Show.—There was a considerable snow west of Greensboro last Wednesday, with heavy frosts since, and the weather was as cold as in the month of January.

Mayor's Court.—Spencer Perry, a colored man, charged with stealing a considerable sum of greenbacks from W. C. Upchurch, Esq. He was committed to Doyle's session in the rear of Wake Court House in default of bail.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.—Gen. George K. Pickett, of Richmond, Va., Col. W. S. Manning and Gen. Bradley T. Johnson, are registered at the Yarrowborough Hotel, Capt. Samuel T. Williams, formerly City Editor of the News, also arrived in the city last evening.

Gen. Kirkland and Col. Whitehead are at the Yarrowborough.

ANOTHER MATCH GAME OF BASE BALL TO-MORROW.—There will be another Match Game of Base Ball to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Baptist Grove Grounds between the first ten of the Swift-foot club and the second ten of the new Pastime club.

Persons visiting the ground will find comfortable seats and witness what promises to be excellent sport. The following are the names of the contestants: Swift-foot Ten.—C. T. Askew, C. W. P. Taylor, P. Max, J. Gorman, S. S. J. W. Watson, R. S. S., Wm. Thomas, 1st B., J. H. Adam, 2nd B., D. T. Adams, 3rd B., H. L. Trentress, L. F., W. A. Farris, C. F., O. Smith, R. F.

Pastime Ten.—Walton Boster, C. J. T. Pullen, P. L. D. Heatt, S. S., R. H. Bradley, R. S. S., S. Haywood, 1st B., Chas. S. Farris, 2nd B., J. W. Payne, 3rd B., V. Royster, L. F., Wm. Watson, C. P., G. Tompkins, R. F.

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF CITY COMMISSIONERS.—The Board was again in session last night though it was understood that they had completed their labors the night previous.

The following were present, His Honor Mayor Whitaker, presiding; Commissioners, Battle, Gorman, Prairie, Clawson, White, Ellison, Jones and Ricks.

The object of the meeting was soon made apparent and the cat let out of the wallet, by a motion made to go into an election of a wood and coal inspector for the city. Genl. Gorman objected to so doing, as the matter was more properly a subject for the new incoming Board.

(The unopposed portion of the Board were in favor of the election, while those who have yet to make the race opposed it.) Genl. G. was overruled by a vote and the election was proceeded with. Two ballot boxes were taken with no result, when the General moved to postpone, but the motion did not prevail. Those voting in the affirmative were Messrs. Battle, Gorman, White and Ellison, while Messrs. Clawson, Prairie, Jones and Ricks voted in the negative. The Mayor gave the casting vote in the negative, when another ballot was taken, resulting in the election of James J. Lewis, defeating Thad. Basher, one of Carrow's old deputies, by one vote. The meeting then adjourned.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 30th, 1874.

MEMORIAL.—Considering that the municipal election is so near at hand, and the election of good officers of such vital importance, don't you think it high time, we had decided for whom to cast our votes for Mayor, and that it is highly important to be "urging" first one, and then another to "come out" Several days ago, Mr. R. W. Best was requested by many of his friends, and the friends of reform and good government, to announce himself as a candidate for the office. He did so, through the public prints. As he is the only one, who has done so, and many are pledged to support him, let all unite, and not scatter the strength of the "Spartan Band."

From a long and intimate acquaintance with Mr. Best, both before, and since his residence in this city, I can confidently assert that no man better qualified for the office can be found. He was never drunk in his life, and is not at all likely to become so. Let every friend of Temperance, economy and reform give him a vote next Monday.

A VOTER.

TO THE CITIZENS OF RALEIGH.—When first persuaded to become a candidate for the Mayorship of this city, I promptly declined, because I had serious doubts of the wisdom or propriety of becoming a candidate under existing circumstances, because I never had any fondness for public life, and doubted my fitness for the distinguished position; but as so many of my friends, of all parties, comprising both races, have expressed a preference for me, I have, after further consideration, and consultation, with the wise and prudent, concluded to acquiesce in the wishes of my friends, and if elected, will endeavor to discharge the duties of Mayor—unbiased by any party or combination, whatever, and with reference to future popularity, believing that there is a majority of the voters, who have a pride in the growth and prosperity of the city, who would sustain my administration.

