ADVERTISING RATES. Advertisements will be inserted in the Daily Sentinel at the following rates per square of one inch, or less, unless otherwise specified.

Local Affairs. Mayor's Court. - Fab Chavis and Jim Cook (both colored) were up before his Honor this morning for an altercation; both were fined, Chavis during the investigation became talkative, and remarked to Mayor Whitaker that he was mad because he had been up-lashed.

ALL A JOKE. Ramsay received yesterday a telegraphic dispatch from Hillsboro, signed James Cheek "Hillsboro Township, votes for Prohibition, majority 100. All right."

MEMORIAL DAY. - The 10th of May coming on Sunday, Monday next (the 11th) will be observed as Memorial Day. The exercises will take place at the Confederate Cemetery, at 5 o'clock, P. M. on that day.

The annual oration will be pronounced by Gen. W. R. Cor, and an interesting and eloquent address may be expected. After the usual exercises the decoration of the graves will take place.

It is expected that, as usual, the stores in the city will be closed pending the exercises at the Cemetery.

We observe that these annual commemorations throughout the South are being characterized by unusual impressiveness, the present year, and we trust that our people generally, will repair to the Cemetery on Monday next to show that their virtuous memories of our noble dead are still fondly cherished.

MEETING OF LIQUOR DEALERS. - A majority of the city retail liquor dealers were in session at the Carolina Hotel today for the purpose of taking steps to consider and lest if advisable the constitutionality of the Prohibition Law. A treasurer was elected and Busbee and Busbee, Merrimon Fuller and Ashe, Attorneys, were employed to take care of their interests each dealer agreeing to subscribe and bear his portion of the counsel's fees and other costs incurred by any action that may ensue. They propose to make a strong fight against the law.

ANOTHER MATCH GAME BASE BALL. - The Swiftfoot B. B. C. challenges the Pastime again. At a meeting of the Swiftfoot B. B. C., the Junior club held last night, it was decided to challenge the "2nd Ten" of the Pastime again, to play a match game of Base Ball on Saturday, 16th inst., at Baptist Grove, 3-1/2 P. M., for 3 balls.

It will be remembered that these clubs played a match game Saturday last (2nd inst.) resulting in a victory for the Pastime, with a score of 9 to 17. But as 1st of the best players of the Swiftfoot club was absent and another sick, they are not all satisfied with the result of last Saturday.

We learn that, the Swiftfoot, have sent on to N. Y. to Messrs. Peck & Snyder, for new caps, which will probably arrive here next week.

THE CITY ELECTION YESTERDAY. - The Radicals elect, Joe W. Holden, Mayor. The Conservatives elect four Commissioners. A gain of four. The Prohibition Question carried. The Temperance folks hilarious - they craze the doors of bar-rooms.

The city election passed off quietly on yesterday, but little quarrelling, no fighting and the peace of the city was marred by nothing disgraceful that has come to our ears. Joe W. Holden was elected Mayor, by a majority of 800 votes, over Peter F. Pezard, Jr., who was announced as the Conservative candidate only on Saturday morning. Joe received the vote of most of his party, together with a strong temperance vote of whites. At least four hundred white men it is declared were not registered, who could easily have elected Mr. Pezard, had they done so. Mr. Pezard and a few friends worked throughout the day manfully, and deserve great credit in reducing the majority fully one half, Mayor Whitaker, the present incumbent, having been elected by six hundred majority. In the Middle Ward, the white men did their duty, and the straight Conservative ticket won the battle most handsomely, sending Clawson of big-bait notoriety and his sabbie left bower, Virgil Hicks, (col.), to "pastures green," where he would hereafter they will have the good sense to remain, browsing at their ease. Clawson spotted the conservative ticket, with his same in every conceivable way, but white men who read their tickets always, at an instant saw the blackness of the trick, which for "says that are dark was some what peculiar," but it did not go down, and the most admired of all, on the last call only came out even with Hicks, so far in the rear that you could not hear him squeal. Running before a little radical, a little Conservative, "with the hare and with the hounds," he was elected, but his true colors being developed this time his flag trails in the dust - Good enough.

In the Western Ward the Radical ticket was elected. We are sorry that Thos. H. Briggs was not chosen. The whites in this ward were lukewarm - more perhaps on account of the immense majority against them and did not work as they should have done.

In the Eastern Ward the conservatives and I on by the election of D. W. Royster, Esq., defeating Chas. N. Hunter, (col.)

convictions as to what is most needed by the country, by the inflationists, evidence that the time for action has not yet come, that when it does come their pent up anger will find vent in abundance - not only against the President himself, but those Senators who, since the veto, have undertaken the burial of all inflation possibilities.

order, now's the time to get up clubs. He ought to offer a chronos.

The French government has sent Admiral Edouard to New Caledonia to investigate the circumstances connected with the escape of Rochefort and his companions.

Without doubt hundreds of people who will read this item are suffering with Kidney Disease in some form, which might be cured with a bottle or two of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment, used internally. Why not try it!

