For the Sentinel. OASLOW COUNTY, NEW RIVER, January 28th, 1874.

Editor of the Sentinel: DEAR SIR:—Are you aware of the fact that Col. Humphrey was with McAden, Major Smith, Col. Buford, Gen'l Sibley, and the President of the Southern Security Company when they met last summer in New York at Mr. Wilson's office? The legend is that he was the author of the bill, but he could not be without getting his facts from the persons named.

Mr. Duncanson in convention once showed Col. Humphrey and gave him a lecture that he will remember. Any gentleman in Newbern where it occurred can tell you all about it.

Owen Higgins will be surprised that the Colonel should prefer a good name to a bad, and he will never believe it. Owen used to tell his story; he was young and had great confidence in Col. Humphrey, his father died and before he could administer on his estate, Col. Humphrey advised that he must have his disabilities removed under the $20,000 clause, and as he was going to Raleigh he would have it done. He drew the petition representing that he was worth $20,000. Col. Humphrey and Gov. Holden soon had him petitioned and for it Col. Humphrey charged, and he paid him $500. It turned out that Owen Higgins was not worth $15,000. It would have done you good to have heard Col. McRae on the Colonel; and it would do you good now to hear Higgins on Humphrey, and paying him $500 to get his disabilities removed that he might qualify as administrator on his father's estate. Owen Higgins will never believe that Col. Humphrey prefers a good name to riches; he was young and had great confidence in Col. Humphrey, he has been converted to that way of thinking since he left O. S. W.

REPORTS. Mr. Moring, from the committee on engrossed bills.

Mr. Marler, from the committee on enrolled bills.

The bill in favor of the contractors on the Marion and Asheville Turnpike was considered and postponed until day after to-morrow at 11 1/2 o'clock.

Mr. Bennett introduced a resolution in favor of Josiah Turner, Jr.

The revenue bill was next taken up and considered by sections.

AMENDMENTS. Mr. Gidney, to strike out five in line 5, and insert "seven". Adopted.

By the same, to strike out twenty in line 1, class 1, and insert "sixteen and two-thirds". Adopted.

By the same, in section 3, class 1, strike out six and insert "eight". Rejected.

Mr. Jones, of Caldwell, to exempt any concert, musical or entertainment or lecture given for religious or charitable purposes. Adopted.

Mr. Rhodes, an amendment requiring retail dealers to pay only 2 1/2 per cent on purchases made from wholesale dealers doing business in this State. Rejected.

Mr. McNeill, in line 9, section 10, to strike out quasi and insert "gation". Rejected.

Dudley, to strike out 25 and insert 50. Rejected.

HOME AFFAIRS.

PERSONAL.—We have had a pleasant visit from Col. J. B. Martin, of Norfolk, who visits Raleigh on business connected with his insurance company.

JOB OFFICE.—Our Job Office is complete, no necessity for sending to New York for your job work, for we have one of the best presses in the State, and each of the best workmen in the city.

DEATH OF DR. LIVINGSTON.—The death of Dr. Livingston is said to have occurred after he had been wading four days through water, he having been travelling over a partially submerged country.—Exchange.

Wonder if Judge Caldwell will claim the right to appoint a general traveller in Africa to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Livingston?

REV. C. H. WILEY.—This gentleman has been requested to continue to Superintend his present field of Middle and East Tennessee till the end of the Bible year, March 31st, and will not move to N. C. before the middle of March, and is not to begin work here till after April 1st. Papers of the State will please copy.

DISCONTINUED.—The Post office at Troy's store, Randolph County, has been discontinued. What's the matter, have the neighbors quit voting the radical ticket, or is it intended to open a new one at Jolo Ashtown's mill in Johnson county there was a flourishing school three years ago, and the post office was closed, and why we could not learn.

LEGISLATIVE SUMMARY.—Senate.—The Senate passed a resolution to adjourn on 16th inst. The most of the morning hour was consumed in a debate upon the question of enlarging the Insane Asylum.

