PERSONAL.

David J. Sunders, a prominent citizen of Richmond, Va., died in that city on Thursday evening last, after a long and painful illness.General Joseph E. Johnston and wife are to spend the summer in Virginia.Ada M. Hallett, a Chicago girl, after passing a very creditable examination before the Illinois Supreme Court, has been admitted to the bar.Mr. Disraeli is announced for orator on the occasion of the unveiling of the statue of Lord Derby in London early next month.Mr. A. H. Mechem, one of the Peace Commissioners, who is still suffering from the wound he received at the meeting under the flag of truce at the time General Canby and Dr. Thomas were shot, is at the National Hotel, in Washington city.Ex-President Thiers has written a letter to a friend, in which he says he has retired to private life, believing that party Government in France is a mistake, and will only lead to fresh divisions.A gentleman in Chicago offers to match Usher, the champion billiard player of that city, to play any man in the United States a series of games, five hundred points up, for a stake of from $500 to $5,000 a side.Mr. Gladstone, according to a statement made by the London correspondent of the Scotsman, is in such a state of health as to create, in the House of Commons, a good deal of anxiety. He is looking miserably ill; is in want of rest, but will take none.An official inventory of the effects of the late Edwin Forrest is just completed, and shows the total value of goods, chasters, credits, &c., to be $320,000. Among the items are jewelry, books, pictures, etc., etc., at Springfield Mansions, $7, 844; wine at Broad and Master, $320; securities deposited, $188,465; cash in fidelity, $8,200.Mr. Moncure D. Conway is preparing an Zoroaster, Confucius, and also the Bible.Mr. Mosley has in the press a biography of historical work. "The Life and Death of John of Barneveld," including the history of the primary cause of the Thirty Years' War.Mr. Berry Andrews has found some specimens of copper ore on his farm two miles from Hillsboro. The vein is two feet wide. He will develop the mine.

Mr. Thomas Hastings has rich iron ore on his farm, says the Advertiser.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Off for London.

Mr. Theo. N. Ramsay leaves this morning for London. He goes as a delegate to the great meeting of the Good Templars to be held in London next month. We wish him a pleasant trip and a safe return.

Rev. Charles Phillips.

It affords us pleasure to announce that Rev. Charles Phillips, D. D., Professor of Mathematics in Davidson College, will give a lecture on "The reciprocal duties of the teacher and the public," at the educational convention in July.

Hot Weather and Refreshments.

A man who keeps refreshments adapted to such hot weather is a genuine public benefactor. We were reminded of this yesterday when we drank some of Simpson's famous arctic soda water. A little higher up on Fayetteville street is the ice cream shop of Mosely, the confectioner.
His cream is quite delicious, specially just now.

U. S. Circuit Court.

The court convened at 10 o'clock.
Judge Brooks presiding.There were no new cases before this court yesterday, the case of Wm. Morton vs. R. S. F. Peete, which has been under consideration for two days, occupying the entire session. The case was still pending when the court adjourned.

Throwing Stones.

We have frequently cautioned the boys of this city against the danger of throwing rocks at each other in the streets. Yesterday two boys indulged in such a pastime. The result was that one of them succeeded in inflicting a small cut over the right eye of the other, with a half inch of the temple. Both cried loudly, and suffered a great deal. He is now in hospital, and is recovering rapidly.

An Old Book.

We were yesterday shown an ancient medical work entitled, Liberus de Materiis, published in the year 1727.The book was found near this city in an abandoned Federal camp, in 1865, and is very highly prized by the present owner on account of its antiquity.A. E. Gibbs, Esq., with Bates & Co., the great New York dealers in clothing, is in the city. John Webb, Tom Turner and William S. Ewing, of Hillsboro, will remember him twenty and four years ago as the go-between boy who said he "shot a squall in the stomach." Mr. Gibbs represents a good southern house in New York.

The Raleigh Ice Company.

We are informed by Capt. Bran, that $2,500 has been subscribed to the capital stock of this company. As soon as $8,000 is subscribed a meeting of the subscribers to the stock will be called, and a regular organization perfected under the laws of the State, officers elected, &c. The Charlotte Ice Company are erecting a machine of this patent (the Muhl) and will be making ice in about ten days. The cost of making ice with this machine is 25 cents per hundred pounds, and there is no reason why our citizens should not indulge in the luxury of ice at one cent per pound as well as our sister town Charlotte.

Let Us Have Peace.

Mr. Isaac O'Neal, of Salisbury, is the author of a pamphlet for the building of the new store of Messrs. Williamson, Upchurch and Thomas. He has commenced work bringing his own hands with him. Yesterday evening just at sundown, a large crowd of workmen gathered round him demanding that they should conform to the union arrangements. The hands had already ceased work for the day. Many rumors are afloat as to what to-morrow will bring forth, but we have no knowledge of the purpose of either party. We sincerely hope that no difficulties will arise from this misunderstanding and that good order will continue to prevail.

