APPOINTMENTS.—The following is a list of appointments made for Col. John S. Long to address the citizens of Eastern Carolina, along the line of Roanoke river, on the subject of organizing Granges to Patrons of Husbandry. The fraternity of farmers is increasing and gaining ground daily and all should give an audience to this Eas speaker wherever he lectures. It requires nine men and four women to constitute or organize a grange. The ladies need not be present—their names are sufficient:

HOME AFFAIRS.

How Is It?

Dr. Eward Warren cures the Pasha of Egypt, whereupon the Lynchburg Republican claims him as a Virginian. He hailed from Edenton. Is he after all a F. F. V.?

Boarding House.

The excellent boarding house of Mrs Henry W. Miller is still open for the entertainment of the public. It is situated in a very desirable part of the town being easily accessible. Those wanting excellent quarters can find them upon application.

Cotton Transactions Yesterday,

The cotton business yesterday was unusually brisk, and for about five hours the street in front of Exchange Place was blockaded with cotton and drays, sellers and buyers. One hundred and fifty bales were sold at 15 cents, the market closing firm at those figures.

Dr. Moses.

This gentleman, a native of Mecklenburg county, North Carolina, is celebrated for his successful treatment of stammering. He will spend some two weeks in Raleigh. All who are afflicted in that way would do well to test his skill. He comes very highly indorsed by prominent gentlemen in many States.

Remarkably Quiet.

Notwithstanding the unusual large number of people who were attracted to the city yesterday by the Great Eastern Circus, there was not a single fight or disturbance of any kind. The police docket was entirely blank, not an arrest having been made even for drunkenness. It is thought there were five thousand strangers in the city.

St. John's College.

We saw at Ennis' Book Store on yesterday a handsome view of St. John's College, now the Orphan Home at Oxford. If you wish to see the most beautiful educational building in the State go to Ennis' and get a stereoscopic view. The beautiful grounds and commanding eminence are not fully seen in the picture. There are twelve acres in the grove.

A Fine Trotter.

Mr. Wm. Merriam, of Washington, N. C., has arrived in this city with his fine trotting horse "Champion." The horse which is a perfect beauty can be seen at Wynne's Livery Stables. Mr. M. says that quite a number of prominent citizens from his section will be present at the Fair. Let them come, as there will be instruction and amusement for all of them.

Change of Schedule.

On Monday last the schedule of the Greensboro' and Salem railroad was changed, and the Salem Press says, the change is anything but desirable. The train now leaves Salem at 8 a. m. and arrives at Greensboro at 10 a. m; leaves Greensboro at 4.30 p. m. and arrives at Salem at 6 p. m. It is thought that unless the schedule is changed, backing to High Point will be the order of the day, as the present arrangement causes the detention of passengers at Greensboro.

Appointments of Directors.

On yesterday Gov. Caldwell appointed the following gentlemen Directors for the Eastern Division of the Western North Carolina Railroad Company:

T. G. Walton, Margaretton; Rich. D. Caldwell, Salisbury; A. H. Sheford, Hickory Tavern; W. A. Ellason, Statesville; A. J. Mock, Salisbury; W. P. Craige, Marion; R. B. Boyle, Lenoir; E. A. Perkins, Morganton. State Proxy, D. M. Furches.

The following were appointed Directors for the Western Division of the same road:

Felix P. Astley, Murphey; W. L. Love, Macon; T. D. Bryson, Swain; M. M. Brown, Jackson; W. J. Wilson, Haywood; John H. Murphey, Buncombe; C. A. Nichols, Madison; Marshall Davis, Clay, State Proxy, W. G. B. Garrett.

The Great Eastern Show.

