

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Sentinel 1 year in advance $5.00

The Daily Sentinel

VOL. IX

RALEIGH, N. C., MONDAY, APRIL 6, 1874.

NO. 208.

ADVERTISING RATES. Advertisements will be inserted in the Daily Sentinel at the following rates...

Brevities.

The Harper says: They propose to call the new quarantine ground in New York harbor Dix Island.

The Mill's House. Hotel, Charleston, S. C., which cost over $300,000 in gold, was sold at auction Thursday for $27,000.

The New York Commercial remarks: "It may do very well to use the old cry of 'rebel, rebel,' against the protesting taxpayers of South Carolina, but it does not disprove their charges.

Lent being over, balls and squalls are coming in vogue again.

Petersburg ain't much on base ball! Two games Friday—Reckless 20, Reinder 23—Anolepe 45, Enterprise 106.

A Circus in Lynchburg on the 29th inst. The last number of the Harper's Weekly contains two very interesting sketches of the scenery around Bald mountain, where the earthquake is situated.

Mr. Stephen Raspberry, aged 68 years, a resident of Greene county, died after a short illness from an attack of heart disease on Thursday, the 26th ult.

The Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina will hold a second session in Raleigh on the 9th of April.

Col. Joseph Mayo, State Treasurer, of Va., has been pronounced insane and ordered to an Asylum.

The St. Louis Dispatch is responsible for the following: "Shall we have a volcano take as exchange. Certainly not, if the women crusaders succeeded in extinguishing the 'crater.'"

The Virginia Legislature has refused to tax either dogs or hatchlers, and the clever Petersburg News man wants to know if that was intended to put them all on the same footing.

Friday was the Anniversary of the evacuation of Richmond, Va.

That noble band, the Hook and Ladder Company of this city, Bro. Lamson, worthy foreman propose having a target shooting in about two weeks—the day to be announced—when a good time may be anticipated.

Judge Dick's Federal Court met in Greensboro to-day.

Tom Reane's independent didn't have a speck that week, as he intimates, and she's out fresh and lively as ever.

Baptismal Immersion to-night at the Baptist Church, of a good number of converts.

The Georgia convicts (630) were farmed out a few days ago, to the highest bidders. Fifty were taken to work in iron works at $25 a head for one year; 100 for coal mines at $11 a head—50 for labor on a railroad for 3 months, at $11 a head and 200 for the same work at $11 per year.

The Odd Fellows of this city desirous of celebrating their anniversary on the 27th inst., will assemble in a mass meeting to-night at their Lodge room to take the matter into consideration, when, it is needless to say, a full attendance will be on hand.

Rev. J. B. Bobbitt, Editor of the Orange County Advertiser, has been invited to deliver the sermon before the Graduating Class of Davidson College, at Lenoir, Caldwell county, at the approaching commencement in May.

Some young men put up a job (the burger trick) upon a room mate, the other night. They were disguised as Uncle Sam's blue boys, and secured themselves in the room to scare him. The victim was apprised of the trick, and gave one of them a most awful whalloping.

In the arctic regions, when the thermometer is below zero, persons can converse, it is said, more than a mile distant. Dr. Jamieson states that he heard every word of a sermon at a distance of two miles.

License or no license, liquor or no liquor, that's the cry now for the May election. Father McNamara sells 12 lots near the Old Rock Quarry, on to-morrow at 10 A. M.

Mr. Haynes has discovered a very rich mine on his land near Salisbury.

Wm. Garl Brown, Esq., the artist, departed on a business visit to Charlotte last night, and will be absent from the city for several weeks.

John G. Yancey, Esq. of Warren, a well known leading and influential citizen died at his residence near Mansos depot, on Friday last.

Local Affairs. CITY RESERVATION.—Registration of voters is as follows to-day: Middle Ward, 7 2. Eastern Ward, 12 13. Western Ward, 8 8. Total 45 23.

Judge Watts adjourned Court to-day and everybody took holiday.

Judge Watts opened Wake Superior Court this morning. Many people from the county are in attendance.

Services appropriate to the occasion were conducted in the Episcopal and Catholic Churches to-day.

Bishop Atkinson was to officiate in Tarboro to-day, being on his eastern visitations.

