Disasters to American Ishipping on the Nova Scotian Coast-Names of the Missing Vessels-Particulars of the Lossof the Steamship |Saltwell-Fifteen Parsons Lost and Pifteen Saved

From the New York Herald.] HALIPAX, N. S., Sept. 5, 1873. A letter from Sydney, C. B., says that he settlement of West Bay, on the Grand Lake, has been almost demonshed by the gale. On one side of the bay only about six houses are left standing. In the set-tlement of Baytdale twenty houses were blown down. In this settlement one family seem to have been special objects of persecution by the storm king. Finding heir own house gone, they fled to that of a neighbor, when in a very short time the latter house took fire, and both families had to flee and take shelter in a greenhouse till morning, . The following

Sold in 1872, 219,65a, forty-five thomsand more than any other company, and nine out of ten of said Singer Machines, were for family ass, proving the great popularity of the flinger of the household.

We claim and can show that it is the changest, most beautiful, delicately arranged, nicely atjected, easily operates, and associaty running of all the Family Sewing Machines. It is remarkable not only for the range and variety of its sewing, but also for the variety end tilberent kinds of texture "likely it sews with equal facility and persection, using any kind of silk twist, linen or ention thread, fine or consen, making the inter-locked-Elastifulities, allow on hoth sides. South denders, using the "arcks of trade," by to persuade precisions that our Family Machine is not equal for family sewing to our manufacturing machines for consensual facturing proposes.

Try and sew for poursell time our new family sewing machine contooles new and assembled principles, 50 wit a simplesty of construction; the proposed of the proposed in the principles, in the internal of the principles, in the singularity of work, fine or consum-leaving all rivels behind it. We do not make an additional charge them Machines, but sell them as low as they can be bought south of New York.