An Irishman called at a drug store to get a bottle of Johnson's Anodyne Liniment for the Rheumatism; the druggist asked him in what part of the body it troubled him most, "He soul," said he, "I have it in every hole and corner of me."

For loss of food, born all, red water in eyes, loss of appetite, or, murrain in sheep; thick wind, broken wind, and roaring, and for all obstructions of the kidneys in horses use Sheridan's Cerebral Condition Powder.

There has been no intercourse between these gentlemen and the Executive since the veto, nor is there likely to be until the question of difference assumes some other shape. Aside from any other political significance this recently developed discord may have it is pretty certain to spoil the third term idea, if any such idea ever existed, in the West. Even old Brownlow, who was the original third term man, has come to the conclusion that two terms is more than enough.

It is believed there exists a sort of alliance between the President and Senator Conkling, a sort of reciprocal tickling arrangement by which Conkling is to favor Grant for a third term. In event of doubtful prospects of success the latter is to throw the whole influence of government in favor of Conkling. This little arrangement will hardly succeed, however, even in theory, as there are able politicians than Conkling in the Radical party who have had too much experience in these matters to let the Senator from New York assume control of the nominations. The fall elections will doubtless put a new phase on all political hopes and prospects. The granger element is sure of large representation, while this currency question will split up old affiliations to such an extent that the Republican majority may be entirely overcome.

The Senate finance committee are now considering Maynard's currency and free banking bill (so called) as it passed the House. Treasurer Spinner is of the opinion that the operation of the bill in its present shape would probably tend to contraction in the beginning, but would eventually result in expansion, but not very much of either. In order to render the bill acceptable to the President the committee propose an amendment providing for resumption of specie payments within four or five years. There is much diversity of opinion as to what proportion of legal tenders should be retired as new currency issued. Majority seem to think that about fifty per cent. would be the proper amount.

It is the opinion of many Senators that no finance bill can be perfected and passed this session unless adjournment is postponed until August; even then the fall elections close at hand would prevent action on a matter upon which the country in general would like submitted to the people at the polls or made an issue in both of the great political parties. The inflationists are not yet prepared to accept a compromise empty in objects after which they have sought and struggled for, while the redemptionists are determined to hold the advantage already gained. A protracted session of Congress and an unsettled financial question are looked upon as very discouraging by many of the old Republicans. They say it will weaken the party more than can now be realized.

In Australia as in California, gold mines are being discovered almost as rich as those which tempted the pioneers a quarter of a century ago.

W. W. Mills, Republican, 350. Stewart Ellison, 347. Chas. N. Hunter, 304. D. W. Royster, Democrat, 310. N. Y. Denton, 277. Alfred Upchurch, 258. Miller, Ellison and Royster elected.

W. C. Stronach, Democrat, 168. J. C. R. Little, 181. Jno. C. Palmer, 184. H. T. Clawson, Republican, 173. Virgil Hicks, 174. J. N. Busting, 38. Stronach, Little and Palmer elected.

John C. Gorman, Republican, 406. J. R. O'Neil, 385. James B. Jones, 375. T. H. Briggs, Democrat, 296. The conservatives it will be seen from the above have four of the nine Commissioners, a clear gain; last year we had not a single one.

The Prohibition question was carried by 102 majority. Stronach to say the negroes voted for it very strong. On account of the failure of the County Commissioners to open the books of registration as required by law, the License men claim that the election is illegal, and by this omission they lost at least 300 votes while on the other hand the Prohibitionists also say that they were deprived of many votes. The Liquor men assert that they will carry the question to the Supreme Court, and the end is not yet.

Especially noisy about putting his house in mourning, without his permission, and went home after taking it off, denouncing "de Political movement of de demerence folks." He has his license and don't seem to care much, as he is in favor of wine, exclusively, if they shut him up.

The result only shows that if the whites will register and vote as they should, Raleigh can be thoroughly redeemed. The question is, will they do it next time? We hope so.

TOWN ELECTIONS ELSEWHERE. - Hillsboro elects A. C. Murdock, Mayor over James Parks. Murdock's majority fifteen. Murdock, an independent, no party candidate, Parks, Conservative and Prohibition. H. N. Brown, Republican, elected Commissioner, all others of the Board Conservative.

In Goldsboro, the Conservatives elected their Mayor and three of the six Commissioners. In Fayetteville, Mr. Frizell, Conservative, was elected by one vote defeating Benj. J. Robinson, Radical. The Conservatives elected three and the Radicals elected four of the Commissioners. The Prohibition question we learn defeated the other portion of the Conservative ticket.

In Cross Creek License carried by 481 majority. Salisbury defeated Prohibition. Cary, Durham, High Point and Thomasville went for Prohibition. J. R. Page, Esq., was elected Mayor of Cary.

