

The Daily Sentinel.

VOL. IX

RALEIGH, N. C., FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 1878.

NO. 30.

Published for the Proprietor by J. W. GILL, at the office of the Daily Sentinel, No. 111 North Side Market Square, Raleigh, N. C.

Subscription prices: In Advance, $2.00; Per Annum, $5.00; Single Copies, 10 Cents.

Advertisements: For one square, first insertion, 10 Cents; second, 7 Cents; third, 5 Cents; fourth, 3 Cents; fifth, 2 Cents; sixth, 1 Cent.

Advertisements will be inserted in the Daily Sentinel at the following rates per square of ten lines, or less, unless otherwise specified.

One square, first insertion, 10 Cents; second, 7 Cents; third, 5 Cents; fourth, 3 Cents; fifth, 2 Cents; sixth, 1 Cent.

LATEST TELEGRAPHIC NEWS ON 4th PAGE.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Young Probabilities.
Col. Garrick Mallory is the name of the man who attends to the weather while General Myer, (old Prosa,) is in Europe.

Z. W. Gill.
We direct especial attention to the advertisement of Z. W. Gill, Family Grocer and Liquor Dealer, to be found in this day's SENTINEL. Go and see Mr. Gill and if he don't give you your money's worth, then we're a Dutchman.

Musquito Remedy.
Oil of pennyroyal—three or four drops applied to the face, neck and hands—will, says an exchange, afford complete immunity from the attacks of this pestiferous insect. It is also recommended for fleas, ticks, jiggers and other bloody-thirty insects.

First Cotton from Johnston.
On yesterday we had a visit from D. S. Avers, Esq., of Johnston county, who brought a bale of cotton to market, which he readily sold for eighteen cents. Mr. Avers reminded the Senior that he was a bowl of egg nog from him twenty-five years ago upon catching a fox.

Meeting of the Baptist Sunday School Choir.
We are requested to state that there will be a meeting of the Baptist Sunday School Choir, at the Baptist Church, this evening at 8 o'clock. All members are expected to be present promptly. Ladies are respectfully invited to attend.

A New Publication.
We have received from the office of the Wanted Herald, Winsted, Conn., a very neatly printed pamphlet entitled "A Free and Independent Translation of the First and Fourth Books of the Æneid of Virgil." We will turn it over to Mr. Kingsbury, who will probably have something to say of its merits or demerits in our next.

Picture Gazers.
Yesterday morning the mammoth, highly colored circus pictures attracted a large crowd of persons—white, black, gray and grizzle—at the corner of Fayetteville and Davis streets. They represent wild and ferocious animals in their native wilds, fearful feats of horsemanship, hair-lifting acrobatic performances, &c.

Revivals of Religion.
We learn that there have been, within the last two weeks, two interesting revivals of religion in the county of Granville. One at Rock Spring, where there were twenty converts, and the other at Timberlake School House, where there were twenty-seven converts. Both meetings were conducted by Rev. M. J. Hunt, of the M. E. Church.

Citizens Meeting.
We understand that Monday evening next has been agreed upon as the time for the meeting of citizens at Metropolitan Hall, to take into consideration the matter of free public schools for the white children of this city. The chairman of the committee will probably make the announcement over his own signature tomorrow.

The Types.
Before we left for Louisa we wrote the following:
"The editor of the Atlantic Monthly is William D. Howells. He is a poet of Yankee celebrity."
What was our horror when we glanced at our editorial to read:
"The editor of the Atlantic Monthly, &c., is a part of Yankee celebrity."
Oh, the types, the types!

New Invention.
Mr. R. R. Warren exhibited in our office yesterday, his model of Fire Proof Cotton Lint Room, just patented August 19th, 1878. Every cotton gin should have one. It is simply a platform or movable seat, to fit the lint room, and can be raised or lowered by lever power. When the cotton ignites, the seat or floor is set down upon the lint. This invention will lessen the insurance on cotton gins. Success to Mr. Warren and his invention.

