LATEST STATE NEWS.

Wilmington has at last a Mayor in the person of W. P. Canaday.

A Cornet Band is about to be formed in Wilmington.

The report that Mr. A. F Marsh, of Fayetteville, attempted suicide is untrue. He is an honest man and stands high. His desk was robbed and hence his apparent defalcation.

Isaac P. Hooks, a native of Columbus, died in Waco, Texas, on the 6th, aged 23.

A young man named Seymour Houston, committed suicide in Greensboro on Friday evening, by shooting himself through the head. No cause is assigned for the rash deed.

The Opera House was overflowing again on Sunday night to listen to Rev. C. W. Warren. His discourse was listened to throughout by the vast concourse of people, many of them standing during the entire time for want of sitting room.—Wilmington Journal.

The Chronicle estimates the losses by the freshet in Dan River at $50,000. It was the highest freshet since 1795. The water at the Milton bridge was 12 inches deep and it came very near carrying it off. Houses, furniture, &c., washed passed Milton. Wheat crops badly damaged and corn required replanting.

Items from Southern Home:

Enough money has been raised in Charlotte to secure a Fair this fall.

An adjourned meeting of Mecklenburg Presbytery was to take place at Charlotte on 20th.

The different organizations of Temperance in future London, Steel Creek and Stanesville, made an excursion to Davidson College on Saturday.

Col. Wm. Johnson delivered a lecture in Charlotte on geology, for the benefit of the Mission School. Twenty five hundred dollars have been raised for the second Presbyterian Church.

The commencement exercises of North Carolina College, Mt. Pleasant, Cabarrus county will begin on 25th inst., and continue until Thursday following.

Col. D. Wyatt Aiken, of South Carolina, Secretary of the National Grange of the Patrons of Husbandry," will address the citizens of Mecklenburg, male and female, in Charlotte, on Wednesday, 11th of June proxmo, upon the subject of this important association.

CRAVELAND FEMALE SEMINARY.—The annual commencement exercises of this institution will take place on the 17th and 18th of June. The sermon to the graduating class will be delivered by Rev. G. D. Parks, of Mecklenburg, and the Literary Address by Gen. Theodore W. Brevard of Talahassee, Fla. Five young ladies will graduate on the occasion.—Char. Democrat.

USEFUL INVENTION.—We examined last week at Brevard Station, the machine invented by Mr. C. J. Peterson for shrinking tires on wagons and other vehicles. The machine is very simple, any blacksmith can use it and in half an hour do as much as he could in two hours, in the old way. At the ordinary rates of charging for shrinking tire, a blacksmith can make four dollars a day more with the machine than without it. So in two days, his extra work will pay for it, as it costs but $8.—Southern Home.

HOME AFFAIRS

JOHN SPELMAN, City Editor.

"No Raleigh Sentinel Last Night."

Such is the announcement of the Wilmington Journal. It is not the fault of this office. Similar complaints are frequently made. We have a wretched postal service, and there is no remedy.

The Hot Springs.

Invalids and pleasure seekers are referred to the advertisement of the above very famous Springs in Virginia, that are too well known to need any special notice from us. They are all that is claimed for them.

Wine Growing.

The Tokay Vineyard of Fayetteville, we are informed, has produced during the past year 20,000 gallons of fine sparkling wine for which is found a ready market, and which is rapidly supplanting all inferior brands of champagne.

Counterfeits.

We saw yesterday a $20 bill on the Bank of Portland, Conn., very well executed in its general details, and well calculated to deceive the unwary. It was received here by an expert, however, and was readily detected. Look out.

Thanks.

The members of Rescue Fire Company desire through the columns of the SENTINEL, to return their thanks to the ladies of Raleigh who so kindly furnished them with flowers, shrubbery, &c., on yesterday, to decorate their Steamer.

The Strike.

The strike, it is said, grows in strength. It is extending into the rural districts, as we learn, and field hands are demanding $1 50 per day. Another meeting is called for to-night, (we write at dark,) and if held, its proceedings will appear elsewhere.

Wholesale Indictments.

We learn the whole Board of County Commissioners have been indicted for keeping disorderly roads. Good. We trust the City Commissioners will also be indicted for keeping disorderly streets and the city in darkness at night.

County Commissioners.

