There were 102 interments at Oakdale Cemetery, Wilmington, during 1873, says the Star.

A supposed swindler by the name of James McCray, from Georgia, has been arrested at Wilmington, says the Journal.

Items from Fayetteville Gazette.
"Sundry Improvements," in the way of building, are going on in town.

A writer is out in the Gazette in support of Mr. Stephen's on the Salty Grab.

Mrs. Wm. Huske was married on 17th ult., to Miss M. E. Baker, both of Fayetteville. Rev. C. J. Huske officiating.

J. H. Myrver, Esq., senior editor of the Gazette, recently delivered a literary address before the young ladies of Floral College. We doubt not that it was a good one.

Burglars are at work. They robbed the room of Mr. L. Cameron and entered his trunk of its contents. They also entered the bed room of Mr. L. S. Crow (a compositor in the Gazette office) and helped themselves to his Sunday rigging and spare change.

A hold robbery was committed at Goldsboro last Monday night. The thieves entered the house of Mr. Benj. Murphree and robbed generally. Trunks were burnt open; drawers pulled out; and the contents of each ravaged with very nice discrimination—taking valuable articles only, such as ladies' costly apparel, silver ware, &c., says the Messenger.

There were 64 interments at Elmwood Cemetery says Charlotte Observer.

The Salem Press highly compliments a Lecture by Prof. Blake, Chairman of Davidson College, recently delivered before Salem Female Academy. The subject, "A Defense of Science."

Mr. W. H. Smith, an old and respected citizen of Salisbury, died on Dec. 21st, says the Weekly.

The Press says:
Mas at Old Fort says he will give a dam site to get a manufactory in the neighborhood. This savor of profanity. Don't it?

Two items from the same:
The firm of Hall & Patterson in this place last week sold Mr. Coffin on John's River a bill of goods amounting to $4,000.

John Stierell, colored, was arrested yesterday morning for stealing wheat from the mill of A. L. Shuford. It is estimated that he has stolen forty bushels in all, by a bag full at a time.

Not a single intoxicated man was seen on the streets of Morganton Christmas week. Not one in Hickory, none in Old Fort, and we heard there were none in Marion, and yet these christian people of all denominations will continue to sneer at Temperance Societies. The same amount of sobriety about Knox was never seen in this country since Columbus discovered America.—Pied. Press.

A friend writing us from Boone, W. Va., says that a box of mountain huckleberries, which stands on a half bushel measure and shoulders 8 bushels of wheat. She is thus described: a brunette, five feet three inches long; her gravity is 235 pounds and can whip any editor in the State.—Pied. Press.

HOME AFFAIRS.

Dear Mead.
John Price, No. 4, has a nice fat bear which he is now selling. Give him a call.

Temperance Mass Meeting.
We learn there were probably a thousand persons present at the temperance mass meeting of the colored people at Metropolitan Hall on Thursday night.

Florida.
The author states that he was elected Senator from Warren in 1850 and 1853, during which years he was chosen Speaker. It is printed here—a mistake for years.

The Musical Concert.
The programme of the grand Musical Entertainment under Dr. Meyerhoff to be given on the 23rd in this city will be published in a few days. It will be the most attractive programme ever presented to the citizens of Raleigh.

Wilmington Journal.
This paper has been reduced to the size of the Star, although it is no purpose of the editors to curtail the reading matter. On yesterday it entered upon its twenty-third year as a Daily, and its thirtieth year as a Weekly. We wish it a long life and abundant prosperity.

Married.
On Dec. 31st in the city of Richmond, Va., by Rev. Dr. Woodbridge of the Monumental Church, T. N. Jones Esq., one of Raleigh's most promising merchants, to Miss Katie Eckleton. The many friends of Mr. Jones rejoice with him in his good fortune, and invoke upon the happy couple such blessings as only God can vouchsafe.

Accident to a Printer.
Mr. J. W. Marshall, a printer who worked in this city some two months ago, was so badly injured on the Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta Railroad a few days since that his left leg had to be amputated. Mr. Marshall worked at the case in this office for a short time.—Wil. Star.

Mr. Marshall worked in the SENTINEL office, and was held in esteem by the printers of Raleigh. We regret to hear of his misfortune.

Raleigh Grange, No. 17

There will be a regular business meeting on Saturday the 3rd Jan. All members are requested to be present. The new officers will be installed punctually at 12 o'clock.

