WAR" POUGHT OVER AGAIN.

In the United States House of Reprosentatives, on Saturday, Mr. Vance, of North Carolina spoke against the civil rights bill, claiming that its title should be changed to "A bill to protect colored men in their social rights," and asserting that there was no demial of civil rights in the Southern States. The provision of in the Southern States. The provision of schools be held to be a civil right, but the right of colored children to go into the white schools wars social right, and the attempt to enforce it could but produce a disastrous effect upon both the white and

A spirited colloquy sprung up at the close of his remarks, brought on by a tewould not stand as a beggar before Congress for these rights, but would rather

Mr. Vance said he had expected such a question. Everywhere the horrid skeles ton of the war was brought up. It was right for Congress to remove these disa-

Mr. Fort said he could not conceive of any circumstances under which he could be induced to raise his hands against his Mr. Vance then said there never was more sublime sight than when, after the surrender at Appointton, the Southern people went home with the greatest good will to the old flag of their fathers. Loyalty, he said did not consist in devotion to a party, but devotion to the constitu tion, and in this seems the men of the South went home loyal. What followed ! Laws were made to strike down the South, and his people met denunciation on all sides. He contrasted this with a revolt in Russia, where, after it was put denunciation by every stump speaker, but a law went forth forbidding the mention of it. The war has passed, and several years had elapsed. If it was necessary for men to wake up the skelele: them do it. The South had been willing to join hands, and when Mr. Greeley had proposed to shake hands across the bloody charm, they had, after seeing that he held the knife in his, rushed to the very edge of the cham to grasp it.

Mr. Fort said he desired to ask one more question.

Mr. Vance, who had yielded the remainder of his time to Mr. Whitehead, of Virginia, said he saw no good to come fighting the war over again, and would not take the time for it which he had yielded to his friend from Virginia.

Mr. Fort appealed to Mr. Whitehead to yield a few minutes to say that he had not brought this mitter sbout. It had been brought up by the question of Mr. Rainey. He was not ashamed of what he had done, but the same circumetances could not possibly occur syam, therefore the discussion was truit Mr. Whitehead claimed the floor, any

DRATT'S ASTRAL OIL.

Absolutely safe. Perfectly odorless. Always uniform. Illuminating qualities superior to gas. Burns in any lamp without danger of exploding or taking fire. Mannfactured as pressiy to displace the use of volatile and dangerous olls. Its safety under every possible test and its perfect burning qualities, are proved by its continued use in over 300,000 families.

Millions of gallons have been sold and no accident directly or indirectly—has ever occurred from burning, storing or handling it.

The immense yearly loss to life and property, resulting from the use of chesp and dangerous oits in the United States, is appelling.

The Insurance Companies and Fire Commissioners throughout the country recommend the ASTRAL as the best safeguard when lamps are used. Send for circular.

OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!! For Restoring to Gra Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALL differs utterly from all the fiair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limbid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, im-pare no stain to the skin. Hold to the light and it is clear and lou less. It leaves no mark on the scale; yet it reproduces in gray half the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it. Phalon's Vitalia is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute cer-tainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressip, nor for removing scurf or handruff; nor for cu-ring baliness; nor for stimula-ting the growth of the hair.— These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Cemical Hair Invigo
