HOME AFFAIRS.

High Sales.

Graaville tobacco still sells very high Mr. E. L. Fleming sold a lot not long ago for $96 per hundred. For two two-horse wagens of loose tobacco he received $800 at Milton.

Hertford County Vote.

No returns have yet been made from Hertford county, awing to some irregular ity in the vote of Winton township. It is thought the vote of this township will be thrown out.

Another Heavy Vote.

In nine townships in Richmond county. there was not a vote cast against the amendments. Wolfe Pitt (a bad name) cast fourteen votes against the amendments-the only negative votes cast in the county.

Granville Tobacco Crop.

We learn from a farmer from Granville that although the crop of tobacco planted is small, it is growing under the recent rains with remarkable rapidity. If not caught by early frost, the crop promises storm. It is supposed to be a sea fowl. to be of superior quality.

More About Postal Cards.

The Postmuster General has decided that no postal card can be forwarded from the place to which it was originally directed by the first sender, without an additional postage of three cents. Business men would do well to make a note of Attractive Posters.

Capt. R. T. Fulgum, Secretary of the North Carolina Agricultural Society has just received from Messrs. Russell, Morgan & Co., a large lot of handsome posters for the next State Fair. They are about six feet by four and are printed in illuminated colors. They will be distributed throughout the State in a few days.

Attempted Suicide.

On yesterday morning, at a house in the Western Ward, Mr. M. T. Whitlock one of the overseers at the Penitentiary, attempted to commit suicide by taking laudanum. Dr. E. B.