Many speeches were made, but no result was reached. The Senate passed a resolution to hold night sessions, save Saturday nights.

PATRONS OF HUMANITY.—The State Grange of North Carolina will hold its first annual meeting in Raleigh, beginning the 18th of February. The various lines of railroad in the State will pass delegates for half rates or one full fare.

G. W. LAWRENCE, Sec'y. Fayetteville, N. C., Jan. 24, 1874.

HURRYBATH.—The weather is simply awful. Our streets and trees are covered with sleet.

We learn that Col. Brown, of the Boyden House at Salisbury, is to take charge of the National Hotel at Raleigh.

We regret to learn that Senator Troy, of Fayetteville, was detained from his seat in the Senate yesterday, because of injuries his horse sustained on Saturday night when it came near being consumed.

IN JAIL.—We regret to learn that C. C. Haggie, of Granville, has been arrested in Mecklenburg county, Virginia, and committed to jail charged with the very serious crime of infanticide. It is reported that he obtained poison to destroy a child that a young woman had given birth to, and that the child died. We hope he will be able to establish his innocence, as he is respectably connected and has hitherto borne a good character. He is a young man of promising appearance.

POSTAL CARDS.—Subscribers writing on postal cards should invariably write the name of their post-office, for the office stamps used to impress the name of the office, don't make an impression on postal cards to the value of one cent in mutilated or cancelled postal currency of the United States. Without the name of the post-office, in case cases out of ten, the postal card is a perplexity to the receiver and a loss to the sender. Veritas sup.

MEETING IN NEW YORK.—Col. Humphrey offered, and the Senate passed, a bill to legalize the meeting of the North Carolina Railroad Company in New York. We think Sibley and Wilson might afford to come here rather than have two meetings to do them. Why does the author of the bill want his board to meet in New York?—Sentinel of Sunday.

There is an unintentional error in the above. It was Mr. Ellis's bill to legalize the meeting of the Carolina Central railway in New York that passed. Our error grew out of a misapprehension of the matter on the part of our informant.

MR. HARTLEY'S APPOINTMENTS.—Mr. J. W. Hartley, the eloquentist, will give some of his delightful readings at Warrenton, on the 13th of February, Oxford on 15th, Wake Forest College on 14th (by invitation,) at St. Mary's, Raleigh, on 16th, and before the Horner & Graves School, at Hillsboro', on 18th, by invitation. We would urge to give him a reading in the capital, but we fear he would not meet with such a reception as his fine gifts are entitled to. People of cultivated tastes cannot fail to appreciate and enjoy his admirable personations and declamations.

NOTICE FOR A NEW TOWNSHIP IN WAKE COUNTY. Application will be made to the board of commissioners of Wake County at their regular meeting in March for a new Township to be formed from the corners of Forestville, St. Matthews, Hones & Creek and Barton's Creek Townships.

MARY CRYSTON.

IMPEACHMENT.

Says the Charlotte Observer:—We fear that the Legislature will think that in this case "the game is not worth the candle," and that Judge Watts will not be brought to the bar of the Senate for trial. If the charge be true we believe it would pay, no matter what may be the cost, to purge the bench of this judge. Economy should not intervene to prevent the judiciary from being purified.

If the charge be true, every legislator who supports the Slippy committee, the drunkenness can be provided by a dozen witnesses in this city. Other charges can be made out, and clearly proved. There never was a Legislature assembled in North Carolina except the one of 1870 when money could intervene to prevent judicial purification. The people could stand a six-month session in 1870, at $2 a day passing railroad bills, calling for an expenditure of $10,000,000. Surely they can stand a prolonged session of three days to examine a half dozen witnesses to impeach a bribe-taking Judge. The Legislature has the time and the decency too.