We have seen it—seen its grand parade, heard its steam piano, witnessed its acrobatic performance, its equestrianism, its exploits on the trapeze, seen its animals and partaken of its ice lemonade and cake. Our criticism must be brief. We think, take its altogther, that it is a very respectable show. The menagerie is no great thing, but still there are some animals well worth seeing. The trapeze performance was good, the bare-back riding was capital, and the equestrian performance of one of the females was really excellent—the best thing in the circus. The clowns are poor, the music so-so, the singing execrable, the lemonade abominable and the cakes a swindle. The "concert" is a "fraud" out and out—the most concern we ever saw. The side-show "so-called" is a success, and should be seen. The balloon ascension was highly interesting. The man who went up travelled about a mile and descended near the Insane asylum where he should be confined. Any man who would ascend in such a concern daily for the pay he gets is a fit subject for Dr. Grimes's treatment. The "side shows" we did not visit, but they are pronounced by all—"a sell."

FINE CUT.

Mayor's Court barren of items yesterday.

Church singers are said to live by luck and chants.

Mount Washington enjoyed the first snow-storm of the season recently.

The city was filled with people from the country who had come to see the show.

Don't tell an editor how to run a newspaper. Let the poor fool find it out himself.

Why is a young lady like a bill of exchange? Because she ought to be settled at maturity.

An old lady, eighty years of age, recently joined a party of Mormon converts about to leave England for Salt Lake City.

An Englishman was asked the other day, how he spelled, S-a-l-o-o-n. He answered with a hess, a fi and a hell, two hoes and a hen.

Giving Credit.

If the Wilmington Post thinks it fair to use local matter of other papers without credit, it differs from our view. As to the "fine hit" given us by the Weldon News, we have this to say—if no credit was given it was not our fault, as we cut it from another paper that had failed to give proper credit. This is another evidence of the "evil" we spoke of. We invariably give credit when we copy from another paper direct. We insist that the matter that first appears in the SENTINEL is its own, and no paper has a right to it unless giving due credit for its use. If this is "attempting to teach all other papers how to get up their State news," then we plead guilty, and papers like the Post, who seem unwilling to think with us, or do us justice, may make the most of it. We deny most emphatically that any paper has a right to use the matter of other papers without due acknowledgment, and it is at position renders us unpopular with any of our exchanges, then so be it. We still believe that we are right, and as long as we are connected with a paper we will endeavor to render justice to our State exchanges. If we were to be actuated by a spirit of retaliation and unfairness we would draw without thanks upon papers that habitually use our matter, which has cost both money and labor to procure without mentioning to whom they are indebted. We remember that the Bible teaches—"resist not evil," and "bless them that curse you." The writer probably does as much hard work as any editor in the South, and yet he can find time to write proper credits on the margin of clippings from exchanges.

State Fair Entries.

Up to yesterday evening there had been thirty-three hundred entries for the State Fair. The following are the entries which have been made this week.

Messrs. H. & F. Blandy, Zanesville, Ohio, through their General Agent, Mr. W. C. Morgan, will exhibit one portable Steam Engine, (28 horse power,) one portable circular saw mill, Queen of the South Corn Mill and shingle machine.

Rufus Morgan, of Morganton, N. C. will exhibit a collection of photographic views

James Newlin, Saxapahaw, will compete for the finest grain.

Miss Sue Russell, Tally Ho, will have on exhibition one ottoman—very pretty.

Miss Hattie Russell, Tally Ho, enters a beautiful wrought hearth rug.

Miss Kate Webb, Tally Ho, enters an ottoman.

Sexton and Seaburg, New York, will have one complete steam engine on exhibition.

Kelly & Moore, of Philadelphia, will exhibit some fancy styles of shoes.

A. G. Lee & Co., Raleigh, enter for S. S. M. Campton, of Moore county, one bale of cotton, for first prize.

Mrs. Gen. Gorman will have on exhibition one stand of choice geraniums.

Gen. Gorman one fine pony.

Mr. T. W. Atkinson will have on exhibition fine specimens of corn, corn meal, a lot of cabbage and a bale of cotton.

James A. Leach & Co., of Thomasville, a fine assortment of shoes and boots—home manufacture.

M. J. Hawkins, Ridgeway, one Alderney bull and heifer. Said to be the finest in the State.

H. P. Jones & Co., Hillsboro, two cases very fine tobacco.

Mr. W. F. Shutts, of Salem, makes one hundred suttins.

Prof. Grote, of Hillsboro, a fine saddle mare—Hunter stock.