The Board of County Commissioners met again yesterday and adjourned till to-day. Important matters are under consideration, which will be noticed as soon as we can get access to the records. To-day the office of town constable for Raleigh district will be filled to supply a vacancy; but who will make up the reported defalcation of over one thousand dollars? Great, glorious and free!

Too Dear.

It has cost the State $80 90 to bring the escaped convict Jno. A. Owens, from South Carolina to the Penitentiary. This, with the reward offered for his apprehension, makes nearly $500. We would not give that amount for a dozen such. Owens is in excellent health, and says he has not enjoyed a happy hour since he left the Penitentiary.

Cantata at St. Mary's.

The young ladies of St. Mary's School will, to-morrow night, repeat Shoeller's Cantata "An Hour in Fairy Land." The following are the impersonations:

1. Queen of the Fairies.
2. Fairy Cricket.
3. Fairy Pan
4. Fairy Content.
5. Fairy True Heart.
6. Fairy Good Will.

Two flower girls, four maids of honor and other attendants.

Twentieth of May.

The anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence was spiritedly celebrated yesterday by a parade of our fire departments and otherwise. Rescue Steam Fire Company turned out in full numbers, and were joined by the Raleigh Hook & Ladder Company. The event was marked by the Raleigh Cornet Band turning out in their handsome new uniform. By the way, we ask the attention of the State generally to this fine band. It is composed of several excellent musicians, and when their merits as a band become known, they will be in request throughout the State.

U. S. Circuit Court.

The next term of this court convenes in this city on Monday, 2d of June next, Judges Bond and Brooks presiding.

The number of cases on the several dockets stands as follows:

Appearance docket,	20
Libel "	24
Civil "	65
Criminal "	95
Equity "	35

No instructions have been received by the District Attorney in reference to the habeas cases they will stand for 1874 as other cases. Defendants and witnesses will do well to note this fact and be in attendance.

We are satisfied that the policy of the U. S. Government, as indicated by the pardons the President has granted to those South Carolinians implicated in this class of cases will be that of lenity as to all those who are not guilty of the crimes of murder, arson and the like.

THE LABOR STRIKE.

Another Meeting Last Night.

A second meeting of the mechanics of Raleigh took place at the court house last night, over which Mr. Thos. Conrts, presided.

The meeting was addressed by the chairman, James H. Harris, col., Henry Keith and Sidney Bryan. During the progress of the meeting Mr. M. V. B. Gilbert, from the Printer's Union, presented the following resolutions, which were accepted and were acknowledged by a vote of thanks:

At a meeting of Raleigh Typographical Union held on Tuesday afternoon, May 20th, 1873, the following preamble and resolutions were offered and unanimously adopted:

We, the committee appointed to draft resolutions for the action of this Union, submit the following:

WHEREAS, It has come to our knowledge that certain other mechanics of this city, acting under a conviction of a sense of duty they owe to themselves and their families, have made a demand upon their employes for the working of ten hours as a day's labor; and whereas, we the members of Raleigh Typographical Union, No. 54, under the jurisdiction of the International Typographical Union of the United States and British Provinces, have enjoyed all the benefits growing out of an acquiescence in the right thus asked, and believing it to be owing to organization; therefore

Resolved, That we heartily approve of any proper steps that may be taken by the various trades of the city for their more perfect organization and better system of labor.

Resolved, That in our opinion ten hours should constitute a day's labor.

Resolved, That while we believe in the demands made by our fellow mechanics, we can but counsel against "strikes" as detrimental to the laborer, the employer and to society; and we therefore urge that more pacific measures be taken, and that if in general meeting, a compromise can be effected that may bring about the desired end, such compromise would be wise and just.

Resolved, That this Union will aid and encourage the organization of a Trades Union among the mechanics of this city.

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to lay a copy of the foregoing resolutions before the meeting of mechanics to be held this evening.

Respectfully submitted.

During the evening the chair announced that Messrs. Betts, Allen & Co., had acceded to the demands of the workmen and would adopt the ten hour system.

We took full notes of the speeches on this occasion and may find space to publish them hereafter. The meeting was large and harmonious and adjourned till 8 p. m. to-morrow.

A Trick.

A Company or corporation, chartered by the Legislature and operating in this city, has played two tricks not "upon travellers," but upon home people. We shall look into their charter and see if it is not forfeited.

