LATEST STATE NEWS.

On Friday evening we were visited with a very terrific hail storm. Although the storm did not last long, yet the hail stones were as large as partridge eggs. We fear that much damage has been done to the growing crops in this and the adjoining counties.—Statesville Intelligencer.

SIGNAL STATION.—The Asheville Expositor says that hands have been put to work preparatory to the establishment of a signal station on the summit of Mount Mitchell, for purposes of observation. It is said that several of those who have the work in charge, passed down the road to Salisbury this week. The establishment of this signal station will make a telegraph line along the W. N. C. R. R., a necessity, and we believe the time, when we can enjoy the advantages of such an institution, is in the near future. And then, when Billy Smith makes arrangements for the completion of the road through to the Tennessee line, where it will strike its natural Western connections, an era of prosperity will dawn on Western Carolina such as the most sanguine of us can barely realize.

Police Business Brisk.

On Sunday night the city police made a descent upon one of the many hells of our city and suburbs. This one is located on Dawson street, near the residence of Hon. B. F. Moore and the Cottage Hotel. In this den the police surprised the following gang of colored rioters. Some were engaged in playing cards, others in drinking, dancing, singing and other rioting conduct, whilst four couples were pulled from the beds. The following is the disgraceful list, every one of whom should have been committed to jail or to hard labor for at least a month. Their names are as follows: John Baker, John Morgan, Doc. Alston, Allen McPherson, (lately a convict in the Penitentiary,) Spencer Williams, Wesley Bowen, Henry Lane, Eliza Palmer, Ida Lyman, Lucy Moore, Mary Hester, Virginia Harris, Nancy Jordan, Laura Holden, Jane Patterson.

These vagabonds were before the Mayor yesterday. The he vagabonds were fined $5 each and the she imprisoned for twelve hours each. This punishment was altogether too light, and more vigorous measures will be required.

Want—An Office.

There are three hundred applicants for the position offered to be filled by the new Board of City Commissioners. To fill the offices we owe $3 fines, and should the incumbents desire to retain their positions (which they hardly will) the number of applicants must be cut down at 7½. As the elections do not take place before Wednesday night the books may be considered as yet open. None but Radicals need apply.

The Late Strike.

Yesterday the strikers as a rule resumed work on the compromise terms of eleven hours per day during the next two months, and ten hours forever thereafter. This result might have been reached by a much easier means; but men will become boys once in a while, no matter what may be said to the contrary. If the ten hours proposition had been submitted to the employers by those who were interested in it, and all others had stood back, where they belonged—including scheming politicians, and men who are not mechanics, and men who have been mechanics and have played out—the matter could and would have been settled amicably, as it finally was. As it is, however, a large number of men unnecessarily quit work and lost twelve to fifteen dollars each—aggregating a sum of considerable magnitude.

We regret, however, to learn that the hands of Messrs. Betts, Allen & Co., have refused to resume work, not because they are dissatisfied with the compromise, but because the firm refuse to employ one of the hands who struck. On enquiry, we find that the man in question is one who had been a favorite of some one or more of the firm, to the extent of their purchasing for him a home and lot, paying the money down for it or assuming the payment of it, and allowing him to reimburse them as he could afford it or make it convenient. This man became a leader in the movement which materially interfered in their business. They look upon the conduct of this man, under the circumstances, as ungrateful, and do not desire longer to employ him. We have this version from outside parties, and have spoken to no member of the firm on the subject. If true, the firm are justified in their course, and the journeymen have no right to compel them to employ a man in whom they have lost confidence.

We understand the supply of labor, especially in the carpenters' line, is not near enough for the demand here, and that quite a number of competent carpenters can command good situations at good wages.

THE WILFONG HOMICIDE.

Trial and Conviction of Joseph Baker

[Condensed from the Charlotte Observer.]

The case of the State vs. Joseph Baker, white, for the murder of Newton Wilfong, colored, occupied Mecklenburg Superior Court all of Friday and Saturday last. Col. W. P. Bynum, solicitor, prosecuted, the defence was conducted by Messrs. J. H. Wilson & Son and Capt. R. P. Waring. By 12 o'clock on Friday the following jury were empannelled: H. B. Williams, E. A. McLeod, M. L. Davis, A. B. Davidson, W. E. Sizer, W. B. Bradford, A. W. Lawing, J. R. Lawrence, F. M. Sossaman, T. A. Price, J. S. Shaffer, J. F. Davis.

The court then took a recess till 1 o'clock, when the case was proceeded with.