L. H. Lee & Co., Baltimore, three Champion Reaping and Mowing machines.

Clark & Jones, several cases of superior candles.

D. P. Stedman, fine mule, pony, "Lizzie," cow and pigs.

Pupils of Peace Institute, several collections of paintings and drawings.

Newspaper Change.

The Norfolk Journal has ceased and the Landmark succeeds it.

The staff of the Landmark consists of James Barron Hope, editor in chief; Easton C. Murray, city editor; Thompson Burnie, reporter; Colonel Wm. H. Stewart, Portsmouth local editor; Jos. L. Young, business manager; Captain J. Barry King, commercial editor.

Correction.

After preparing our editorials we went to the Great Eastern Show, and so did not read our proof. We wrote "Plague Stricken Town." For "bring forth of its abandoned," read "of its abundance." There may be others, but "let them slide."

Stammering Cured by an Art.

Dr. N. A. Moses, of Virginia, so celebrated for the cure of stammering and impediment in speech, has opened an office at the Yarborough House, until the 20th inst. His success has not been equalled in this or any other country. Certificates from citizens of St. Louis and all the principal cities of the United States, testify to his ability. The patient of course must be present. A cure is guaranteed in all cases where the lungs or mind are not affected. Dr. Moses is a native of North Carolina, and was a stammerer for more than forty-three years. State and county rights for sale. Entered according to Act of Congress in the office of Librarian, Washington, D. C. Terms reasonable. Office hours from 9 to 12 a. m. and from 2 to 4 p. m.

A special term of the Superior Court for Guilford county will commence on the 8th day of December next, for the trial of criminal and civil cases, and continue until the business of the court is disposed of. His Honor Judge J. L. Henry will preside.—Greensboro Patriot.

Newton Vindicator: The trustees of the Catawba College met in Newton on the 24th inst., and elected Mr. J. Dallas Rowe, Professor of Latin and Natural Science, and Rev. John A. Foil, Professor of Greek and Moral Science. The college is reported to be in a flourishing condition.

COMPLIMENT TO A CITIZEN OF FAYETTEVILLE.—A Lodge of the Order of Good Templars of North Carolina was instituted in Wilmington last week, and named in honor of Hon. W. U. Troy, one of our citizens, State Senator, and Grand Worthy Chief Templar of the Order throughout the State.—Fayetteville Gazette.

The Superior Court for this county convenes on Monday next, his honor W. J. Clarke presiding Judge. We learn that the State docket—at least the misdemeanor portion thereof—is not very large. There are two capital cases to be disposed of and a case of horse stealing, divers and sundry assaults and batteries, and other criminal varieties usually found on a Robeson county criminal docket.—Robesonian.

THE CROSS ROADS TRAGEDY.—We made brief mention in our Monday's issue that Mr. Chas. Scott was seriously stabbed, during an affray near the cross roads on Saturday last. Mr. Scott died from his wounds on Monday. A coroner's inquest was held on Tuesday, and we learn that the jury rendered a verdict that the deceased came to his death from injuries inflicted by Mr. Harrison Palmer.—Goldsboro Messenger.

SCHOOLS.—Our little town is determined not to be outdone in the matter of educating the rising generation. The Misses Tillett are conducting two good schools in the female academy and last Monday two others were commenced, one by Mrs. Troy, whose advertisement appears elsewhere in our paper, and another by Miss Nannie Thom, an accomplished lady of Greensborough. And, we learn, there is still another by Mr. S. W. Bennett, formerly of Louisville.—Robesonian.

A MUSICAL TREAT IN PREPARATION.—Our readers will be glad to learn that a number of ladies and gentlemen in this city have now in preparation a concert, to be given at the Opera House in this city, at the request of St. John's Lodge, for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum at Oxford. The ladies and gentlemen who will participate are Mrs. D. Kahnweiler and Miss Greenwald, and Messrs. J. C. Mann, R. C. Myers and Nathan Mayer, these gentlemen forming the choir of St. John's Lodge.—Wil. Journal.

