HOME AFFAIRS.

JOHN SPELMAN, City Editor.

Dry Business. Mr. Theo. N. Ramsay organized a Lodge of Good Templars at Ruffin on Thursday night, and another at Riddleville on Friday night.

The Baker Homicide. The case of the State vs. Joseph Baker, for the killing of the negro Newton Wilfong at the State of H. C. Severs near Charlotte three or four months ago, was taken up at Mecklenburg Superior court, yesterday.

Recovering. Foster Evans, col., one of Sheriff Lee's jailors, who accidentally shot himself, a few days ago, in rescuing a prisoner from the attack of a furious dog, is again able to get about. The ball produced a painful flesh wound and came near being a fatal wound.

New Greenbacks. The quantity of new greenbacks in circulation yesterday attracted attention. We set about to find the cause, and learned that the U. S. Troops stationed here had just been paid off. To the credit of the boys in blue it is said that they behaved themselves admirably.

Personal. We were pleased to meet in our sanatorium yesterday, our friend Col. S. D. Pool, Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives. Col. P. is in the city making up the index for his Journal of the late session. He is in fine health and getting younger, as it seemed to us.

The Market. Our market is most abundantly supplied with everything seasonable. Amongst the best things we saw on Saturday were early spring cabbages. Potatoes are plentiful and maintain previous quotations. Peas and Strawberries are becoming old. We noticed, also, some very nice lamb.

A Wicked Woman. The investigation of the coroner's jury, in the case of the South homicide near Charlotte, a few days ago, led to the arrest and commitment of Mary, wife of the alleged murderer, Chas. Moore. Witnesses testified that she had pushed her husband to the dead, and had pushed him against the deceased. She is now in custody charged with aiding and abetting in the murder. The murderer, Chas. Moore, is still at large.

Divine Services To-day. Services will be held in the following Churches to-day. We also publish the time of meeting of the Sabbath Schools:

Methodist Church, (Market Street.) Rev. A. W. Mangum, officiating. Services at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

Sabbath School - W. M. Young, Superintendent, 9 A. M.

BAPTIST CHURCH. Rev. Dr. Pritchard, officiating. Services at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

Sabbath School - J. M. Heck, Superintendent, 9 A. M.

Methodist Church. Rev. Dr. Mason, officiating. Services at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M.

Sabbath School - Wm. E. Anderson, Superintendent, 9 A. M.

ST. JOHN'S (CATHOLIC) CHURCH. Rev. J. V. McNamara, officiating. Services at 11 A. M.

Sabbath School - Mr. Barbee, Superintendent.

A Good Thing Spoken. Our neighbor of the News comes hat spiced the story of Applewhite Richardson a few days ago. It is too good a thing to be spoken, and we propose to translate the News version. We have one fact from A. W. W. Burdick, Jr., the thirteenth child of our race.

The Gas Question.

We understand it is the purpose of the committee of the Board of City Commissioners appointed to consider an economical means of lighting the streets, &c., to report in favor of gas. Oil for the street lamps and the new carbide lighting gas for the market-house and Metropolitan Hall. The object of the committee being economy it is well to understand what they propose. The cost of lighting the streets with gas is $2 per month per lamp. (In Salisbury the charge is $2.50. In Fayetteville $3. In Newbern (when they used it) $3 and in Charlotte $4.) The lamps in Raleigh number 98, which at $2 per month makes a cost of $196. It is proposed to add to the present lamps, (oil which $300 was laid out) the "basket" fixtures at a cost of $150 to $200. These lamps will then require some three hands daily to empty them with oil, to trim them and to keep them clean. Some two or three men may be required to light them, and this lighting is very different from the lighting of gas, as the consumers of kerosene oil will readily say. At a rough estimate these lamp-lighters, lamp-cleaners, &c., will cost the city (three of them say) at $1.50 per day - $45.00 per week, in round numbers $130 per month - leaving $60 per month for oil, wick, &c. There would appear to be but little saving in this. Then the new gas apparatus for the market and Metropolitan Hall will cost for the outfit about $450. We presume the new gas machine will work. But as the gas supplied by the gas company is equal lamp for lamp, to three times the power of the coal oil, the economy of the proposed change does not appear. We merely throw out the suggestion.

The Federal Dead.

The following is the programme for Memorial Day, Friday, May 30, 1878: Procession to form in front of the Court House at 10 o'clock p. m. in the following order:

Gen. John T. Tidball and his Command, Grand Army of the Republic. Citizens and Strangers. Mayor and Order of Day in marriage. Poet and Chaplain in Carriage. City Commissioners in Carriage. Reporters of City Press in Carriage. On arriving at the cemetery, the procession will open ranks and file into the cemetery. Quiet being restored, services will commence with prayer by the chaplain.

A Good Project.