Col. Bynum opened for the State and introduced the following

TESTIMONY FOR THE STATE:

H. C. Severs was the first witness called. He testified that on the afternoon of the 15th of February last the prisoner and deceased were drinking, with others, at his (witness') saloon, a mile from Charlotte. Deceased was very bolstrous and quarrelsome. Witness had to interfere and finally push deceased from the house. Deceased had been quarreling with a colored man named Alfred Lawing. Witness having got deceased out advised him to go away and deceased said he would. Witness then re-entered his house and met, coming out, the prisoner Baker and told him (Baker) to let Wilfong alone, but received no response. Baker passed witness, and going up to Wilfong, who was standing a short distance off, struck him with a knife in the left side—forcing Wilfong across a ditch about two feet with the blow. Wilfong walked a short distance up the edge of the ditch and fell. He was carried into a shoe shop near by, where he died in 10 or 12 minutes after being stabbed.

Dorcas Alexander, col., was living at Severs' at the time of the murder. On the evening in question, hearing a voice, she went round to the front door of the store just as Severs and Wilfong came out; they were striking at each other, but she did not see either hit the other; that as Severs turned to go back into the store Baker (the prisoner) passed him, and going to Wilfong (the deceased) struck him a backhanded blow in the side and dropped the knife into his pocket, handle downward.

Dr. J. P. McCombs testified to the nature of the wound, as having been inflicted with a sharp instrument, which had penetrated the heart. The wound would have produced death; saw no other wound. Had examined deceased's head and found no signs of injury. The State here rested its case.

THE DEFENCE.

Mr. J. H. Wilson stated the grounds of the defence: that the prisoner did not commit the deed; that he had no motive for killing Wilfong, and that deceased came to his death by concussion of the brain.

John G. Cross testified to the drunken condition of Wilfong on the evening of the killing and to his abusive language and disorderly conduct; that he picked a weight and made demonstrations of using it on the negro man Lawing, who had refused to treat him; that all he saw Baker do was to remonstrate with Wilfong, for which he, (Baker) got roundly abused and threatened by deceased. Was not present at the time of the stabbing.

On the cross-examination of this witness by Colonel Bynum, it appeared that Baker in going home that evening called at witness' house and asked what was the news at Severs'. He was told the dead who had been stabbed was dead; upon which he remarked that he did not think he would have died so soon; and on enquiring into what was said about who killed him, was told that a negro woman said the last time (Baker) hit him. Baker then said he had no knife, and that a Dutch negro (Severs) prevarication was not of much account.

J. C. Reid testified substantially as the last witness. He did not see the stabbing, there being 15 to 20 persons in the house; and the door was so crowded that he could not get out. Heard Severs say to Baker, "Joe, I b'lieve you've killed that nigger;" to which Baker replied, "I'll be damned if I did."

John Kelly testified substantially the same as Reid, even to the conversation between Severs and Baker. Did not see the stabbing.

Joseph McDonald and W. F. Davidson testified to the good character of H. C. Severs.

The testimony for the defence closed and the court adjourned till 9 1-2 on Saturday.

TESTIMONY FOR THE STATE RESUMED.

The court met at 9 1-2 on Saturday morning and the testimony for the prosecution was resumed.

H. C. Severs testified that at the time of the killing he had no knife, and that he did not strike Wilfong with a backhanded or putting him out.

Frederick Severs, clerk in the store, negatived the knife with which it was alleged Wilfong was killed as similar to one he had in the store, and one of which he had sold to Baker.

Wm. P. Little arrested Baker an hour and a half after the killing. Went to his house and saw him going out at the back door; ordered him to halt, which he did, saying "Don't you come up on me;" ordered the prisoner to throw down his knife, which he started to do, but the sheriff came up and the knife was turned over to him. Prisoner was asked what else he had about him, and he replied that he had nothing; but on examination a razor and a six-shooter were found upon him. Witness identified a knife shown by the solicitor as the one taken from Baker. When taken from him it had blood upon it.

Alfred Lawing, col., testified that he was in the store when the stabbing was done and did not see it. After the stabbing, saw Baker "going stooped through the crowd;" that he came through the store where witness was; and going to the back end, washed and dried his hands, and threw the water out; that Baker, while washing his hands, saw witness looking at him and turned his back so that witness could not see what he was doing; that after walking round the room a little while Baker went out the door and across the field in a trot, having his hat in his hand.

This is all the testimony at all material.

Col. Bynum then addressed the jury briefly, insisting that the evidence was overwhelming.

Capt. R. P. Waring followed for the defence, on the grounds set forth by Mr. Wilson.

Mr. J. H. Wilson followed also in the defence and

Col. Bynum closed for the State.

In about an hour the jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

A motion was then made for a new trial, and the Court adjourned pending the Judge's decision.

This trial created considerable interest, the courthouse being crowded during the two days it occupied.

Way-Side Notes.