Having played the same trick "two times, the last could not have been ignorantly or innocently executed.

Texas Agency.

We call the attention of our readers to the card of George H. Snow, Esq., who has established a land agency in Texas. Mr. Snow is one of our most promising and reliable young lawyers, and recently visited Texas upon business similar to that he proposes in his card to manage for others. Persons interested would do well to either see or correspond with him at an early day.

Personal.

P. G. M. Wm. H. Barnes, of New York, accompanied by his wife, reached this city last evening, and is stopping at the National.

He visits the city, as stated elsewhere by invitation of the Odd Fellows of Raleigh, for the purpose of giving one of his inimitable entertainments, which have been received with so much popular favor throughout the country. We hope to see him greeted by a full house.

Southern Baptist Convention.

Among the delegates to the Southern Baptist Convention that was recently in session at Mobile, Ala., were the following from N. C.:

Hon. John Kerr, J. H. Collins, M. M. Welsh, J. B. Boone and J. H. Mills.

Judge Kerr was one of the Vice-Presidents, and Rev. Dr. Wingate, President of Wake Forest College, was appointed to preach the Introductory Sermon next year at Atlanta, where the Convention will meet.

The Entertainment To-Night.

Remember the pleasant entertainment to be given to-night, at Tucker Hall, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F., by Wm H. Brown, P. G. M., of New York.

Remember, above all, the noble objects to which the net proceeds are to be devoted,—the relief of the poor of Raleigh and of the orphans of the Oxford Asylum.

The entertainment, as we learn, is of a refined and most agreeable and enjoyable character. Mr. Brown is a gentleman of remarkable versatility of character,—excelling in all departments, musical, recitative, humorous and sentimental.

Admission 50 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

Go, with your wives and children!

THE LATE EDITORIAL CONVENTION.

The Excursion to Beaufort, &c.

The proceedings of the editorial convention, held at Goldsboro', on Wednesday and Thursday last, have been pretty fully reported in the columns of the SENTINEL. We were a representative in that convention and of the party of ex-excursionists to Beaufort at its close. In the following sketch we purpose merely to jot down a few incidents connected with the convention and the excursion, not supplied in the regular report.

THE CONVENTION

Was as numerously attended as was expected, and represented, as estimated, three-fourths of the press influence of the State. Amongst the questions incidentally discussed and not heretofore noticed publicly, was that of gratuitous advertising by means of local notices; that affecting uniform rates for job work; and that of receiving dead head tickets from Railroads. These matters will doubtless occupy the attention of the Association in its future meetings.

The proceedings were most harmonious throughout. The best of feeling prevailed, the general good of the craft and its elevation being the paramount considerations. Though little, practically, may result from this first meeting, we believe much good will ultimately result.

The labors of the convention terminated at about 2 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, and then the staid body entirely changed its aspect. All seemed to feel they were out at once for a holiday and set about to enjoy it.

THE "HUMPHREY HOUSE."

Before disbanding the party on setting out on our voyage, we must mention the "Humphrey House." As heretofore announced the proprietor of this fine new hotel entertained all the delegates to the convention free of cost, and he did so in an unostentatious manner and in whole-souled style. A description of the hotel may not be out of place. It is a handsome new structure three stories high and occupies the entire site of the old Griswold Hotel, so long presided over by our old friend Dick Gregory, (who by the way, we were pleased to meet in Goldsboro' looking as young and blooming as he has appeared during the last twenty years.) The principal entrance is flanked on each side by two spacious stores and a private entrance for ladies and families on the lower side. On the front on the street leading to the court house is another private entrance and two more fine stores. The first floor of the block (the dimensions of which we failed to note) consists of these six stores, a spacious office for the hotel, a saloon, a wash-room and a barber shop. The second floor consists of a dining room, pantry and kitchen towards the rear, with parlors in the front and a ball room towards the left, fronting the building. The third floor contains a large parlor, another ball-room and chambers. The entire hotel contains fifty-four rooms, neatly and comfortably fitted up with all the modern improvements. The building is the property of Hon. W. A. Smith and Col. L. W. Humphrey. The lessee is Dr. S. P. Wright, who is ably assisted in the management of the business by Mr. W. E. Cooke, formerly of the Yarborough House, of this city, as clerk, and Mr. Wm. Donahue, caterer, long connected with the Goldsboro' hotels. Everything in the establishment is new and clean and the house is admirably kept and is doing a prosperous business. The Humphrey House is a credit to Goldsboro'.

