

THE SENTINEL

JOHN ARMSTRONG, Editor. T. B. KINGSTON, Associate Editor.

SATURDAY MORNING, OCT. 4, 1873.

SUBSCRIBE TO THE SENTINEL - SPECIAL INDUCEMENTS.

We are making the Sentinel a better paper than it ever was.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS. We will send the paper until the first of January 1874 as follows.

Daily $2.00 Semi-Weekly 1.00 Weekly .50

TO ADVERTISERS. The Sentinel issues more papers every week than any other paper in Raleigh.

The Sentinel circulates in every county in North Carolina, and goes into more than twenty States.

It is therefore the best ADVERTISING MEDIUM in Raleigh.

We advertise at as moderate rates as any other paper. Try us.

EDITORIAL ENTRIES. The monetary disturbance is interfering with the annual fairs in some places.

The Mississippi State Fair has been postponed until Nov. 10th. The Petersburg (Va.) Fair has been abandoned.

It is thought that Senator Cassery, of California, will have a strong opponent for the U. S. Senate in Governor Booth.

It seems to be very generally believed throughout the North that the monetary panic is over and the threatened danger averted.

The contest in Virginia continues with unabated vigor and interest.

Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy, has ended his visit to Berlin, Prussia, and returned to his own kingdom.

The British-American Claims Commission has done its business.

The brilliant Castelar is a candidate for the Presidency of the Spanish Republic.

We begin to gather hope that the people of North Carolina will devote more attention to manufactures.

In April, 1874, there is to be an annual exhibition of foreign wares in London.

Adieu to France continues our country's mourning.

It is confidently asserted by the Two Republics, a Mexican paper, that the damages inflicted upon Texas by the raiders is not comparable to those inflicted upon Mexico by the people of Bonora, and Indians living on the reserve.

STATE FAIR. It is earnestly desired that the approaching State Fair shall be a great success.

It lacks time to mourn, lacks time to mend. Eternity mourns that.

REGALOUFRANT. The second article is on Cosmism. Harper's Weekly thinks the country in danger.

What will Mrs. Grundy say? The fat has been kicked in the fire by Harper's Weekly.

HOW TO LIVE ECONOMICALLY. The problem of how to economize in living is one that engages the serious attention of a great many people.
