THE BEGINNINGS OF DISEASE.—It is as true that "great oaks from little acorns grow," that frightful diseases are often engendered by seemingly trifling ailments. Casual fits of indigestion superinduce chronic dyspepsia, occasional billious attacks culminate in fixed diseases of the liver, intermittent twinges in the legs and arms degenerate into the confirmed agony of acute rheumatism. Not that such disastrous consequences are inevitable. Far from it. They are attributed to neglect. A few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will always cure casual indigestion or an ordinary billious affection, or arrest the premonitory symptoms of rheumatism. It is true that when dyspepsia, or nervous debility, or sick headache has becomes a permanent evil, and has even baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all the ordinary remedies, it may still be eradicated by the Bitters; but less easily, as Macbeth suggests, to extract the serpent's egg than the grown serpent.

HOME AFFAIRS

COTTON.—This great staple brought 14 1-4 cents yesterday for the best.

FOR LIVERPOOL.—We call attention to the advertisement of Oaksmith & Co., owners of the Midland Line of packets between Liverpool and Morehead City.

THE GRAND CONCERT.—The Musical Festival to be given at Tucker Hall on Friday evening next, under the direction of Von Meyerhoff and Prof. Geo. Grotz assisted by Miss Ada Slater and the Raleigh Sextette Club.

LECTURE.—Colonel Wheeler will deliver his lecture in this city at the Commons Hall, on Thursday evening, on the "Early Governors of North Carolina and the vindication of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence of the 20th of May." Admission 25 cents.

ONCE MORE.—We again remind all delinquent subscribers that we expect those to pay up at once. We cannot print a paper without the cash. Thousands of dollars are owing us by subscribers who are abundantly able to pay and we need the money. Pay what you owe us.

AN EDITOR MARRIED.—Daniel Bond, Esq., editor of the Enfield Times, was married on the 7th inst., at Brownsville, Tenn., by Rev. William Bond, to Miss Maggie Bond. Another evidence of the desperate things newspaper men will do in times like these. We wish our brother pencil-driver happiness and prosperity.

SOMETHING RICH.—We expect to be furnished with a communication relative to a recent "shin-dig" at widow Franklin's old place—a vacant house. Certain officials from Raleigh were on hand, and the revelation promises to be rich. The revelation, we are assured, will prove creditable to Rhamkat, but disgraceful to the metropolis.

"ENGLISH EMIGRATION."—We will publish to-morrow a pungent letter from an English lady who has suffered from the misrepresentations of agents. It is the production evidently of a cultivated person, who has become soured towards our State by disappointments and possibly deceptions.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOL.—Our readers are directed to the announcement of the next session of this famous school,—one of the leading institutions in the South. For thirty years Rev. Dr. Smedes has been conferring great service upon the State in the excellent educational facilities he has furnished. Hundreds of ladies who now adorn the households of our land, received their mental and moral training at St. Mary's, and in each of them it has a firm and devoted adherent.

SENTENCED TO BE HANGED.—On yesterday Judge Watts, in a touching and impressive manner, sentenced Allen McPherson and Henry Williams to be hanged between the hours of 12 o'clock M., and 1 o'clock, P. M., on Friday the 13th February next. They had been tried and convicted of breaking in and robbing the house of Mr. Carson Murray, of this place, a week or two ago. One of the persons sentenced has already spent a term in our penitentiary.

NORTH CAROLINA SCHOLARSHIP.—J. D. Hodges, of Davie county, was graduated at Trinity College last June, with first honor. Some time since he went to Yale College for the purpose of entering the senior class, and obtaining A. B. at their next commencement. Upon examination the faculty decided that he was fully up to their requirement for A. B. and that he need not remain there. Hence he paid his fees, &c., returned home, and will receive his degree in June.

SENATORIAL CORRECTION.—A mistake was made yesterday in our published list of Senators who answered to their names. The absent ones were substituted for those present. We give the names of those who answered at roll call:

Messrs. Allen, Avera, Cramer, Cunningham, Dunham, Ellis of Columbus, Fleming, Harris, Humphrey, King, Mabson, McAbee, McCauley, Merrimon, Morehead of Guilford, Morehead of Rockingham, Murray, Nicholson, Powell, Price, Seymour, Stafford, Waring, Welch and Worth.

Mr. Norwood afterwards answered to his name. We regret that our types should have been guilty of doing injustice to gentlemen who were so prompt, by sending out their names to their constituents as among the absentees.

A Distressing Cough causes the friends of the sufferer almost as much pain as the sufferer himself, and should receive immediate attention. Dr. Wister's Balsam of Wild Cherry speedily cures coughs, colds, influenza, sore throats, &c. It will always relieve Consumption, and in many well-attested cases it has effected a perfect cure.

JUDGE WATTS' CHARGE IN SENTENCING ALLEN McPHERSON AND HENRY WILLIAMS TO BE HANGED.—Allen McPherson, Henry Williams: You have been indicted, tried and convicted of a capital felony. A jury of your own selecting say by their verdict, that about half past twelve o'clock, on the morning of the 3d January, the present month, you burglariously entered the mansion house of Decatur C. Murray, a citizen of this county, and took

On the trial you were ably defended by counsel of your own selection, and every provision of our constitution, every possible presumption, both of law and facts, that could be taken was used in your behalf. The court, fully conscious of the vast responsibility resting upon it, and ever tender and timid in regard to human life (that which we cannot give), placed your case in as favorable a light before the jury as the law of the case would allow, and the jury, holding evenly ballanced the golden scales of justice under the solemn sanction of their oaths, say that you are guilty of Burglary, beyond a reasonable doubt.