Remember the Township meeting at the Court House to-morrow 12 m.

The Radicals have an exhorting meeting at Metropolitan to-night to whip in the disaffected. A prohibition meeting is also announced to take place at Hayes' colored Church.

Old tapers and drinkists should fill their flasks and jugs to-morrow—for at twelve o'clock Saturday night, all the saloons close according to the election law until Tuesday morning.

The Minor Liquor Law went into effect to-day. We saw one youth refused this morning and we felt for him, for he said he had been on a little tere and in consequence, was very dry. He was given a huge pickle and told to depart.

One hundred and twenty-five tickets have been sold to the Norfolk Masonic Lottery. The sale closes to-morrow.

We learn an elopement in colored high life, occurred last evening. Gas Jeffries and Peggy Smith being the parties. The father of the young man a few days ago broke up the game by putting the groom under arrest and taking him home. On yesterday the loving ones made the trip more successfully, and eluding the old man they repaired to a friend's house four miles distant in the country and were made one by Rev. Hayes, a city colored minister, after which they returned to the city in the foliest happiness.

REMEMBER to-morrow Saturday, at 12 o'clock, there will be meeting of the Democratic-Conservative party of Raleigh Township to appoint Delegates to the County Convention.

A full attendance is desired.

U. S. COURT.—This court convenes next Tuesday in Asheville. We fear this court is to have a fearful effect upon the interest of the farmers of Western North Carolina. Owing to incessant rains for many weeks past, the farmers are very much behind with work. The Court will require hundreds from all parts of Western North Carolina to abandon their farms for two weeks.

The damage will be immense. It would be well for Judge Dick to adjourn the Court until the fall term for these reasons.—Asheville Ex.

BALD MOUNTAIN.—The Asheville Expositor of the 30th ult., says: "This famous spot continues to be the object of lively interest. Since our reporter left the scene of excitement, last week, the roaring has not been quite so severe, but up to last Sabbath, the noise was heard at intervals for many days previous. Many of the people have left this region through fear of an apprehended eruption of some kind. Quite a number of Scientists are visiting the locality."

A correspondent Prof. C. D. Smith, writing the same paper:

"I gather from what you have published, Mr. Editor, that the trembling of the earth at Bald Mountain is altogether local, and confined to a very limited area. I believe the vibrations have not been felt so far as ten miles from the mountain. This would indicate that the cause was local and slight—certainly nothing like the swelling and surging of Volcanic lava seeking vent through the solid rocks of the Azoric age. The phenomena at Bald Mountain may, perhaps, be due to the escape of accumulated and confined gas, or the disintegration and breaking of the rocks of the mountain; and it may be that large slides will ultimately take place there."

State News.—

Rev. Dr. Deems delivers the address at the Greensboro Female College commencement in June.

SAD.—A sudden gloom overspread our city on Monday last when the announcement was made that the estimable wife of Prof. Hahr, of Greensboro Female College, was dead. She was well at breakfast—dead at noon. She leaves five children, all under fourteen years of age. The devoted and distressed husband has the sympathy of the entire city.—Patriot.

We clip the following extract from the St. Louis Democrat.

Another of our society belles has gone from us; yet, in the midst of regret at the event, the good wishes of a large circle of admiring acquaintances will follow her. The lady referred to was Miss Mary Appleton, daughter of our well known fellow citizen, Mr. Geo. D. Appleton, of Appleton, Noyes & Co. Mr. Staples, a gentleman from Greensboro, N. C., is the happy man. The marriage ceremony took place yesterday afternoon, at Mr. Appleton's residence, No. 1731 Washington avenue. A reception was held from 3 to 5 o'clock shortly after which the newly-wedded pair left for their future home in the old Pine Tree State.