Distribution of the Laws.

Passing through the Capitol yesterday in search of an item, we dropped into the office of Secretary of State and inquired, "Any chance for an item?" "Nary item," replied the promising genius.We noticed, however, an individual busy packing books, and upon inquiry, learned that they were copies of the laws. The laws have all been distributed except about 500 copies.The country yet to be supplied are Eastern counties, all the Western counties having been furnished except the county of Rowan.

Jackson and Johnston.

We briefly referred to the fact in our last that Mr. Rivers, of South Carolina, was canvassing Raleigh for the sale of two magnificent steel engraved likenesses of those two great Captains, Stonewall Jackson and Joseph E. Johnston. Mrs. Jackson had been ill and had been unable to attend the meeting at the time of the "Nary item."We were yesterday shown an ancient medical work entitled, Liberus de Materiis, published in the year 1727.The book was found near this city in an
very highly prized by the present owner
on account of its antiquity.A. E. Gibbs, Esq., with Bates & Co.,
the great New York dealers in clothing, is
in the city. John Webb, Tom Turner
squall in the stomach." Mr. Gibbs represents a good southern house in New York.

Lady's Bazaar or Fair.

The ladies of the sewing society connected with the Eleventh Street M. E.
Church of this city contemplate holding a Bazaar at Tuckers Hall on Thursday evenings, the 26th and 27th inst., for the purpose of raising funds to be applied to the erection of a new edifice.It is designed by the ladies that the character of their entertainment shall be only what its name indicates. It is their intention to make it a pleasurable occasion to all who may visit the hall on the evenings designated.Many valuable, useful and handsome articles will be exhibited for sale at the several tables, and a table of choice articles will also be provided."Grab-bags," "postoffice," &c., will be dispensed with. The highly tangible object of this effort of the ladies commands but little attention, and ought to receive their liberal support. We will make arrangements as to arrangements hereafter.

Bible Meeting in Winston, N. C.

A meeting of the friends of the Bible cause was held in the M. E. Church, in Winston, the county seat for Bertie county, on Friday evening, June 18th.
After an address by the Rev. F. A. Stroh, it was resolved to organize a Bible Society. The following officers were chosen:President—William P. Shaw.
Corresponding Secretary—William P.
Taylor.

Treasurer—Matthew Beatty.

Deputy—John W. Faust.

Executive Committee—J. L. Mitchell, J. O. Jones and H. D. Godwin.Visitors—Rev. Dr. John T. Williams, Langley Taylor, Winston Township, G.
T. Holloman; Hamletville Township, N. L. Shaw.The territory of this society will en-brace the townships of St. John's, Winston and Hamletville, a portion of the country which has been somewhat neglected and in which much distinction is believed to exist. The Executive Committee made an order for $45 worth of books for the depository, and will set aside a sum from the parent society. This society begins its operations under favorable auspices.

State vs. John Davis et al., from New Hanover. No error. Appeal dismissed.
Stanford, Owen & Brown vs. State of North Carolina. Law requiring income tax of debtors, declared unconstitutional.

LOCAL LOCOMOTIVES.

Apricots are becoming plentiful in market.A great deal of sickness among the children. Too much green fruit.Owing to the "silence" of the crowd, Capt. Brain did not lecture last night.We are glad to learn that Mr. Howard Hearts is rapidly recovering from his late severe illness.Next week—court week—in the absence of Gen. Cox, F. H. Busbee, Esq., will discharge the duties of Solicitor.A leading physician informs us that well-known Irish potatoe are not "fan-gerous for children."The recent complimentary notices of the city press have had no other effect on the Raleigh and Gaston syndicate than to make it look stronger and stronger.The sidewalk on Davie street is in a horrible condition. So much so that it would take all the ingenuity of a billy goat to walk it without falling.Mr. R. H. Jenkins, Jr., is in the city just starting on his accustomed tour through North and South Carolina. We wish him great success.The practice of the Corcoran Band Tuesday evening, on the west balcony of the capitol is very entertaining to the citizens in its vicinity. This band is rapidly improving and should be encouraged.A. E. Gibbs, Esq., with Bates & Co., the great New York dealers in clothing, is
in the city. John Webb, Tom Turner
squall in the stomach." Mr. Gibbs represents a good southern house in New York.

More about the recent fire.

There are a few facts connected with the recent fire which are truly lamentable.
A favorite large Newfoundland dog was chained to the back step in the yard, and unable to get loose. He was consequently burned to death.Sargeant Beln has served fifteen years in the U. S. Army, and was a few weeks<br
