TRIP TO GRANVILLE. On Friday last the writer left for a brief visit to his home after an absence of forty-seven days. Taking the Raleigh and Gaston cars we went whirling along and at twenty minutes after 12 o'clock were at Henderson. Here we got a really excellent dinner at the hotel kept by our friend, Colonel Simon W. Kittrell. We were glad to learn from him that he will re-open the Railroad Hotel, east side going North, and quite near the depot, on first of January. This is good news for the travelling public, for the Colonel is one of the best landlords within an extended acquaintance among hotel men.

Mr. J. H. Harner has commenced moving furniture, &c., to Hillsboro, preparatory to opening a Military and Classical School in that ancient town next January. He will be a great loss to Oxford, and if the people there have not lost all interest in education and all public spirit, they will see to it that the place that has been famous for its excellent schools for a half century, will not be without a superior school for boys for a single session. Our lady must have proper school facilities. Let the leading men take such steps as may be necessary to secure a teacher of established reputation who can attract from a distance. We believe many Eastern boys will be glad to attend a school at Oxford provided there is a really good one in operation.

THE ORPHAN HOME. An object of much interest to the citizens. They have their contributions often and liberally to its maintenance. The people of the State generally should respond to the urgent calls made upon them. Many towns have done well, but many have not contributed a penny. Every neighborhood should contribute, and every Church should send up a liberal sum to help take care of the destitute orphans of the State. Among them are the descendants of some prominent families. We heard that there was one little girl who is the grandchild of one of the most distinguished Governors of the State in its earlier history. We regretted to learn that at Henderson we met Prof. Harrell, editor of the Tribune, who represents his paper as being in a flourishing condition. We noted a new Dry Goods store, under the proprietorship of Miss J. R. Young & Co., formerly of Oxford.

DEATH. We regret to learn that a United States soldier was found in a dying condition in Lovell's gun shop on Monday. It is about 6:30 o'clock. A tickler of liquor was found in his pocket. He was taken to the guard house where he died some time ago. He was a young man.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Members of the Legislature will bear in mind that the DAILY SENTINEL will be sent to them at their Boarding House for 15 cents per week, or for $1.75 during the entire session. Call at the office and leave your orders.

Factories Suspended. We learn that the tobacco factories at the growing village of Durham suspended work in the early part of last week. We suppose the money stringency is the cause.

Hon. Nathaniel Boyden. We regret to learn that on Sunday night last the condition of Judge Boyden was such as to prepare his family and friends for the announcement of his death at any moment.

Masonic. The regular convocation of Raleigh Chapter No. 19, Royal Arch Masons, for the present month, will be held this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock. Annual election of officers will take place.

Setting Up. James P. Cherry, Sheriff of Clay county, Stephen Roberts, Tax Collector of Madison county, and J. A. Robinson, Sheriff of Lincoln county, settled their takes in full with the State Treasurer on yesterday.

Change of Base. W. V. Clifton having dissolved his connection with Mr. Miller, has taken charge of the bar and billiard saloon attached to the National Hotel, where he will be pleased to meet his friends.

Miller & Gant. Capt. Gant has purchased the interest of W. V. Clifton, in the Prairie Saloon, on Fayetteville street, and he and Miller are going to show what can be done in the way of enterprise. See special advertisement elsewhere.

Secure tickets at once, young man, for yourself and sister—or somebody else's sister—to the Tremaine Concert at Tucker Hall to-morrow evening. We have recently seen a letter from Prof. W. G. Richardson, of Davidson College, in which he pays a marked compliment to this gentleman. He says among other things, that "in music he is one of the greatest geniuses he has ever had the good fortune to meet with," that "his performances on the piano are to him, marvellous of power, pathos and skill." This is now the universal judgment of all people in this community of cultivated musical tastes. Prof. Richardson speaks also quite heartily of Dr. M.'s personal worth, and says, "he is an ever welcome guest at his house."

Tremaine-Pierson Troupe. To-morrow evening we are to have one more of the admirable concerts of this popular troupe at Tucker Hall, as before. The party will arrive in the city, from the South, on the noon train to-morrow, and will be quartered at the Yarbrough House. The sale of reserved seats commences this evening at Branson's Book Store. There will doubtless be a large attendance despite the present sorry condition of the atmosphere—for it is well known that the entertainment of this Company of artists always compensates for any amount of inconvenience experienced in getting to the hall.

Legislature Summary. The General Assembly convened its regular annual session yesterday the preceding officers of both branches being present. A quorum was present in both branches—in the Senate thirty-two members, and in the House seventy-eight answering to their names. The only business of a legislative character transacted was a motion in the Senate, made by Mr. Flemming, providing for a special committee to report the necessary legislation in the matter of the injunction against the State Treasurer in regard to the special tax bonds.