Orange Presbytery, which assembled here last Wednesday, was attended by about forty Ministers and elders. Rev. Timothy Pritchard presided. The session closed Saturday night, Sunday being devoted to preaching in the different Churches which were largely attended.—Greensboro Patriot.

THIS AND THAT.

Gen. Frank P. Blair, Jr., has joined a Presbyterian church, 16 St. Louis.

Mr. Stanwood, of Portland, wants $30,000 of a man who called him a pump.

Hugo, Paris correspondent of the New York Graphic.

The Pope has received Easter gifts valued at $15,000 from serving masters in Great Britain.

Archbishop Bayley, at the latter part of this month, will make a business trip to the West.

James Miller fatally shot a young man named Molcaro at Bedford, N. Y., Sunday, in a quarrel about a young lady.

An anti-Burnside majority in the Rhode Island legislature is the result of the late elections.

Boston pays $142,000 per year for church music, when congregations stand ready to sing without charging a cent.

The Minnesota Stage company have had 144 days of sleighing this season. The prospect is good for more of the same sort.

Coldwater, Mich., is true to its name; at last, thanks to the lady crusaders, no liquor can be obtained there, and the people are virtuously unhappy.

The manufacturer of return hair-pins must be a goose. No woman ever owned that she had return hair, except when somebody told her that it was red.

Three inches of snow on the ground and the fruit trees in full blossom, is not often seen in Georgia, but this is what they saw down there last week.

An oyster punny was gapeped off Thomas' Point, My., by a sudden squall on Monday noon, and the captain, John Marth, a white man, and three colored hands—James Land, John Lock, and Wm. Reed—were drowned.

There are forty thousand persons in Texas who want the Legislature to prevent them as well as other folks, from getting a drink. They might be sent to an asylum.

The St. Louis Republican tells us that the strongest glass will sustain 2,000 pounds to the square inch. It also has been known to resist a man's legs so much that he couldn't walk.

A Colorado paper says that there were there will ride double the distance to see a man hang.

"G. A. Townsend," says a Washington correspondent, "having received some tempting offers for literary work, contemplates an early retirement from journalism."

"My aunty got bees in her mouth!" "No; why do you ask such a question?" "Cause that little man with a heap o' hair on his face caught hold of her and said he was going to take the honey from her lips."

Who says foreign missions do not pay! The total cost of civilizing and christianizing the Sandwich Islands thus far, has been about $2,000, and we now make nearly $700,000 a year profit out of commerce with them.

It's the same even when your mother-in-law is royal. Queen Victoria allows the Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh to board at her house while the Clarence House is being whitewashed; but she makes them pay up in advance every Saturday night.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

The town of Fair Play, Colorado, is in a bad condition, and cries for a car-load of marriageable girls to be sent there. The local paper says there is only one there now, and she has been reduced to a skeleton courting the army of good-looking bachelors. This is not fair play.

A Massachusetts farmer says: "My cattle will follow me until I leave the lot, and on the way up to the barn in the evening stop and call for a lock of hay."

Smithson says there is nothing at all remarkable about that. He went into a barn yard in the country one day last week, where he had not the slightest acquaintance with the cattle, and an old bull set only followed him until he left the lot, but took the gate on the hinges and raced with him to the house in the most familiar way possible. Smithson says he has no doubt that the old fellow would have called for something if he had waited a little while, but he didn't want to keep the folks waiting for dinner, so he hung one tail of his coat and a piece of his pants on the bull's horns and went in to the house.

Your Frenchman is never so generous with his money as your Englishman. Thrift—often approaching to what seems to be parsimony—is one of the characteristics of almost all Frenchmen. Victor Hugo was very fond of Henri Rochefort. He called him his "third son," he said that he adopted him; and now that both of Hugo's own sons are dead, it might be supposed that the adopted one would be still dearer. The other day when Rochefort escaped from New Caledonia, telegraphed to Paris for money, every one said: "Oh, Victor Hugo will send him all he wants," and it was announced, "in
