North Carolina Gazette.

We have received the first number of a new candidate for public favor bearing the above name, published at Fayetteville and edited by Messrs. J. H. and G. G.
Myers. The number before us is exceptionally neat and tasteful in its mechanical execution, the matter is arranged with judgment and skill, and the editorial show that hands not used to the pen are at work upon it. If we are not mistaken, one of the editors is the author of a well written and interesting story that appeared last year in the Southern Magazine entitled, "How to Death." The Gazette will be Conservative in politics Price $2 a year. The first number contains a great deal of reading matter. The editors have our location, wishes for their success. In their "Greeting" the editors say:

"An editorial article will be committed to print which has not been carefully considered and deliberately passed; no selection will find admission to our columns which has not been read before hand. Nothing shall emanate from our office which our wives and children may not read with pleasure and profit; and we intend that the Gazette shall be not only a valuable adjunct to the farm and the country-room, but a welcome guest at the home table."

The wife of Doc Cade is described as tall, possessed of a noble mien, having golden hair, and dark blue eyes, and is considered a beautiful blonde. She is reported to have masculine courage, and to be tenacious in her husband's love.

They weigh but a few ounces.

The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. IX.

RALEIGH, N. C., SATURDAY, AUGUST 9, 1873.

HOME AFFAIRS.

ELECTRIC SPARKS.

Volume Nine.

With this issue the DAILY SENTINEL enters upon its ninth year. To-morrow an editorial will appear giving a sketch of the paper, from its establishment in 1865, up to the present time.

The County Commissioners.

The county commissioners met yesterday for the purpose of comparing the vote of the county. Three townships not having made return, they adjourned to meet again at 10 o'clock.

Election Returns.

We publish to-day a tabular statement of the vote of the county as polled on Thursday, August the 7th. Fifteen townships heard from gives Gilbert, the radical candidate, 710 majority. To-morrow we will complete the table, presenting totals,

Printers' Strike in Canada.

Wm. R. McLean, President of the International Typographical Union, has received a telegram from Ottawa, Canada, informing him of a strike among the printers of Ottawa, Canada Union, and has issued a circular cautioning printers from going in that direction until the matters at issue have been adjusted.

The Sabbath School Excursion.

We learn by telegraph that the excursion train of the Cedar Fork Sabbath School which left this city yesterday morning, arrived safely at Greensboro. They left this city with five cars, but when they reached Company Shops the crowd had so increased that it was found necessary to add another car.

University of Virginia.

We call attention to the advertisement in our columns of the University of Virginia, one of the Universities of the highest rank in America. It is founded on the elective system in its broadest sense, and is equally adapted for those who desire to make special and professional attainment as for those seeking broad general culture.

Donald Bain, Esq., the efficient Chief Clerk of the Treasury Department, left the city yesterday evening for a few weeks recreation the mountains.

Dr. Thos. H. Pritchard left the city yesterday morning for Kenansville where he will assist in conducting a protracted meeting.

Citizens on Hillsboro's street would be glad if the city authorities would prevent Northern patent medicine men from painting advertisements on their property.

At the last meeting of the Royal Architectural Institute, a "Madonna and Child," by Raphael, presented to the first Earl Harrington by Phillip V. of Spain, was exhibited by the Earl of Harrington.

This is considered a big thing in Saratoga to have cold fried potatoes for lunch, or "munch," as it is elegantly called there.
Moreover, they sip champagne with them, and expect to get home alive.

The lastest sight which a cultivated mind can dwell upon is a West Point cadet attempting to deude with soft speeches a New York society belle, and imagining himself a "terrible flirt."

The latest method of spending the honeymoon is reported from Italy. An American recently met an old schoolfellow, whom he had not seen for years. "You here!"—Yes, my dear fellow, I have just been married, and am come to pass the honeymoon in Italy." And your wife?"—My wife! Oh! I left her in New York!"

Our Fire Loredow.

The Richmond Enquirer has spoilt all our hospital feelings about that North Carolina nun. Hear it:

About that "sweet singing nun" in Rome, we will whisper in the ear of the Sentinel that the types were at fault. The item we published should have read, "A North Carolina lady says the sweetest singer of sacred song in Rome is a sun."

The Old North State, we believe, has none there. Nevertheless, we do not regret the error, since it has elicited so many very high and pleasing compliments to the character of gentlemen without any evidence to support them.

So far as a proper and legitimate distribution of the business affairs of the Company and of the conduct of the directors is concerned, no one can be free from objection than I am. But "Minority Stockholder" and all other persons must know, and if they do not the lesson cannot too soon be taught them, that my character, made by a life of strictest integrity and honor since I arrived at my estate cannot and shall not be trifled with.

I will receive, as rente for the sale of my estate to you in six months, the interest of the half payable in six months, with interest from the day of sale until paid, the Assignee reserving the title, also requiring a good and secure title of the purchaser, and security of the purchaser. The good and secure title of the purchaser.

I would prefer to furnish and feed the team myself, leaving the tenant to hire the labor.
There is sufficient land in cultivation for an eight-horse crop.

I will also lease for the coming year, or long or short, the farm on which Mrs. Hancock now resides, the farm a four-acre crop can be cultivated. The land is in high condition—having been much improved by late fall work.

I will receive, as rente for the sale of my
of the half payable in six months, with interest from the day of sale until paid, the
a good and secure title of the purchaser, and security of the purchaser.

Persons wishing to engage in farming will do well to see me before contracting with any other person.
