NORTH CAROLINA.

The Charlotte Observer says that Mr. John Phifer was robbed not far from town by a negro and white man, on Sunday last.

The drawer of Messrs. Brown and Carraway, at Halifax, was robbed of $90 last week. Nearly all the money was recovered and the thief lodged in jail.—Roanoke News.

MARRIED.—In Warren county on Tuesday the 23rd instant, Mr. Christopher Riggan and Miss Eudora Flemming.

In Northampton county, N. C., on the 25th instant, at the residence of Mr. Ira B. Sykes, by W. J. Maddry, Esq., Mr. Thomas P. Spencer, of Southampton county, Va., to Miss Cornelia G. Howell, of Northampton county, N. C.

CHILD BURNT.—We regret to learn that a daughter of Capt. A. H Cutts, of the W. & W. R. R., was quite seriously burned in Wilmington on yesterday. Capt. Cutts, who was coming up the Road, was telegraphed and turned back. We trust her injuries may prove slight and of short duration.—Weldon News.

FOUND DEAD.—A negro man, name unknown, was found dead, near Littleton, on Tuesday morning, the 23rd instant. A coroner was sent for but failed to come and the body lay untouched for some time. It is supposed his horse threw him.—Weldon News.

Reverends White and Epps, both colored have been speaking to and against each other in Halifax of late. White wants Annanias Buck in Epps' place that he (White) may take Buck's place in the church. Senator Epps demurs and thus the matter stands.—Ro. News.

There were four alarms of fire in one day in Wilmington says the Star. Mr. Sedberry had his house burned—loss $2,000, insurance $1,200. Bishop Atkinson lost a buggy and rockaway that were consumed by the fire that destroyed a carriage house, wood-house and stables on the premises occupied by him.

MADE A RAID.—We learn that some vile being, thievously bent, entered the private room of Mr. J. O. Heptinstall, of this county, last week, while Mr. Heptinstall was in Baltimore, and opened his trunk, having keys to fit, and there stole two suits of clothes, a number of white linen garments, a pistol and other articles of value amounting in all to nearly three hundred dollars' worth and decamped.—Roanoke News.

THROAT CUT.—Christmas getting the better of Plummer Johnson and George Bobbitt, at Littleton on last Wednesday, they fell out and went together to settle a little difference of opinion springing up between them. In the rencontre Bobbitt cut the throat of Johnson very seriously, and the latter threw up the sponge. Then quiet was restored. Dr. Willis Alston was called to see the wounded man. The Doctor thinks there is no danger of his patient dying.—Weldon News.

MAN KILLED.—On Christmas eve a young white man named Eli Vick, residing in Northampton county, N. C., in attempting to cross the Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad track at a point between Seaboard and Handsome in front of the rapidly moving down express train, was struck by the engine and so seriously injured that he died early yesterday morning.—Portsmouth Enterprise, 27th.

The annual meeting for election of officers will be held at Fireman's Hall on Friday night, January 2nd, 1874. Every member is expected to be present at 7 o'clock sharp.

The Maryland Ham.

Messrs. Jenkins & Chandler, whose card we publish in another column, are curers of the "Maryland" brand of Hams, the reputation of which is so well known as to need no comments. All who are in want of something really nice and delicious in this line, should not fail to use this brand of Hams. Read their card on the fourth page.

Bishop Lyman

This gentleman preached for the first time in Charlotte last Sunday. The Observer thus refers to the efforts:

His sermons were characterized by deep thought. They were plain and practical, yet learned and at times eloquent. Everything about him stamps him as a great and good man, and his sermons of Sunday were received with delight by all who heard him.

Book Notice.

SCH-TOPICAL RAMBLES IN THE LAND OF THE APHANAPTERYX: Personal Experiences, Adventures, and Wanderings in and Around The Island of Mauritius. By Nicolas Pyke, U. S. Consul, Harper & Brothers, 1873.

Such is the long title of a beautiful volume from the publishing house of the Harpers. It is copiously illustrated. It is an agreeable book for fire-side reading during the long winter evenings. Full of adventure and abounding in information, it can not fail to interest those who wish books of travel. The copy received was sent through Messrs. E. J. Hale & Son of New York.

Remembered.

The late Johns Hopkins, the Rothschild of Baltimore, who recently died, gave away several millions of dollars to charitable and literary institutions. He gives some two and a half millions alone to the founding of the John Hopkins' University. Free scholarships, it is known are to be established in the University, which are not only for the youth of Maryland, but for those of Virginia and North Carolina also. Mr. Hopkins recognizing these three States as those from which he derived the trade as a merchant, which was the chief basis of his fortune. For a wonder he has gratitude. Would A. T. Stewart give free scholarships to Southern boys? Hardly.

Josh Billings on Editors.