Law Vindicated.
On yesterday morning the majesty of the law was vindicated in the case of Jack Bradford, tried before the Mayor and found guilty of violating the Sunday liquor law. Jack keeps a saloon in the Western Ward near the Central Depot. He was reported by officer Friday Jones for selling liquor on Sunday last, the man to whom he sold the spirits testified against him. Jack submitted, and contributed the sum of twenty-five dollars towards lighting the streets with gas during Fair week.

Home Again.
We were glad to see in our office yesterday John Armstrong, Esq., who has just returned from his visit to "Old Joe," his native land.
He received a hearty welcome from all his old friends, and is very enthusiastic in his description of the country, and what he saw. He did not want to leave his old home, and confessed to us that he would, at no distant day, return and make himself at home. We cannot expect to hear of "Queen John," and hope he will change his mind.

FINE CUT.

Elder Ward has left the city.
Gen. Hoke has returned to the city.
Auditor Reddy has returned to his post.
The Graphic Balloon will probably "go up" to day.

Mr. Lewen Barringer returned to the city yesterday evening.
Fashionable gait paper and envelopes embrace all that and correspond with the latest ladies dress shawls.

Fashion's changes were much the same in the Graphic as in the Graphic. The demand of the fall was for more clothing.
The Cape May Ocean Wave says that the crop of mosquitoes at that place, though large, is an excellent one, and that the size of the birds is rather above the average.

A Nebraska man, on his stying bed, remembered that his wife was smoking some hama, and he said: "Now, Henrietta, don't go to snuffing around and forget them hama's."
The new volume of Mr. Longfellow's poems, "Aftermath," will contain another series of "Tales of a Wayside Inn" and will be ready early in September.—London Athenæum.

A Georgia bird is described in one of the local papers as "looking a very lively cradled in the golden glimmer of some even lake—a foam fleck, snowy, yet sun-faded, crowding the ripples of some soft southern sea."
The sweet girl graduate of a New Orleans Seminary recently received the degree of "Maid of Science." Some time hereafter she will probably be entitled to another degree—that of "Mistress of Science."

An Educational Journal.
The State Educational Association, through their Executive Committee—of which Gen. W. R. Cox is Chairman—have determined to publish a periodical to be called the State Journal of Education. It will be a 48 page monthly, and will be devoted to education and literature. Arrangements have already been made for the publication of the Journal and many of the first writers of the State have consented to become contributors. The first number will appear in November next. We wish the enterprise much success.

The National Banks.
The following paragraph which is going the rounds of the press will be interesting to banks and bankers. We will state, however, that we have heard no complaint of the banks in this city.
So many complaints have reached the Treasury Department of late in regard to various charges of interest by the national banks throughout the country for money lent, the Secretary of the Treasury contemplating calling the attention of the several district attorneys to the violation of the national banking laws, and requesting them to bring prosecutions against such banks as are known to have been guilty of such practices.

Petersburg Tobacco Market.
The breaks were again light to-day, with some good shipping grades. The market rules steady at $11.50 to $12.50 for good dark shipping. Logs are a shade off, except for those of good body, which are taken by manufacturers at steady prices. We quote:
Logs $6.00 to $6.50, working logs $6.50 to $7.25, shipping leaf, common to very good, $8 to $11; $12 to $14; $15; $16; $17; $18; $19; $20; $21; $22; $23; $24; $25; $26; $27; $28; $29; $30; $31; $32; $33; $34; $35; $36; $37; $38; $39; $40; $41; $42; $43; $44; $45; $46; $47; $48; $49; $50; $51; $52; $53; $54; $55; $56; $57; $58; $59; $60; $61; $62; $63; $64; $65; $66; $67; $68; $69; $70; $71; $72; $73; $74; $75; $76; $77; $78; $79; $80; $81; $82; $83; $84; $85; $86; $87; $88; $89; $90; $91; $92; $93; $94; $95; $96; $97; $98; $99; $100.

