Domestic News.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.

The Tribune, in an article on the imprisonment of Mr. Shanks, one of its atsches, for contempt of court in Brooklyn, mys: "For all it says the Tribune holds itself responsible. We believe in libel suits and we are quite reads to meet them when they come, in our own way; to make reparation when we are wrong and to fight it out to the bitter end whom we are right. But we give fair notice to the beaten, diagraced and angered ring of Brooklyo, that it can never restore damaged characters and ruined prospects by a malicious prosecution of newspaper employees, and that in an assault upon the itself with new disaster."

A reporter last evening ascertained from Mr Williams, President Metropolitan Na tional Bank, that the President in his letter to Williams, merely acknowledges the receipt of one from that gentleman, and expressed his anxious desire to do all be could to relieve the monetary panic. . He then asks the question swhy cannot the banks come together and make some ar rangement for the relief of merchants and the public, adding that he will do all in his power to assist them. This is said to be the whole substance of the letter,

Upon the resumption of Stokes trial today Rulus Andrews deposed that Stokes came to consult him before shooting and gave him a retainer.
