Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

MONDAY, December 15.

Senate called to order at 11 a. m.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Atkinson of the Presbyterian Church.

Journals of Saturday read and approved.

Dr. Miller, a petition from citizens of Shelby, Cleaveland county, against the repeal of the prohibitory law for said town.

Mr. Price presented a petition from citizens of Mocksville, in Davie county, asking the passage of an act allowing the people of said town to vote upon the question of the retailing of spirituous liquors.

Mr. Gudger, a petition, asking to change county line between Yancey and Mitchell counties. Referred.

Dr. Murphy, a petition which, upon his own motion was not read, and referred to committee on propositions and grievances.

REPORTS FROM STANDING COMMITTEES.

Mr. Todd, from judiciary committee.

Col. Morehead, from judiciary committee.

Mr. Welch, from committee on corporations.

Mr. Love, from committee on propositions and grievances.

Mr. Gudger and Mr. Flemming, from judiciary committee.

Mr. McCabe, from committee on enrolled bills.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS.

Mr. Nicholson, a bill relative to probate courts.

Mr. Gudger, a bill to change the boundary line between Yancey and Mitchell.

Dr. Murphy, a bill to establish a new county by the name of Jefferson.

Mr. McCauley moved to suspend the rules and take up the bill incorporating the "Bank of Monroe," and put it on its passage. Agreed to, and bill passed several readings.

Mr. Flemming, a resolution authorizing the Governor to withdraw the appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Southern Security Company against Western N. C. Railroad, and for other purposes. Goes over one day under the rules.

Mr. Warring, a bill in relation to court houses and jails, and a bill for the protection of sheep.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Mr. Cowles moved that the special order be postponed until the morning business was disposed of. Agreed to.

Message from the House was read and the bills transmitted were read and appropriately referred.

Special order, a bill to be entitled an act to make uniform the rate of interest in North Carolina.

Mr. Warring moved to strike out the "bank of Mecklenburg."

Mr. Humphrey, the author of the bill, submitted an argument against discriminating in favor of any corporation.

Mr. Morehead, of Rockingham, argued against the bill. Said that its passage would aggravate the evils which it is purposed to remedy. Said it would drive the money out of the State.

Mr. King said this bill was intended to put the banks upon the same footing as that occupied by individuals, and for one he was in favor of its passage. That the banks were now allowed to take a greater rate of interest than that authorized by the general law.

Mr. Flemming spoke against the bill. He thought money ought to be free from all restraint, and that persons ought to be allowed to contract for any rate of interest the could get.

Mr. Humphrey spoke in advocacy of the bill, and said it was necessary to protect the people from the rapacity of the monied corporations of the country; said we had tried in practice the theory of the Senator from McDowell; money had been loaned at the rate of thirty cents, expressed on face of notes and collected by mortgage on real estate, for the past four years That no money had come into the State under this invitation; that in our sister State, Maryland, where they had a stringent usury law money was more abundant than in our own State. The passage of the bill would strike down monopolies.

Mr. Cunningham offered an amendment striking out that portion of the bill which reposes the privilege contained in Bank charters to pay interest on deposits.

Mr. Troy offered an amendment to the amendment, placing the banks incorporated by the laws of the State under the identical restrictions in respect to deposits that the acts of Congress may provide for the National Banks.

A long discussion here arose participated in by Messrs. Dunham, Morehead of Rockingham, Humphrey, King and Murphy.

Mr. Troy's amendment failed and Mr. Cunningham's was adopted.

Mr. Morehead offered a substitute which was read for information. He then offered it as a substitute for the whole of the second section. It provides as a penalty for the violation of the act by taking a greater rate of interest than 8 per cent. The forfeiture of double the amount loaned, one-half to the informer and the other to the State.

Mr. Seymour called the previous question. It being ordered, the question occurred upon the amendment of Mr. Troy to exempt building and loan associations.

Mr. Cowles thought there ought to be no exemptions. The amendment failed. The vote then was upon Mr. Morehead's substitute. Not adopted. The bill passed second reading.

Mr. Morehead obtained leave and introduced two bills—one to amend the revenue act—the other to promote immigration and encourage the building of manufactures.

Mr. Price, a bill to establish a public ferry across the Yadkin river.

Mr. Gudger, a bill to extend the time for taking out grants.

Harris, col. col., a bill to give the public printing to the Deaf & Dumb Asylum.

Upon motion of Senator Worth the Senate adjourned until 11 a. m.

NOTE.—Mr. Love, thinking our report of his amendment to the State debt question, on Friday, is liable to be misconstrued, we add the following amendments offered by Mr. Love, on public debt.

