HOME AFFAIRS.

Maj. Bagley, the Grand Master of the Order of OddFellows in North Carolina left the city yesterday morning for Clayton, Johnston county, where he will organize an Odd Fellow's lodge to-day.

Personal.

We had the pleasure of a visit yester day afternoon from Mr. R. A. McGuire, of the Battleboro Adeance. We were glad to learn that the Advance is in a very prosperous condition.

Tread Seft.

We have been requested to call the attention of the Keeper of the Capitol to the luxuriant growth, in the Capitol grounds, of the thistle bearing the above name. If you would not be scriously wounded tread lightly upon it - hence its name, "tread saft,"

Baby Carriages.

The Wilmington Star says "baby carringes on the streets of a Saturday afternoon are voted a decided nuisance" in that city. If it were put to a vote here. we are of opinion the result would be the same as in Wilmington, and were there a penalty attached to such nuisance are would no doubt have to shoulder personally a good portion of it.

It was rumored on the streets yesterday that the Hos. Gaston H. Wilder, of this county, died at his residence in St. Matthew's Township on Monday. The report is not credited by some, but as the gentleman has been in very delicate health for some time past it may not be improbable

Valuable Pocket-Book Found.

Mr. D. W. Whitaker, of this been appointed traveling agent for the "People's Spring Bed," a new and most excellent invention. He is traveling agent for this State and Virginia. We take pleasure in recommending Mr. Whitaker to the people, and assure them of tair dealing at his hands.

Sudden Illness. Just before going to pross we learn that Mr. A. F. Redd, Editor of the Biblional Recorder, was taken suddenly ill yesterday about noon. He was at his office at the time, and his illness was of such a violent character that he had to be conveyed to his residence. His physician, has been with him during the afternoon, and his condition is considered critical.

Nash Square.

Like most other, people we thought, when Nash Equacy was enclosed, the object was to beautify and make it a pleasant resort. It seems we were mistaken. The square was plowed up and sown down in outs. The Scotch thisties seem to have got the better of the cats, and the prisepect is that next year will see Nash Square and the adjacent lots covered with a of the News, we think it so more than gaged upon the Alriliae Railroad.