MAJOR HAMILTON'S SCHOOL.—Maj. D. H. Hamilton, who has for several years past carried on a male school in this place, on Monday transferred his school to the Military Academy, which is to be occupied in January by Mr. Jas. H. Horner. Maj. Hamilton is one of the corps of instructors engaged by Mr. Horner, and those who know him as well as we do have an additional earnest of the success of Mr. Horner in the acquisition of a gentleman so highly qualified intellectually and morally as is Maj. Hamilton.—Hillsboro Recorder.

E. W. Pou, the State Deputy, spent last week in this county in the interest of the Patrons of Husbandry. He spoke on Saturday, in the court house, to a number of ladies and gentlemen. The address was a clear explanation of the objects of the order and satisfactorily answered all the objections urged by its enemies. During the week he organized three Granges; Alamance—Joseph W. Gilmer, Master; Morrisville—R. K. Denny, Master; Hilladale—L. C. Winchester, Master.

Much good will also grow out of Mr. Pou's visit, as the interest manifested by the farmers is greatly on the increase.—Grandville Patriot.

MISSIONARY FAREWELL.—Rev. Jos. W. Davis, of Salisbury, who recently graduated at Union Theological Seminary, of Virginia, has departed for missionary work to China. Mr. Davis is also a graduate of several schools at the University of Virginia. Three years ago he was the recipient, at the last named institution, of the prize awarded for the best logical analysis of a book submitted to the School of Moral Philosophy by the lamented Dr. McGuffey. He is a very young man, but thoroughly qualified by talent and education to adorn any position in life, and while we regret that the Presbyterian Church will lose the influence which he was destined to wield in this State, still we feel assured that he will do a good work in the field to which he has repaired.—Piedmont Press.

TWENTY DOLLARS REWARD.

On Major Wilkins, of the City of Raleigh, on Saturday night the 6th of September, 1873, stole some twelve or fifteen dollars, in Greenbacks, new Broadcloth coat and Cashmere pants and 25 yards of bleaching, out of my stall, No. 18 Metropolitan Market. I was at home and left him in charge of my stall and business. He will be very apt to alter his name—his name is Wilkins and is the son of Wilson and Mary Wilkins of Warren county. He is quick spoken, is of a ginger-cake color, hair black and short, very long head somewhat flat sided, slim bony face, thick musky lips inclined to turn wrong-side-out, particularly when talking, forehead high, sharp and pitching over in front, has a scar on the right or left arm, caused by being cut with a knife and weighs about 99 or 100 pounds. The above reward will be paid for his arrest and delivery or confinement in some Jail.

ACARD.

Anticipating many more persons than I can possibly accommodate at the State Fair, and even more than can be accommodated at all the Hotels, I would like to have the name of every private housekeeper who will consent to take a boarder during the Fair.

From present indications there will be at least twenty thousand persons each day in Raleigh, and we must ask let our friends from a distance visit our State Fair and not be able to find comfortable quarters. Send in your name and the number you can take.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.
OFFICE—7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET.
DR. JOHNSON,

Physician of this celebrated Institution, discovered, when in the Great Hospitals of Europe, viz: England, France and elsewhere, the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world for all excesses or abuses of the system.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—ancient and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering early rings, &c., impossible, destroying both body and mind,

YOUNG MEN

These are some of the sad melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation, of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, Loss of Procreative Power (Impotency), Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.

A CURE SPEEDILY WARRANTED.

Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders who keep them trifling month after month, taking poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent colleges in the United States, and the best part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head, and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided sufferer, imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has initiated the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and responsibility, can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, fill his pockets with gold, and his body with disease, and ruin him effectually, and he is doomed to pine in hopeless misery, a victim to despair, and a burden to society. Such should reflect that there is a balm for their wounded spirits, that there is a remedy which will restore them to perfect health, and that there is a physician who has devoted his whole time to the study of this class of diseases, and has had greater success than any other physician in the world. Such may rely on the most honorable secrecy, and the most speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this establishment within the last twenty years, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Dr. Johnston, witnessed by the Representatives of the Press and many others, portions of which have appeared again and again before the public, besides his standing as a man of honor and responsibility, is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.