In section 1, line 2, strike out "the rate of six per cent. per annum," and insert "such rates as are herein prescribed.

Sec. 2. The rate of interest payable in 1875 and in 1876, shall be at the rate of one per cent. annum; in 1877, 1878 and 1879, at the rate of two per cent. per annum; in 1880, 1881 and 1882, at the rate of three per cent. per annum; in 1883, 1884, at the rate of four per cent. per annum; in 1885, at the rate of six per cent. per annum; in 1886, at the rate of seven per cent. per annum; in 1887, at the rate of eight per cent. per annum; in 1888 and 1889, at the rate of nine per cent. per annum; in 1890, at the rate of ten per cent. per annum; in 1891 and 1892, at the rate of eleven per cent. per annum; and in 1893 and 1894, at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum, and in all subsequent years, until the maturity of the bonds issued under this act, the interest shall be at the rate of six per cent. per annum.

On motion of Abbott (col.) the bill in regard to the county of Pamlico was taken from the table and placed on the calendar.

A motion by the same to suspend the rules did not prevail.

On motion of Mr. Dula the Bill to authorize the Secretary of State to purchase a fire-proof safe was read, amended, and passed several readings.

The Speaker announced the unfinished business being the Prohibitory Bill; which was then read.

Mr. Bennett moved to refer to Judiciary Committee. The motion prevailed.

Mr. Gudger moved to reconsider.

Mr. Trivett moved to table.

Mr. Gudger demanded the yeas and nays and the motion to table prevailed. Yeas 54; nays 47. So the bill was committed to the Judiciary.

BILLS ACTED ON.

Bill to amend the charter of the town of Winston, in the county of Forsythe, passed several readings.

Bill to incorporate the Brunswick Bridge and Ferry Company. Passed several readings.

Bill to amend the act concerning amnesty and pardon was on motion of Mr. McGehee made a special order for to-morrow at 12 m.

Bill to incorporate the town of Hickory in the county of Catawba was read, amended and passed its several readings.

Bill to increase the salary of the Judge of the 12th Judicial District of North Carolina was read, and on motion of Mr. Bowman was laid on the table.

Bill to enable the sureties of the several official bonds of Isaac Long, (deceased) late sheriff of Yadkin county, to collect arrears of State and county taxes passed its several readings.

Bill amending the act to lay off and establish the county of Pamlico was read and referred to the judiciary committee.

Bill to give to the county of Burke, all vacant lands in said county. Substitute recommended by the judiciary committee. Accepted and several amendments adopted and the bill failed to pass its second reading.

Mr. Jones of Caldwell, moved to reconsider, and on motion of Mr. Bowman the further consideration of the bill was postponed until to-morrow at 11 a. m.

The Speaker called attention to a message from the Senate with an engrossed bill from the House with the Senate amendments, which engrossed bill had been while in the Senate, contrary to parliamentary rules, "interlined, defaced and otherwise blurred."

On motion of Mr. Jones of Orange, the bill was returned to the Senate.

The Consolidation R. R. bill was next considered. Various amendments were offered and pending its consideration.

On motion of Mr. Richardson, the House adjourned until 10:30 o'clock.

THE GREAT PEDESTRIAN CONTEST will be held in spite of the smoking of Gen. Hawley, of New York, who, by virtue of his having found in Paris a manuscript copy of Franklin's autobiography, thinks he must take charge of the American Revolution and its immediate end. But it must prove a stupendous success! for Lotzo will unite with Copeland "in a race" to bring about the struggle, and with Ennis and National thirteen as closely interwoven, it would be interesting to predict otherwise. So good by Mr. Hawley—au revoir, Biggy—au revoir whilst we hang up the fringe for the Wizard of the pedestal, and "bet our bottle"—the renowned "Burley Stud" Cheroot, from tobacco grown—a Pelham plantation, that will assuredly astonish and delight the sweetened millions on that National occasion! Write to Messrs. Robert, Pelzer & Co., the manufacturers, for their "Centennial Cheroot."

HOME AFFAIRS.

Pacific.

This depot on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, is growing. We noticed yesterday four new stores in course of erection.

Masonic.

A regular Convocation of Raleigh Chapter No. 10 of Royal Arch Masons, will be held at the Masonic Hall this evening, commencing at 7 o'clock.

Lost.

A fur cape between the Baptist Church and Oakwood Cemetery. The finder, by returning to SENTINEL office or John Armstrong, will be suitably rewarded.

Kittrell.

