THE FAIR.

FIRST DAY.

BY OUR OWN REPORTER.

The Fair of the North Carolina Agricultural Society opened yesterday under the most favorable auspices. The weather was delightful, the attendance unusually large for the first day, and the exhibition was by far the best ever made at so early a day on a similar occasion.

At the time of opening.

Gov. Caldwell on the Grand Stand, in company with Gov. Holden, J. W. Holden, Auditor Rice, Treasurer Jenkins and Dr. Hawerton, Secretary of State, in the opening and said he had not been notified till recently that he was to speak, and was wholly unprepared.

DR. B. F. ARRINGTON.

We welcome this gentleman, late of Goldsboro', to our growing city. He is a card in another column. The Dr. is skilled in his business, and master of his profession.

New Arrangement.

By an order issued by the Executive Committee last night, by charge will be made at the gate of the Fair Grounds for vehicles hereafter. Only the driver and persons will be charged.

Raleigh by Gaslight.

Our street lamps were lighted last night for the first time in many a day. Casual visitors did not seem to know what the matter was, and many of our citizens even came out at a late hour to see where the fire was. Merrell, the monkey-wrench man, was in great demand; and it cost the state old fellow some money to get rid of his congratulations.

FRIENDS' SCARES.

The leaders of The World through its Vienna correspondence of the success of the various American inventions in the great Exposition, and of all the various articles of labor-saving machinery there exhibited none is more deserving of the award granted it than the celebrated Fairbanks' Scales.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A. M. NELSON'S RESTAURANT.—This gentleman having recently refitted the first basement of the market house, respectfully invites the public generally that he will receive daily fresh oysters, birds and everything else that the market affords.

Raleigh to the Fair.

The following schedule will be run between Raleigh and the Fair Grounds during Fair week: Leave Raleigh 8:30 a. m., 9:00 " 9:30 " 10:00 " 10:30 " 11:00 " 11:30 " 12:00 p. m. 12:30 p. m. 1:00 " 1:30 " 2:00 " 2:30 " 3:00 " 3:30 " 4:00 " 4:30 " 5:00 " 5:30 "

THE RACES.

At 3 p. m. the trials of speed were begun. The first race was for a purse of $100—$50 for the first horse, $25 for the second, and $10 for the third. Trotting match, harness, mile heats, best three in five.

FRIENDLY VISITS.

Twaddle was speaking the other day, of the kindness of his friends in visiting him. One old aunt in particular, visited him twice a year, and stayed six months each time.

TROOPS OF AILMENTS VANQUISHED.

On account of the promiscuity with which it checks the fevers generated by unwholesome exhibitions, Rosetter's Bitters is considered an indispensable family medicine on the borders of our Southern and Western rivers, and in new sections where the plough and the axe are for the first time disturbing the solitude of nature.
