BY OUR OWN REPORTER ! Goldsnono', May 14. Parsuant to notice the Convention of the Presa of the State convened yesterday at Goldsboro. Owing to the early hour at which the meeting took place the attendance was not so full as was expected; but the trains as they arrive, north, south, east and west bring new accessions. The Convention met at the courthouse, Capt, Wm. Biggs, of the Tarboro' Southerner, called the meeting to order. On motion of Capt. R. T. Fulghum: Msj. J. A. Eugelhard of the Wilmington Journal was elected President, and on further motions John Spelman, of the Raleigh SENTINEL, and J. A. Bonitz, of the Goldsbard' Messenger and Masonic Monthly, were elected Secretaries,

Maj. Engelhard, on taking the chair, thanked the Convention for the honor of presiding over its deliberations. He congratulated the members of the Press and was glad to welcome the large number present. It was an augury of good, he said, and showed that the meeting meant ousiness, which would result in the advancement of the craft and in the material interests of the Press. With this belief, he accepted the position assigned to him, He was pleased to see the interest manifested in the present movement. The Press if not the throne, was yet the power behind the throne. The members of the Press had been acting unknown to each other and independent of each other. For himself he desired to know his foe as well as his friend, and whitst always striking breast high, he recognized men in other relations than those of duty and business. The Press, he went on to say, was the edscator of the people, greater than the pulpit or the school, and therefore had the greatest responsibility resting upon it, Realizing its great responsibility, it was eminently proper that its conductors should make known its influence and its power, and demand the recognition to which it was entitled. Maj. E. then pro ceded to remark upon the character and objects of the Convention While he adtercourse brought about by its means, he better than Minister.