For the Sentinel. Mr. Editor.—The impeachment of Judge Watts has been referred to a committee of lawyers. To impeach Judge Watts might expose a prominent lawyer or two. The evidence to impeach, for bribe-taking was already sworn to and before the committee. In the report of the Slippy committee, the committee of lawyers to whom the impeachment was referred, could learn that two lawyers in the Kennebec telegraphed that was a black mailing suit, and that the judge went to the office of one of the attorneys and granted the injunction without hearing an argument from the other side. Mr. Haywood's evidence is that Sheriff Lee, Askew, and Deweese were the black mailing party or plaintiffs. The sworn proof is that Sheriff Lee went to Franklin, to get the Judge to dissolve the injunction, and that he was paid $10,000. Mr. Askew's company plaintiff was paid $10,000, and Judge Watts $5,000. Mr. Haywood's evidence is that R. Y. Meaden paid the compromise money to him and he paid it out as Deweese his client ordered, and he refused to tell how he did pay, and to whom, but it is known that Judge Watts secured $5,000 of the bonds, and Deweese told Mr. Haywood to pay him, for Mr. H. says he paid as his client directed him. Besides that Sheriff Lee testified that Judge Watts sent him to Mr. Haywood for the $5,000 bonds. I say Mr. Editor, a grand jury that will not present, and the petit jury that would not convict must be corrupt.

Yours, JUSTICE.

LONDON, Feb. 2. Later dispatches show that there were fifty-six parliamentary elections last week, resulting in the return of 25 Liberals and 31 Conservatives. Additional returns show no gains for either party. It was Denis Oslow, conservative candidate, who was elected in Guilford Saturday. His opponent was Guilford Oslow, liberal, who represented the borough in the late Parliament. The return of the Right Hon. TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

FROM PHILADELPHIA. PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 1. A driving snow storm commenced this morning.

FROM CANADA. The Cubans in this city, have been notified by mail the particulars of the capture and execution of Col. Mantua, a Spanish commander. The colonel was with six hundred men, conveying a train which was attacked and captured. Mantua was also taken and his troops dispersed. He was marched to the headquarters of Gen. James, who at once ordered him to prepare for death, and was soon afterwards shot. Mantua was recognized as especially severe to Cuban prisoners. The news has also been received of the shooting of Spanish soldiers captured near Puerto Principe.

Yesterday at South Norwalk the "old Well Hotel," a summer resort, and Hopkins & Long's establishment, including carriage and sixteen horses and the News Office, with most of its contents, were burnt. Loss $75,000. The fire, which is believed to be the work of an incendiary, was first discovered in the livery stable.

FROM CONSTANTINOPLE. CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 2. A fire in this city last night destroyed over 100 houses, including the residence of the Grand Visier.

FROM VIRGINIA. RICHMOND, Feb. 2. A fire occurred this morning in the basement of the fine iron front building on Main street, occupied by the Southern Express Company, which at one time threatened the destruction of the coalstap block of buildings in the city. FROM LOUISVILLE. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 2. A deputy U. S. Marshal, W. J. arrived here last night with five of the prisoners arrested in Henry county. While bringing them down on the steamer, A. W. Smeot, an alleged leader in Kuklux depredations escaped. Wray found no difficulty in making the arrests, the prisoners offering no resistance.

FROM PANAMA. PANAMA, Jan. 22. The city of Panama and the Isthmus in general continues in a state of tranquility. The United States steamer Wyoming left Aspinwall on 14th inst., taking with her the filibustering steamer General Sherman for trial in the U. S. Courts. The Columbian authorities did not want to let her go out of their waters and think she ought to have been tried in the Columbian courts, and still held possession of the ship and papers found on board when she arrived. Capt. Cushing has been tried by the Government at Guatemala for this ridding Central America of her standing navy.

In the Senate Morton continued his speech upon Louisiana, and upon its conclusion, the Senate voted to lay the matter aside and took up the bankrupt bill, which was discussed to adjournment. The House bill, for the trial of Gen. Howard, passed.

Cooper's bill introduced in the Senate to-day for refunding certain internal revenue taxes, directs remission or repayment of all taxes assessed or collected on or from citizens in the insurrectionary States contrary to the provisions of the treasury department, circular No. 16, issued January 21st, 1865.