Capt. R. A. Shotwell.
We had the great pleasure of meeting for a moment this gentleman, true, staunch, resolute, on yesterday afternoon. He is now at the Yarrowburgh House and daily registered from the "Albany Penitentiary." He is looking remarkably well. Capt. Shotwell was unconditionally pardoned. Every true North Carolinian will rejoice in his release. He comes from his prison more than two years, with an undaunted spirit, with the full consciousness of never having done anything to merit the punishment he received, with a character as bright and spotless as it was before he was victimized, slandered and persecuted for his party ends. We are profoundly glad that the tardy act for his release has at last been performed, and that like MacGregor, "he trades once more his native heath." We join in the cordial welcome that awaits him, and wish him in all sincerity a hearty God's speed.
Capt. S. was first put in the trade of a shoemaker. He says he could earn a decent livelihood if he would "stick to his last." He was afterwards promoted to the post of Strasser, in the penitentiary. He is a tall, well-built, and handsome man. We made him a card of farewell at Henderson, when guarded by soldiers and escorted, he was carried from his native State as if a felon to a distant penitentiary. Our heart then rose to our throat as we bade him good-bye. On yesterday we felt joy and gladness as we again pressed his hand, and expressed to him our high gratification at his return to his State and friends and kindred.

TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

Meeting of the Grand Lodge of the Independent Order of Good Templars of North Carolina.
BY OUR SPECIAL REPORTER.
SECOND DAY.
GREENSBORO, Sept. 10.

After spending half an hour in religious service this morning, the Grand Lodge was called to order by G. W. C. T. Fritchard.
About 20 additional delegates presented their credentials, and were enrolled.
After hearing the reading of a memorial from Newbern Lodge, the Grand Lodge proceeded to the election of its officers with the following result:
W. C. Troy, Fayetteville, G. W. C. T. N. B. Bronghton, Raleigh, G. W. C. T. Miss Nannie F. Caldwell, Statesville, G. W. C. T.
Saml' J. Fall, Raleigh, G. W. S. J. H. Welborn, Lexington, G. W. T.

AFTERNOON SESSION.
The afternoon session was occupied in the consideration of the report of the committee appointed to consider the recommendations contained in the report of the Worthy Chief Templar, among which were a note of thanks to the General Assembly for its enactment of so many local prohibition laws at its last session, and asking a continuance in the same direction, which was adopted. Also fixing the salary of G. W. Secretary at $300 per annum.
To-night Dr. Pritchard lectures in the Methodist church.
A grand time is expected here on Friday.

Trip to Franklin.
On last Monday we took the train for Louisa, in company with our friends Maj. A. M. Lewis and Col. L. C. Edwards. At Franklin we were refreshed with an excellent dinner at Mrs. Tucker's Hotel. It was raining hard, but we made the trip.

LOUISBURG.
and by 5 o'clock, p. m. was sitting by a sparkling fire that felt most pleasantly on such a raw and chilly day. Our host, Mr. Green, has opened a saloon near the bridge, and does everything in his power to make his guests comfortable. He has a fine piano and a great abundance of every comfort. He keeps the house a fact that travelers who are so often victimized would do well to make a note of. We had not visited Louisa in some eleven years. We have long been partial to it because of its intelligent and agreeable people, and were gratified to see evidence of prosperity. Some of our very many new acquaintances here were engaged in an increased display of energy and enterprise. We looked in upon the court, but as the cases were of a petty character, we found that little interest in them. Judge Watts presided with his usual dignity, and evinced some of that professional and extensive legal erudition which has made him illustrious. His wit, which he displayed lavishly, partook of the true Attie flavor, and scintillated as only the wit of great men can. It was not an brilliant peroration as Sheridan's, nor so debate as Charles Lamb's, nor so brusque and pointed as Cutler's, nor so extremely fanciful and sudden as Sidney Smith's. Surely it was none of these things. But it was wit, and it was Sam Watts' wit. It was a sort of cross between Simon Suggs and Josh Billings, bearing the unmistakable stamp of originality. These several lawyers present from a distance, besides the home bar which numbers some six or eight.