It is my painful duty to inform you that the effect of that verdict will deprive you of life, and consign you to felons' graves.

The ways of Providence are mysterious and past finding out. A little girl, pure and innocent, of very tender years, is aroused from sleep, at your soft, stealthy tread in that chamber. Her vision is immediately told to her parents, who sleep in the same apartment. Her earnest prattling story impressed them to such an extent as to cause a search which led to your detection. Why the natural law should seem in this instance to be reversed; why this child should be aroused, and the parents remain in unconscious sleep is a mystery that will remain forever unexplained by natural reason.

The way of the transgressor is hard, it is not the way of pleasantness, nor are her paths the paths of peace. An Allwise Providence will surely unearth in some mysterious way the perpetrators of crime and as surely as you chose a life of crime, you will reap its fruits. You have chosen and you will now gather your reward. You will have but a short time left you to prepare to meet your God. I beseech you to improve the opportunity "while it is called to-day." For soon the places that know you now, will know you no more forever. The green sward will soon cover your graves, the tall bending grass will be the only weepers o'er your last lonely resting place, and your names will be effaced from the memory of man.

Now in the name of the people of the State—in vindication of the majesty of the law, violated and disregarded by Allen McPherson and Henry Williams, it is the judgment of the court, that they be taken to the common jail of the county and there kept in close confinement until Friday, the 13th day of February next, and on that day between the hours of 12 o'clock m. and 1 o'clock p. m., they be taken thence by the sheriff to the jail enclosure, and within the said enclosure, he will hang them by the neck until they are dead.

May God have mercy upon them.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's father, near Apex, N. C., on the 19th of November, by the Rev. J. C. Wilson, Mr. J. M. Dennis to Miss Ida B. Royster, all of Wake county, N. C.

DIED

On the 12th inst., James Cunningham, infant son of Stella J. and James M. Towles, Jr., aged three weeks. "It is well with the child." It is well with the mother.

SENATE.—The House bill filling the vacancy on the Smithsonian Board of Regents passed. The Senate appointed Sargent, of California, a member of the Board. Speeches on finance followed when the death of James Brooks announced. After eulogies the Senate adjourned without Executive session.

HOUSE.—Two thousand seamen petition for the repeal of the shipping act.

The educational bill was postponed to March. Dawes hoped by then the receipts of the Government from increased trade would justify the expenditures required by the provisions of the bill. A motion tabling the bill was by 109 to 135.

Naval appropriations were resumed.

The salary bill, as passed by the Senate, passed the House by a vote of 226 to 26. It now goes to the President.

Adjourned.

The caucus of Republican Senators was called this morning especially to exchange views relative to the nomination of Caleb Cushing, when it was discovered that the opposition to it was much greater than was supposed even by those who had made up their minds to vote in the negative on the question of confirmation.

The meeting of the Senate at noon interrupted further proceedings of the caucus, but after an early adjournment the session of the caucus was resumed, when Senators Edmunds, Conkling and Boutwell advocated the confirmation of Caleb Cushing. These were his pincipal advocates, but those who spoke on the other side were far more numerous, and before the discussion ended, it was discussed that the nominee's friends were in the minority. As the best indication of the views of the Senators, it can be positively stated, that the members of the committee on the judiciary was requested to wait upon the President in reference to the nomination. Although they were not favorably instructed, it was the general understanding that they should represent to him the feeling and views of the Republican Senators upon the subject as adverse to the nomination. The opinion therefore prevails among them that the President, on hearing the statement, will withdraw the nomination. The objections urged to Caleb Cushing did not effect his legal qualifications for the position, but were based principally on his political principles heretofore declared in his official acts which were considered as not being in accord with those entertained by the Republican party.

PROBABILITIES.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.

For the South Atlantic States cloudy weather with areas of rain and with but slight changes of pressure and temperature.

FROM NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Jan. 13.

Yesterday the Park Commissioners having control of Tompkin's Square without there this morning, and requested the police commissioners to prevent the proposed meeting being held. A large number of the unemployed mainly congregated in squads. A few hundred each gathered in a square apparently waiting the arrival of their leaders that the meeting might be organized. Police Commissioner Dorn was in the locality and sent to the 17th precinct station whence soon issued 22 policemen under command of Captain Walsh and Sergeant Berthald. They marched quickly to Tompkin's Square and divided into two parties. The Captain commanding one body and the Sergeant the other. Sergeant Berthald moved on an ugly looking crowd having banners upon which was inscribed "10th Ward Association." He advised them to retire in peace and not give occasion for disturbance. He was answered by a tall fellow of a military aspect who appeared to be the leader, calling upon the men of the association to stand firm, and they did.

A fight ensued, and vigorous clubbing begun, out of which the officers came victorious, bearing with them a number of prisoners.

A man in the crowd had a communist flag, but he did not get time to unfurl it. Mayor Havemeyer was at police headquarters up to noon, when he came down to his office and said he would not address the workingmen. First avenue continued crowded up to one, and workingmen from time to time, paraded two deep along the sidewalk, but did not venture into the square. The adjoining streets and avenues were crowded with people who feared to venture into the first avenue.
