To the Public. GENTLEMEN:—I have a type-setting machine which I have fully tested, and find that it possesses the following qualities...

To the printer. Beyond any doubt. Yes. N. B. BROOKHORN. Should this machine do what is claimed, it will be of immense benefit to publishers.

JORDAN STONE. If the machine performs what is claimed for it, its value is incalculable. J. M. TURNER, JR.

If it will do this it will be the greatest invention of the age. J. B. COLLINS, Sentinel.

If it will do this, no one can doubt its immense value. J. M. BENTLEY.

If the machine fills these eleven claims, it will prove of immense benefit to the world. J. C. L. HARRIS.

I have confidence in what Mr. Foster states in relation to his machine. I examined it some time since, but learn it has been improved, since that time.

The above facts being true, it will be beyond doubt be of great value. CHARLES L. LEE.

In answer, I know its value can hardly be estimated, if it can fill the conditions you name. J. C. GORMAN.

Most unquestionably if it can accomplish what is claimed for it by Mr. Foster. FRANK G. FOSTER.

Without doubt, yes. I hope to see it succeed, and thus revolutionize an art which is the art preservative of all arts.

I propose, to any one who wishes to become interested in the above invention, to select a jury of intelligent printers, and I guarantee to show them a machine, of my own invention, fully protected by patents...

HOME AFFAIRS.

Official Report from Vienna. No grand diploma was awarded to Sewing Machines. 43.

Davenport Brothers. Don't fail to go and see the wonderful feats of the Davenport Brothers to night at Metropolitan Hall.

All Quiet. Peace reigned at the Mayor's court yesterday. Nothing doing, only a few cases of "benzene" struck prisoners.

To Jail. Wm. Bright, col., was committed to jail yesterday for bastardy, in default of bail.

State Agricultural Society. The proceedings of last night's meeting of the N. C. Agricultural Society are crowded out but will appear in our next issue.

Tucker Hall. Rose and Harry Watkins continue to fill Tucker Hall. They are deservedly popular.

Additional Police. His Honor, the Mayor, has put on an extra force of police during fair week.

Out of Order. The pump, commonly known as the town pump, is out of order. This should not be so now while the city is crowded with strangers.

Attention Grangers. There will be a call meeting of Raleigh Grange No. 17 at Oak City Hall, on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Personal. We saw on the Fair grounds yesterday, Hon. M. W. Basson, Hon. M. E. Manley, Hon. B. S. Gaither, Hon. D. S. Barnes, Hon. A. S. Merrimon, Gen. Robt. Ransom, Capt. J. S. Dancy, Col. Geo. D. Whitford and Col. A. A. McCoy.

Look Out. There are a great many people in Raleigh in attendance on the Fair and in consequence there are some swindlers here passing off a good deal of counterfeit money.

The Fair. The Fair is a great success. The weather during the past three days was excellent. Some 7,000 persons visited the grounds yesterday and everybody was delighted.

The Singer Sewing Machine. We invite attention to the advertisement of the Singer Sewing Machine Company in another column. The superiority of this machine may be learned from the fact that 45,000 more of these machines were sold in 1873 than of those of any other make.

Rare Chance for Investment. One-half acre on Fayetteville street, opposite Hon. Kemp P. Battle, fronting 105 feet on Fayetteville and the same on Wilmington street, is offered for sale.

Went on. We saw at the Fair grounds on yesterday the celebrated pedestrian Weston. He is slightly built, wiry and some fifty years old we should think.

On the Grounds. Outside of General Exhibition Hall are some twenty boxes of fruit on exhibition and a large number of fruit trees.

The Mexican Soldiers Convention. The REVUE was the only paper that had a reporter to report the proceedings of this body.

A Quilt. There is an exhibition at the Fair Grounds a young man 30 years old, 18 inches high and weight only 35 pounds.

Stammering Cured. Dr. Moore. This scientific gentleman who is now stopping at the Yarrowburgh House has effected several astonishing cures of stammering in this city.

Miss Fannie Hatch, of Chatham, exhibits a fine piece of work in the shape of a quilt representing a wreath of roses.

For Memphis. We neglected to state heretofore that on Sunday last Rev. Dr. Pritchard's church having been given up to a Society meeting, a collection was taken up in the Sunday School rooms in aid of the Memphis sufferers and resulted in raising $125.

The "Connecticut Mutuals". Is the strongest and cheapest to be insured, it having the largest surplus in hand to meet its liabilities.

Be at your Post. Yesterday we saw several strangers who wished to look at one of our public city buildings. The doors were shut, the keys and keeper gone.

There were some of the finest vegetables on exhibition, added since the day before, but we could not learn the exhibitors' names.

Capt. Nat. Atkinson, of Bencombe, has several hundred varieties of fine apples on exhibition. We propose to give a list of them herewith.

Mrs. H. Sidney Smith, of this city, has on exhibition an English gold watch made in 1781, which went through the process of burial when General Tarleton passed through Halifax during the Revolutionary war.

Mrs. G. Turner, of Warren, exhibits a quilt, curiously and very handsomely worked, one hundred years old.

There is also on exhibition a quilt consisting of 7,321 pieces, some of them not larger than a five cent piece.

Mattie and Sallie, daughters of Capt. Thos. Bailey, of this city, exhibit some remarkably fine work in a model cottage and grounds, and sets of parlor and chamber furniture.

A boy 7 years old and a girl 9 years exhibit specimens of penmanship that attract much attention.

We noticed, also in Floral Hall, some rare work on native mica by Miss Mary E. Dickson, of Davidson.

An English lady whose name we could not ascertain has on exhibition a lot of needle work, embroidery and bead-work combined, which cannot be excelled.
