Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE. WEDNESDAY, Dec. 17, 1873. The Senate met at 11:4 a. m. Journals of yesterday read and approved.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES. were submitted by Mr. Cunningham from committee on education, Mr. Murray from committee on internal improvements, Mr. Avera from committee on propositions and grievances, Mr. Cowles from committee on privileges and elections, Mr. Love from committee on propositions and grievances, Mr. Gauder from committee on judiciary, and also from the committee on corporations, Mr. Price and Mr. Flemming from the judiciary.

Also a resolution from the House in regard to adjournment. The resolution recites the former resolution and proposes to take a recess from the 23d of December to 12th of January.

Mr. Seymour moved to indefinitely postpone—stating that there was no business before the General Assembly that could not be finished by the 24th.

Messrs. Allen and Avera opposed the motion—said it was impossible to get through before Christmas—that it would take six days to pass the revenue bill.

Mr. Worth said that as chairman of the Committee on Finance, he would like for some of those who seemed to attach blame to the committee for not having reported a revenue bill at an earlier day—how could it be done until the appropriations were made.

Mr. Todd hoped the motion to indefinitely postpone would prevail. He said the people of the State in the vote upon the Constitutional amendments had indicated a desire for short sessions, and in obedience to the wish of his constituents, he would vote for the motion.

Dr. Murphy and Col. Welch expressed the opinion that it would be impossible to transact the business before the holidays.

The motion to indefinitely postpone was lost. A close vote.

Mr. Seymour offered an amendment providing that no Senator should draw per diem after the 23d inst., and demanded the yeas and nays, which were ordered.

Mr. Troy offered an amendment to strike out 23d December and insert 24th, and strike out 13th January and insert 29th December.

Pending their consideration the Senate adjourned until 11 a. m. to-morrow.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Osborn's Grain & Forge Store. We call attention to the large stock of grain, forage and wood for sale at Osborn's Grain and Feed Store. They will give prompt attention to all orders.

Rev. A. W. Mangum. We congratulate the members of the Edenton Street Methodist Episcopal Church and the community, upon the return of this gentleman as pastor of that church for the next Conference year.

Dastardly Trick. As the Goldsboro' train last evening was passing about a mile from this city a large rock was thrown in at the window, and came near striking a lady. The rock was thrown with great force and must have killed the lady if it had struck her.

Personal. We had the pleasure of a visit yesterday from Col. James S. Amis, of Oxford. Col. Amis represented Granville for many years in the Legislature, and was the acknowledged leader of his side of the House.

Well Put. Col. Bennett will receive the thanks of the whole people for his timely amendment to the consolidation bill, by which Judge Manly, Col. Armfield and Governor Graham were appointed to sell the bonds, instead of Billy Smith, the President of the road.

Fatal Shooting. A gentleman from Durham informs us that at Black Creek on the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad, Bailey who owned the bear at the Cumberland Fair, shot and instantly killed J. P. Wood, of Granville county. He shot Wyrant in the arm and fled. These young men were traveling with a bear and magic lantern, and fell out about the division of the money they had made.

Rev. J. E. Edwards. We learn that this gentleman was greeted with a large and appreciative audience on the occasion of his first appearance before a Raleigh audience as a lecturer. He lectures again to-night in Metropolitan Hall when his subject will be—"The world was not made in a day, or the gradual progress of the law of permanent development." Tickets for sale at the bookstores.

Tucker Hall. Dupre & Benedict's Minstrels gave their first entertainment to a large audience at Tucker Hall last night. The fun was broad, some of the songs were pleasing, much of the burlesque was grotesque, and if we may judge from the frequent applause and loud laughter the crowd enjoyed the fun. They give their last entertainment to night with a doubtless a large crowd will be present.

A Christmas Gift—A Suggestion to our Legislators. There are now some hundred and ten orphan children at the Home at Oxford who need the help of generous and sympathetic friends. While it is unquestionably the duty of the Legislature to make a liberal appropriation for their sustentation, funds are needed for present wants.

A Tender Scene. On last Sunday, at 3 p. m., Hon. A. W. Yonah conducted religious services at the Orphan Asylum. The children sang some of their beautiful hymns, and Mr. Yonah offered prayer, and then read and explained a few verses in Proverbs. He remembered the fathers and grandfathers of a large number of the children, and their bereavement moved him deeply.

Anniversary of the Order of Odd Fellows. We take pleasure in announcing that this Lodge will celebrate its anniversary, on Friday the 19th, at Tucker Hall.

Three Distinguished Men.

Rev. Dr. Jeter, the senior editor of the Religious Herald, Richmond, Va., in an editorial headed, "Distinguished North Carolina Baptists in Virginia," referring to three, viz: Rev. John Kerr, Rev. A. M. Poindexter, D. D. and Rev. R. B. Howell, D. D. remarks:

It is no disparagement, to the living or the dead, to affirm that they were among the ablest, the most popular, the most useful, and the most distinguished of all the Baptist ministers who have labored in the State during the period of our ministry, extending through more than half a century.

He then pays the following tribute, just every way we cannot doubt from what we have ourselves heard from others, to the splendid gifts of Rev. John Kerr, the father of Judge Kerr, of Caswell, who seems to have inherited much of the noble eloquence for which he was distinguished. Dr. Jeter says:

"Kerr was an orator. He was pre-eminently endowed by nature for public speaking. With a noble person, a sonorous voice, a vivid imagination, a flowing style, and warm sympathies, he would, in his happiest frame, pour forth strains of eloquence, absolute, overwhelming. In the pulpit, he had no peer. We have heard the best preachers of this country and of England, and we have never seen the man who could be compared with him in power to interest, sway and melt a large assembly. He was eminently successful in winning souls. It is not extravagant to affirm that thousands in among the most valuable Baptists of Virginia, during the last fifty years, were brought to the knowledge of the truth, through the powerful ministry of Kerr."

EXTRACTS FROM THE LETTER OF AN OXFORD LADY. MASSAS. EDITORS.—The present absorbing topic discussed is "The removal of Homer and Gove school and the leaving of their students on Thursday evening." We all sincerely regret the move these gentlemen in their wisdom feel disposed to make, and wish them a full consummation of the ends they seek.

The kindness of the people when as a stranger I first knew them, laid the foundation for some of the strongest friendships of my life, and now with that I have an abiding love for the Home established here for the orphans, where they too can commence the race of life under the same beneficial auspices of the more fortunate.

What is the use to eat stale Northern Candy two or three months old, when you can get it fresh every day at Ruyter & Bros. Candy Factory. This is a new home enterprise and is a credit to the city.
