NORTH CAROLINA.

The Wilson Plaindealer says: Mr. Jas. H. Taft was shot and killed in his store, seven miles below Greenville, by his clerk on the 20th of September—supposed to have been accidental.

We learn from the Herald that a colored boy of 13 or 14 years of age, living near Wadesboro, was caught between the trundle-head and cog wheel of a cotton gin and his face from his nose to his chin was mashed in, one of the jaw bones being broken, the other dislocated, and nearly all his teeth gone.

Peanuts continue very dull in the New York market. Prime Wilmington are quoted at $1.25 per bushel. When it is thoroughly understood that the Tennessee crop is very short, almost a total failure, in fact, and that the crop in this State will fall short one-third, the price will be sure to advance.—Wil. Journal.

Wadesboro Herald: Rev. S. C. Alexander, Evangelist of Mecklenburg Presbytery, organized a Presbyterian Church in Monroe, last Friday night, commencing with fifteen members. Col. Waiker and Mr. Fitzgerald were ordained Elders. The church and lot of the methodists, who are now building a three thousand dollar one, has been purchased by the Presbyterians.

RALEIGH AND CHARLOTTE.—These two cities have additional cause to be proud of themselves. While the financial maelstrom has swept far and wide, destroying as it went, those two cities, like the honest pot upon a rock, have stood the storm gloriously. It is the best evidence that is needed of the superior business capacity of their business men. We are proud of our State Capital and "future London."—Ash. Citizen.

DEATH OF MR. ALFRED JOHNSON.—The Clinton Reporter comes to us this week in mourning for Mr. Alfred Johnson, a merchant in Clinton and one of the most prominent citizens of Sampson county. Mr. Johnson was born near Middletown, Connecticut, on the 9th day of April, 1800, and came to Clinton about forty years ago. He died last Saturday and on that day all of the dry goods stores in the town were draped in mourning and remained closed throughout the day.—Wil. Journal.

HOME AFFAIRS.

What Next?

The latest thing is paper pantalettes for the fair sex!

At Blair's.

Judges Settle and Watts are stopping at the National.

Attention!

The attention of Street Commissioner Backalan is respectfully directed to the condition of Harrington Street, between Hillsboro and Martin Streets.

Personal.

M. J. McSween, of the Fayetteville Eagle, was at Blair's yesterday, and Maj. J. A. Engelhard, of the Wilmington Journal, at Blacknall's.

Mechanics' Meeting.

The second regular weekly meeting of the mechanics of Raleigh was held at Metropolitan Hall last night. Routine business only was transacted.

Postponed.

The Petersburg Index and Appeal of Saturday last says the fair of the Agricultural Society of that city, which was to have been held during the present month, has been postponed.

An Old Acquaintance,

The horse entered for the fast $800 trot on Thursday of Fair week, by J. B. Merriam, of Washington, Beaufort county, is named "Silk Stockings," and has figured heretofore on the Raleigh Fair track. He is said to be a dangerous customer.

On the Rise.

Blow-Your-Horn Billy Smith, having just been re-elected President of the North Carolina Railroad, is now president of two railroads, receiver for another and member of Congress from the metropolitan district.

Business.

The managers of the Norfolk Fair have issued season tickets of admission, good for the four days, at one dollar each. This looks like business. These tickets are for sale at the hotels and other places of public resort.

For the Fair.

Col. W. H. Harrison intends putting on exhibition at the State Fair the remarkable peace of furniture now in his possession which once served to grace the palace of Gov. Tryon at Newberne. There will be no more interesting feature in the exhibition.

Splendid Cotton.

Mr. John Cooper has on his plantation near the residence of Mr. Henry Mordecai, near this city, fifty acres of unusually fine cotton, eleven of which is the "Buckskin Prolific," a name it richly merits. These eleven acres of ordinary upland will produce eleven five-hundred-pound bags of lint. It is worth a much longer trip to see this cotton.

Homicide in Pitt County.

We learn that on Wednesday last W. H. Taft, a respectable citizen of Taft's Landing, Pitt county, was brutally killed at that place by a man named Ben Holliday, a wagoner. Holliday first shot his unfortunate victim and then beat his brains out. We have no particulars of the homicide, but at last accounts the murderer had not been arrested.

Judge Boyden.

We saw on yesterday a letter dated Saltville, Va., written by a member of Judge Boyden's family, wherein it was stated that the Judge had been at that place two weeks dangerously ill. It was stated, however, that he was then much better, and would be in a condition to be removed to his home in a few days. Judge Boyden is 77 years old but is of a long-lived family, his father having reached his 98th year.

Newsom's New Store.

Attention is requested to the announcement, in to-day's paper, of our young friend J. D. Newsom, late of the firm of Primrose, Petty & Newsom. Mr. N. has fitted up the store lately occupied by Mr. Rosenbaum, next door above Briggs & Sons', and has laid in a large stock of entirely new goods. He is a young gentleman of fine business habits and deserves the encouragement he is sure to meet. See his card and give him a call.