THE EXCURSION TO BEAUFORT.

By invitation of Edward R. Stanley, Esq., President of the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad, bidding good-by to their friends who could not find time to accompany them, at 4 p. m., on Thursday the following members of the press gang set out on an excursion to Beaufort:

Wm. Biggs, Farbers' Featherier.
P. F. Duffy, Greensboro Patriot.
J. A. Engelhard, Wilmington Journal.
Johnston Jones, Charlotte Observer.
John D. Cameron, Hillsboro Recorder.
C. N. B. Evans, Milton Chronicle.
J. C. Mann, Wilmington Post.
Geo. W. Nason, Newbern Republican.
Jordan Stone, Raleigh News.
R. C. Woodson, " "
J. A. Harrell, Henderson Tribune.
W. T. Hazzelrod, Magnolia Monitor.
H. H. McGuire, Battleboro Advance.
D. T. Manning, Weldon News.
Geo. S. Baker, Louisburg Courier.

Mr. T. J. Evans, of the Richmond Enquirer, stopped at Newbern on the way down, and Mr. E. A. Wilson, of the Kinston Gazette left the party at Kinston.

The trip along the line of Railroad was viewed the crowds who assembled at the depots that Editors and Publishers were like other men turned loose and freed from the cares of business—and perhaps that they were a little more so. The serious, thoughtful aspect disappeared, and the boy mind of them once had been came to the surface, with all the freshness and zest of their seven boyish days; and it made us feel doubly good—to be ourself "a boy again," surrounded by boys. A happier, a more congenial little crowd it has not of late been our fortune to be associated with.

On reaching Newbern, Nason, of the Republic, seemed to think the honors became due from him. And during the stay of the train at that point he did his utmost, handsomely and gracefully, to discharge his self-imposed duty.

On reaching Morehead the party was taken in charge by the veteran boatman Stephen Turner and safely transported across the harbor in a torrent of rain, which added to the spirits of the party instead of dampening them.

Once in the charge of Mr. Samuel R. Street, the proprietor of the "Ocean House," who had previously invited to the hospitalities of his hotel the entire convention, there remained nothing the inner man could wish. Bounteous tables, good rooms, polite attention and kindly greetings were all found there.

Next morning the party, with the exception of a few who had to leave for home, betook themselves to the boats and had a glorious day, spent in fishing, sailing, shell-gathering, and visiting Fort Macon.

In the afternoon an invitation was received by telegraph from Messrs Richardson & Boyd, of the Gaston House, Newbern, placing their entire establishment at the disposal of the excursionists and their friends. Thirteen of the party took leave of their companions and their host and accepted the invitation and were at the Gaston House by 9 p. m. Here they were again at home with every attention the heart could wish, Mr. Boyd giving his entire attention to the party.

During the evening the rounds of good old Newbern were to some extent taken. The Bateman House was visited and was found to be a place unique in many respects. It is kept at the old Harvy House, on South Front Street, a house famous in days gone by for its hospitality, and famous now in its changed condition.

The establishment of Steadman, on Craven Street, was visited by a few, and will not soon be forgotten.

The event of the Newbern trip, however, next to the entertainment at the Gaston House, was the hours spent at the bachelor apartments of Geo. W. Nason, editor and proprietor of the Republican, familiarly known as "Ganymede Hall." Nason is a character and his Hall is in keeping with him. Hung in private quarters, the veil of at least silence must not be lifted; but we venture to say the visitors will not soon forget that night, nor Nason the visitors. At a late hour we "withdrew" and can tell nothing of what transpired during the remainder of the night's round.

By 7 o'clock next morning, the roll being called every man of the party answered "Breakfast." At 8 the train from Morehead brought up the rear of the party, and in half an hour we were again on our way to Goldsboro', where the party became considerably disintegrated, the western bound fragment, reaching Raleigh at 7 p. m.

Nothing more remains to be told of the convention or the excursion, and we will close with a few

GENERAL REMARKS.

Goldsboro' has risen from her ashes in a most remarkable manner. We had not before been in that town since its destruction by fire year before last. If we had been set down at night in that burg we would not have known the place. The town is rebuilt in a substantial manner, and we were assured there is but one building of any importance in the town upon which there is a debt.