We dined yesterday at this place with Colonel Davis. A New York gentleman sitting to our left, said it was the best way-side hotel between New York and Galveston, and so it is.

Wake Forest College.

As we passed this important educational point yesterday, we saw a large building going up, and hands at work preparing for the new depot, in place of the old depot at Forestville.

The School of Misses Nash & Kollock.

The next session of this celebrated Female School will begin on February 6, 1874. We need scarcely say that in all North Carolina there is no school that is superior to this one. It has no superior in any State within our knowledge.

Pay the Printer.

Some of our provincial exchanges are clamoring for Christmas Turkeys, and for wood which has been promised them in payment of arrears of subscription. One would judge from their continuous gobbling for turkeys, that they were born "in a panic," as Bill Arp says he was.

School Notice.

The examination of the students of the Lovejoy Academy will begin on Wednesday next and continue for three days. Original orations and declamations will close the exercises on Friday, at 2 o'clock. The friends and patrons of the school are invited to attend.

Go and Hear Him.

Rev. Dr. John E. Edwards of Va., will deliver his first lecture in this city in "Commons Hall" Wednesday evening—subject, "The choice of a Wife" and his second lecture Thursday night—subject, "Grand Development of the Law of Permanent Progress." The price of admission will be 50 cents. Tickets for sale at the bookstores. Polite ushers will be in attendance. We hope Dr. Edwards will be greeted with large audiences.

The Berger Family Last Night.

The entertainment of this troupe last night was very delightful. The music was indeed admirable, and Mr. Russell sustained his reputation fully as a humorist of rare gifts. As a journalist we can commend most conscientiously this combination of superior artists to this and to any community they may visit. Without entering into details or indulging in personal criticisms, we can safely say that it is one of the most elegant, refined, pleasing and superb entertainments ever offered to the citizens of Raleigh. A large and delighted audience filled Tucker Hall. They give their last performance to-night.

Election of Officers.

At a regular communication of Hiram Lodge No. 40, A. F. and A. M. held Monday evening December 15th, 1873, the following officers were duly elected for the ensuing year:

A. S. Lee, W. M.
A. H. Winston, S. W.
J. C. R. Little, J. W.
L. E. Hewitt, Treasurer.
E. B. Thomas, Secretary.

The W. M. under a resolution of the Grand Lodge appointed T. W. Hicks, J. C. R. Little and S. L. Tisdale a standing committee to solicit, receive and forward donations for St. John's Orphan Asylum, Oxford, N. C.

Oxford.

The Silver Musicals of the Female Seminary came off on last Friday night. It was quite equal, we learn, to those that have preceded it. The Music Department is under the management of Miss Lucinda Field, daughter of Dr. George Field, of Warren.

Messrs. Horner & Grove School closed on Monday last. Mr. W. F. Gregory, of Petersburg, delivered the address which is well spoken of. He paid a high compliment to North Carolina but did not forget Virginia.

Rev. Mr. Cobbs will not continue his connection with the Orphan Home. His place will be supplied soon. Mr. Col. Henry L. Roberts is the matron, and the ladies of Oxford are enthusiastic in her praise. She is a lady of great personal worth and desirable in every business relation, for her labors are so classified as to contribute to her capacity for usefulness in position. She is indeed a model matron, and Mr. Mills was most fortunate in procuring the services of such a true lady.

On last Friday, Mr. Amos Gregory whilst at the saw mill in Col. R. J. Mitchell, accidentally fell and had his arm caught by the saw. It was terribly mangled. Dr. F. W. Young amputated it, but the sufferings of Mr. Gregory were awful.

Henderson.

This village was quiet yesterday. No news items. Col. Kittrell was busy fitting up and repairing the railroad hotel which will soon be open under his excellent management. Messrs. J. R. Young & Co. were filling up rapidly their new Drug Store and Confectionery with Christmas tricks.

Correction.

The reporter did not intend in his report of the 12th inst., to commit Mr. McGehee, the able Representative from Person, to the doctrine of repudiation of any honest debt. His resolutions read as follows.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do resolve that the bonds commonly known as "The Special Bonds of North Carolina do constitute no part of the public debt of North Carolina."

That the Public Treasurer is hereby directed not to make any mention, note or item of said bonds on the books of his office.

That it shall be unlawful for the Public Treasurer to pay out any public moneys for interest, or for the principal of any of the said bonds.

That this resolution shall take effect immediately.

Dupree & Benedict.

