MATCH GAME OF BASE BALL BETWEEN school and the calets of the Horner school, played a match game of ball on Saturday last, in which the latter club were victors - the score resulting 20 to 22. A correspondent of the Bingham school club,"The boys in Gray," writes us apologiging for the defeat of his club, namely that they had never played in public before, and again they were temporarily overwhelmed with the fair spectators of old Hillsboro, so much so that they did not "rally" till the sixth insing. He also complains that outsiders helped the Horner cadet club, and insists that they can beat the cadets alone &c. We haven't space for the correspondence to-day.

ANXIVERSARY OF THE HOOK AND DER COMPANY. - This splendid Company, on account of the inclemency of the weather, postponed their celebration on Monday until yerterday afternoon, it being the occasion of their seventh anniversary. It is reported that Mayor Whitaker has The Company fermed at their truck re and headed by the Citizens Cornet Band marched to the front of Metropolitan Hall where they were joined by the Chief and Assistant Engineers, Mayor Whit aker and their honorary members. They then took up the march to the Mordecai Grove, where the target shooting took place, Mr Hilliard Bell made the best shot, winning a beautiful silver gobiet, Mr. T. L. Tim "fetched out" Uncle Handy Lockhart, now (amid great noise) stately as a statue. Handy said he had been a laborer in the Radical vineyard 7 years. He was not perfect, but desired to be more useful. He was determined, if no other colored man would ask for the position, he would, rations had all been going, and he had got no thing, but a few empty honors. He asked for a little bread now, and was not ashamed to do so for he had lived in this city 56 years, and none could say ought of him, and earnestly called upon the race to give him some bread. Handy having oncluded while the wildest excitemen and noise prevailed-s perfect roar-the negroes evidently thinking that the destiny of the country, depended upon this nomination. Language is inadequate to afford a description of the surging noisy mass, but Tim Lee and Gen.