The Nash and Kellack School. The musical union at the school of the Misses Nash and Kellack, at Hillsboro, last Friday night, was attended by some fifty appreciative ladies and gentlemen of the town. The scene was the last of the season, and was under the direction of Professor Gutz, who has contributed so much towards the advancement of music in that excellent school. A number of his pupils had an opportunity of displaying the marked progress they have made during the last session, and the audience witnessed a faithful appreciation of the fact. The author of this article refrains from making special mention of individual performers, but does most emphatically pronounce the entertainment as one of the most charming it ever saw his good fortune to witness. Dr. van Myerhoff, of the Raleigh Female Seminary, was especially in the front, but was unwisely detained, but however made his appearance the following evening, and the people had an excellent opportunity to witness the extraordinary performance of this gentleman.

Now is the time for members to let their constituents know what they are doing while away from home. Subscribe to the Sentinel, and have it sent to them. WEEKLY SENTINEL only 50 cents for the entire session.

YMCA.

The Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association appointed to obtain contributions for the benefit of the poor of Raleigh, will begin at once to wait upon the citizens generally. The Committee consists of Messrs. A. M. McPheeters, W. W. Holden, W. J. Young and John Armstrong. Here is a charity that must appeal to every kindly heart. It is our poor—the poor of Raleigh—who are to be cared for. Such weather as we now have must remind the inmates of comfortable homes, that in this very town are hundreds of poor who must suffer extremely both for food and fuel unless relieved by those who are in more fortunate circumstances. We believe that our people will respond generously. The disaster of Boston, the sufferings of Memphis and Shreveport met with a liberal response. We are glad to learn that through the liberality of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad the Association have secured one hundred cords of wood, and they hope to secure some from the North Carolina Railroad. The wood, however, has not yet been received.

Never mind the weather. Get your tickets to the Tremaine Brothers Concert to-morrow evening, and you will see sunshine enough to last you a week.

The Post. This Radical paper charges that the Associate of the SENTINEL "gives the Weldon News credit for an item that appeared in" the Wilmington papers. He calls us "censor," and says we "must be more cautious." We do not remember the item in point as it is not specified. We very often clip from the State columns of our exchanges, and where no credit is given, we give credit to the paper from which we take it. Somebody is entitled to credit, and we give it to the paper in which we find it. The Post has appeared more than once highly sensitive because we insist that it is fair and just to give the name of the paper from which you copy items, and calls us names. We have been led to suppose, and our connection with the press dates back nearly sixteen years, that it was the custom of newspapermen to make such acknowledgments. We may be behind the times, and if so we are quite willing to catch up. The Louisville Courier Journal thinks it is no better than thieving to take from its columns and refuse to acknowledge the indebtedness. We have merely insisted that it is our duty when we copy from a State exchange to say so, and that those who copy from the SENTINEL should give proper credit. It is for that we are called a "censor." Well, we will endeavor to bear the "censure" of the Post with philosophic calmness.

Franklin Steam Washer. Genl. D. H. Hill of Charlotte, whose family is using the above named washer says of it: "Messrs Barrow & Pleasant of Louisville, N. C., have kindly presented the uncompromising Union editor of the Southern Home with one of their Steam Washers. It is indeed a wonderful invention. Soiled clothes are placed in the boiling water of the machine and come out clean in thirty minutes, and need only to be put through a wringer or rinsed out in cold water. We can most conscientiously recommend it as a labor saving machine, thoroughly cleaning clothes without rubbing."

The "Franklin Steam Washer" is rapidly gaining favor, and is a sheet which will be taken every well regulated family and it has taken the premium at every Fair at which it has been exhibited. For the Sentinel, CUMBERLAND COUNTY FAIR. This fair has surpassed any that has been held in this place since the war. There was about 1,500 persons present, and judged by the happy faces, all were having a pleasant time. One of the articles most worthy of notice, was a picture in oils, the first attempt of Master Elliot Daingerfield, of this place. The picture represents a child holding a rabbit in its arms, and we might make a long search before we found anything more pleasing. The young artist promises we think to become a great artist. The "Diamond Cotton Chopper and Cultivator" was the greatest improvement in agricultural implements, it took the first premium as the "Victory Sewing Machine." We were pleased to welcome many of our friends from a distance, and hope that next year, we will be still further favored.

"WAS TO THE KNIFE."—We have declared war against complacency, and we mean to fight it out. CHURCH MEMORANDUM. I have a lot of Buggies, Phonses and Backways on hand, which parties would do well to examine before purchasing elsewhere. Place of business on Market street, next door to Wylie's, Taylor & Co.'s lively stable. N. S. HARRI. oct 28-30