Collection for Shreveport.

Rev. A. W. Mangum, pastor of the Edenton St. Methodist Episcopal Church, a minister who loves to do good, and an excellent specimen of a preacher of righteousness, after an appeal to his congregation on Sunday last, took up a collection in behalf of the Shreveport sufferers. This is just as it should have been. How christian people can be content to hear the cries for help from dying and suffering mortals and not stretch out a hand to succor, passes our understanding. The horrors of Shreveport should haunt their dreams, and the wailings and shrieks of the victims of the terrible plague should ring in the ears of the indifferent and uncharitable, until their hearts should burn, and their pockets should yield up their hidden treasure. We say to the members of the Edenton St. Methodist church and its God-fearing and humane pastor, well done. The amount raised was $34 74.

Almost a Conflagration.

At a half past 12 yesterday fire was discovered in the roof of the house occupied as a store by M. Rosenthal, on Fayetteville street, in this city. The timely discovery of the fire was providential as a violent wind storm was raging at the time. The fire originated in the carelessness of a tinman who was doing some soldering on the roof. The fire department promptly responded to the alarm but their services were not needed. Had the fire once got fairly under way, one half the city would probably have been laid waste.

A Capital Institution.

There is a growing inclination on the part of the people to sustain Southern institutions. This is seen in the rapid growth and sound financial condition of the Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Company. It is an excellent company—economical, conservative, well-managed. It has done a large business in North Corolina. Its home office is at Richmond, and is a Virginia institution. Mr. James D. Brooks, the popular and successful agent, is now travelling in the interests of this company. We commend him to our friends.

For Washington.

Hon. Thos. Settle, Col. I. J. Young and F. H. Busbee, Esq., leave for Washington City this morning to invite, on behalf of the N. C. Agricultural Society, President Grant to the State Fair. Hons. A. S. Merrimon and M. W. Ransom and Gov. Caldwell were of the committee, but the two former could not go on account of previous engagements—one having to deliver the annual address at the Salisbury Fair, the other the address at Henderson on Thursday next; Gov. Caldwell could not leave the State without putting General Brogden in the executive chair, and was fearful of his ability to get him out again, once seated. The committee are hopeful of a favorable response by President Grant to the Society's invitation.

Wake Superior Court.

This court commenced its fall term in this city yesterday, Judge Watts presiding. Nothing of importance transpired up to adjournment.

The civil docket contains 331 cases, the criminal docket 49, with sixty new cases sent up by Justices of the Peace for the action of the grand jury. The trial docket presents the extraordinary spectacle of thirty-three bastardy cases. The infanticide case which was before Judge Watts on a writ of habeas corpus three weeks ago is the only case of a serious nature on the criminal docket.

The following persons compose the grand jury being fifteen in number and five of whom are colored: Alvis Sorrell, foreman, G. W. Perry, Daniel Debnam, Peter Frances, N. J. Whitaker, Atlas Upchurch, Henderson Pearson, W. C. Mangum, W. L. Crocker, Cicero Williams, D. R. Horton, Isley Fort, N. H. Watkins, M. H. Allen, and P. B. Williamson.

The business of this court will probably terminate by next Saturday or the following Monday on account of Fair week. The court will meet at 10 a. m., adjourn from 1 to 3 and sit late each day this week.

Maj. Seaton Gales.

We copy with extreme pleasure the following complimentary notice of the anniversary address recently delivered by our townsman, Maj. Seaton Gales, on the occasion of the thirty-second anniversary of Howard Lodge, I. O. O. F., at Newark, N. J. The address was delivered on Tuesday last. We copy from the Newark Advertiser and Newark Register:

The address of Seaton Gales, Esq., Grand Representative of North Carolina, at the thirty-second anniversary of Howard Lodge, No. 7, I. O. O. F., which took place at Association Hall on Tuesday night, is everywhere spoken of as one of the ablest efforts ever presented before a Newark audience. A concise history of the cause was given in language that divested it of any tendency toward a dry statistical statement, and rendered it at once interesting and instructive. It is hoped that Mr. Gales may be heard again before leaving the city.—Register.

The anniversary address by Seaton Gales, Grand Representative of North Carolina, was a very fine and eloquent production, and abounded in classic allusions, in which he gave the origin, history and rapid progress of the Order. Its mission, he said, was that of benevolence and humanity, and although it had no claims to antiquity, its youth made it more enterprising. Its lodges in the United States number 5,000, with a membership of 400,000. Its symbols were significant of the great moral lessons they taught and the influence they exerted in elevating mankind to a closer fellowship with God. The address was frequently applauded.—Advertiser.

Heavy on Tim Lee.

