paper published by the students of Washburn College made fun of a female lecturer, and she has brought suit against them to recover $20,000 damages. We are very sorry to imagine how a female lecturer could be damaged to a much greater extent than that by a little fun in a newspaper.

There is said to be a man in Southampton, Connecticut, whose name is Subaknight, who writes for the press, and is a collector of articles for writing, and producing it by machinery, we can't see how any true Christian can keep from feeling very sorry for him.

They have some mighty mean people in Piquette county, Mass. Some of them recently robbed a miserably poor beggar of a large amount of gold—the fruits of years of honest toil as a picker up of unrequited trifles at the hands of charity.

A short time ago an Indian woman gave birth to a child of the age of sixty, and a woman in Tennessee has done the same thing at the age of seventy. Now let some Kentucky woman of eighty try her hand at the business.

That enterprising journal, the New York Herald, has employed four distinguished writers to serve as its correspondents at Vienna during the progress of the Exposition. They are Edmund Yates, the English novelist and journalist; John Russell Young, the well-known and brilliant American journalist; Bernhard Anrep, the distinguished German writer; and Louise Malibec, the famous novelist.

A short dispatch from Vienna, in reference to the opening of the Exhibition, has this sad, but very suggestive line at the end of it: "The American department was closed, looking listless and dazed." That is the spirit which such city and provincial nations presents for the world's gaze. If some Pagan had only written on the battered and stony boards, "In Dignitas," the shame would have been as aptly.—Dial, Geneva.

Collector Miller, of Roblox, Alabama, has given conclusion of judgment for $115,000 as amount of the condemnation of that county by his son, who was deputy collector, and the Commissioner of Customs has taken the necessary steps to secure the same.

Doddy's Yeast Powder is unexcelled, recommended and always reliable. No waste of food prepared with it, as it is always of the best quality.

Henry Clay's eye is reading yet in Lexington, Ky.

MARRIED.

In North Carolina, on the 26th ult., by the Rev. Arthur M. Ship, D. D., Harry C. Wynn of Guilford county, Va., and Miss Mary C. Ship, daughter of Wm. T. Ship, Esq.

At Mount Pleasant, Coleraine county, on the 15th ult., Prof. W. M. Hatcher, of North Carolina, and Miss R. V. Hinkle, of Virginia, were united in the bonds of matrimony.

THE CALLOWS.

Execution of George Lea for Rape.

Breaking of the Rope.

HE IS FINALLY HANGED.

[SPECIAL TO THE SENTINEL.]

YANCEVILLE, N. C., May 6.

George Lea, colored, was executed here to-day for the crime of rape, committed on the 20th of March last, upon the person of Miss Ann Kearney, a white lady, 74 years of age, living on the road leading from here to Milton. There were about four thousand persons of all ages, sexes, colors and conditions, present. The execution was well nigh public, owing to the low fence enclosing the jail yard, which was scarcely as high as the drop on the scaffold. When the condemned man appeared on the scaffold he was wrapped in a ghostly white shroud. He waved all young men against the use of whiskey, admitted his crime, and the justice of his sentence, and hoped to meet all his hearers in heaven. He said he had nothing against the sheriff who was about to kill him. Declared he loved him and bid him good bye. At 1:40 p. m. the drop fell and the rope broke. The neck was lacerated and the form of the condemned writhed as if in great agony but he was fully conscious and only stunned. A second rope was procured which being adjusted, the condemned man said "Good-bye" again and the drop fell at 1:51 p. m. The fall was over five feet, and after hanging 23 minutes, life was declared extinct. The body was cut down and delivered to his friends for interment.

Raleigh Methodist Sunday School Excursion. The following is the programme of the Methodist excursion which takes place on the 8th inst.

The members of the school and excursion will assemble at the Edenton Street M. E. Church at 8:30 on Thursday morning.

No person will be allowed to enter the cars with spirituous liquors or deadly weapons.

The train will leave precisely at 8 o'clock.

The following are the marshals: Chief Marshal—Col. R. W. Best. Assistants—A. M. Powell, J. A. Jones, W. B. Brown, A. S. Lee, S. J. Fall, W. A. Gattin, H. B. Thomas, J. C. Little, F. H. Lumsden, L. N. Keith, Matthew Moore, C. S. Latta, D. S. Walt, T. N. Ramsey, Willie Wilson and J. S. Wynn.