Hon. A. M. Waddell.
We publish to-day the letter addressed by the gentleman to Dr. Howerton, Secretary of State. As much has been said in the papers in condemnation of the "Salary Grab," it is but fairness to allow those attacked, a defence. The letter, all that comes from Col. Waddell, is unusually well written, betraying not only clever ability, but a practiced use of the pen—an accomplishment that all Congressmen cannot claim.

A Raleighite.
The Journal this refers to one of our citizens now on a visit to Wilmington: We were pleased to receive a call last evening from Dr. Augustus Doerp, Manager, who visits our city for the purpose of making arrangements for a grand vocal and instrumental concert, of a high classical nature, to be given in the Opera House in this city next Wednesday evening.

The Wilmingtonians will have a rich treat in the superb performance of Prof. Myrhoff.

Burglary.
On Thursday night about 1 o'clock, two thieves entered the house of D. C. Murray, Esq., on Harrington Street, Western Ward, by using forceps to turn the key in the back door. They entered Mr. Murray's bed chamber, and using a lamp, began to ransack generally. A little daughter of Mr. M.'s heard them and told her papa. The thieves took the alarm, carrying with them Mr. Murray's gold watch, breast pin and clothes. Mr. M. dressed himself quickly, and pursued them, firing at them three shots, but without damage. He gave the alarm to the police, who then began a diligent search of the town. Both were finally captured, and on yesterday were tried before the Mayor, and were committed to the county jail. Mr. M. recovered his clothing and breast pin, but has not yet recovered his watch.

PROPERTY IN THE CITY.

We call attention to the fact that property, known as the N. C. Agricultural Machine Shop, offered for sale by Messrs. Debarck, Hicks & Co. has advertisement.

Book & Ladder.
At the annual meeting of Raleigh Book and Ladder Company No. 1, held last evening, the following officers were appointed for the ensuing year:

Lambert Furman,

J. D. Hart, Treasurer.

Several new members were admitted, and the Company are united and ready to meet all that may be required of them.

Harper's New Monthly.
The January number of this oldest of American Monthlies is unusually rich. There has rarely been a better number, and it still holds the front place among the illustrated magazines of the world. There are four illustrated papers of real interest. Mrs. Craik (Miss Mallock) begins a new novel. The interesting "Recollections of an Old Stage" are continued with unabated spirit. Edwin De Leon, a well known New Orleans writer, gives his first instalment of "The New South." There are many other articles worth reading. The editor's part is well done as usual, and with such variety as to meet every demand. Price $4. This monthly contains a great deal more matter than any of its rivals.

On Tuesday night a shell from the besieging batteries set fire to the insurgents iron clad Letain in the harbor of Cartagena. After burning for three hours the fire reached the magazine which exploded with tremendous force, damaging the vessel seriously.

FROM WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.
No official information has been received from Madrid respecting indemnity to be demanded by the Spanish Government in the case of the Virginia, nor is it probable that any such claim will be presented, the adjustment of the questions involved having been arranged by the protocol of the representatives of the two countries. If at any future time a bill of damages should be presented, payment would, there is good ground for stating, be refused on the principle established by the Geneva tribunal, in the disallowance of indirect or consequential damages, therefore it can certainly be stated, Spain will not receive any money whatever growing out of the transactions in connection with the Virginia, even if that vessel had reached its destination and been sold by the United States for violation of law. The preparation of the Virginia correspondence will be completed to-morrow and may be sent to Congress on Monday next.—It is represented to be voluminous. Speaking today of the intelligence from Havana that the Tornado had left the Port, and it was generally stated that she had received orders to pursue the Edgar Stewart, and if she proved to be of the same character as the Virginia, not to harbor, but to sink her.

FROM OHIO.

The striking engineers here still hold out. Notwithstanding that the strike is breaking at other points, the real trouble here now is that the engineers know that certain ring leaders will not be taken back in the employment of the Company, and so they must stick together hoping to enforce a complete ejection of their leaders. The head committee have given notice that if their demands are not granted by the 10th inst., they will strike again.

FROM PENNSYLVANIA.
PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 2.
Though no strike has occurred here by the Pennsylvania Railroad employees as yet, the transportation of freight is greatly impeded by the blockade of the road in the Western States, owing to the strike. Passenger trains are leaving regularly, as are also usual freight trains for Pittsburg and intermediate points.