We went over to Cedar Hill, the famous bird-watching ground, about one hundred and fifty yards east from the Court House. We saw more than "looking boats" than we remember to have ever seen before. It was raining at the time and we did not remain very long. What we saw was "rich, rare and rare." A fellow on a miserable looking mule, spotted and lousy-tailed, quickly exchanged his steed for a bag of bones and a horse. In the course of eight or ten hours perhaps a hundred swags are made. One fellow kept on swapping until he was left without an "outfit," and he went on his way rejoicing with his saddle on his own back, perhaps, however, a saddle and a wher mean. But this is Woodson's property, and we will not trench further upon his rights.

We were glad to meet with many firm and very decided friends of the Sentinel, and very able to obtain a respectable list of new subscribers, with the promise of many more. Our friends assured us there was but one opinion among the intelligent men of Franklin, and that was that the Sentinel was ever so good before.

The press was well represented. Our jovial friend Woodson of the New Courier of the State Agricultural Journal, Whitaker of the Franklin Gazette, and Collier of the Franklin Courier, and others were all on hand as well as the Associate Editor of the Sentinel, such as you and "writing" Mr. Barlow. We thought that a pleasant and agreeable set of good fellows, and unlike Bill App's friend, they stood fair. "An old very well" we thought. The evening machine was very in despair, and the life insurance was very afraid to enter the ring, when they saw the "press-gang" so strong.

In our next we will have a few words to say of Franklin, farming, &c.

Bishop Atkinson's Appointments.

The following are some of the Western appointments of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Atkinson for the months of September and October:

Morganton, September 11th;
Hickory, " 13th;
Lenoir, " 14th;
Patterson, " 16th;
Vale Cross, " 18th;
Wilkesborough, " 21st;
Gwynn's Chapel, " 23rd;
Statesville, " 25th;
Lincolnton, " 28th;
High Shoals, " 30th;
Charlotte, " October 2nd;
St. James, Fredell, " 4th;
Christ Church, Rowan, " 5th;
St. Andrews, " 8th;
Salisbury, " 7th.

Well Put.
The special Agent of the Post Office Department has recently written a letter to one of the Georgia Postmasters, of whom complaint had been made for the non-delivery of newspaper matter from his office. The agent lectures the Postmaster after this fashion:
I do not consider it irrelevant to call your attention to the close business relationship which exists between the Post Office Department and the press. It is certainly very annoying to gentlemen who invest their time, money and talent in attempting to develop the resources of their respective localities, to find that for want of promptness on the part of those whose duty it is to deliver the mail, that articles that have cost weeks of study, and talent of the first order to prepare for the public eye, are carelessly overlooked, or not delivered until the time has passed, when good could have been obtained by their perusal. The manufacturing, mercantile, agricultural, and in fact, all business interests by such careless and I trust, heretofore, will not allow the patrons of your office to complain, if in your power to prevent it.

The Fayetteville Gazette.
This new paper bids fair to become at no distant day the leading paper of its section. It is one of the most neatly printed papers in the State and its columns are always filled with the choicest matter. In the last number of the Gazette we find the following, under the head of "Romanticness of Public Men," which will be read with interest.
By the death of Gen. D. M. Barringer, we are reminded of the last speech we ever heard him make. It was from the balcony of the Fayetteville Hotel, during the last Presidential campaign, and he then stated that he could recall the days of his boyhood when he used to come over Haystack into the streets of Fayetteville, a barefooted farmer boy, with his father's wagon. He spoke of his astonishment and wonder at the greatness and splendor of the place, for at that time Fayetteville was the town of North Carolina.

Many still living here, while reading recently the newspaper accounts of the great English property case, in which Hon. Josiah P. Benjamin has been engaged, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in which he has proved the beneficial to be two ladies of Georgia, have been carried back to the early part of their lives, when they used to have a certain playmate in the schools of Fayetteville—a little, unassuming fellow, sleek, frail, with Jewish features, but with a bright and active mind, and a quickness of perception and depth of understanding which gave promise of his future greatness. His family moved farther South while the schoolboy was still a child, and in