Old North State Minstrelsy. Remember this troupe performs at Tucker Hall to-morrow (Tuesday) night and go and see them. Admission fifty and twenty-five cents. Give them a good house and encourage splendid native talent. We are confident you will be pleased with the evening's entertainment.

EASTER OFFERING.—The Church of the "Good Shepherd" in this city on yesterday was the recipient of the handsome sum of four thousand and fifty dollars, as an Easter Offering, towards the purchase of property on which to erect a new Episcopal church.

Excursioning It.—The Principals of our different female institutes, were giving their pupils an excursion around the different portions and suburbs of the city to-day in Wyanne's line of omnibuses, and the young ladies seemed to be enjoying their ride pleasantly.

Parsonal.—The local was glad to meet with old friend, John Spelman, Esq., this morning in the city. Mr. S. is just from Washington City, and comes to assume his new position—clerk of the Post Office Building, erection—upon which work is soon to commence. He is hale and hearty, and is the same genial gentleman as of old.

Respect.—The Masonic and Odd Fellow fraternities were in attendance at the funeral of the late John D. Primrose this afternoon, together with the Rescue fire Company, of each of which he was an active and zealous member—paying their last sad respect to his memory.

New Millinery.—See the advertisement of Mrs. Pink Hardie's new millinery establishment in our advertising columns to-day. All of her goods have just been purchased in the Northern cities, and her little store is a perfect gem of beauty and neatness. We bespeak for her a liberal share of city and country trade.

EASTER MONDAY.—To-day has been very generally observed as a holiday by a good portion of our community. We saw a thousand motes, and many boys and negroes, going fishing with their fishing poles and little gourds of bait, at an early hour this morning; while the out going excursionists' places were filled up by people from the country. Business generally was transacted as usual.

THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY.—Our Churches were generally attended by good audiences on yesterday. It being Easter Sunday, the Episcopal Churches—Christ Church and the Good Shepherd, were most handsomely and beautifully decorated by artistic hands and the services in each were of the most impressive and interesting character. The Rev. Mr. Townsend, of Albany, N. Y., officiated at Christ Church, and delivered a fine and instructive sermon. The evening services at the different churches were almost as well attended as in the day and the city manifested that ours is a Church loving people.

It affords us much pleasure to invite attention to the advertisement of B. G. Flanagan & Son, Charlottesville, Va. These gentlemen are manufacturers of the best quality of fertilizers, which has been the test of all analysis and ranks now among the very best. No words of commendation from us are necessary.

We advise those who have not yet tested the merits of this remarkable fertilizer to give it a trial at once, and thus encourage a southern manufacturer. The name of B. G. Flanagan & Son alone is sufficient guarantee of its excellence.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

PERSONAL.—We are pleased to see in the city Hon. John Manning, of Chatham and Col. J. J. Davis, of Franklin, both in attendance on Wake Superior Court this week.

District is requested to present a copy of these resolutions and the proceedings of this meeting to the Superior Court for Caswell county, and ask that the same be spread upon the records of said Court, and that the Clerk thereof, be directed to furnish a copy of the same under the seal of said Court.

DEATH OF JOHN D. PRIMROSE, Esq.—It is with much regret that we announce the death of our countryman, John D. Primrose, Esq., who passed away at his residence in this city, on Friday last, the 29th inst. He was born in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on the 10th of January, 1812. He was a member of the Wake Superior Court, and held the office of Sheriff of that county for several years. He was a man of high standing in the community, and was highly respected by all who knew him. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and was a zealous supporter of its cause. He was a man of great energy and ability, and was a most successful lawyer. He was a member of the State Bar, and was a member of the Supreme Court of the State. He was a man of great wealth, and was a member of the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina. He was a man of great influence, and was a member of the Executive Council of the State. He was a man of great honor, and was a member of the Senate of the State. He was a man of great wisdom, and was a member of the House of Representatives of the State. He was a man of great courage, and was a member of the Confederate Army. He was a man of great loyalty, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great faith, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great hope, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great charity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great love, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great kindness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great gentleness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great meekness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great mildness, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great forbearance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great long-suffering, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great patience, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great perseverance, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great industry, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great diligence, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great assiduity, and was a member of the Confederate States of America. He was a man of great application, and was a member of the Confederate States of America.

District is requested to present a copy of