A WORD TO SALOON-DEALERS AND TEMPERANCE MEN. - As the Prohibition ticket was successful yesterday, there is propriety in a few words of assurance and counsel to you. Assuming that the Prohibition act will stand, those who have been engaged in the retail traffic are respectfully and kindly requested to consider the motives which prompted the action of all true and worthy prohibitionists. They were not moved by prejudice or dislike towards the liquor men, personally considered. It was unpleasant to disturb and oppose them as individuals, and all that was done was dictated simply by human feelings towards those who were injured and endangered by the traffic. It was desired to make a way for the clever men engaged in the business, to enter a more respectable and a less injurious calling, as well as to prevent the harm that liquor does to those who drink it, and to all who are affected by their drinking. Let not the saloon-keepers be resentful then, but consider the matter fairly and acquiesce in the voice of the majority.

Let the temperance men who have directly effected this election, be true to their principles. They do not desire or seek to injure any, if they are true and worthy. Hence they should not indulge in provoking haunts and jeers. They are now called upon to show genuine excellency of character by extending liberal kindness to those whose business they have injured, and use all legitimate means to aid those who quit the traffic in finding and starting other kinds of business that will enable them to prosper and be useful.

THE SPLIT BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FRIENDS - CONKLING, GRANT AND THE PRESIDENTIAL STOCKING - NEW CURRENT PROJECT.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Equivoc.) WASHINGTON, May 1. The President's veto having been sustained in the Senate, and the supporters of the bill having voted as solidly as upon its passage originally, the financial outlook is now more obscure than ever. There has been no boisterous demonstration as yet against the Executive interference, but the steadfast maintenance of opinions and

PROPOSALS FOR DIMENSION STONE for the United States Court House and Post Office, Raleigh, N. C. OFFICE OF SUPERINTENDENT, U. S. COURT HOUSE & POST OFFICE, RALEIGH, N. C. April 6, 1874. Sealed proposals will be received at this office until 12m., on the 6th day of May, 1874, for furnishing and delivering at the site of the United States Court House and Post Office at Raleigh, North Carolina, all of the dimension stone required for the exterior of that building. The species of stone from which a selection will be made will be confined to Granite, Marble and Sand Stone, and the quality especially looked upon will be uniformity of color and texture, durability, and the capacity for working under the chisel or hammer. A sample block twelve inches must be submitted with each bid, showing one face the natural fracture of the stone, and on the other different grades of cutting. The stone must have a good grain and be free from all discolored substances, and the quarry from which it is procured must be fully opened and capable of furnishing the quality and quantity desired within one year. About 30,000 cubic feet more or less will be required. The actual average of the stone can not now be given, but will approximate 10 cubic feet, the largest stone containing about 75 cubic feet. The stone will be ordered on a schedule of set sizes and delivered in one inch to each cut face with a margin made by quarry dimensions, according to the rules made by this Department in order that the contractor may make proper allowance for cutting in the quarrying, and on this schedule payments will be made. Bidders will state how soon they can commence delivering the stone, and will approximate the average and maximum size of the stones that can be obtained from their quarry. No bids will be received except from the owners or lessees of the quarry from which the stone is proposed to be furnished, and a certificate from the Recorder of the county in which the quarry is situated that the bidder is the owner or lessee of the quarry must accompany each bid. All proposals must be made on printed forms to be obtained on application to the office, must be accompanied by a personal bond in the sum of five thousand dollars ($5,000) that the contractor will comply with the terms of the contract, and will accept and perform the contract if awarded him, and give bond for the faithful performance of the contract; the latter to take effect upon the failure of the contractor to comply with the terms of the contract, and take leave to authorize the Government to take full possession of the quarry and work it at the expense of the contractor in case of default. The Department reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to divide the contract and use two or more kinds of stone. NEW GOODS FOR 1874. BALD AND STONE Mountain Exploded, BUT WARRIE HALL AND TEMPLE OF FANCY STILL ALIVE. A. CREBCH. In there with his corps of police and experienced salesmen offering to the trade and consumers of DRY GOODS an UNUSUALLY ATTRACTIVE Stock of Spring and Summer Goods, recently purchased in New York, and many of them bought at FAVORITE PRICES. My stock of Dress Goods, Linen Handkerchiefs, Gloves, Parasols, &c., &c. I take pleasure in saying is LARGE and well ASSORTED, and embraces everything that is new and desirable in the DRY GOODS line from low priced goods to fine fabrics. Ladies in want of Dress Goods will find it to their interest to call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere, as they are new and will be sold at FAVORITE PRICES. My stock of PIECE GOODS consisting of CAMBRIC, TWEED LINEN GOODS and COTTONADES, was never more complete, many of them being cheap or even cheaper than before the war. My stock of Shoes and Hats for Ladies, Gents' and Misses is large and well assorted, and persons wanting goods, wares or merchandise, should always examine my stock before buying, as I intend to make it to their interest to buy of me. I believe in the motto, "LIVE AND LET LIVE." Respectfully ask COUNTRY MERCHANTS to examine my stock, as I will offer them special inducements, and think I can save them money. ap 9-15-17 A. CREBCH.