Newbern looks dilapidated, notwithstanding there are many fine brick buildings going up there. As we crossed the Trent on Thursday evening and looked back upon the good old town, whose wharves we had seen crowded with vessels, tiers deep, we felt grieved to see not a single spar standing, except a revenue cutter laying off in the stream.

The crops along the line did not encourage us. Between Raleigh and Morehead city we saw but one corn field. Between Raleigh and Goldsboro' we saw, in the neighborhood of Wilcox' Mill, a few patches of small grain; but all else, from Raleigh to the sea, was Cotton, Cotton! with visions of ruin in the case of one crop failure, brought about by commercial fertilizers.

The line between Raleigh and Newbern is studded with saw mills, many of them of considerable importance, and all of them we were pleased to learn, doing a good and remunerative business.

In subsequent publications we may avail ourself of other notes we made by the way.

INDICTMENT AGAINST POST FOR LIBEL.—It will be remembered that ex-United States Senator John Pool was indicted at the last Fall term of Buncombe Court for having libeled Hon. A. S. Merrimon, by circulating a defamatory publication under his franking privilege as a member of Congress. Some time after he was indicted, he was arrested, as we have been informed; but he failed to put in an appearance at the Spring term, as others charged with crime are required to do. We learn, however, that he did not succeed to write a letter to the prosecuting officer, stating in substance that it was not convenient for him to attend court this spring, and thereupon the case was continued.—Reporter.

GOING TO WORK.—Maj. Winder, the contracting engineer of the Carolina Central Railway, was in this city on Friday last organizing his corps of engineers for immediate work on the route between Charlotte and Wadesboro'. Mr. W. Ames is the contractor, and the work will now be pushed ahead to completion. A large number of carts and wagons passed through here last week to be used on the work.—Charlotte Democrat.

Judge Watts signed the petition for the pardon of two villains in Wake county who robbed a store and tried to murder the proprietor, on the ground that he was opposed to capital punishment except as the Scriptures dictate. The proprietor of the store was beat in a horrible manner and left for dead by the robbers whom Judge Watts wants pardoned. If there was a little more hanging, whipping and branding (and "cropping of ears" for perjury) there would be fewer murders committed, and less rascality practiced in North Carolina.—Democrat.

Asheville Expositor: In order to develope to some extent the inexhaustible resources of Western North Carolina, it is proposed to organize a joint stock company for the purpose of erecting and operating in or near Asheville, a woolen mill, for the manufacture of Jeans, Flannels, &c., &c. The interest of each stockholder will be represented by a share of one hundred dollars each, and the affairs of the company will be managed by a Board of Directors and such other officers and agents as the stockholders may declare necessary. The company will be regularly incorporated. The book is in the hands of E. J. Alston, Esq., who will be glad to receive subscriptions at any time.

Would it not be a most interesting spectacle to see Ex-Gov. Henry A. Wise riding through the streets of Richmond, Charleston and Harper's Ferry in an open barouche with a banner over his head inscribed, "The Administration candidate for Governor," followed by a band of negro jubilee singers, armed with pikes, and roaring at the top of their voices—

"John Brown's body lies moldering in the grave,
But his soul keeps marching on!"

A king once offered a reward for a new sensation. Would he were a boy again!—Courier-Journal.

DISTRIBUTION OF THE SEXES.—In numbers, the two sexes are very nearly equal in the United States: males 19,439,563, females 19,064,806; but the distribution is not even. The greatest excess of males is found in Idaho (12,184 to 2,813 females,) Montana (16,771 to 3,824,) Wyoming (7,219 to 1,899,) and Nevada (32,379 to 10,112). Females are in excess in Alabama (504,560 to 483,470,) District of Columbia (61,287 to 54,159,) Georgia (600,859 to 572,126,) Louisiana (336,345 to 328,748,) Maine (290,600 to 287,434,) Maryland (455,248 to 443,236) Massachusetts (568,180 to 555,182,) New Hampshire (147,698 to 140,991,) New Jersey (363,668 to 353,485,) and New York (1,647,214 to 1,597,192. Virginia, Vermont, Tennessee, both the Carolinas, Rhode Island, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New Mexico show a like excess of female population. In Utah there are more males than females—28,994 to 27,090.—"Scientific Miscellany," in June Galaxy.