Leaving Raleigh on Saturday morning on the Raleigh and Gaston train, at little after 2 o'clock we were at Henderson. On the way we saw but few things requiring mention. We noticed that the R. & G. road was building a new bridge over Jeffrey's Creek, between Raleigh and Forestville. Soon after leaving Wake Forest College we learned from Prof. Brooks that Rev. Dr. Pritchard had been holding a series of

at the college for over ten days, that several professions of faith had occurred, that many back-sliders had been recovered, and much good accomplished. We also learnt that the people living at the College were anticipating a pleasant time on the occasion of the Commencement festivities, and that a large crowd was expected. Prof. Brooks was on his way to where he is pastor of the Baptist Church. He was to have preached there on Sunday. He has a small but intelligent membership, who have painted their church edifice recently and purchased an organ.

We dined at Col. Elmo Ellis's hotel, who gave us an excellent dinner. The traveller would do well to bear in mind that this accommodating landlord still caters for the wants of those who are from home. We noticed that fertilizers were still being received at the large ware house of the railroad, and learned that such was the very great demand for them, that although a dozen kinds were sold by agents at that place, not a pound was then on hand. Whilst at Henderson we noticed that there were ten dry goods stores in full blast although three years ago the town was laid in ashes. There are in successful operation. As that of Messrs Wilkerson and Meadows was some distance up town, we did not have time to visit it, but was glad to learn that they were well patronized. We spent a half hour at the ware house of Messrs. J. C. & D. Y. Cooper, and was astonished to see from their books how much business they were doing. Since February 1st they have sold 1534 packages of tobacco, many of them large ones. They have sixteen regular buyers who attend the sales. A few days ago they sold one lot of tobacco for the handsome sum of $95 per hundred pounds. We saw a sample and it was beautiful, of bright golden color and rich texture. Col. Simon W. Kittrell is the efficient salesman.

Henderson will soon have another main wheel, Rev. T. J. Horner, who has contracted to build at Tally Ho, in Granville, will open a school in July next. From Henderson we had a rough and disagreeable ride to which beautiful village we reached by 8 o'clock P. M. On Sunday we attended the Episcopal church, and heard Rev. Mr. Thompson preach a good discourse on the words of Christ, "It is expedient for you that I go away." We were pleased to hear the beautiful service of that Church, the most English English in all the world, and without the everlasting sounding of the last syllable of all words ending in ed. The only improper use of that termination was in the Lord's Prayer, in which hallowed was pronounced hallow-ed. This, however, is a universal mistake, but none the less a mistake, as will be seen by a reference to the rules governing the pronunciation of such words. The Episcopal Church has the largest membership in town, and on yesterday was well filled. As we entered the Church we saw seated before us the dear little children of looking tidy, comfortable and happy. It was a touching sight, and we thought if all the people in our good old North Carolina could see their happy faces, and know that these wards of the whole State were thus tenderly and mercifully cared for, that everybody would be anxious to contribute something towards their future maintenance. We feel satisfied that this noble charity will become a magnificent success if the ladies of North Carolina should so will it. Upon them, to a great extent, rests the question of its permanency and usefulness. The number of orphans is increasing, and now amounts to forty. In to-morrow's issue we shall have more to say of Oxford. T. B. K.

State Agricultural Society.

The following are the proceedings of a meeting of the Building Committee of the State Agricultural Society, held in this city on the evening of the 22d inst., ordered by the executive committee to be published.

The following members of the committee were present: Gen. R. F. Hoke, W. H. Hicks, W. G. Upchurch and N. S. Harp.

The meeting was organized by calling Gen. Hoke to the chair.

Mr. Upchurch introduced the following resolutions, which were adopted:

Resolved, That the Committee hold regular meetings at the Secretary's office on Wednesday of every other week at 8 o'clock, p. m., to consider and act upon such business as may be brought before it.

2 That no contract for building material, for work or vouchers for the payment of any contract shall be considered valid unless approved by three members of the Building Committee.

3 That every voucher or copy of any contract made shall be returned for record to the Secretary at the next regular meeting after such contract or voucher shall have been made.

The foregoing resolutions were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Hicks

Resolved, That the Secretary be and is hereby instructed to furnish the daily papers with a copy of the proceedings of each meeting of the Building Committee for publication.

Mr. Allen of the firm of Betts, Allen & Co., was elected General Superintendent of the proposed improvements for the new fair grounds with a salary of $130 per month.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

We are requested to state that Capt. Polghum, Secretary of the Society, will commence his collections of the sum subscribed in Raleigh, to-day, and will continue to the end of the list. The money is imperatively demanded to go on with the work, and it is to be hoped our citizens will respond at once.

Another meeting of the Building Committee was held last night, at which general instructions were issued to the Superintendent of the Improvements to contract for the necessary lumber, for the hands, &c. The Secretary was instructed to advertise for proposals for furnishing 175,000 feet of dressed lumber, or for dressing that quantity of lumber after being purchased by the superintendent. The proceedings in full will appear to-morrow.
