HOME AFFAIRS.

JOHN SPELMAN, City Editor. Attention Rescue. The members of Rescue Steam Fire Company are requested to meet at their Hall to-day at 3 o'clock, in full uniform.

The Crops in Franklin. We regret to learn that the late heavy rains did much damage to the crops in Franklin. A good deal of the land was badly washed.

Personal. We had the pleasure of a visit on Tuesday from Col. W. F. Green, of Franklin, a gentleman who is as meritorious as modest. Col. Green is our orator of the day.

Hoik and Ladder No. 1. Members of this Company are notified to meet at Fireman's Hall, at 3 o'clock P. M. to-day, for court duty to the Ladies Memorial Association. Honorary members of the Company are respectfully invited to unite with the active members and will be assigned a place in the procession.

Memorial Exercises. The weather latterly has been so variable and inclement that it is impossible to tell what a day may bring forth. We have been, therefore, requested by the Chief Marshal, Herbert Bragg Esq., to announce that if the afternoon should prove unfavorable that the Memorial Exercises will take place at Tucker Hall.

The Pic-Nic at Kittrell's. Our reporter was present at Kittrell's yesterday but has returned too much fatigued to render a fitting account of the festivities for this issue. In our next report shall appear. The pic-nic was a decided success and was creditable to the managers.

St. John's Day at Oxford. We publish with pleasure the subject announcement of Tusculum Lodge, Oxford, N. C. It will be seen that the Masons propose celebrating the 24th June, it being St. John's Day, in Masonic language, for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum.

A Touching Picture. We commend to all of our readers the excellent thoughts and the touching picture drawn by a pen that is constantly employed in behalf of the helpless and the destitute. We sincerely trust that the ladies of the State will heed Mrs. Spencer's entreaties, and will take the Orphan Asylum under their special guardianship.