This Minstrel troupe from New Orleans will give their first performance on Wednesday night. The Rome Commercial thus "goes for them:"

"There is no discount on them; they are first class artists. There is one special feature about Dupree & Benedict's Minstrels, mentioned by us a few days ago, and which we repeat. Usually a great deal of license is given to minstrels in the perpetration of jokes, and they often use this license until they approach to rudeness; but we are happy to see, from their handsome press notices, that the present company have steered clear of all coarseness, and amuse their audiences without wounding, in the least, their moral sensibilities."

N. C. Conference.

The Goldsboro' Messenger says of this body now in session at that place:

The Conference has been in session four days. Much work remains to be done. The deliberations of the body are marked with dignity and becoming intelligence. Bishop Keener, the presiding officer, is a gentleman of superior executive ability, and the intellectual character of the members is such as will insure the utmost attention, and render the labors of the Conference pleasant.

The various district reports are of the most satisfactory nature, and so are the reports rendered by the respective Presidents of Trinity, Greensboro' and Davenport Colleges. The cause of education is a most important feature of the Conference, and we are really glad to observe this. The future state of the church rests in the education of its youth, and too much attention can hardly be given to the cause of education.

Rev. Dr. Deems

This gentleman, so well known to North Carolinians, having lived in this State during some twenty-eight or thirty years, is thus spoken of by the Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist:

The distinguished pastor of the Church of the Strangers in New York, Dr. Chas. F. Deems, will lecture in this city at an early day, under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association. Dr. Deems is one of the purest and best of American pulpit orators, lecturers and literary men. He has created many ways of doing good, by his pen, his utterance and bright example. The mere announcement of a lecture by him in Augusta will be sufficient to insure a rare and rich entertainment. He subject will be "The Story of a Christian Professor's Trust." This lecture breathes the spirit of God, and shows how lovely is that true Christian humility which confides in heaven, amid utter desolation and human deserting.

For the Sentinel.

HILLSBOROUGH, Dec. 14th, 1873.

Editor of Sentinel:—The church people of this ancient town have had a refreshing and happy season. The occasion was the ordination of Rev. C. C. Curtis, son of the late Dr. Curtis, so well known to the State and the whole country. Dr. Curtis was long the pastor of this Church, and his son succeeds him in the pastorate with the promise and prospect of doing much good in this portion of the Lord's vineyard. The father from his piety and holiness was dear to all the church, and the son is destined to become not less so.

On Saturday night Rev. Joseph C. Hook of Fayetteville preached one of his best sermons.

Sunday morning sermon from Bishop Lyman and the ordination of Mr. Curtis, engaged the attention of the congregation and a large number of visitors. The sermon was excellent. The services of ordination were solemn, solemn and imposing. It was a sight pleasing to men, angels, and God.

At night Bishop Atkinson preached. His sermon was very good. We observed among the visitors in attendance Dr. Dalloway and members of his family from Wilmington. The candidates for orders in a surplice of the Doctor's. We cannot remember ever to have heard three better sermons or to have witnessed a more solemn or impressive ceremony.

The Colonel does sporting of the minstrel troupe music concert, by the appointment of Governor Brogden to the Supreme Court bench, says: "Brogden fills the position he has filled, conferred by God, Caldwell, Ruffin, Henderson. The General declines the office. Now the Governor must either appoint some competent to discharge the duties of Judge in this judicial district, except Ben Boston, of Hertford, or, he must in the memorable language of Chief Justice Taney, "resign." Give us a good, honest man, Mr. Governor, and we will satisfied.

Hon. Thomas S. Ashe, has tendered the appointment of a cadetship at West Point, to Mr. S. B. Jones, a young gentleman of Charlotte.

PRATT'S ASTRAL OIL,
Still Triumphant!
IT IS ENDORSED BY OVER 200 FIRE INSURANCE COMPANIES.
Read the following certificates from 70 of the Leading Fire Insurance Company's of the United States:

NEW YORK, May 13th, 1869.

CHAS. PRATT:—DEAR SIR:—The undersigned, Officers of Fire In. Co's, have noticed, with pleasure, your endeavors to introduce a safe and reliable Illuminating Oil, in place of the cheap and low grades of Kerosene Oil so commonly used. The merits of your "Astral" Oil, which are so generally conceded by scientific men, the press and the public at large, lead us to hope that your endeavors may be crowned with success, and that consumers will fully protect themselves from fire and accident, by the use of an Oil which is Perfectly safe.

Such we think the "Astral" Oil to be (Standing as it does a test of 150 deg's. against 110 deg's. of best Kerosene,) and we feel that its general introduction as superior, would materially diminish the Fire Risks on all buildings in which Kerosene is stored or used.