It has heretofore been announced that Miss Bacon, daughter of the late Dr. Bacon, of New Haven, Conn., has been spending a few days in this city with a view to the establishment of one or more first-class graded schools for the white children. Miss Bacon has been actively engaged in similar enterprises in this and other States - having established, as we understand, one of such schools in Wilmington. Nothing definite has resulted from her visit to Raleigh. We learn from Gen. Gorman, chairman of the school committee for Raleigh township, that Miss Bacon makes the following proposition: If the city of Raleigh will furnish a school house with desks, &c., the well-qualified, competent teachers and necessary apparatus, free of cost, to be used to instruct a first class graded school. This proposition lies open. In the meantime it is proposed by the school committee of this township to proceed, with or without the aid of Miss Bacon, to establish such a school as the needs of the city require. It is proposed to turn the old building known as the Governor's palace into a school house of the class named, and we think the idea a good one. The location is good, the grounds ample, and the property, belonging to the State, may be obtained in perpetuity at a reasonable rate.

We suppose there is not a man in this city, worthy the name, who does not realize the necessity for such a school. It is not to be deplored the fact that hundreds of white children are running the streets in idleness and its consequent wickedness, or are cooped up at home spiritless and in ignorance, whilst ample provision has been made for the education of the children of colored parents. Need we refer to the census returns to show the condition of our educational system, (and witness in the State is more deplorable than in the city of Raleigh.) How many of our thinking men, even, know the fact that in 1870, there were in the State 897,012 persons over the age of ten years capable of reading and writing, and that the number of those who could read and write was 23,500. This makes and shows the fact that 97.7 per cent of the population of the State in the same condition numbered 230,516, making a total of 257,012, considerably over one-third of the whole population of the State entirely untaught.

When we again assert that the want of schools in the city of Raleigh is as great as anywhere else in the State, it is not enough, in view of these facts to stir up their thinking men to the urgent necessity of providing means of instruction for at least the being generation. As before remarked, the colored children are comparatively well provided for, whilst the white children are wholly neglected.

Very Disorderly.

A young man named Putney was before Mayor Whitaker yesterday on a charge of very disorderly conduct. It appeared that on the previous night the defendant, who was on a "house," went to the house of Fannie Wilson, a respectable female residing in the southwestern limits, and who had two "lady boarders," and drove the two from the premises. He then amused himself with disarranging chairs and tables and demolishing crockery generally, and having sufficiently amused himself in this way, fastened up the house and retired to rest. The power of the police was invoked and the house forcibly entered by the refugees and the destroyer of the peace of the establishment was arrested. The bad character of the house and its inmates was made evident to his honor and the bad manners of the defendant were not denied. The Mayor fined the defendant $25 and bound Fannie over to court in the sum of $200 for selling spirits without a license, and took measures to leave the house vacated.

DISCHARGED - Paul Love, the negro man who killed Kirk Lusk last winter, was discharged last week without trial. The killing was accidental, and the defendant being unable to pay any amount to cover the accused, dismissed the case. - Winston Sentinel.

ALABAMA COAST RAILROAD - This important scheme seems to be engaging the earnest attention of the people of the Eastern coast. An enthusiastic meeting, as we learn from the Elizabeth City Gazette, was held in that place on Wednesday last, which was addressed by Judge Johnston, Maj. H. A. Gilliam, Col. W. F. Martin, Dr. P. John, and Messrs. Gen. D. Olds, W. J. Farwell and Thomas B. Skinner, all of whom urged the importance of building the road. Col. J. S. Napes, Chief Engineer of the Company, was also called upon and delivered a very interesting address, during which he stated that it had been decided to connect Norfolk and Charleston by way of Jacksonville and Wilmington, this being one of three routes proposed. The survey is now going on and the people of that section seem to be pretty thoroughly aroused on the subject of constructing the road.

NATIONAL HEREFORDS - In the English House of Lords the Lord Chancellor is reported to have stated that the importation of the woolen manufactures of the great staple of that country, may be greatly improved on the present basis. When the first Congress met after the adoption of the Federal Constitution, it was in contemplation, but afterwards abandoned, to have the same of each delegation, brought with some twelve descriptions of the staples of their several States, viz: New Hampshire to be represented by a sheep, Massachusetts by a barrel of fish, Rhode Island, a hogshead of cotton, Connecticut, an ox, New York, a hoghead of flax, New Jersey, a bushel of flax, Delaware, a bag of wheat, Maryland, a bag of wool, Virginia, a hogshead of tobacco, North Carolina, a bag of rice, South Carolina, a bag of cotton, Georgia, a barrel of rice.

THE MECKLENBURG CENTENNIAL.

Says the Raleigh Sentinel: "The Charlotte people will agitate a Centennial celebration we will join hands and do our utmost to make it a splendid success." Our valued contemporary may rest assured that the subject will be well "agitated" before the 20th of May, 1878. Resolutions have already been adopted looking to the celebration of the great day in a manner becoming the glory of our brave ancestors.

The cordial cooperation of the other cities and towns of the State is expected. All are interested in it. The Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence is one of the glories of the Old North State; it is a proud heritage in which all our people have a right to share. Every part of the State should join with us in the celebration and we hope that the whole press of North Carolina will unite in the work of making the Mecklenburg Centennial, on May 20th, 1878, a grand success, worthy of the occasion and creditable to the spirit and energy of our people. - Char. Observer.
