PIRE & THE EASTERN WARR. There was a slight fire of a kitchen, Mr. Morris's, in the Eastern Ward last night, It ocquired about one p'clock, but the fismes ere subdued without much damage by neighbors who repaired quickly to the scene. It was fortunate the roof was thoroughly souked by rain and in consequence the fire made slow headway.

> CALDWELL CHARLOTTE, N. C. April 18, "74.

To His Kzcelleney, Tod R. Caldwell:

There is another reason for my not There is another reason for my not taking offense as your Excellency's refusal to affiliate with me, to wit, The impossibility of knowing whether you are sincere or not in your refusal. Sometimes your Excellency says things that you do not mean. For example: At Valley Mountain, in deptember, 1861, you fired the heart of the Burke There by exherting them to fight to the bitter and, to hard tack the rathless invader, and slay the last Takes as though he were a black stake, and you were though he were a black stake, and you were they should be held up to the score and contempt which they deserved. The poor men, who had been pursuaded by your Excellency to volunteer, believed The poor men, who had been pursuaded by your Excellency to volunteer, believed your words, and too many of them med doath as you exherted them to do. Alasthow they were deceived. Ten years later your Excellency, when reminded of your words by Captain J. C. Mills, of Burke counts, actually confessed that your object was in "get the secessionists killed off."

Another instance. In 1870 con. Another instance: In 1870 for promised Cov. B. S. Gaither and others to do all you could to obtain the removal of their disabilities. You wrote a letter strongly urging their pardon. Then you dispatche a secret letter (alternards accidentally published) denouncing these gentlemen yeur next door neighbors, as arrant rebels who must not be pardone under an who must not be particular under an circumstances. They were not pardone until long after wards.

Buch facts show the futility of believing anything four Excellency may say or chaing offence at it. I am sure that whe the young gentlement of the Platonic & claty, whom your Excellency has treated to contemptuously, shall become a so contemptuously,