The National Republican of Washington City lets fly the following at Tim Lee:

It has been popular to characterize the people of North Carolina as Rip Van Winkles, and now they are engaged in asserting their right to their characterization by researches into the long forgotten history of the State. Among the latest results of these efforts is an alleged discovery by the Hon. A. M. Waddell that the State was visited, if not settled, by voyagers from Ireland prior to the year 1000 A. D. We are aware that a certain "bald headed Irishman" discovered Raleigh in 1866, and now Col. Waddell's researches have been made public to rob that luckless Celt of the honor of which he is so boastful.

Petersburg Tobacco Market.

The trade is altogether at private sales to-day. Sales were made of some 20 hogsheads at private figures which are understood to be fully up to cash auction prices.—Appeal.

"Nina's Atonement."

The Richmond Dispatch says of Miss Fisher's last volume:

This novel is from the pen of a rising genius amongst the authors of fiction. She writes under an assumed name, which is becoming very popular. She is a young lady of personal worth, a native of the South, of most respectable relationship, and highly gifted.

The Norfolk Virginian.

The Dispatch thus compliments the new editor of the Virginian:

The Virginian, a popular journal, in losing Hope gains our young and spirited friend Hem. Chamberlayne, late of the Petersburg Index. He has proved his calibre, and may be welcomed by the friends of the Virginian. He is an accomplished scholar, a forcible writer, and an industrious editor.

Temperance Items.

The Good Templars of Clayton will shortly have a demonstration and barbecue.

The N. Ramsay left for the Henderson Fair yesterday.

Rev. John Russell, of Michigan is expected to begin his temperance canvass in this State about the first of November.

Edward Carswell, the Canada temperance humorist will visit North Carolina during the month of December.

ALLEGHANY COUNTY.—We thought Alleghany was the most peaceable and quiet county in the "Old North State," and we really believe it is ordinarily, but some how their "young blood" got hot last week. From a gentleman who arrived in this place last Friday we learn that a fight occurred between a Mr. Meredith, of Va., and Abraham Bryan, of Sparta. This row did not amount to much, but Meredith seemed to enjoy the sport finely, so he "goes for" Reg. Thompson. They had a considerable fight of it, resulting in Thompson being stabbed several times by Meredith. After this Meredith rode some five miles when he was overtaken by an officer and posse of men. He resisted their arrest and was struck on the head with a gun in the hands of Thompson, the man he had previously stabbed, and his skull fractured. At last accounts the wounded man was at the house of Henderson Parish, and was doing well under the circumstances.

The Superior court for Alleghany county will commence on Monday, the 13th instant.

The coon season is just now creating some excitement among the hunting population.

Crops generally are good, though some have been slightly injured by frost.

The health of Alleghany is usually good.

The miss-lover has made its appearance in portions of the county and is causing the lofiest peaks to be leveled with the valleys.—Jefferson Messenger.

There is now no disputing the fact that our people cannot raise corn, wheat and oats for the Southern markets, and successfully compete with the great grain growing West. Our true course is to raise what cereals we need for our own use and give the balance of our time and attention to raising cotton and tobacco, grass and stock, and building up manufactories in our country as we ought this.—Statesville Intelligencer.

OUR TOWNSMAN, D. S. Johnston, has a second crop of apples from the same tree. The first crop came in June, the second in September. The apples are large and fine.—Lincoln Progress.

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL.
OFFICE—7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET.
DR. JOHNSON,
Physician of this celebrated Institution, discovered, when in the Great Hospitals of Europe, viz: England, France and elsewhere, the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world for all excesses or abuses of the system.
Weakness of the Back or Loins, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Emotion, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering early Marriage, &c., impossible, destroying both body and mind.
YOUNG MEN
These are some of the sad melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation, of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, etc.
MENTALLY—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.
Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, nervous and unfitted, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.
MARRIAGE
Married persons, or Young men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, Lack of Procreative Power (Impotency), Nervous Irritability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily relieved.
A CURE SPEEDILY WARRANTED.
Persons ruined in health by unlearned pretenders who keep them trifling month after month, taking poisonous and injurious compounds, should apply immediately.
DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and one best part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected more cures of the most astonishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with depression of mind, were cured immediately.
CERTAIN PROOF.
When the mind is troubled with imaginary ideas of pleasure such that he has imbibed the seeds of this fatal disease, it not seldom happens that an ill-timed premature shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him; he falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, taking advantage of his unfortunate condition, keep him trifling month after month, if not for years, gaining his money, or, by the use of that deadly poison, Mercury, ruin the constitution, and hasten him into the grave. Dreadful diseases make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, pains on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bridge of the nose falls in, and the victim of this terrible disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whose bourne no traveller ever returns."
No doubt, therefore, Dr. Johnston offers the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world.
RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF THE PARTS.
The many thousands cured in this establishment within the last twenty years, and the numerous certificates given, speak more performed by Dr. Johnston, evidence of the diseases above mentioned, which have appeared publicly before the public, should be sufficient as a mean of honor and encouragement to every sufferer.

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London.