We find the following amusing and lifelike description of the animal now quite common, and known as an editor. Josh has evidently tried his hand at "bellows blowing" and tasted some of the peculiar sweets of editorial existence. His is no "prentice hand," however, and he only testifies to that he has seen. Here is his definition:

An editor iz a male being whoze bizziness iz to navigate a nuze paper. He writes editorials, grinds out poetry, inserts deths and weddings, sorts out manuckripts, keeps a waste basket, blows up the "devel," steals matter, fites other peoples battles, sells his paper for a dollar and 50 cents a year, takes white beans and apple sass for pay when he kan git it, raizes a large family, works 19 hours out of every 24, knows no Sunday, gits damned bi everybody, and once in a while whipt bi sumbody, live poor, dies middle aged and often broken hearted, leaves no money, iz rewarded for a life ov toil with a short but free obituary puff in the nuze papers, Exchanges please copy.

Rent and Sale.

We call attention to the change made in the advertisement of Mr. C. W. William. The real estate of the late John Hutchins will be rented for the year 1874, and not sold as at first advertised.

Emancipation Celebration.

On yesterday the Colored Masons, the Victor Fire Company, (colored,) the Good Templars Lodge (col.) headed by the Citizens Cornet Band, paraded the streets in honor of the Eleventh Anniversary of [illegible] ing at Metropolitan Hall, which was crowded, when John Price read Lincoln's Proclamation. Prayer was offered by Rev. Lewis Edwards, and singing by the audience. A poem was read by a colored man by the name of Alston, and speeches were made by Mayor Whitaker, Col. Ike Young, Attorney General Hargrove, Auditor Reilly and Jas. H. Harris, (col): The procession we failed to say, presented a good appearance, and we learn that most of them were temperance men. The Cornet Band played better than we ever heard them, and we are glad to note the steady improvement they are making. At night there was a grand mass meeting at Metropolitan Hall. The procession that passed our office was something unique. The colored Good Templars were out in regalia, each male escorting a female member of the order. We wish them all a bounteous and happy year.

The Georgia Minstrels.

We have reason to believe that a really good minstrel troupe is at last about to visit Raleigh. Callender's Original Georgia Minstrels, composed of sixteen genuine darkies, fourteen of whom were slaves, will be in Raleigh on 8th inst. They have made a most successful tour in Europe extending through seven years. The press of England, and of this country, both North and South, have given them high praise. All of the New York papers we n very laudatory, without exception. The Tribune says:

The Georgia Minstrels, at Lisa Edwin's Theatre, have evidently established themselves into favor with our metropolitan playgoers, as, despite the warm weather, a very numerous audience is nightly in attendance, who, apparently, can hardly give adequate expression to the enjoyment which the extremely laughable eccentricities of this real negro band gives them. The performance is both grotesque, humorous and spirited, and entirely devoid of any indelicacy of action or expression.

Those who have not seen the original troupe of colored minstrels, known as the Georgia Slave Troupe, should by all means drop in and see their laughable performances. Their actions are genuine representations of the humor of the negro character, and they have several good vocalists among them, and a capital burlesque actor in feminine character.

SCHEM'S STATISTICS OF THE WORLD.—A most valuable statistical Table has been compiled by Professor Alexander J. Schem under this title, and is to be published semi-annually, by G. J. Moulton, 103 Fulton Street, New York. The tables are practically arranged, for consultation at a glance, giving the statistics of all countries of the globe in parallel columns, under the following headings: Area, form of government, head of government, population, expenses, public debt, paper money, standing army, navy, merchant vessels, imports and exports, chief produce, coins (and their value at the United States Mint,) weights compared with both, pounds avoirdupois and kilogrammes,) linear measures (compared with both, feet and metres), measures of capacity (compared with both, bushels, gallons, and metres), the population of capitals, principal cities, and seaports, with the year of census. In addition to the above there are various side tables exhibiting statistics of Christianity, religious statistics of Europe and of the United States, railroads of the world and of the United States, postal and telegraph statistics of the world, the Presidents of the United States, and Presidential elections from 1788 to 1872, school statistics of the United States, etc. The statistical year-books, public records, almanacs, and periodicals, both of America and Europe, have been carefully compared, and the information on all subjects brought down to November, 1873. As many of the subjects embraced within the scope of these Tables, such as form of government, area, population of the country, population of the cities, imports, exports, expenses, public debt, are constantly changing, the value of a work which furnishes the very latest information is obvious. These Tables form an indispensable supplement to all historical and geographical works, and especially to cyclopedias, and should be in the hands of every one who takes an interest in the progress of the world. The Tables are issued in oblong atlas form, bound in neat boards, for handy reference. Price 50 c.

Whats the use to eat stale Northern Candy two or three months old, when you can get it fresh every day at Royster & Bros. Candy Factory. This is a new home enterprise and is a credit to the city. Their fine French Candies are pronounced by competent judges to be equal to any made by the best confectioners in New York, and they have the advantage of always having it fresh. Give them a trial, they make the best candy ever offered in this market.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.

