Post Office Directory. RALEIGH POST OFFICE ARRANGEMENTS. Office hours from 7:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.

Last Day of the Fair. Our columns were so crowded with the result of the Gift Concert drawing in yesterday's issue that a large mass of matter was necessarily crowded out.

The attendance on Friday was very large, though not quite so large as on Thursday. On yesterday the number fell off considerably, though the interest seemed unabated.

SATURDAY'S RACING. First Race.—The first race was that of gentlemen's driving horse, to be driven by the owners, mile heats, to wagnons, best two in three, for a purse of $200.

Second Race.—"Bill Grant" won two straight heats. Time 3:38 both heats. "Dandy" was second and "Maggie" third in both heats.

Third Race.—This was a running race, one mile dash, for $50. The entries were Emory's "Lightwood," Grant's "Emily Long," and "Lightwood" was in 1:01, "Book" second, "Emily Long" third.

Fourth Race.—This was a running race, one mile dash, for $100. The entries were Emory's "Lightwood," Grant's "Emily Long," and "Lightwood" was in 1:01, "Book" second, "Emily Long" third.

FIRST CLASS IN ASTRONOMY. STAND-UP. "When does the sun rise?" "Please sit down in our window; I see in yesterday's paper that you are a student of the sun."

Gen. Kemper refused to be introduced to George Porter (now deceased) or anywhere else last week, and George Porter's wife wrote about it, and writes to the Star Journal denouncing Gen. Kemper as a Knicker.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Winner of the Big Prize. The Heck station "Sagamore" was won by Master Maurice Gramman, aged eight years, son of M. Gramman, merchant of this city.

By Request. We publish the proceedings of the Mexican Soldiers' Convention, together with the resolutions of respect, &c., to the dead.

Religious. Elder P. D. Gold, will preach in the Common's Hall on Wednesday night next the 23d instant, and on Thursday at 11 o'clock, the next day.

Henry Jordan, Esq. We were glad to meet at the Fair our friend, Henry Jordan, of the Person bar.

Mrs. Prickard, the authoress of "Bread of Heaven and Husks of Swine," is now in the city ready to deliver the book to all who subscribed for it on her former visit.

Miller & Clifton having entered into copartnership, have fitted up the establishment known as Prairie's old stand, in excellent style for the Restaurant business.

600 pounds. Pure candy made every day at A. D. Royster & Bro's. Coconut and Fruit Candies a specialty. Fresh Bananas and fine northern apples received to-day.

Trials of Speed. First Race.—The first race in the trials of speed was a trot for a purse of $50, open to all mile heats, best three in four, to harness—the winning horse to beat 2:39.

Second Race.—This was a running race for a purse of $50, single mile dash. L. Emory entered colt "Brooks"; G. W. Wynne entered "Cad." The race was well contested, but "Brooks" was too much for him.

Third Race.—This was another running race, mile dash for a purse of $50. The entries were Gant's "Lady Washington," and Staton's "Hope." "Lady Washington" won by two lengths in 2:37 1/2.

Fourth Race.—This was a trot for $100, mile heats, best two in three. Worthlight entered "Rosanne"; Wynne entered "Quixote"; and R. H. Williams entered "Fiyaway."

Another "Trot" Veteran. On Saturday we met at the Fair Grounds, Oscar Alston, one of the worthiest and most intelligent colored men in America, well known to the people of this section of the State.

Have your pockets made stouter for sports is coming. An exchange of letters for a "hard metal currency."

Samuel White. A. M. Nelson's Restaurant.—This gentleman having recently retired the front basement of the market house, respectfully informs the public generally that he will receive their patronage, meals and everything else that his market affords.

The Way Charlotte Advertises.

We yesterday counted up and find that merchants and other business men of Charlotte have now advertisements running in twenty papers, published outside of Charlotte; and there are several weekly papers published in this section of the State and upper South Carolina which we have not yet to hand, in which we think Charlotte advertisements are appearing regularly.—Observer.

"THE UNIVERSAL AYER."—On my journey over the continent—through Turkey, India, China, Japan, Peru, Chili, Paraguay, Brazil and Mexico, and the United States—in them all to some extent and in some to a great extent, I have found the Universal Ayer represented by his family medicines, which are often held in fabulous esteem.

A DRAINING DISEASE.—No disease which does not confine a man to his bed so completely afflicts him, for business as dyspepsia.—When the stomach and bowels are in a muddled and confused state, and the care and anxieties of the day are a sufficient burden for the organ of thought to bear, without being tormented by the miasma born of indigestion, it is highly desirable for the brain's sake, as well as for the sake of every other portion of the system, that the disordered stomach should be relieved with the utmost dispatch to a healthy, vigorous condition.

Have your pockets made stouter for sports is coming. An exchange of letters for a "hard metal currency."

SPECIAL NOTICES. A. M. Nelson's Restaurant.—This gentleman having recently retired the front basement of the market house, respectfully informs the public generally that he will receive their patronage, meals and everything else that his market affords.