For the Sentinel.

CONTRIBUTIONS DURING APRIL TO THE ORPHAN ASYLUM AT OXFORD, N. C.

Gen. W. R. Cox and B. F. Moore, $50; Collection at Raleigh's funeral 29 99; Raleigh Chapter, 25 00; Jordan Lodge, No. 188, 20 00; M. T. Lodge, No. 208, and collection at Raleigh Chapter, 15 00 each; Collection at Lynch, Knapp of Reeds, J. L. B. Knapp of Reeds Lodge, No. 158, 7 50; W. H. Crow, A. McIver, an Insurance Agent, 10 00 each; A. W. Hayward, John B. Conington, Mr. Cash, Dr. W. G. Hill, J. O. R. Little, C. M. Cooke, Wm. Jones, Berea Lodge, No. 304, 5 00 each; Wayne Chapter, 4 25; A Grand 3 00; C. Taylor, 2 50; Wm. J. Taint, 2 25; J. H. Thompson, Tom Jones and The Joseph, 2 00 each; Mrs. B. J. Roberts and Joel Lutz, 1 50 each; S. M. Parish, 1 50; Dr. Wiggins's friend, W. H. Rosam, Walter Hunt, B. W. Hicks, C. W. Parham, B. F. Harris, P. H. Hobbitt, S. Deane, a friend, Robert E. Parham, C. G. Patterson, W. P. Upchurch, L. M. Morgan, A. Jones, M. Morgan, S. C. Manning, U. D. Edwards, Mr. Cash, and Dr. P. D. Bledsoe, 1 00 each; Beverly-Deane, W. A. Parham; 50 cents each, B. W. Hicks, J. T. Howell, Mrs. J. S. Chestnut, Mrs. D. T. Chestnut, Miss Rosa M. Hicks, Mrs. J. J. Hicks, Ann Parham, Wm. Daniel, Lewis Parham, H. O. Page, A. Hendrix, J. S. Horton, Madison Harcum, D. D. Edwards, J. H. Hayward, G. Upchurch and J. Hayward, 50 cents, G. Wynn, 25 cents each, J. J. Gordon, Mrs. E. Parham, Mrs. W. A. Parham, Miss Fannie Barnett and Margaret Morgan, 15 cents each, John F. Green and John Powell, 10 cents, B. B. Deane; collection at Orphan's Chapel $13 65.

TO SELL. 400 pounds meal, D. T. & Theo. Chestnut; 344 pounds flour, Berea Lodge, No. 304; 115 pounds meal and 1 piece of lard, B. W. Hicks; 100 pounds flour, B. W. Hicks; 57 1/2 lbs. lard, B. W. Hicks; 1 case, pork and beans, Kim Hill & Co.; 1 bid Irish potatoes, Chestnut & Co.; 1 piece lard, Mrs. Dr. W. Young; 1 piece of lard and 1 pack peas, friend; 1 bush turkeys and remaining cotton, J. B. Crew; 2 lbs. herring, 1 lantern and garden seed, T. D. Crawford; 1 bale hay, Job Osborne; 1 bed quilt each, Miss R. Owen and Mrs. Thos. Green; 1 dress each, Miss M. S. Green and Mrs. B. Hicks; 4 pairs stockings, Miss Julia A. Minor; 1 pair stockings, Mrs. Fannie Hicks; 1 pair socks, Miss Belle Ellington; 3 shirts, 3 aprons, 1 dress and 1 handkerchief, Miss A. B. Cooper; 15 shakers, Robert Hunt; 1 bedstead, Mrs. Jordan; 1 pair sheets, Mrs. A. W. Venable; 2 pairs extra shoes, J. C. Cooper; 2 muslin collars, Grandy & Ben; 1 garden box, B. F. Parsons, clothing, Capt. Gayle; 2 gal. milk butterfat, Mrs. B. Thompson; 50 lbs. lard, American Bible Society by Rev. L. E. Wills, Agent.

A. D. COHEN, Printer.

State papers please copy.

A rumor that Mr. Deane's suit is about to go to the original play before an English writer to ask, "W. H. Jones & Co."