The Executive Mansion never presented a more brilliant appearance than it did to-day. The east room has been beautified in white [illegible] entirely new. The blue room has also the furniture, and it is regarded as one of the handsomest drawing rooms in the country. The Mansion was opened for the reception of visitors at 11 o'clock, when the President and Mrs. Grant took their positions in the blue room and were assisted by the Secretary, Mrs. and Miss Edith Fish, Secretary, Mrs. and Miss Richardson, Secretary of war and Mrs. Belknap, Secretary of navy and Mrs. Robeson, Attorney General and Mrs. Williams, Postmaster General and Mrs. Creswell, Mrs. Senator Conkling, Miss Barnes and Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Tiffany. Marshal Sharpe and Gen'l Babcock participated in the presentation ceremony. Mrs. Grant and Miss Nellie Grant wore black silk trimmed with Crape. As is customary on such occasions, the diplomatic corps were first received. There was a full representation of ministers with their respective Secretaries and attachees, accompanied by ladies. Sir Edward Thornton took precedence in the presentation, being the dean or senior minister plenipotentiary of the corps, his credentials antidating all others. The ministers with few exceptions were in full coat dress. Admiral Polo, the Spanish minister, wore the uniform of a Rear Admiral. The ladies of the party were richly attired. After the diplomatic corps took their leave, the Justices of the Supreme Court, Justice Clifford in the advance were received by the President and his party, and succeeding a number of Senators and Representatives in Congress, the Governor and other officers of the District Government, Judges of the District Courts, and members of the Southern Claims Committee. Officers of the navy headed by Admiral Polo and Rear Admiral Sands and officers of the army headed by Generals Sherman and Whipple, all in full uniform, were received as separate bodies, and after they left the Mansion, the Assistant Secretaries of the several departments, officers of the various Bureaus, Comptrollers, Solicitors, Commissioners and others, paid their respects to the President. At 12:45 the associated survivors of the war of 1812, and the associated Veterans of 1846, were received. They numbered about forty and wore blue badges. Next came the members of the oldest inhabitants association with badges. At 1 o'clock the doors were opened to the public and from that hour to 2 p. m., continuous throng of citizens called and shook hands with the President.

FROM OHIO.

COLUMBUS, Jan. 1.

To-day the Railroad authorities arranged for starting two freight trains West. At the last moment the conductors refused to go, saying they would not go over the road with strange engineers. They were at once discharged and trains sent with other men in charge. The Yard master of the Columbus and Indianopolis Railroad was called on by a crowd of roughs to-day and threatened with death, if he permitted any more trains to run to-day. The police dispersed the crowd, and the spokesman of the party escaped. The evening train for Cincinnati, when at Alton, was fired into by some unknown parties. The situation here is now more unfavorable for a settlement than at any time during the strike.

FROM INDIANA.

INDIANOPOLIS, Jan. 1.

A broken rail untracked, delayed the passenger train on the Cincinnati, Howeltion and Indianopolis Road. Two killed and ten hurt—no Southerners.

RICHMOND, Jan. 1.

The Legislature convened to-day at noon. Nearly every member of both Houses being present, the organization having previously been arranged in caucus, the election of officers was speedily gotten through with and resulted in the re-election of all the officers of the last session except the sergeant at arms, which office was filled by the election of J. F. Wall of Frederick. The Senate and House then went into joint session and proceeded to canvass the returns of the recent election for Governor and Lieut. Governor, with the following result.

For Governor, James L. Kemper one hundred and twenty-eight thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight; R. W. Hughes, ninety-three thousand four hundred and ninety-nine. Majority for Kemper, twenty-seven thousand two hundred and thirty-nine majority. For Col. R. E. Withers for Lieutenant Governor, twenty-seven thousand five hundred and forty-six. Immediately after the conclusion of the count the Governor elect was notified and he proceeded to the Execution Mansion where the oath of office was administered to him by Judge Fitzhugh of Chancery Court. Governor Kemper then sent his Inaugural message to both Houses.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

NEW ADDITIONS TO OUR LARGE AND ATTRACTIVE STOCK OF DRY GOODS, NOTIONS, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, &c.

Our Senior Partner has just returned from New York where he has been for several days making purchases at panic prices, to supply the deficiences in our stock made by our unexpectedly good trade this season. In returning our thanks to our patrons, we say to them and the public, that our late purchases were made at a very great decline, and that we are now selling our stock at such prices as to justify us in saying that such bargains have not been offered since the war.
We have a good supply of Burt's, Ziegler's, and Bay State hand-made shoes and gaiters for Ladies, Misses and Children. Also, for gentlemen, Canfield's, Porter, Day & Co's, and Burt's single and double sole calf gaiters and boots, which we offer at very low prices. All wishing to purchase will not regret calling upon us and examining our stock and prices. We sell for cash and have fixed our prices on a cash basis. Therefore those buying of us do not help bear any risks for bad and slow debts. Very liberal prices to merchants buying in this market.
We have just received some very late styles of hats, including Opera, Snowflake, Chesterfield and Clemenceau.
